Prologue

It all started with a deal but ended up wanting much more that he ever imagined

Alicia Moore a beautiful 20 year old school drop out who's greatest joy was causing troubles and having fun with her friends around the streets her body could be described as that of a model

She never knew her trouble making and her sharp mouth will get her into trouble with the town's greatest Mafia

Alexander George fearless and brutal he was wide known and feared by the people even Alicia herself

One fateful day Alicia had gone to the mall to get some stuffs for her mother when she ran into Alexander

Due to the fact that she doesn't have a phone nor a fan of magazines she couldn't recognized him

It was a a brief encounter but Alexander caught a glimpse of her and wanted More of her irresistible beauty

As fate would have it they both meet again few weeks later but it was in a more annoying and funny way

She insulted him to the core not even caring who he might be

She has insulted him before she realized he was Alexander the Mafia

She went to her knees immediately in fear begging for her life because she knew he won't spare her

But surprisingly Alex was just calm and he watched as she performed all her drama

But all he wanted was a night with her and she will vanish into thin air Alicia was shocked A Deal with him??

Yes Alex wanted a night just one night and she will disappear like she never existed because the next time he finds her he'd kill her

That was what Alex thought,

Now the question is

Will Alicia agree to this deal?

What will happen when Alex wanted more??

Why don't you grab your popcorn to find out

It's gonna be a bumpy ride

Episode 2

Alicia

"What in the name of the heavens happened to you" mom screamed immediately she saw me

"Erm....an elephant puked on me?" I lied cause I couldn't say the truth

She's going fry me alive

"What the hell were you looking for" she yelled "You're buying that" I asked shocked at the fact that she believed my lies

"Of course not, you're one hell of a trouble maker so who did you wound this time" she said in a bored tone and I almost rolled my eyes

"I didn't look for troubles they actually did" I try to defend myself

"You mean those two harmless cute looking boys"

"How did you...."

"Hey" I heard and turned to find the two guys inside my house

I growled inwardly as they tell all series of lies to mom who Totally believed them

Where as my body was already scratchy due to the swamp dirt and the fact that I haven't showered

After their laid claims

"You are grounded young lady" mom glared at me and those boys smirked before going out

They should just make sure I don't get to see them again else I'd be forced to kill them

Not as if I could kill if even if I wanted to

"Am a grown up mom you can't ground me" I replied running off to my room

An hour and a half later

I used closed to two hours bathing because the mud entered deep parts of my hair

Most importantly it was dried by the time I bathed making it more worse

By the time I bathe finished it was night already

"Arhh" I exhaled in refresh as I spurled my hair free of dirt's and got claded in some faded jeans and a baggy shirt

I packed my hair in a ponytail and folded it under my cap

Wondering why I am dressing, well mom grounded me yeah but I am sneaking out to my friends house we've got some unfinished business

"Boo" I said and she fell out of her bed in fear

"Thief" she made to shout but I held her mouth

'its just me so would you cool your nerves down" I said quitely

"What the heck are you doing here by this time of the night" she yelled angrily

"I came to see you duh" I shrugged and bounced on her bed

"Ok what for"

"Nothing much, you know those pair of headphones we wanna get I didn't have the money yet" I rushed my words

"Huh yeah"

"I have finally gotten all the money and we could go to the mall tomorrow" I yelled excitedly

"Really" she beamed

'huh huh-huh"

"I'd be at your door tomorrow morning" she said

'no you can't because I am grounded so it's a sneak out issue" I said

"What did you do this time" she said narrowing her eyes at me

"Why does everyone think I am always at fault" I said dramatically

"Because you are you as in Alicia" she said with an eye roll

"Yeah right, good night" I said sliding out of her window

I've got a shopping spree to prepare for

Alicia

I woke up to the sound of my stupid alarm

I guess the appliance find joy in disrupting my beauty sleep

I dragged myself out lazily, walking like a zombie

My hair was in a bad position all scattered to my face, my clothes, they are even worse

I've got a very bad sleeping position and this is what it got me this morning

I walked into my bathroom and brushed my teeth, when I was done I strip naked and jumped into the bathtub

The shower started running as cold shivers trailed my back, I just closed my eyes in bliss enjoying every bit of it

After I was done bathing I came dripping wet and stare at my reflection in the mirror

I looked hot no doubt and if there was a guy in the room am quite sure he'd rape me because I looked too s*xy

I began to dry my body of wetness scheming my escape from the house up stairs

I got claded in my favorite crazy bump short and a sweat shirt, I wore a boot and let down my hair

As if just on cue, mom called and I rushed down almost immediately

She looked at me suspiciously knowing fully well that I don't get ready this early

"I hope you are not planning to sneak out cause I will be watching you" she Said

"Of course mom I will be a good girl and stay at home" I replied digging into my Food

"Ahhh" i moaned out in deliciousness savouring every taste of it

I got back to my room and started playing with my yo-yo buying time till mum left

Thirty minutes later

She had gone and the house was silent

I picked up my side bag and went through my escape route, my window,

Before I jumped off

I arranged the bed to my shape and made it look as if I was sleeping

I place my voice recorder by the side and set it to computed questions and answers

Did I forget to tell you am a computer wiz oh yeah I did but now you know

I set everything up and then jumped out my window

I snaked into Clara's room and made to scare her since she's a late sleeper she won't be up by this time

I walked stealthily to her bed then "boo" I heard and fell down

"What the hell was that for" I yelled

"Says the girl that planed on scaring me" she glared back

"Well I was supposed to scare you not the other way around" I grouse

"Well I scared you so what are you gonna do about it" she smirked

"Whatever, this is new you are all dressed up" I said staring at her outfit

"Never say never" she replied and went to pick her back

"We are taking your scouter" I said

"Noo no" she replied "what happened to yours" she said again

"The last I checked I was grounded duh"

"Okay fine let's go"

"Yay" I shouted happily

Alexander

"Bring the bitch in" I beckon to my guards

I was thinking about that girl again and it was driving my séx buds crazy so I just sent for a slüt to pleasure me

I sat down calmly on my chair as the slüt walked in She was taking slow steps and removing her clothes

She's trying to seduce me, I was already aroused before I called her what's the use

I stood up and went closer to her without thinking I ripped off her clothes causing her to be Stark naked in front of me

"Hmm" i murmured staring at her body

Without caring I slammed her to the bed and caged her because by the time I would be done she would want to run away and I don't want that I unzipped my trousers and brought out my beast

The slüt was slurring and salivating at the sight if only she knew what was in for her

I plugged into her py roughly and she let out a yelp

Spreading her legs wider I began thrusting in a fast pace earning loud moans form her slüthy mouth

All I did was groan as I pictured the girl in my dreams and kept f*king the slüt mercilessly

"Oh fùck no" she moaned out

I was going crazily fast now and she was jerking as she had two organisms in a roll but I didn't stop

I continued smashing her wide hole and she started to beg

I wasn't ready to

I just kept fùcking her till she passed out

I stood up from her and zip up my trousers

"Guards" I called

"Yes sir"

"Call this and toss it wherever" I instructed

I sat at my chair tiredly

I can't wait to find this girl the one who make my séxual desires get it peak

Maybe a night stand with her alone will cure me

Alicia

We sang in harmony as we scoute out of her compound

Just as we go out not the far from her house I spotted my mom ahead of us

"Psst Clara slow down" I whispered hiding behind her back

"What why should I slow down" she argued

For the record she's a great questioner and one stubborn lady

"Look at your front, my mom" I whispered yelled

"Ohh no" she said diverting to the corner nearby

Just then mom turned back

"Phew" I breathed out in relief seeing we escaped her

We waited patiently for her to take the route that leads to her restaurant before coming out

After ten minutes she was completely out of sight

"Didn't you say you waited thirty minutes before sneaking out so how come we meet her on the road" she said

"Really you're asking me that as if you don't know my mom, she might have probably saw a friend and engaged in a discussion" I rolled my eyes

"Yeah right"

"Aren't you supposed to discourage me from all this sneak out stuff" I said

"Really, okay fine let's just...."

