The Editors Corner

Welcome to the month of June 2024, a very happy Africa day to all Africans and those who are Africans at heart. Africa is the most beautiful continent in the world with the most beautiful people. But there is a narrative of a lie that has demonised Africa. This narrative is as old as BC. The pictures that depict the first man on earth Adam and Eve as Caucasian white people (these are people described by google as a racial classification of people of European ancestry).

These are the people who think currently run the world. But is it this true that Adam and Eve were white skinned? They could have been black which is brown like us since they were made from the soil that is brown. Definitely not white but other colours that are now racially discriminated on and been long oppressed by the Caucasian white man. Africa let us take comfort in that Adam and Eve may have been black like us. We humans were created in the image of God, so spiritually we are all one.

Africa remains blessed to date, with minerals and other natural resources, no matter how they have tried to exploit the resources, Africa still leads in natural resources and they are discovered daily. There is song sung by Nigerians that goes;

"When Jesus came, he landed in Israel, and when there was trouble, he came to Africa, so lets praise him the African way"

Africa is by far the number one continent where there are people who pray. Its only in Africa where you get into a bus and the driver says lets us all bow our heads and pray for travel journey mercies and everyone abides. A message from heaven for Africa today is "Keep up the Good work."

The best weather in the world is in Africa. There is nothing like the African sunshine. Especially now in winter you can bask in it and feel as if you are in heaven. There is song by PJ Powers that I love so much;

"...All we need is here in Africa.."

"… I love you Africa, I love you Africa.."

I the Editor of Success Talk with Noma Magazine, loves Africa. It's the most beautiful, blessed continent in the whole wide world.

Happy Africa Day!

Happy new month of June 2024.

God blessed us all Africans and Africans at heart.

Mathew 6 vs 33 Seek ye First the Kingdom by Nomalanga Ncube

This has been our theme scripture from the day we started this magazine in September 2022. What is the kingdom? is it the kingdom of the world to come or the world we live in right now? When Jesus walked on earth he often referred to the world to come. Which world was he referring to? When he walked on earth he was walking in the Old Testament, that is before Calvary, before his resurrection. Should we say then that the world to come he was referring to is the world after his death and resurrection? After he had saved the world? Allow me to make some controversial suggestions, that Jesus was referring to this world we live in now, because when he rose he ushered a new world order of us who came into it which has different rules from that of those who lived before his death.

The New Testament begins on the resurrection day. We are now waiting for the second coming of the Lord. At the same time Apostle Paul says that the secret to life is that ..Christ lives inside of us, he further says, ..I travail until Christ is fully formed in each and every one of you.. He also says that the spirit that raised Jesus from the dead is the same spirit that is inside of all of us, the one that quickeneth our mortal bodies, the one that gives life to our mortal bodies.

So when we seek the kingdom, are we seeking that the above becoming true in our lives, living like people who have the Christ/Jesus/ Lord inside of us. So what does it mean to have ..the Christ.. inside of us. And what does it mean to have the...Holy Spirit quickening our mortal bodies... What does it mean to live after the King of Kings has won for us, has saved us? It is written that he descended and ascended and held captivity captive. He took away the keys of the Hades (defined as the underground of the dead in Greek mythology) from the devil. Jesus is our risen, victorious King. Of course Jesus did not go into a one of one battle with the devil, because he is God, so what was really happening in Calvary? because the devil being a creation of God cannot be fighting with God, in as much as a flower that I planted cannot be fighting me, I can just uproot it anytime that I desire to, if it becomes an irritating nuisance, and when the flower sees me coming it knows that there is nothing it can do to me it cannot fight me, we are no match. So there is no such thing as a God vs Satan fight. So the story of redemption was a simple matter of rescuing the human soul from hell where it had gone because of sin and the law. That is why it is written that some saints of old were seen on the streets after the resurrection. When Jesus met Mary Magdalene he said ".....do not hold on to me for I have not yet ascended to the father.... John 20:17 Jesus had to go back to heaven to hand in the human soul back to his father to complete the Calvary mission. The human soul could only be redeemed by a human who had not sinned. Because Jesus died without sinning, the grave could not hold him. So the end game is that the Kingdom is inside of us now we just need to learn to live like kings and not losers.

