ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Where do I begin? The last two years have been a total whirlwind. It's honestly hard to believe it's been two full years since I became a published author. Since that was the one thing I wanted to be since I was at school, I never thought I would be able to achieve that at 24. But I owe it all to all of you. Many of you don't know this but if it wasn't for all of the continued support, I probably wouldn't have followed through with actually publishing my book. Putting my writing out there was scary... it still is. Two years ago I took a gamble and posted on Facebook how I was near completion of my very first book [NHERERA NDIMAMBO I would want to publish. Only a few reacted to the post and I thought to myself, "who is even going to read this thing?" I questioned my writing and the idea of publishing it for a while. Then as I dove deeper into my novel, I decided to I would publish the first chapter unedited on FACEBOOK to see what would happen. I don't know what I was expecting - well, I do, I was expecting people to not even read it. So when so many people reached out saying they wanted to read more, I was in a state of disbelief. I just want to thank you all for reading my novels. Thank you to those who read my first chapter and asked for more. You gave me the courage and the belief that I could really do this. Thank you to those who continued to encourage me throughout the entire publishing process Thank you to those who purchased my book via Ecocash, Worldremit e.t.c and helped diminish my fear that I wouldn't sell any. Thank you to those who recommend it to their friends and continue to spread the word. Thank you to everyone who showed up for my very first book signing to show your support. Thank you to everyone who has reviewed my book - there is no greater gift to an author. Thank you to everyone who has taken time out of their day to read it. Pearl Press Media Consultants management and staff, you are one in a million. Thank you very for doing a wonderful job. I do appreciate you for a job well done. You are second to none. Thank you to everyone who has sent me honest and kind words - it means more than you know. And, the most important thank you...THANK YOU to my parents, my brothers, sisters, family, friends, co-workers, and every single one of you who have supported me from day one. You've inspired me to continue to go after my dreams. You've brightened dark days. You helped me to believe that I can do anything I set my mind to and you've helped me achieve what I once thought was impossible. For that and for all of you - I will be forever grateful. Dr P.N