"I don't wanna hear it let's go" I cut her off

"Rude" she frowned

We continued our journey to the Mall, with people greetings me

I just hope they won't implicate me with Mom

Finally we arrived at the mall and my eyes popped up

Not that I haven't been here before but it was more developed and decorated

It's been awhile since I came to the mall since Mom won't allow me go out anyhow

My eyes danced round the mall as we walked to the gadgets section

All glittering and beautiful I wished I was dammn rich

We finally bought the headphones and Began skipping away

"Mine is more pretty than yours" Clara said and I scoffed

"You wish" I snorted

Mine was pinkish and hers was lavender purple, the both are absolutely beautiful

Just as we were about to exit the mall, Clara took an excuse to go ease herself while I went yo go wait for her outside

My eyes was busy roaming the outside of the mall wandering from one person to another untill it landed on someone

The most handsome man I have ever seen on planet Earth

He's dark hair, fair skinned, with a mild pink lips, broad shoulders, dimmed eyes and a smouldering figure

"Damn" I muttered cleaning my drool

But my smile was turned to a frown immediately I saw him bullying a passerby

What the hell!! I take back all those compliments

He was making the man clean his shoes with his tongue

One thing I for you to bully someone, the other is for you trample on someone just because you are rich

That attitude disgusts me, so without thinking I matched forward to the scene and dragged the man up and give the rich looking guy a resounding slap

Earning a wide gasp from lots of people, even the person I slapped looked shocked

Soon I saw his bodyguards running forward but with just a wave of hand they all stopped

"Feisty huh, I like that" he smirked rubbing the place
I slapped

I gave him my most deadliest glare

"Why will you disrespect a man as old as your father" I yelled and his eyes darken

"Stay out of this young lady" the man I saved said with fear written over his face

"You clearly don't know who I am and what I am capable of" he said with a proud smile

"I don't give a flying fvcks of who you are okay, you don't bully people just because you are rich and probably can't afford anything on your body" I scoffed

"Alicia" I heard and I turned to see Clara running towards me and panting heavily

"You are done" I said ignoring the rich brat in from of me

"What he'll I look for you all over the....oh my God ally" she yelled as soon as she saw the man in front of me

Shock/ fear written all over her face

"Wait here I have a business to finish" I shut her up

"Now mister apologize to the man here" I said facing the man

"Ally ally ally" Clara called tapping me

"What" I half yelled

"That's Alexander George" she said and I felt my heart ceased

The famous heartless Mafia, God am so dead

"Seems like your friend know me" he said with a satisfied grin

"Oh..... I....am....oh... God....erm..I" I stuttered in fear

"Cat suddenly caught your tongue" he said with a hint of mockery

"I am so sorry I didn't know it was you I apologise for the inconveniences I will take my leave now" I said quickly kneeling and raising and made to go I pulled Clara with me and start walking away just then I heard "guards seize her"

What??

"Clara run" I yelled and we picked race

Clara took another route by the left but I continue running straight

I looked back to see that they were still chasing me

But what I didn't know was someone was already in my front

"Ahhh" I winced hitting a hard chest

I looked up to see Alex looking at me with a mean face

Oh God I am officially dead

He picked me up and flung me across his shoulder

I shouldn't have sneaked out

Alexander

I was sipping my vodka and puffing some smokes when I heard a knock

"Come in" I said.

"Boss he's spotted at a nearby Mall" he said and I nodded

"Get the guys ready we're leaving in ten" I said trying to control my anger

The man stole from me again he has been on the run since then

He never knew I won't give up till I find him

I hopped into my car with my guards trailing behind in another car

Immediately I got down at the mall people scrambled away in fear

Yeah that's how I love it, they should fear and respect me

I moved swiftly with my guards walking behind dressed officially and topped with a hat

I halted when I caught a glimpse of her, just like the first time I was her, she was looking beautiful and elegant

I could only see her from a side view walking alongside her friend into the mall

I wanted to badly go meet her and find out why her face has so much effect on me

But then someone bumped into me stepping on my very expensive shoes

I was about to walk out when I saw that it was the same old man I came to look for "Well well well if it isn't old Molly Marcus" I said with a slight laugh and he shudder in fear

"B..b...b.. boss" he stuttered in fear

"It's so funny how you think you can run away from me" I scoffed my guards already alert waiting for my order

"Lick my shoes" I thundered and he looked at me in shock

"B...b..Bos.."

"Licking my fúckin shoes right this instance" I growl coldly

As he bend to do it "tarrh" I felt a tingling sensation on my face

I was slapped? Everyone around there was shocked to see that happen

I rubbed my face to see the same girl I have been thinking of My guards made to grab her but I stopped them

"Feisty huh, I like that" I smirked rubbing the place she slapped

She glared at me angrily "Why will you disrespect a man as old as your father"

"Stay out of this young lady" the molly said with fear written over his face

"You clearly don't know who I am and what I am capable of" i said with a proud smile

"I don't give a flying fvcks of who you are okay, you don't bully people just because you are rich and probably can't afford anything on your body" she scoffed and I wondered where she got her boldness from

Is it possible she doesn't know who I am

"Alicia" I heard and I turned to see Blondie running towards the place we stood and panting heavily

"You are done" she said ignoring me

Some guts huh?

"What hell I look for you all over the....oh my God ally" her friend yelled at her but as soon as her face met mine she looked shocked

She probably knows me and what I am capable of

"Wait here I have a business to finish" I heard her say and I scoffed

Am the business she's talking about?? She's gat to be kidding me

"Now mister apologize to the man here" she said facing the man and confidently waiting for an answer

"Ally ally ally" her friend called

"What" she half yelled while I just watched their drama with a satisfactory smile

"That's Alexander George" she said and she stood there aghast

I just smirked

"Seems like your friend know me" i said with a satisfied grin

"Oh..... I....am....oh... God....erm..I" she stuttered in fear

"Cat suddenly caught your tongue" i said with a hint of mockery

"I am so sorry I didn't know it was you I apologise for the inconveniences I will take my leave now" she said quickly kneeling and raising and made to go

She pulled her friend with her and started walking away just then i ordered "guards seize her"

"Clara run" she yelled and they picked race

I just smiled at their stupidity

I got into my car and drove few meters in front and as exactly calculated he bumped into me

"Going somewhere" I smirked devilishly and flung her right by my shoulders

"Guards Marcus" I ordered and got into the car with little miss feisty

"Please" she whimpered but I chose to ignore

If only she knows she torture her face does to me every night she won't barge into my business

Immediately I got to my house I asked my guards to take her to one of the spare torture rooms

While I went to go do justice to Marcus

Clara

I kept running breathlessly towards her mom's restaurant, I saw them capture her

Oh God of only I had just pestered her not to go now she's captured

I halted as I got to her door step panting heavily, I was sweating like a bleated goat

Just then the door opened and her mom's face showed up

"I was just about to come over to your house" she said sternly

" Oh erm..errh.m" I stuttered

"Those aren't words, where is Alicia just discovered she sneaked out again" she said with her face hard

"Ump" I gulp

What am I going to tell her now

"Can't you talk where is she, wait did she go out with a guy" she said hysterically

"She has been kidnapped", I said lowly

"What did you say"

"She's been taken by Alexander" I said and I saw her eyes dimmed holding her chest

"My.....my...my child" she said faintly before passing out

Oh no

"Mom! Mom! Mom!" I yelled in panic

Oh Alicia see what your stubborn attitude has caused

Alicia

I almost peed on my pants when those guys threw me in here

It's was obviously a torture room and I don't think I can ever get out of here alive

Oh God of my mother save me, I prayed silently

Just then I heard gunshot and a cry of pain, a voice clearly belonging to the man I tried to save

He's clearly going to kill me

The door flung open and i flinched crashing to the ground

he walked in sweaty but still looking handsome with some blood drops on his top

"How do you want your death" he said coldly sitting on a stool

"Holy Mary" I whimpered silently

After she was lead to the torture room, I entered the one right nextdoor to face Marcus

"Are you ready to to talk" I asked

"Please boss, I didn't mean to steal from you he wanted to kill my family" he begged weeping

"Who sent you?" I asked coldly

"George" he said lowly

I should have known that old man won't give up, I huffed loudly and brought out my gun

I shot him right on the head "pack him up and dump in at the usual" I said walking out

Now to face the little miss feisty

"How do you want your death" I asked coldly grabbing a stool and she whimpered

"Ple...ple... please" she mumbled lowly

I just want scare not that I will actually kill her, something very unusual of me

I just felt the urge not to kill her,

"Insulting me is a huge crime but slapping me?
That's a straight way to hell you Know that" I asked with an amused look

"Please don't kill me I am my mother's only hope, I will do anything but please don't kill me" she wept

"Why shouldn't I kill you? Give me five good reason why I shouldn't kill you" I yelled but tears just kept rolling out of her eyes

"You can't talk right" I asked since she didn't reply

"Guards!" I yelled and two of them came running

"Take her to my personal room upstairs" I said

"Yes boss"

"Please, please, have mercy" she cried out as the guards bundled her up

I cleaned my sweat and rubbed my temples, I hate the fact that her beautiful face won't leave my memories and it's really clouding my judgement

Just as I went out of the room strolling to my living room I saw Becca (my regular slut) walked in her usual skimpy and seductive dress

She flashed me a smile as soon as her eyes landed on mine

A good fuck that's what I need right now

"I know you missed me" she said licking her lips and fondling her breasts as she stared at me

"Let's go up" I said simply walking towards my other room

Immediately she entered I smashed my lips on hers as she tried to remove her clothes and I did the same

In few minutes our clothes were on the floor and we were uncladed

I beckon her to kneel and she knew the next action

She took my harden member in to her mouth and began to suck, throbbing back and forth as she took me in

I groan in pleasure as I grabbed her hair so that she could go further

She gaged continuously but still continued

I felt my orgasms building up so I pulled out and splash the sperm on her face

She went further to lay on the bed and I went in between her legs spreading them wide apart as i I teased the entrance with my tip