About our Cover Picture

This is a painting that was done at WG Guest Villas by a very talented young man, Mr. Selusweyinkosi Ngulube an artist hailing from Nketa Bulawayo. We managed to catch up with him and he shared his story;

"I started in 2017 doing art at home for the community locally, doing school charts for people. Then there was this teacher at Nkulumane High who said why don't you go to school of art and try to smoothen your art since you are good in what you are doing. I then looked for school fees money, by then I was doing carpentry. I registered at the school of art doing art and design and it came a time when city council was looking for a Muriel painter and I applied and got the gig. The issue now was the background and I needed to do painting. I had to learn how to do wall painting then and paint the whole wall to get a nice and finer looking product, once the product was done people where happy with the background, it was four colours it was a geometric wall painting. At the moment I do canvas painting, art and wall painting, pen art, roof painting and cutting and designing. You may contact me on 0782313646."

The painting was done on our one of our corridor walls at WG Guest Villas and it has the transformed it into a beautiful waiting area. He will soon draw a leopard for us.

Mind Corner

Manifesting your Dream Life by Nomalanga Ncube

A lot of people desire a better life and we are told that hard work leads to a better life. This is very very true. Hard work on anything leads to an increase in that particular area. Where energy goes is where increase goes. This is true for either good or bad things. What remains is that we are powerful energy centres and what we concentrate our energies on will surely receive increase.

So its time to examine where you have been directing your enormous energy. And where ever that area is of your life it has increased.

Let me give some practical examples, when I was in high school I got an A in English Literature after I had crammed Macbeth. Ordinary levels is simple cramming and then downloading during the exam, even today I can tell you several scenes from Macbeth that are still stuck in my mind

"When shall we three meet again, in thunder lightning or in rain...there to meet with Macbeth…" For me to get that A, I put a lot of energy into studying, I did not sleep much, I gathered with my friends to cram, me and Chipo passed with As while our other friends did not really want to stay in the afternoon and cram study, they got Us. My energy delivered the goods.

When I was at university as at NUST doing MBA I had nothing better to do but study, because I had no family pressures no work pressures so all my energy was devoted to studying I passed my MBA with flying colours. To illustrate that energy speaks, I failed my dissertation in the final year, and because energy had a voice I was supposed to resubmit in 3 months time, but because I had such a strong desire to graduate with my peers, the rules were bended at NUST and we were asked to resubmit the projects in 5 days. When I looked at the task ahead and the days I realised that it was an insurmountable task then I decided to pray with so much energy, I would not sleep working on the project and at 5am I would go out for jogging and praying, those jogs were a warfare the demons were telling me I could not do it, I was so afraid and they would say if you have fear then you have no faith and without faith it is impossible to please God, and I would answer back and say yes I am afraid but his grace is sufficient for me.

On day four I had not gone far with the project, I was fatigued I couldn't think or let alone write a line. When my supervisor lecturer called and told me to bring my project, I said sir I am not done he said as long as the cover is neat just bring it. I drove to NUST in my Toyota Marino, I handed in my project at 12 noon, at 1230 the secretary called me to come and pay for my graduation fees, I did not ask many questions because all my energy centres were concentrated towards graduating. I graduated in 2011 and RG Mugabe capped me.

So its that easy then to manifest your dream life as long as you concentrate all your energies on one specific thing you will get it. Try it today with something specific.

Even your bad life right now there are some energy centres inside of you that created it. Turn them off now and turn on for a good life. You can do it, as evidenced by the bad shit you have manifested right now after concentrating your energies on it.

Girls Night Out by Nomalanga Ncube

After ZITF I had worked very hard and I had wanted to go on Holiday abroad, but I soon blew the money and also realised my passport had expired. So the only thing I could do was to do some domestic tourism.

First I went out with some girls my age, we had a great time at Roasters. I ordered a lovely Wrap that came with a salad it was stuffed with Haloumi my favourite, (Vegan me going rogue eating cow cheese) as long as its not the actual cow, I let it go once in a while.

Haloumi Cheese Wrap served with Chips and Salad from Roasters Restaurant at Zonkiziwe its 10usd

Then I went to Ginge's

I love Ginge's they have the best Vegetable Lasagne (6.50usd), with cow cheese again. I loved the décor at Ginge's. They use old kitchen items to decorate and its so beautiful. See the pictures below;

Barbara’s Business Shower

On this day in May 2024 I attended Barbara’s Business Shower. She chose to host it at Bulawayo Club on Fort & 8th. It’s a beautiful place with super white history. I loved the place it inspired me to decorate my WG Guest Villas in a black history way. I am a copy and paste person, so they had potraits of Queen Elizabeth and I thought potraits of Joshua Nkomo, King Mzilikazi or Lobengula. They had blazers of the early schools, I thought imsisi, izikhumba. When you copy and paste you just make sure to make it you somehow.