She moaned out in pleasure and I thrust in roughly, going face on my pace

As I fùcked her I kept imagining the girl I kept in my

Didn't even bother to know her name

I increased my tempo picturing how sweet it would be having her petite self moaning under me

Becca persistent moan of pleasure has turned to that of pain and Impatience

I ignored her of course fucking her recklessly

Her py walls tighten and she released her juices but I wasn't near cumming

She kept whimpering and shout something I paid less attention to

After another thirty minutes I felt my orgasms building up so I pulled out and spilled it on her body

I stood up disgusted by her appearance "get out" I yelled

She looked at me weakly and hissed, so I called my guards to drag her out

I ruffled my hair wondering why I was imagining her while fucking, I walked into my bathroom and had a quick shower

After I was done I Sat on a chair in room as I smoked my ass out

Tears just flowed out of my eyes as I laid down in the room

After the gunshot I heard hours ago, it was plainly obvious he was going to kill me

If only I hadn't sneaked out,I'd be at home causing troubles for my mom and scarring the hell out of my bestie

More tears gathers as I thought about it, is this how my life was going to end

The door open and I flinched thinking it was Alex but turned out to me a guard

He came to pick a dagger and another thing I don't know it name but I have seen meat butchers use

I cringe in fear and the guard only smirk at me

Ever since the incident I have been staying with Alicia's mom thank goodness she recovered from the shock

Though she hasn't stop crying ever since she woke up

I felt like a bad friend , I wonder her fate over there

I jolted out my thoughts when I heard something crashed

I ran over to the kitchen to see Alicia's mom trying to cook with a smile on her face

That took me off guard because she was all solluen and sad about Alicia's disappearance

"Ma'am" I called softly and she look at me

"Yes my daughter"

"Hope all is well" I asked

"Yes, I feel my daughter is safe and won't die, I have that feeling and that alone is a good thing" she said though I could feel her sadness but she masked it up with a smile and added a little Faith

I believe so too, but i just have to worry

Alicia

I heard faint door sounds and it sounded far far away but after a second it slammed and I jumped up in fear only to discover I had been sleeping

I scratched my eyes to see Alex standing in front of me with a dark look

Once again I felt my heart racing as if been chased

"You even had the guts to sleep it seems you like your present situation" he smirked

"I..erm..err" I stuttered

"So have you come up with the style of death you want" he asked coldly

"Please spare me" I pleaded at the verge of tears

"Why should I spare you, gimme one good damn reason I should" he yelled

"Please" I cried

"Okay fine" he said simply and I felt my heart leap in happiness

"Thank you"

"But! We'd strike a deal" he said and my heart dropped

"A deal.." I find myself muttering it

"Yes a good deal" he grinned

"I will have you for a night, not just that, I will use you to my taste for the whole day and after that you will vanish, vanish from this city because any day I set my eyes on you I will kill you brutally" he said deadly and I heard a loud on my head

"A night and I will vanish??"

"The choice is yours girl it's either i kill you now or you make use of the other option the clock is ticking" he said imitating a tick tock clock

I felt Alex loo at me expectantly awaiting my answers

I can't possibly chose death but the second option to isn't that welcoming as well

"You are wasting my damn time" his cold voice came through

"Erm..I .urh" I stuttered not knowing ehyti say

It's just a night?

"A night with you" I said lowly agd my voice barely came out as a whisper but he heard me anyways

"Good choice" he said and I saw a mischievous smile crept to his face

He pressed something on his phone and then five maids walked in few minutes later

"Yes boss" they said simultaneously with their head bowed with he stare at them with disdain

"Clean her up, make sure she's scrubbed clean' he ordered and stood up going out "And bring her to the other room once you're through" he stopped at the door to say before she finally went out.

After he had gone the maids faced me and without talking to me they began to undress me why I just sat there like a lost puppy

I was lead to the expensive bathtub and I almost screamed in happiness before I realized I was actually abducted not here on my freely will

Since I had no idea of what to do so I just stood there like a statue scanning my eyes round the room before the door cracked open and Alex walked

"I can see you are ready"nhe smirked sitting on the bed

I just stood there motionless and I didn't talk

"What's your name" he asked and that was when I looked up and my eyes ran into his "Answer my damn questions and not stare at me" he pushed and I gulp down nothing

"Alicia" I said lowly

*Oh mm nice name" I heard him mutter

He took of his jacket remaining his singlet which revealed more of his handsomeness

It took a lot for me not to drool at the séxy sight in front of me

I was Still feeling relived he hasn't spoken when I heard "strip"

Authoress POV

"Strip" Alex said and Alicia felt the change in the beat of her heart

"Strip?" She asked herself again to be sure she heard right

"Don't make me repeat myself" Alex said coldly to her and she fondle the tip of her shirt will Alex relaxed to enjoy the view

She slowly let loose each button on her shirt with Alex staring at her

"C'mon be fast" Alex hushed

Suppressing the urge to cry she gently let the top fall off as it remain get singlet and brazier

She removed it slowly as well not breaking the eye contact with Alex

Soon she was left with her pant and her bra ozing in all sexiness which was driving Alex nuts but he still managed to keep a low profile

She unhook her bra revealing her pinky plump moderate breasts bouncing in front of Alex

A lone tear slipped her eye as she did that "Very good move over here" Alex commanded

She obligated since he had made her Know he'd be in control throughout

She walked slowly towards him with her legs jelly as she moved trembling

He dragged her over his laps with her waist upwards lying on the bed and her lower abdomen over his lap below

He rubbed his hands on her soft butt cheek giving it a spank Alicia let out a painful moan

He rubbed her butt cheeks again and began to spank her a*s

"Ahh" Alicia let an uncontrollable moan with tears streaming Down her eyes

Soon he traced his fingers to her waist line and pulled down the light fabric hindering his access

He then proceeded to carry her to the bed, without been told he stripped himself as well leaving him with his boxers

He stood there staring at Alicia whose butt cheeks were red as a result of the spank

He climbed over and turned her over in the sense her womanhood was facing the heavens

He trailed one finger to her honey pot and dug while Alicia gave a loud Yelp

"Ahh" she yelled feeling the impact of the touch

No doubt she was damn tight and unwrapped

Alex spat into her py lubricating it and her added more finger as he began to finger fúck her causing her to moan in both pleasure and pain

Even though Alicia hate to admit to herself, instead of feeling disgusted and hating him for what he's doing she surprisingly finds herself wanting more

Alex pulled out his fingers from her hole and licked it he then came over her and place his mouth over the two bouncy twins he's been staring at for a long time

He took her right brêasts into his mouth and began sucking like his life depended on it while squeezing her left brêasts and Alicia couldn't help but moan helplessly

This wasn't Alex plan, he wanted to pleasure himself and cause her pains but he couldn't bring himself to do so

So he just went with the flow of wat he was doing

With his mouth rotating he sucked her breasts madly savouring every taste of it

He bit her nipples and dragged up causing another rush of pleasure to run down her body

He left the first breasts and tended to the one he's been squeezing taking it to his mouth she started sucking it fast and furiously with his hand trailed down to her clît

She shuddered as she felt this new feeling, her inner walls tighten and pulsed as he throbbed

Her first orgasms hit her and she came endlessly

Alex wore a satisfied expression and sat up beckoning on her to do the same

Like a puppy she did as instructed

"Get on your knees" Alex commanded and she didn't banter words with but fell on her knees immediately

"Suck me*" he said and Alicia was shocked

How the hell was she supposed to go about this .

She's a novice and had no idea of what to do, unknown Alex has held her hand it was when she felt her hands on a hard member she snapped out and came face to face with Alex's dick

Erected and hardened to his glory .. kindly hi

"Get on to work" Alex smiled at her and she gulped down nothing

She began to move her hands up and down his shaft and "ohhh" Alex groaned in sheer pleasure

He can't deny the wonder the girl's hands were doing to his shaft but he wants to feel her lips on it

"Suck me" he growled

Alicia lifts up her eyes and it met his then she slowly leaned forward and her lips touched his shaft and he almost cummed just by the touch alone

The oddness the warm rod against her mouth she pulled back but anxious Alex dragged her head and shove his dick inside

"Ahh" he moaned when her slime rubbed off on his hard on Getting the memo Alicia began to throb her hands and mouth in the correct rythm as she sucked him badly

He grabbed her by her hair and drove deep to her mouth causing her to gag and he pulled out giving her a space to breathe

And in another second he pulled it right back in fúckin her mouth badly

Soon Alicia began to feel his dîck expanding right there inside her mouth and she grew scared so she tried to pull out but Alex's grip was strong

He made sure she swallow all his heavy cums shots

By the time he pulled off, cum remains drip out of her mouth with her face messed up badly

"Get on the bed" he said coldly and Alicia dragged her shaky body there

Despite he just released his loads into her mouth his dîck was still as hard as rock

He raised her two legs up bending them to her face and her py totally exposed

He brought his dîck to the tip of her clît and began tease it

No doubt he was enjoying himself

And without thinking he plunged into her roughly earning a good scream from Alicia as the alien object ripped off her inner walls

Painful tears stream down her eyes as Alex went back and forth inside her

Thrusting as fast as possible, going with two short strokes and a long deep and py ripping strokes

Alicia couldn't cry her soft whimpers was the only thing heard as Alex assault her innocent body...