There are some pictures of Bulawayo Club décor;

Barbara is a lovely down to earth woman with a very good heart. Me and she belong to a ladies club together. In the club we give each other 150usd we are 12 so each lady gets 150 x 11 to boost their business. Barbara promised to buy some goats with her funds. Some other club members who have received their monies did great big things with their funds. The best thing in ladies clubs is to invest the money in an income generating venture so that you do not struggle to make your repayments. I was the first in the club back in November 2023 and I renovated a storeroom and turned it into a 5th room in the WG Guest Villas, then I thought it was nice then I subdived a garage into two rooms, I now have 7 rooms at WG Guest Villas. Its growing thanks to initial investment of the ladies club.

There are some pictures of Barbara's Business Shower;

Some Motivation from Barbara;

Five things to do everyday to change your life
1.Pray and meditate
2.Read -Keep educating yourself -Learn to work harder on yourself ,than on your job. If you work hard on your job ,you will earn a living but if you work harder on yourself you will earn a fortune . Remember POOR also means
(P)assing
(O)ver
(O)pportunities
(R)epeatedly
3.Listen to motivational audios in the morning while dressing up /while driving to work /even in public transport
4.Have a journal and take time to write down and review your goals daily. Be specific and present in your goals. Put pictures to make your vision real (use a vision board)
5.Exercise. Do something daily such as skipping, running or walking

LETS MEET AT TOP

Health Corner

"Take care of the body that works the money" is our motto at Success Talk with Noma. "Take care of your body for the first 50 years and it will take care of your for the last 50 years." Healthy living is one of our thematic areas at Success Talk with Noma where we talk, Spirit, Body, Mind, Networks, Money & Business.

Today we shall re-look at one of the Principles of Health NEWSTART (Exercise, Water, Sunshine, Temperance, Air, Rest & Trust in God). The N;

Nutrition, from the lens of a person we know that is diligent in the area of Nutrition, Professor Veith, of Amazing Discoveries. He only eats the original Garden of Eden diet. Below is a review from ChatGBT. We love this new world order, of AI when writers are late with articles we just turn to ChatGBT.

A Review of Walter Veith's "Diet and Health"

Walter Veith's Book "Diet and Health" serves as a comprehensive guide to understanding the intricate relationship between what we eat and our overall well-being. Drawing from a vast array of scientific research, historical evidence, and personal insights, Veith weaves a compelling narrative that challenges conventional dietary wisdom and promotes a holistic approach to health.

Key Themes and Insights:

1 Historical Perspective on Diet:

Veith explores how dietary habits have evolved over centuries, emphasizing the shift from natural, plant-based diets to modern, processed foods. He argues that this transition has contributed to the rise of chronic diseases and health issues prevalent.

2. Plant Based Advocacy

Central to Veith's thesis is the promotion of a plant-based diet. He presents robust evidence showing the benefits of consuming whole foods, fruits, vegetables, grains, and legumes. These foods, he asserts, provide essential nutrients, support immune function, and reduce the risk of diseases like cancer, heart disease, and diabetes.

3. Impact of Animal Products:

The book critically examines the consumption of animal products, linking them to various health problems. Veith discusses the implications of meat, dairy, and processed animal products on human health, highlighting the dangers of saturated fats, cholesterol, and potential contaminants.

4. Nutritional Science and Misinformation:

Veith addresses common misconceptions and misinformation in the field of nutrition. He critiques flawed studies and biased industry-funded research that often mislead the public. His call for critical thinking and evidence-based dietary choices is a recurring theme.

5. Lifestyle and Holistic Health:

Beyond diet, Veith emphasizes the importance of a holistic lifestyle. He advocates for regular physical activity, adequate rest, stress management, and a balanced mental and spiritual life as crucial components of optimal health.

6. Preventive Health Measures:

The book underscores the role of diet in disease prevention. Veith provides practical advice on how to incorporate healthy eating habits into daily life, making a strong case for prevention as the best cure.

Conclusion:

"Diet and Health" by Walter Veith is a thought-provoking read that encourages readers to re-evaluate their dietary choices and lifestyle habits. By advocating for a return to natural, plant-based foods and a holistic approach to health, Veith offers a roadmap to achieving long-term wellness. This book is a valuable resource for anyone seeking to understand the profound impact of diet on health and is sure to inspire positive changes for a healthier future.

Title: Walter Veith's Transformative Journey to Health

Walter Veith, a renowned scientist and nutrition expert, is celebrated not only for his extensive research and lectures on health and diet but also for his personal transformation. His journey from poor health to vibrant well-being underscores the profound impact of dietary choices and lifestyle changes.

A Scientist's Awakening:

Walter Veith's journey to health began in the early stages of his career as a zoologist and professor. Despite his academic success, Veith found himself grappling with several health issues, including chronic fatigue, digestive problems, and other ailments. His conventional dietary habits, which included a typical Western diet rich in animal products and processed foods, were failing him.

The Turning Point:

The turning point in Veith's life came when he encountered research linking diet to health. Driven by curiosity and a desire for better health, he delved deep into nutritional science. He began experimenting with dietary changes, starting with the elimination of processed foods and a reduction in animal product consumption.

Embracing a Plant-Based Diet:

Veith's research led him to the benefits of a plant-based diet. He transitioned to a diet rich in fruits, vegetables, whole grains, nuts, and legumes. This significant change in his eating habits brought about remarkable improvements in his health. Chronic fatigue and digestive issues diminished, and he experienced increased energy levels and overall well-being.

Sharing the Knowledge:

Inspired by his personal transformation, Veith became an advocate for plant-based nutrition. He integrated his scientific expertise with his newfound health insights, creating a powerful message that resonated with many. Veith began lecturing and writing extensively on the topic, sharing his journey and the evidence supporting plant-based diets.

Authorship and Advocacy:

In his book "Diet and Health," Veith not only presents scientific evidence but also shares his personal story, offering a compelling testimony to the benefits of dietary change. His journey serves as a beacon of hope for those struggling with health issues, demonstrating that it is never too late to make positive changes.

A Holistic Approach:

Veith's transformation wasn't limited to diet alone. He embraced a holistic approach to health, incorporating regular exercise, stress management, and spiritual well-being into his lifestyle. This comprehensive approach contributed to his sustained health improvements and reinforced his belief in the interconnectedness of body, mind, and spirit.

Legacy and Impact:

Walter Veith's journey to health has had a lasting impact on countless individuals worldwide. His work has inspired many to reconsider their dietary habits and take proactive steps towards better health. Through his lectures, books, and personal story, Veith continues to advocate for a lifestyle that prioritizes nutrition and holistic well-being.

Conclusion:

Walter Veith's journey from poor health to vibrant wellness is a testament to the power of diet and lifestyle changes. His story highlights the transformative potential of adopting a plant-based diet and a holistic approach to health. As a scientist, author, and advocate, Veith's personal and professional journey serves as an inspiration, encouraging others to embark on their own path to health and wellness.

Please do follow Veith on his Amazing Discoveries channel on You Tube. He is a Seventh Day Adventist so some of his teachings are conspiracy theories about the Sabbath, just ignore all that and listen carefully when he talks about healthy living, he is the best on the subject of Nutrition.

Book summary: Start With Why by Simon Sinek

Article by Kudzai Ncube

Introduction

This is a book about a naturally occurring pattern, a way of thinking, acting and communicating that gives some leaders the ability to inspire those around them. Although these "natural-born leaders" may have come into the world with a predisposition to inspire, the ability is not reserved for them exclusively. We can all learn this pattern. With a little discipline, any leader or organization can inspire others, both inside and outside their organization, to help advance their ideas and their vision. We can all learn to lead.

However, if we're starting with the wrong questions, if we don't understand the cause, then even the right answers will always steer us wrong . . . eventually. The truth, you see, is always revealed . . . eventually.