#The_next_morning

Alicia

"Ahhh" I winced a little feeling excruciating pains all over my body

I stood up slowly to see that my environment was unfamiliar and oddly silent

It was then I realized that I was lying on the ground cover with a cloth piece and a little luggage beside and a paper inscription take this bag it contains few clothes and vanish

A lone tear slipped off my face at least he wasn't in considerate, he gave me clothes to roam about the streets

Even the clothes I was wearing now is differentiate

It was obvious he didn't do what he did because I spoke up about the man he punished because he killed me

There was something else behind his behavior

I dragged myself up feeling great pains in between my legs there was no doubt he fked pretty bad and rough last night

It's a séx I can pretty well forget in a long period of time

Dragging the bag behind me, I walked aimlessly through the quiet street using my eyes to scan everything I came across of

I needed a shelter and a job, then I need to find out the name of the country I am currently in

"Ahh" someone screamed and I jolted , I didn't know I was so lost in thought that I bumped into an old lady

"I am so sorry ma'am" I apologise quickly and she smiled at me and I smiled back even though I am confused why she's smiling

"What were you thinking that got you so lost in thought" she asked

"Hmm" I sighed softly and she patted me

I was lead to her little kiosk and there my whole ordeal to her all she did was comfort me and gave me a word of advice

She said I could leave with her for a little while before I get comfortable myself

"Which country is this" I asked

"Oh you are in manilla" she replied

"How far is this place to new York" I asked again

"I can't tell exactly but I know it's quite far"

Then I thought, since one of his boys brought me here that means he can trace me to this place

"How much does one need to purchase a visa to another country" I asked

"500dollars" she said and my face dropped

It's a lot of money and it's going to take a lot to save that amount

But I'd try and leave this country, I have somewhere in mind

Pennsylvania

Alex

After I pulled out of Alicia, I fell on the bed in exhaustion

Never have I been so drained after s*x for a long period of time

Though I don't consider a S*x but love making, and I don't think I can certainly forget that in a long time

I watched her as she slept peacefully and I felt a pang of guilt for doing what I did, something I never felt before

I carried her and cleaning my cum stains on her thigh

I got her dressed in another dress and packed up few clothing for her and carried her to my car

I drove to the location of my private jet, in few minutes the jet was off the ground and we were in mid air

Alicia was still sleeping perfectly sound, didn't know I drilled her that well

Throughout the journey to Manila my mind was rotating if I was doing the right

I could keep her for my personal pleasures but that means I'd be breaking the deal and I don't think I want that

Finally the jet landed and the car I called from one of my mansions here was parked already and I ordered him to drive me to the safest street I know around her

I brought her here for a reason, so I can keep an eye on her

I have few properties here though, finally I spotted the perfect street and pulled up

Got down sprayed some clothes and laid her gently on it and place a kiss on her forehead

Before walk-in away

I stayed hidden till she woke up and I make sure I saw someone help her before turning back

I just hope I'd forget her finally after this, wearing my glasses I entered my car and drove off

Do you think Alex will actually be able to forget her?

Wait did he just place a peck on her forehead before leaving

Alex

"Arghhhh" I groaned in discomfort

Why can't I just fúckin forget her huh? Why is it so hard to do

I flung the table across the room and everything crashed

"Sir" I looked up to see my guards standing by the door

"Am okay you can all go" I dismissed them

I stood to my feet and my foot hit something soft and I looked down to see the bedsheets we used

Her innocent blood stains were still there

"Aish" I groaned ruffling my hair as I kicked it aside and walk to the front if my mirror

I removed my shirt leaving me shirtless and I stared at the mark there

That mark that still hurts me every time I think about it

Even though it's all healed up after so many years , the scar was till there

"Hmm" I sighed and took my towel as I walked into the bathroom

The shower started running and my eyes closed and let the water do the needful

Throughout my bathe Alicia's image kept flashing through my head and I groaned in frustration

After I was done, I came out and dressed up

"Steph" I called one of my body guards

"Yes sir"

"Get a bítch for me" I said

"Maybe if I get a good fúck I'd get over her" I thought sinking into my bed

Wearing my boxing gloves and walked in to my inner gym

I directed my anger and frustration to the bag

"Ahh" I groaned as I landed on another punch on the bag

The door open again and the bítch walked in with her clothes half naked

Her sight alone disgusted me, but I have no choice

I stopped boxing and faced her

"Strip" I ordered and she was even half done before

I was too disgusted for foreplay so I just went straight to the point

I brought out my díck from my pants and plunged into her wet hole

"Ohh fùck" she moaned as I thrust in and out of her

"Ohh" she moaned again

I just kept going in and out her but Alicia's image started flashing

"Fùck" I groaned and pulled out

"Get out" I yelled

"But we haven't even gone far" the bítch try to protest

"Out" I yelled

She scurried off and I huffed, "shit" I mumbled throwing my top out

Alicia keeps messing with my brain and I can't help it

In no time I was on my private jet on your way to manilla

Maybe if I see her once more I'd be okay

In few hours I got there and my driver was already waiting

"Get going I'd drive my self" I said to him collecting the car keys

I drove to the particular street I dropped her

Before I stepped out I wore my disguise and got claded in a black hoodie

With my hands tucked in my trousers I walked steadily and slowly looking sideways to see if I could see her

I just walked pass the place I left her and I stood rooted to a point

"Hm" I sighed and continued walking

I wanted to continue going forward but I felt the urge to turn right so I did

It was a dark and seluded alley, things were rarely since there despite being the day time

I walked slowly with my head bent and deep thoughts

But I halted when I heard soft whimpers and screams

It sounded so familiar so I began the walk in the direction

As I got closer my heart dropped at the sight before me

It was Alicia been rough handled by two men, they seem like the wanted to force themselves on her

I felt great anger rise in me as they touch her

She's mine and not to be touched by filthy hands

I rushed toward them and flung both of them away causing them to crash

Alicia waddle up in fright and that broke me

I rushed to the both of them and dashed out few punches on them till they pass out

After I was done I went to where she was staying

Wondering how she got there

I didn't know when I embraced her and hugged her to myself

She couldn't recognize me because of the disguise

"This body feels familiar" I heard her mumbled shakily

This is all my fault, if I hadn't sent her here she won't be facing all of this

With a guilty heart in pulled away without uttering a word and rushed off

"Hey!! You didn't give me a chance to say thank you"
she yelled behind me

Alicia

Molly, which I finally learned as the name of the woman who took me in had gone to work early that morning

So I decided it was time for me to go job hunting

I went through the bag Alex dropped for me searching for a suitable dress to wear but everything inside looked rich

How will I dress rich looking for job and they won't question me unnecessarily

After much deliberation I got into a jean short and a top

In few minutes I was done dressing and I locked the door behind me keeping the keys Molly pointed

Walking down the lonely street I hummed to the beat of a unfamiliar song

It's funny to know that after that night with Alex I find myself wanting more of Me

It wasn't something I should always remember but at times I end up dreaming about it

His touch, his kisses and how he felt on top of me was way to many pleasure to take in

I was lost in thought that I didn't know I had taken a wrong path

Jeez Alex caused me pain now thinking of him I got lost

Great! just great!

I slowly turned to go back to the direction I came from when a voice stopped

Not only is this place dark and creepy but also looks dangerous

I turned back to see two guys walking towards me with a dirty smile

My heart beat rate started a marathon race as they got closer

The only thing I could do was whimper

It was obvious they wanted to take advantage of me and I am helpless here

They began to rough handle me and all I could do was scream and whimper until I felt someone push them away from me and I fell to the ground

With tears I watched as he beat the men to stupor

He picked me up and comforted me with a hug

"This feels familiar" I muttered hugging him more

It was as if he was Alex even though he did not Speak a word to me that moment

I was still grateful he saved me, he broke off the hug as if in realization of something and started to run off

"Hey! You didn't give me a chance to say thank you"
I yelled behind him and he turned to give a smile

A smile that looked so familiar

In fear I ran out of the dark alley and found my way back to the main path

I kept walking aimlessly till I spotted a little restaurant

It had the sign waitress wanted apply within

Without thinking twice I walked in and went straight to the counter to speak to the lady there

"Good afternoon ma'am" I greeted with a cheeky smile

"Afternoon what do you wanna buy" she asked

"Actually am not here to buy anything am here in respect to the sign outside" I replied and gave me another glance

Yeah I know, my dress was looking rich so she was quite surprised

"If it's about the dress it's a long long story" I said breaking her thoughts

"Oh okay, follow me" she said and I followed her to the corner where a little office was located

She pushed in the door and walked in

While I remained stiff outside

In few minutes she back out "you can go in now" she replied and I nodded walking in

As I walked in, I was welcome with a good and pleasant aroma that got me quite excited

I turned to face a pot bellied man who's probably in his early forties.