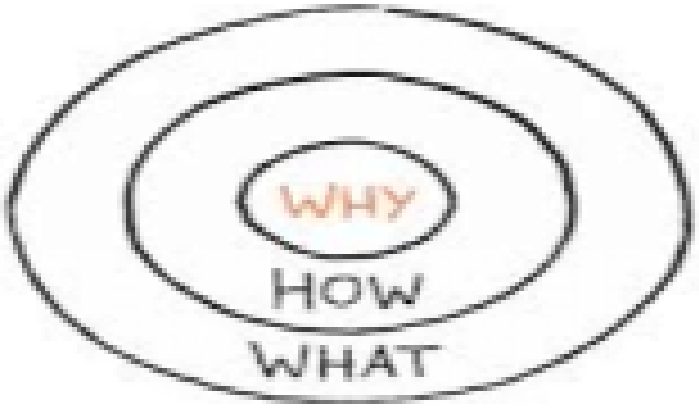
What has made Apple special is that they've been able to repeat the pattern over and over and over. Unlike any of their competitors, Apple has successfully challenged conventional thinking within the computer industry, the small electronics industry, the music industry, the mobile phone industry and the broader entertainment industry. And the reason is simple. Apple inspires. Apple starts with Why.

Almost every person or organization needs to motivate other people to act for some reason or another. Some want to motivate a purchase decision. Still others are keen to motivate the people around them to work harder or smarter or just follow the rules. The ability to motivate people is not, in itself, difficult. It is usually tied to some external factor. Tempting incentives or the threat of punishment will often elicit the behavior we desire. General Motors, for example, so successfully motivated people to buy their products that they sold more cars than any other automaker in the world for over seventy-seven years. Though they were leaders in their industry, they did not lead.

Great leaders, in contrast, are able to inspire people to act. Those who are able to inspire give people a sense of purpose or belonging that has little to do with any external incentive. Those who truly lead are able to create a following of people who act not because they were swayed, but because they were inspired. For those who are inspired, the motivation to act is deeply personal. They are less likely to be swayed by incentives. Those who are inspired are willing to pay a premium or endure inconvenience, even personal suffering. Those who are able to inspire will create a following of people—supporters, voters, customers, workers—who act for the good of the whole not because they have to, but because they want to.

This book explains a pattern of thinking and communicating that enables Apple and other leading organizations to be multi-billion dollar companies. This book is not designed to tell you what to do or how to do it. Its goal is not to give you a course of action. Its goal is to offer you the cause of action

The Golden Circle



It all starts from the inside out. It all starts with Why.

Before we can explore its applications, let us first define the terms, starting from the outside of the circle and moving inward.

WHAT

Every single company and organization on the planet knows WHAT they do. This is true no matter how big or small, no matter what industry. Everyone is easily able to describe the products or services a company sells or the job function they have within that system. WHATs are easy to identify.

HOW

Some companies and people know HOW they do WHAT they do. Whether you call them a "differentiating value proposition," "proprietary process" or "unique selling proposition," HOWs are often given to explain how something is different or better. Not as obvious as WHATs, many think these are the differentiating or motivating factors in a decision. It would be false to assume that's all that is required. There is one missing detail.

WHY

Very few people or companies can clearly articulate WHY they do WHAT they do. When I say WHY, I don't mean to make money—that's a result. By WHY I mean what is your purpose, cause or belief? WHY does your company exist? WHY do you get out of bed every morning? And WHY should anyone care?When most organizations or people think, act or communicate they do so from the outside in, from WHAT to WHY. And for good reason—they go clearest thing to the fuzziest thing. We say WHAT we do, we sometimes say HOW we do it, but we rarely say WHY we do WHAT we do. But not the inspired companies. Not the inspired leaders. Every single one of them, regardless of their size or their industry, thinks, acts and communicates

Knowing your WHY is not the only way to be successful, but it is the only way to maintain a lasting success and have a greater blend of innovation and flexibility when doing so. This is the value of The Golden Circle; it provides a way to communicate consistent with how individuals receive information. For this reason an organization must be clear about its purpose, cause or belief and make sure that everything they say and do is consistent with and authentic to that belief.

USING THE GOLDEN CIRCLE

After you have clarity of WHY, are disciplined and accountable to your own values and guiding principles, and are consistent in all you say and do, the final step is to keep it all in the right order. The WHATs are important—they provide the tangible proof of the WHY—but WHY must come first. The WHY provides the context for everything else. As you will see over and over in all the cases and examples in the book, whether in leadership, decision-making or communication, starting with WHY has a profound and long-lasting impact on the result. Starting with WHY is what inspires people to act.

In conclusion

People don't buy WHAT you do, they buy WHY you do it. So always start with Why.

Title: Elevating Decision-Making to New Heights

WELCOME! to Elevate Insights

Introduction
Author: Coach Wyne - Success and Life Philosophy Coach

In the realm of personal development and coaching, the impact of effective time management on decision-making is a topic of great significance. As a success and life philosophy coach, I have witnessed firsthand the transformative power of mastering time management in enhancing the ability to make sound decisions. It's not merely about completing tasks; it's about creating the mental space for strategic thinking and clarity, ultimately leading to improved decision-making capabilities. In this article, we will explore the profound connection between effective time management and decision-making, and provide actionable strategies to harness this potent combination for personal and professional growth.

This exploration is grounded in real-world experiences and observations, aiming to provide practical insights that can be applied to elevate decision-making prowess through the effective management of time.

Highlights and Overview:

Effective time management is more than just a passing trend; it's a life-altering approach. By mastering the art of allocating time to tasks, we create the breathing room for clarity, focus, and strategic thinking. This, in turn, paves the way for enhanced decision-making. Throughout this article, I'll explore the significance of this relationship and provide actionable strategies to elevate your decision-making prowess through effective time management.

Quotes and Keywords:
"The key is not to prioritize what's on your schedule, but to schedule your priorities." - Stephen Covey

Definitions of Key Words:
Time Management: Time management refers to the process of planning and exercising conscious control over the amount of time spent on specific activities, especially to increase effectiveness, efficiency, and productivity.

Decision-Making: Decision-making is the process of selecting a logical choice from the available options. It involves identifying the decision to be made, gathering information, analyzing the alternatives, and making a choice.

Prioritization: Prioritization is the act of organizing tasks or goals in order of importance or urgency. It involves allocating resources, such as time, to focus on the most crucial activities.

Strategic Thinking: Strategic thinking is the ability to think ahead and plan long-term goals. It involves anticipating future developments and considering the impact of decisions on those goals.

Clarity: Clarity is the quality of being easily understood and free from ambiguity. In the context of decision-making, it involves having a clear understanding of the situation and potential outcomes.

These definitions provide a foundational understanding of the key concepts discussed in the article.

The Importance of Improved Decision-Making due to Effective Time Management:

Effective decision-making is the bedrock of success in every facet of life. Whether it's in our personal relationships, careers, or daily tasks, the caliber of our decisions shapes our outcomes. When we manage our time effectively, we create the mental space to weigh our options, consider consequences, and make informed choices. Freed from the weight of time-related stress, we can approach decisions with clarity and confidence.

How One Can Enhance Their Decision-Making:

1. Prioritization: By managing your time effectively, you can prioritize tasks and decisions based on their genuine importance and impact.

2. Mindfulness: Allocating time for reflection and mindfulness allows for a deeper understanding of the factors at play in decision-making.

3. Strategic Planning: Effective time management empowers you to plan strategically, considering long-term goals and the impact of decisions on those goals.

4. Learning from Mistakes: Time management provides the opportunity to reflect on past decisions and learn from any missteps, leading to improved decision-making in the future.

Benefits:

- Increased Productivity: When decisions are made with clarity and purpose, productivity naturally flourishes.
- Reduced Stress: Effective time management eradicates the stress of rushed decisions, leading to a more composed and focused mindset.
- Improved Relationships: Enhanced decision-making can positively impact personal and professional relationships, fostering trust and respect from others.
- Empowerment: Making well-informed decisions empowers individuals to take control of their lives and shape their future.

Conclusion

In the realm of personal and professional development, the synergy between effective time management and enhanced decision-making emerges as a powerful catalyst for success. By embracing the principles of prioritization, goal setting, and mental well-being, individuals can harness the transformative potential of time management to bolster their capacity for making informed and impactful decisions.

As we embrace the interconnected nature of these fundamental skills, it becomes clear that the mastery of time management not only fosters productivity but also nurtures the fertile ground from which sound decisions can flourish. This symbiotic relationship underscores the importance of integrating these practices into daily routines, paving the way for individuals to navigate challenges with clarity, purpose, and resilience.

In realizing the profound connection between time management and decision-making, individuals are empowered to cultivate a holistic approach to personal and professional growth. This journey of continuous improvement lays the groundwork for individuals to not only meet their objectives but to surpass them, armed with the invaluable tools of effective time management and astute decision-making.