"Good morning sir" I greeted with a bow and he just remained there not replying my greetings but giving me a long strict stare and I averted my gaze to the ground

"Do you have any working experience on food business" he asked

"Yes a little, I do deliver pizza back home" in reply and he just nodded his head

"You're hired, go back to the counter and ask Charlie to show around" he said dismissively

"Thank you sir" I replied walking off

I went to meet her and she helped me with some of the things

She gave me my uniform and explain the time I'd resume and also close for the day

I picked my menu and went to the table that called for a waiter

"Got it, tow Chicken wings and pepperoni" I jotted it down and made to leave when a familiar figure entered the restaurant

It was that guy, the guy with the hoodie that saved me minutes ago

He eyes was on me and he was staring intently that I had to scurry off

I breathe out in relief as I got to the counter with Charlie giving me a questioning look which I ignored obviously

I was about to rest when I heard someone call

"waitress"

Shit! I have to get back to work

Alex

After the whole saving issue I went back to my car and drove to the nearest bar

I drank to a minimum amount before quitting I can't afford to be drunk by day light

While hugging her I was able to plant a tracking device on her and with that I will be able to trace her whereabouts

I don't even know why I am doing this, maybe it's because I feel guilty of what I did to her or there's more feeling yo this

"Arggh I feel so confused" i mumbled rubbing my forehead

I brought out my phone and click the tracking device and noticed she was moving and stopped at a particular place

Seeing her one more time before I go home won't hurt right?

I got to my car and began to drive towards the direction

I halted and and wore my shades and put ok my hoodie before getting down

I pushed the restaurant door open and walked in calmly with my eyes scanning the whole place till it finally landed on Alicia

My heart tumbled, and I gulp down nothing in particular it's the first time I'd be so nervous because of someone

Sitting Down, I picked up the menu and my eyes scanned it

Then I saw her going to the counter

"Waitress" I called in a Mexican accent and she turned almost immediately

Those eyes, she walked swiftly towards me and my heart was beating wildly

"What will you like to order" she asked

"You" I said unconsciously staring at her eyes

"Excuse me" she asked puzzled

"I will like to order you" I said in flattery and she blushed a little

"Seriously sir, first you didn't allow me to thank you for saving me earlier now you are flirting with me"

she said

"You still recognize me" I replied

"You dress weirdly so you could be easily recognized"

"True true" I muttered rubbing the back of hair

"Let me borrow you for 30 minutes" I said

"I am working, a job which I just started today, and I am very sure my boss won't allow that" she said

"How about I talk to him then" I said

"Try your luck then" she said walking off to the counter

I stood up and went towards the boss's office

I pushed the door open and walked in

I removed my disguise so he would recognize me and that way he won't want to go against my wish

Immediately he saw me he scrambled up to his feet

"good afternoon sir" he stuttered

"I need to borrow one of your staff" I said with a straight face

"You are free sir" he said with his head bent

I walked off and put back my disguise and went to drag Alicia out unexpectedly

"Whoa whoa slow down" she said panting

"Sorry what's your name" I asked after I stop running

"Alicia" she said

"You don't look like a country side kinda girl what are you doing here" I asked waiting for her response

"Disobedience" she muttered sadly

"Disobedience?? How?" I quizzed.

"My mom grounded me for causing troubles so I sneak out with my bestie and got in trouble again with a heartless mafia and here am I" she said and I felt hurt

"Troublesome huh?" I muttered

"If you see this mafia again would you ever forgive him" I asked with my heart pounding

" I don't think so" she said and my heart shattered

" All I want is for my mom to have peace of mind by seeing me that I am safe and sound" she replied shakily

I went mute I couldn't talk, I can't believe how much I hurt her

But first I need to see her mom, that the key to winning her forgiveness

We stopped under a tree and I face her, she bit her lip and o groaned inwardly

She was just ozing in sexiness

I couldn't control it anymore so I claimed her lips with mine

I drove into her lips deeply savouring the very taste of it,

I couldn't get enough of it but I had this pull away somehow because her succulent lips were driving me nuts

If I ended up staying longer I'd end up wanting her because her sight alone turns me damn on

After kissing I just did what I did initially, made a run for it

Now I pretty much accept the fact that I am a over the heels in love with her

Though my crazy mind didn't give me the chance to realise that

Now I hurt her and she sees me as a Devoring monster

I plunged to my sit feeling sober, I should have just resist the urge to do it

But she damn to séxy to resist

Throughout the flight back to New York my head was going wildly

I got down and went up to my study to have some alone time

It was few minutes after that I began to hear loud noises from downstairs

I groaned in discomfort and git Down from the window view I sat

I wore my robe and walked downstairs.

"You see here he comes he will never reject me" I heard as I went down

And my eyes met those dark two pair of eyes

It was my slüt Becca shouting at my gaurd

"I thought I said I didn't want to see anyone here" I said facing the guard

"It was the man on duties fault he let her in" he said

"Baby even if you ask them not let anyone in your should have told them am a exception" she said slüTTY

Is she deaf when I said no one "Actually I passed the law because of you, you are the only one not welcome here, guard throw her out and I don't want you 10 meters near my house or near me" I stated coldly and walked back upstairs

Alicia

Those moments with the strange man was so weird

I had this tingling sensation and warmth around him and I didn't even want to let go

When he said he wanted me for his order it took everything in me not you blush hardly

Even though I feel he was familiar but I couldn't lay a finger on it

How would I be able to When I even see his face

I didn't even ask of his name, nor his number

"Alicia you are so dumb" I hit myself in my forehead

"Alicia" I heard Charlie's voice and I ran to her

Almost forgot I was supposed to be working

I scurried off to go meet her

It's been few days since Alicia's disappearance and her mom has actually stopped mopping and had moved on

It looks so absurd felt somehow to me that I asked her and she repeated the same thing she said the last time..

But I noticed behind all those happy facade she puts on she's very sad .

She was just hoping it would be positive

And I hope so too, because Alexander isn't someone that gentle

I went to carry the pizza ready for delivery when the door bell rang

"Who's there?" I called but no response

I went to the sink and washed off dirt on my hands I dabbed my hands with a napkin before answering the door

"What are....." I trailed off seeing the figure in front

It was Alexander!

Oh my gosh! Am in trouble

I was scared when her friend passed out at the sight of me

Is that how much people fear Me?? Alicia what have done to me

"Hey hey wake up" I said tapping her until middle aged woman came. Into view

Looking at heritage could bring out Alicia's features

The woman was beautiful no doubt Alicia got everything m from her

I watched as the woman did some things that her and the girl woke up

On seeing me gee eyes got thin , she might be here thinking I want to hurt them

"Who are you and what are you doing here" the woman asked strictly and I gulp down nothing

I felt so nervous and confused, maybe it was because I was standing in front of the woman that brought the love of my life to this world

Oh yeah! I don't think I can denial it anymore but I gave fallen in love with Alicia

I want to seek her forgiveness as well.that why I an here

"I am Alexander George" I replied calmly

"Jeez he look so responsible" the woman muttered to herself

The girl was just looking at me like she saw a ghost or something

"Come in" the woman said after a brief thought

I walked in quietly wondering how the woman will feel how my head is gonna get knocked

I sat down and the woman did as well while the girl stood like a log of wood

"Clara go grab the young man a cup of juice" she said to the girl

So her name is Clara, hmm, I in turn used that time to turn my eyes round the house and I was impressed

They didn't look rich but they are average middle class size.

A coyly smile appear at the corner of her lips

The contact of the glass and the wooden table brought in back my revive

"So what brought you here"the woman asked after I gulp down the juice

"I came for two things actually"I said cooly

"I want to ask for your forgiveness and your blessings" I said

"Forgiveness?" She asked

"Yes ma'am, about taking Alicia without your consent" I said bowing my head down

"I couldn't stay a day without her" I Added

She took a quick glance at Clara and then back at me

" You guys are in a relationship?" She asked and I nodded

It's partially true because I was gonna ask her out after I figure out how to earn her forgiveness

"I saw this coming anyway, at least someone get to manage he craziness"

'you have my blessings" she said to my shock and Clara gasp in surprise

"Ummp thank you. So much ma'am" I said happily and clara scoffed loudly

After Alicia's mom has gone to the kitchen the Clara girl stood up to my face started checking it

"What are you doing, only Alicia can touch me like that" I muttered the last part but she heard me...