Beautiful Places in Bulawayo

At WG Guest Villas and WG Home and Success Talk with Noma TV we love to visit beautiful places for inspiration. This month we landed at two beautiful places, Sethule Lodge in Hillside and Sunset View Lodge in Burnside. These places are situated at some of the most expensive squares of Bulawayo. Their rooms start from =/-100usd. We loved the places and were super inspired.

WG Guest Villas Hosts Shadudu

Shadudu is Social Media Content Creator, a Comedian with 12k followers on TikTok and 1.9k followers on Facebook. Shadudu had booked for his stay in Bulawayo at WG Guest Villas and Edith, the Housekeeping Manager is a great fan of him. Success Talk With Noma managed to sit down with Shadudu.

Question: Shadudu welcome to Success Talk With Noma

Answer: Thank you for having me

Question: Tell us a little bit about your self

Answer: My name is Shadudu a socialite, comedian, fun guy, ever smiling , I don't have time to shout at people.

Question: So you call your self a comedian

Answer: Yes m a socialite comedian.

Question: So when did you start your career as as a comedian

Answer: I started it 3 years ago just for fun yes especially if I have extra time, especially at night.

Question: so how did your account grow to 12k followers.

Answer: Just consistency , because sometimes I will be on the streets hustling in Shona we say kungwavangwava but for those who serious in comedy now they have a huge following than me, I started 3 years ago but even those who started a year ago have a huge following than me.

Question: so where you always a funny person growing up or it started when you were grown

Answer: it just started when we finishing our o-level and it grew.

Question: So what advise do you have to young people who want to grow their social media accounts.

Answer: Just be serious and consistent and love what you are doing. Never entertain negative comments, just focus and don't answer back to people who reply irrelevant comments. Some people comment negative comments for fun

Question: When people comment negative comments what do you do

Answer: for me I just laugh because I know that people we are very different and when we are having more people we must also expect different characters and reaction because some might be having stresses that causes them to react in that negative way. So I would say that is the cure I gave to that person, remember people react differently to medicine.

Question: so tell about your stay at WG Guest Villas

Answer: you have got good service, a nice team and even have Wi-Fi, I was very excited that you have such a good place

Question: Yes Wi-Fi is a content creators best friend kkk. How did you find out about WG Guest Villa

Answer: I got your numbers from someone.

Question: where do you see yourself in 5 years time

Answer: I will be someone who is well known in Africa and I have something I want to introduce to people under the Shadudu brand, something unique

Question: We cant wait!!! So what are your last words to the people of Bulawayo

Answer: To the people of Bulawayo I want to relocate to Bulawayo because Bulawayo is a very clean city, the roads are nice and people don't just throw litter everywhere. To other cities learn from them.

Success Talk with Shadudu at WG Guest Villas

We loved hosting Shadudu at WG Guest Villas, yes our dream is to host royalty and so exited to be hosting a Social Media king in the form of Shadudu, very humble guy and very cooperative he was there on business so he did not mind his pictures taken.

Hollywood or Modern Day Sodoma and Gomora; The Fall of P Diddy

I have been following the story of Sean Combs aka P Diddy. He is on the verge of a fall into a jail cell for a long time judging by the precedent set when they sentenced R Kelly to 20 years for sexual related offences. Diddy himself is faced with the same and there is murder allegations on top. I think those that love and follow him may have accepted the painful truth that he is going down. Diddy seemed to have been living a very sodoma and gomoric life of wild sex parties with mostly other man. He is alleged to have been abusing many young boys in Hollywood.

The wages of sin is death, is the summary of P Diddy's next chapter of his life inevitably behind bars. The Bible says that the enemy cometh not but to kill, steal and to destroy, but I come so that you may have life and have it in more abundance. Right now Diddy is at a point when the devil his suspected former boss is laughing his kill, steal and destroy verse.