"I was checking to see if you are putting on a mask, the Alex I know is ruthless and not this gentleman sitting here" she seethed

Ohh I don't Blame her she's right afterall but that was after I got to meet Alicia

*Yes it's me and Alicia made me this gentle so please don't ruin the moment" I said and she gasp

"Whoa unbelievable" she mutters going back to the opposite couch she was glaring hard at me

"Where is Alicia" she asked suddenly and my heart did somersault three times

"Yes that's true why didn't you come her" her mom said walking in

I gulp down nothing

"I took her out of the country for some tour" I lied

Though it wasn't a lie I took her out of the country but she probably hates me and working in some restaurants because of my stupidity

Alicia's mom

I smiled waving as we escorted the young man out Seeing him walk through that entrance I could feel the Aura around Him

He was someone who lived his whole life venting his pain and anger in every one else

He's ruthless and cold not because he chose to but because he had no choice and thought that was the only way to live and have peace

I Know Clara was expecting me to shout on him and lock him for taking my child but I didn't

I know it took him a lot of ego to. Bring himself here

After that day at Alicia's house, I became a regular

I would go there in the morning first to help her with her pizza

Though I do cover my Face so people won't run off scared thinking I am up to something

Clara had learnt to be a little bit free with me

I told her all that Alicia went through in my hands and where she currently is

We didn't tell her mom though because i wanted to earn her forgiveness first

It's been one week since I went to visit her in manilla and my everyday thought was on her

I was however calm because I made sure my boys are taking care and looking over her

"Get the pilot" I said to my guards

I need to see her today, I have been longing to see her beautiful face again after a long time

"Two cartons of pizza remaining" jenice of the workers employed said

"Mom we running out pizzas" I said to Alicia's mom

"Okay go make more" she said and I nodded running off to the kitchen

Alex has been a great help since he came to apologise

I never knew he could be this calm and gentle contrary to the one we knew before

The heartless and cold mafia

He had even gotten us a new site for our pizza palace and has enlarged it ..

There are numerous workers now working for us and huge money goes into the account every minute

It became one of the biggest and fast rising restaurant in the town

"Good afternoon" someone said bringing me back to reality

"Oh hi" I said turning to the handsome last standing in front me

He was looking so smoking hot and I almost lost control of myself

"Like what you see" he said with a flirty smile and I rolled my eyes

"What is your order" I asked

"I just came to have a closer look at the damsel behind the counter" he said smiling

"What..."

"Tata see ya later" he said walking away

Oh that's new

Alicia

It's been a week and I haven't seen the strange hoodie man in a while

I don't know why but I missed him unconditionally

It was like he was a part of me and each day I keep watching the door to see if he'd walk in any moment

After a while I got fed up, but my mind never left him

I waited until I was last at the restaurant and I closed the restaurant

I hummed softly to an unknown song as I walked part the busy road

I had not work fast when I saw people gather at a particular place cheering

I walked closer to see them playing a game.

I was about walking off when someone dragged me

"Come join us" the lady asked

"Erm...I ump" I stuttered

"Give a try" she urge and I let my guard down

It was a guessing game, all in have to do is guess the number if the stuff placed down

I take a look at it and thought, since I have a great calculative brain and physics

"3546" I said and the guy in charge looked at me in shock

I guessed right?

"Whoa how do you do that" he asked

"My money" I said stretching my hands

It was complete $500 the Same amount I need to get out of the country

I left the place skipping out happily by tomorrow I will be out of this country.

Lala lala lala I humm skipping like an highschool girl who got notice by her crush

I stopped abruptly when I saw the familiar car stopping in front of me

It the hoodie guy, he came down hurridely coming towards me just then his hoodie fell off

"Alex" I called in fear seeing the man behind the hoodie

He looked shocked!

"Alicia wait" he shouted but I was too angry to listen

No wonder the hugs and the kisses felt familiar because it was him

Why was he unto me again, I thought he wants me to vanish

He did say next time he sees me he'd kill me

I don't think I am ready to die yet at least not now

I kept running passing every corner I came across

For sure he might be running after me after all he wants my life

I was able to spot a route that leads to where I live and with that I ran faster

Taking few things with and the money I won today

I guess the money had for seen this

I boarded a taxi straight to the airport, my heart was beating rapidly and my head was going wild

The last I wish for now is him finding

I don't think I will go to Pennsylvania anymore

Maybe I should go to Africa, he won't be able to find me that way

"Hey" I said to the receptionist at the airport

"Welcome ma'am how may we help you" she asked

"Visa" was all I could mutter and she took me to a particular place

There I was given all that I needed my Visa card, flight schedule and destination

At least I was able to do it, I smiled out in satisfaction seeing that Alex can't have me anymore

I went to sit at the secluded part of the waiting sit there so that I can spot anyone coming close to me before the person does

I waited for close to an hour before our airplane was called

I dragged my bag and used the veil with me wrapping it round my head like a muslimah

I was close to the stairs of the plane when Alex got to me but he passed me by just because he couldn't recognize me

I walked into the plane confidently and sat down

"Hmm" I exhaled in peace

Alex

I got down from my car only for my hood to fall right off

"Alex" I heard her soft voice

"Shit" I mumbled when she began to run after realizing I am the one

I tried running after her but damn she's a fast runner and I couldn't catch up to her

She must have probably thought I was there to kill her

I never should have sent her away, now look at what it cost me

After chasing her for minutes and didn't find her anymore I turned back to where my car was

"Arghh" I screamed hitting my hands on the steering For the first time in ten years I cried, I cried whole hearted

Just then I remembered that I had a tracking chip on her body

I quickly brought out my phone and checked her location

"Airport" I mumbled in disbelief

I ignited the motion of my car and began to drive towards the airport

I can't let her go not now not never

I scratched my car and to an halt in front of the airport and ran Inside

Looking back and forth like a criminal being chased

I couldn't find her, it got to a point I was forced to scream "Alicia"

I broke down in the middle of the road, where is she

After I saw Alex pass me by I hasten to the airplane stairs

I don't want to die yet

I wonder why he came back for me after stating clearly that he would kill me when next he sees me

I walked swiftly in the airplane going to the extreme back got my but sitted at the windows side

I wanted to be able to view the outside world as the airplane moves

"Hmm" I signed sadly wondering how messed up I managed to make my like be

If only I hadn't snuck out, I would still be at my mother's bosom causing troubles, I would still be at my area playing hero for bullied kids

I would still be a creep scaring the shit out of my bestie

"Ma'am hope all his well" someone said and I turned to see an aged woman sitting beside me

It was then I realized I had been crying, oh jeez am a complete mess

"Erm... It's nothing actually" I replied trying not to make my voice crack

I lean back on the window watching the outside world, people were still coming in so the plane isn't in motion yet. Kindly Hi Novels Republic on +2348055889183 on WhatsApp to get added to our novels group and get PDF links

I smiled unconsciously when I saw a girl and her mother discussing and laughing heartily

"I wish I could turn back the hands of Time" i.muttered lowly drifting into deeper thoughts

"Please everyone stay calm there is a search going on so the plane can't move for now" the air hostess said and my heart leap

I stood up from where I crouch and wiped my tears

Then I began to run to the control room removing my hood and walking with a cold face Immediately people recognized me they began to move in fear.

I had forgotten I was a feared mafia and I could use it to my advantage

I walked to the room that controls the going in and out of airplane

"I don't want and plane to move out for the next hour till I say so" I said coldly playing with my gun and the man nodded

I watched as he made the announcement and every plane went on standby

I smirked devilishly, Alicia can't run From

Not now I have fallen helplessly for her

I stood up going out all my boys had already arrived and the people around were just shivering in fear

They got divided in groups and I went east ward.

After several rough searches on different plane

I breathe out tiredly resting on the last plane am about to enter

"Africa airlines" I muttered climbing the stairs

My eye caught those amazing blue balls I can't even forget at the extreme end and I smiled

Finally I found her!

I walked slowly towards her and was about to get to her when she saw me

She was shivering probably thinking I wanted to kill her but no I wanted to keep her till eternity

The woman sitted beside stood as I approach their sit and by now every one was watching what I will do to her

They believe everything of my victim is for death or torture

I crouch to her size and carried to myself

"Let me go Alex please" she yelled Crying as I walked back out

"No princess ain't g'on do that" I replied with a smile

Music intro: helplessly by Tatiana

Alex

I smiled watching her sleep peacefully in my arms

As I carried her from plane towards the car, cool breeze filled the atmosphere and she surprisingly fell asleep

She's such a beauty while sleeping, and now my personal possession which I am never letting go I laid her gently at the back seat placing a kiss on her forehead

"It won't be bad if I stole a kiss would it?" I thought within and I bent down to take her lips to mine

I smile at the feeling of her lips against mine as I went to the driver's sit and ignited the car

My hands trailed to the car music player, and I played helplessly by Tatiana

It's been damn long I listened to music but Alicia changed all that

My lips broke into a sincere smile as the music started

It's not that easy with you yeah

But I know I want you to stay

This is could be us in a few years

But just tell me you like to play

Its like everyday you kicking rocks

I could fly away but you got me on a complete stop

How do you? Managed to keep me going

But sometimes you keep me from going

See you distract me

But am distracted without you

I don't know how to focus baby teach me how to Cause am standing still again but if you love me just like the way that I love you

I wouldn't mind a little comforting from you

Why do I let you in my heart

And I gat to go sometimes but you're always on my mind

you're not helping me

You're not helping me bae

I sang along as I drove to the where my private jet was parked

It's been a long time I last sang and was this happy, but came back In a space of a really short time

Not that I could forget that man that made me this bittered and cold hearted soul, but I was still glad someone brought out certain lights in me

No doubts am madly in love with Alicia and she's mine to claim

She can forgive me in the future but right now, am never letting her go again

Alicia

I smiled unconsciously inhaling the strong scent and of the body I dreaded most It's weird but I knew ever since that night he was intimate with me a part of him was left behind

Even after he sent me here just so he couldn't see me anymore I ended up craving for his touches

When I saw him earlier I didn't know why I ran when I clearly wanted his touch

I am utterly confused and at the same time perplexed

Loving a man as ruthless and dangerous as Alex was something that never occurred to her

It seems dangerously exciting but requires lots of patience and brains

She noticed she was in an airplane lying on Alex's hard chest with his hands snaked round her waist protectively

"Hmm" she smiled unconsciously again taking a deep breath

There's no point running from her feeling anymore

But the question is will she forgive Alex that easily?

Seems Alex had some dark past who's ready to find out??

Alicia

I opened my eyes and found myself on a comfy bed with a duet covering me

I tilted sideways to meet Alex's gaze, he was staring at me in admiration and I smiled unconsciously

"You are awake" he said calmly and I just nodded

I was supposed to be angry at him for what he had done and also for bringing me here against my wish but surprisingly I wasn't

I feel too happy to get angry, yeah I know I have fallen deeply in love with him but I still want him to suffer for his wickedness

"Are you hungry" he asked and I nodded

"What would you like to eat?"

"Rice is okay" I replied and he nodded, he pressed some numbers calling for a maid

"Unmp Alex," I called shyly

"What love" he said and I blushed unconsciously

"Erm I want you to cook it yourself" I said and his eyes widen

"Erm, what? I mean you want me to cook..for you" he asked scratching his head

I could pay a billion dollars to see the look on his face again, he looks restless and confused

It's obvious he can't cook and I'd be here to see the fun

"Ohh okay I'd be right back" he said nervously

I get that he's trying his best to please me but I need to enjoy this game

I slid into my flip flops walk-in towards the bathroom to freshen up

After u was done I realized I wasn't with any of my clothes and also in Alex's room

Staring at myself at the mirror and the towel wrapped round my body I had no choice but to wear one of his shirts and shorts

I proceed to comb my hair down wards leaving it in it's full lengths

Clara

"Really??" I beamed over the phon

"Yes but you have to cool it, u want it as a surprise for her okay" Alex said calmly

"Okay I understand but do you remember her birthday is next week"

"J eez! Had no idea" he mumbled

"How could you not know your girl friend birth date" I snapped

"Sorry"

"Whatever! do you have any idea of what we are going to do for her" I asked

"I don't know, but wait how do you make rice" he asked and I bursted into laughter

"Rice?? What for" I asked

"Alicia asked me to personally cook for her and I don't know how to go about it" he explained

"Okay fine what about your maids let them lead you through"

"She also maid me give them two months break" he said sadly

"I think I love this" I said happily and he sighed

"Please help me"

"Fine, I can't believe the almighty Alexander George is asking for my help how hilarious" I joked and he scoffed

After giving him few hints I ask Down to laugh our on my own

This past days Alex has been good to me and Alicia's mom

I believe he had changed for good this time around

And mom had been cheerful with her business booming continuously

For me who had lived alone all my life my parents are rather too busy to have my time that's why I got to attached to Alicia and got affected by her disappearance

But it seems all is for the. Best after all

Alex

"Ahhh" I exhale after seeing what I have made

"This really resemble rice at least" I Mumble to my self seeing what I made

I dished it into a small portion and started to take it to her upstairs

"Hey" I cooed walking into the room with a charming smile

"Oh hi" she mumbled

I just hope she likes this, I thought placing the food on the mini table

I watched intently as she took the food to her mouth

"Pannm" the food came spurting out of her mouth to my body

I took the first spoon to my Mouth and I was marveled by the great taste of it.

Who could have thought that the great mafia could be such a great cook

So I spit it out making it seem like it was bad and the look on Alex face was priceless

I don't know what prompted me to do it but I was

I can pay a billion dollars to see the look on his face again

"I am so sorry I will go make another" he said hastily looking all nervous

"No it's actually good just did that to see your face" I muttered lowly and he breathe out in relief

"Mhmmm" I moan in deliciousness

"Can't believe you cooked this" i murmured eating in savour

"I got a little help though, but those years with my mom paid off a little" he said and I didn't fail to notice the pain anger and guilt on his face when he mentioned his mother

Who could possibly have happened, I shrugged it off and continue digging the food in front of me

"Ahh" I signed drinking the chilled water afterwards

The food was delicious no doubt

"Which did you get help from because I remember all the maids are on vacation" I said staring at him suspiciously

"I won't tell" he folded his arms on his chest and pouted

He looked Charmin and cure that I can almost kiss him but I didn't

"Alicia am sorry" he said after a brief silence

"Huh"

"I am sorry for all I have done to you, I didn't mean it I thought I'd get over it if I did but it only got stronger" he said and I stared at him confused

Firstly the great Alexander George apologize to me

"What happened?? I don't quite get you" I said

"I got attracted to you the first day I saw you two years ago" he started

"Huh two years??"

"Yeah, that day you were coming back from the field with Clara in a tomboy clothes, your hair was packed in ponytail and you had a little mud at the side of your face" he said and I remember vividly

That very day I forced Clara to go play ball with me and I got hit at the event it was a fun yet painful experience

I knew someone was watching but I couldn't fathom where it was from but I knew

So he was the one?? Great!

"After that very day I kept thinking about you, the way you laugh, your smile your attitude and all

I kept thinking and dreaming of you, I was technically addicted to your thoughts, most times I get whøres to pleasure nee just because I can't stop thinking about you

I knew I was attracted to you but It was something that I didn't want to adkitao I keep punishing myself

It is a simple case I could have easily gotten you but I didn't just because I didn't want to fall in love

I am a mafia, I believe love wasn't meant for me" he said and tears glisters around his eyes

"Am sorry"

"But I couldn't take it that day you stood up to me, I felt weak and could only scumb to your wish, some part of me didn't want to hurt you

Another part wanted to I get rid of whatever thing you were doing to me

I thought a night stand with you will. Shake it off but I clearly rekindle the love

It was then I realized I was helplessly in love with you" he said and the tears was flowing freely already

He loves me?

Hearing him spill those words from him only but my heart flutter

He loves me? He actually cares for me?

All through the times I had been away from him I realized that my heart constantly calls out for him

I had fallen deeply for him but I just didn't want to admit it because I felt resentful and wronged

Looking closely I have come to realize that fate indeed can't be changed nor avoided

Alex was something that was meant to be part of my life forever and that very he first saw marks it

But I couldn't help but wonder the reason for his cold and ruthless behavior

Looking at his perfect handsome face I smiled at him sincerely and his tensed looking body came down

It was a wonder how I managed to stir up emotions from the same man that has reportedly hunted people in the past

One thing I didn't know was the fact that he was a strong and possessive force

Seeing my warm gesture he stood up and pulled me to an heartwarming hug before he slowly claimed my lips

Dammn I am clearly drifting deeply In this man's affection but still I couldn't help but ask

"What turned you ruthless" his eyes sparked up and he looked at me his eyes held more deeper meaning

"Why did you ask" he simply replied

"Because I believe anyone couldn't hut wake up a day and become evil there has to be a trigger that ignites the fire" I said

"Hummp.. you are actually right but my story is not a very good one

It's a combination of a bitter Sweet yet worthy of fighting for

However I would let you know, because right this instant I intend keeping you forever

You however can't get of NY grip because I am a deep lover therefore I won't give up on my love for you" he said and blushed at his words

Alex

My heart leap when I heard Alicia's request

She wants to know my past, something I have managed to keep all this year's and pretend as if it never happened

A pain that has been lingering do long that few innocent people had to suffer from

My face went pale at the question and Alicia noticed she wanted to withdraw the question but I was ready to answer

At least it would be better if I tell someone about my past

I sure do want to make Alicia mine completely and to achieve that I need her to trust me

"It all started when I was just seven years old" I began calmly and Alicia eyes settled on mine

"According to my father I was a result of a reckless one night stand

He was a prominent mafia who was feared and highly respected

But he needed to have fun so he got a woman and laid with her

She wasn't just any woman, an innocent lady wondering by the streets around my father's territory

He took her and forcefully raped her and at the end she got pregnant

She couldn't abort it but informed him about it

My father found out she was carrying a baby boy

He needed an heir for his mafia throne, a son that will take over his evil deeds

He endured till I was born

But still he didn't let my mother go, though he didn't want to be pussy wiped but also couldn't bear the responsibility of taking care of a baby

He was patient to allow her take care of Me till I was five

That was when I began to notice that something was wrong

He'd come home drunk and vent his anger on my poor mother

He'd beat her to stupor and beat her back to consciousness

Right there in my front he'd torture her with sex inserting all kinds of instrument

I would only watch but couldn't do anything

That alone build my likenesses for sex to be torture rather than fun

He continued this for a year till I was six

But my mother still endure, her family couldn't save her because of the ruthless man she was with