Diddy's so called freak off parties are devil inspired and have a strong resemblance to the Biblical Sodoma & Gomora. In these parties according to papers filed by his ex-girlfriend Cassy Ventura, were orgies were people eat, drink, drugs, and be merry and have indiscriminate gay and straight sexual encounters in public with cameras rolling. Cassy herself alleges she was being forced to sleep with male prostitutes while Diddy watched and recorded. Cassy was in an abusive relationship with Diddy for close to a decade, she finally broke free a few years ago, got married and had a child. She in 2023 sued Diddy for 60 million for abuse and Diddy settled the case at the speed of lightning but that was not before the contents of the law suit were made public which included damning allegations of the Hollywood-Sodoma and Gomora life that is practised by many of the celebrities we grew up loving so much like Will Smith, The Fresh Prince of Bel Air, Kevin Hart, Jah Rule, the list is long and endless.

Hollywood being a Sodom and Gomora is facing the same fate as the Biblical Sodoma and Gomora, there are many other high profile people who have fallen because of these unnatural sexual tendencies of child abuse, homosexuality, women abuse. Jeffrey Epstein 1953—2019 (who took his own life in prison), Bill Cosby, etc. Then Hollywood itself as a place on earth is coming to an end, these superstars who lived like gods with no character are going to be destroyed. The way that God is destroying this Hollywood is not the burning with a physical fire way, but a situational and technological one inline with the world evolvement. Today everyone is able to be a movie start or movie star just from their smart phones. There are no longer red tapes, drama school, being discovered. The whole complicated way that made but a few be able to experience public stardom. Today boys and girls from even Africa get on their phones and make music and movies and there is a big pool of entertainers. People have run away from the big screen TV and Cinemas to their phones. People now after dinner are watching Tiktok and the stars on Tiktok are just ordinary people doing ordinary things. The God we serve has allowed the cutting of the barriers of entry into super stardom just to put a lid on Hollywood. Today I find myself watching Marvellous Nyongoro, Mihlali Mbali, Khalanga lenkosi, Madam boss instead of a movie that cost 20million to produce. This Social Media stars spend $2 on data and $50 for a smart phone and they are superstars. Say Goodbye to Hollywood……

Ashanti and Nelly Expecting their 1st child together

Meanwhile P Diddy is facing a jail cell, Nelly is living his best life, after going in search of his old thing Ashanti. Nelly walked across the stage in September 2021 to hug Ashanti his old flame from over a decade ago. He pursued her till he caught her and the next time we saw them they were grinding on each other at a concert to their hit song Body of Me. The next thing in mid 2023 they were publicly displaying their affection and in 2024 they publicly announced their engagement and baby arrival.

Yes while the P Diddy's drama had many no longer believing in normal love, God prepared a side show of Ashanti and Nelly, a beautiful real life love story from Hollywood.

Ashanti apparently wrote a Vision letter detailing that she wanted to marry a good man have children a while ago and it is now coming to pass. Today she got her good man who loves her so much and they are expecting their first baby.

Habakkuk 2:2-3 ...Write the vision, and make it plain upon the tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry though it may tarry is it will surely come to pass.

I teach some students at a college in Pelandaba Bulawayo and when I was teaching about Vision the other day, one of the ladies shared that she was a house maid in Pumula until last year when she married a white man from Australia. She said how it happened was that she told her mother in Nkayi that she was going to move to the city and marry a white man. She said her mother laughed, said that's impossible. But she said it is the same mother who reminded her when she told her a white man was coming to vela. She married the white man in 2023, she is now Mrs …. She met him at Bulawayo Centre.

Write the vision down girl!. Thus sayeth the Lord.

Ashanti's Vision

See below in pictures Ashanti's vision of her dream man from her book Foolish/ Unfoolish: Reflections on love written in 2002.

My hopes and dreams for the future regarding love is to have someone who truly loves me.

Not for my music, not for the money, not for the status. Just to have someone who is honestly in love with who I am. Someone who respects me, who appreciates me for me. Someone who doesn't try to change me or mold me into someone else. I want to find someone who is my friend more than anything else, and who is trustworthy. I want to share great chemistry and companionship, and just have the type of relationship where I don't have to change. I want to hate him, and love him, and grow, and mature, and experience life together, and experience each other together. I want to go through good times and bad times with this person. I want to be able to share each shannell4life Yesterday we talked about Ashanti the author and poet, well for throwback Thursday, let's take a look at when manifestation comes to life🙌🏾

Write the vision down and make it plain. The excerpt above is from Ashanti's 2002 book 'Foolish/Unfoolish: Reflections on Love' I think we can agree she got her heart's desires. Our Favs are goal setters and goal checkers. And keep us in our feelings! A 21 year love story...that is still being written