At the age of seven after several sexual tortures my mom became pregnant again

At that time her pregnancy was around seven months and Very visible

That day was his birthday, the day his night mares
started

My father went for a business trip or rather a sort out war with one of his rivals

My Mom used that opportunity to make my birthday memorable

She baked cake and cooked my favorite food

If I had known that that would be the last time of seeing her I would not have eaten it

She. Had time that fateful day and spent time with me

By nightfall my dad returned all in his drunkenness ready to vent the anger of losing on her again

That time my mom lost it, she was fed up with the treatment and stood up to him

If only she didn't

He slapped sending her heavy self hitting the wall

She winced holding her stomach, my father moved closer to her and held her by the neck choking her mightily but didn't kill her just yet

Mom gathered strength and kicked him the forbidden zone triggering his anger

He landed another punch on her this time she fell flat on the floor

He waited for her to wake up and continue with the beating unknown mom has hidden a pocket knife by her waist

She brought it out and slice off his pinky finger

That broke the last straw

My dad left her ignoring the pain on his has and went to his inner chamber

I just stood there watching and couldn't intervene

He came out holding a butchers knife and Right there in front of Me he sliced open my mother's womb and brought out the baby inside

Due to the beating the baby was already dead within her

I watched my mother winced in pain as my father stabbed her severally

Her blood spilled endlessly and her painful cries filled the house but he didn't stopped there

He burnt my baby sister's dead body right in front of me and left my mother butchered Like and experimental animal....

Alex cont'd

Right that instant my body froze, my father just walked out like it was Normal and nothing happened

My heart bled as I shook my mother but she didn't burge

For a whole month my father locked me up and treated me harshly

He'd order his guards to beat me to stupor leaving ugly marks on my body

He doesn't even care at all his constant claim was he was teaching me to be strong so I can take over him in the future

At the age of ten he made me shed blood and kill an innocent man

For days I cried and wept from numerous nightmares because of the man I kill

Soon enough he began to bring more people for me to kill to build a cold heart

He turned me to a monster that I hated in myself

All the tattoos on my body were drawn at the age of thirteen

Those excruciating pain I went through can't be forgotten

At seventh he set me up with five group of guys and get rid of my virginity

I was raped by five huge scary looking guys till I passed out but he just stood there and watched in amazement

After that day he began to bring various woman to me and train me how to torture someone with s éx

After that he organize five girls as well to rape at once to check my stamina

He even injected hard drugs to my body and order me to travel abroad but I was caught and thrown to prison

He did not even lift a finger of tried to set me free but he allowed me in prison for three good years

After that he claimed I would be more tougher if I was an ex convict

And true to his words I became more dangerous and harbour revenge in my heart

There at the prison I made friends who taught me different skills of martial arts

I was trained expertly to use a gun, stealth and cunny

I endure crazy pain just because I want to face my father

After that he finally lead me to the life I live now

He made me a mafia not just any Mafia a cruel and merciless mafia

Everything I did was under my father's supervision

I completely lost it, my mother who was supposed to be my comforter was gone

My mother's family wanted yo help but my father was just too cruel

If he could kill her what can't he do to their entire household

I just watched and hurt in silence while he enjoyed

At twenty-one I met Hilda, I fell for her at first sight because I saw mother's figure in her

I did not even know she had like me before hand

I took a straight step and approached her after a week

Confessed my feelings and engraved her to myself

If I had known I wouldn't have done that because I'm mediate my father found out he ordered for her corpse

I wept bitterly when I found out and the old pains in my heart rise up again

When I asked my father for reasons he said he couldn't let me fall in that he's afraid I won't be who he wants me to be if it happens

As long as he wishes he'd continued to kill people I love just to harden my heart

"That was why I couldn't keep you when I found you"
I said tears streaming down my eyes

Alicia was crying helplessly and tears blurred her vision

"When I discovered that I loved you I couldn't keep you that's why I sent you away, I didn't want to lose you again

All the people I love ended up dying because of a cruel man I call a father" I said pulling her to a warm hug

"I am sorry" she said choking

"This time around I want to keep you so I will fight for you, I will avenge my mother and kill that monster" I said coldly

Without hesitation I crashed my lips on her tasting our tears as our tongues danced

"Will you stand by me?" I asked pulling out of the kiss

"Will you stand by me" I asked pulling out of the kiss and she nodded

Yet again I dive my mouth into hers savouring every taste of her

Kissing her madly like my life depended on it Actually it does

Our breathes were raging as we engaged in this lip battle

My hands found it's way to her tinny waist and I pulled her to sit on my laps not breaking that kiss

Her hands were wrapped perfectly round my neck as I kissed her possessively and violently

My hardened member was poking her ass directly it became more more hard

When I couldn't take it anymore I flipped her over to the bed trashing our her clothes hurriedly living her to only her panties

I proceeded to taking her plump pink breasts into my hands and squeeze it hard

"Ahhha" her soft moan broke out

Without waiting for approval I took her breasts into my mouth sucking lip like a lollipop

I was sucking her on the right and using my left hand to play with her left breasts

I kept sucking changing sequence on the two breasts

Taking a break I raised my head up and decided to play with her breasts first patting it and making it bounce up

My dick had become very hard that the precum was evident on my boxers

I just can't get enough of her sexy body

I got rid of my boxers in haste and began to stroke my self

I wanted to badly thrust in her but I wanted to give the pleasure she deserves

So I bucked and placed my nose on her erect clît inhaling the pretty scent of her insides

My mouth moved to her Virginia and kissed her there

"Ahh" she moaned out

I Began to slide my tongue of her fúcking her recklessly with my tongue

Absorbing the pleasure she held my head as I dive deeper

After few minutes I replaced it with my fingers and began to go in and out of her

Her walls tighten and her body shook violently as my fingers ran deep in her body

"Oh am cumming" she yelled spurting it all on my face which I made sure to lick off clean

That was when I brought my dîck close to her entrance and teased her would it

"Oh fùck Alex I want you" she said huskily and I thrust in to her deeply

Going back and forth in a slow pace

"Ahh" I groan as I felt my whole in her tight pussy

I began to increase my pace putting her legs on my shoulders as j fucked her deeper

I keep doing this for some time before I felt my orgasms building up

My body shuddered as I spilled my seeds deep in her and I fell beside

"I love you" I muttered closed to her ears even though she didn't reply I know she's mine now

Somewhere in Toronto

"I guess it's time to let him know" he said

"Yeah I hope you have trained him strong enough"

Her face was so calm that it spells beauty and all sexiness

I would have killed myself if I had lost her

Dragging her sleepy self more unto myself I placed a kiss on her forehead

"Good morning" her soft voice came through and I was startled

"You're awake" I said

"Huh-huh"

"Good morning to you too" I said with a smile before stealing a kiss on her lips

"That's not fair" she pouted looking so fucking cute that my junior twitch beneath

"It is Love" I said running off the bed but I wasn't fast enough

She caught up with me and threw back on the bed and she was on top of me

"Apologize Mister" she said with a playful glare

"No miss" I said turning her over and me on top

"This is so no fair" she pouted and groaned

"Damn girl you'd be the death of me" I said taking her lips into mine

"Alex control, you had me all night I am hungry" she said

"Okay baby but more kisses" I said trailing the kiss to her neck giving her hickies

We were lost that we didn't remember that we were naked until my hand came in contact with her breasts with were already erect

"My baby is so sexy" I murmured kissing her nipples before giving it a huge hickey

"Ahhh" she moaned before pulling me off

"What was that for" now it was my turn to pout

"Stop being a big baby and get me something to eat before you eat me" she said

"Who knew you were this naughty" I said

"You unlock the level" she said and got up and wanted to use the duvet to cover herself but I dragged it down

"There is no use hiding" I said and her cheeks turned crimson red with a haughty glare

"I love you" I said with a wink

"Gosh you are Soo so ahhrrg" she groaned entering the bathroom

"Make some room big daddy Alex is coming" I yelled behind her

I chuckled at my naughty and playful S Elf

Thanks Alicia for giving me a reason to fight the darkness in my heart

Ever since I was born I have never been this happy.

And all thanks to Alicia, I understand that there is more to live rather than been domineering and powerful

With a huge grunt I got out of bed and went to meet her inside the bathroom

"What are you doing here" she said as soon as she saw me

"Finishing what you started" I said scooping her into myself and kissing her possessively

There is no way ain't fúckin her here right now

"Ahn" she moaned as I thrust back and forth of her

"Damn you look so eatable" I said licking my lips

"No no, you had your full in the bathroom" she said battling her cute lashes

"I can't get it enough of you pretty" I said

"I know but pity my body" she said

She was clad in my white shirt and shorts

It was my idea since I thought it would be sexy and I was quit right because she's oozing in all sexiness

"Stop staring" she said snapping me out of my thoughts

"I can't just help it Barbie" I said scooping her on my back

"What are you doing"

"Giving you a piggy ride" I said as I went down the stairs

I drop her on the kitchen counter bringing out all the kitchen utensils we'd need

"So what are we cooking" she said clapping her hands

"No we are not cooking, I am while you sit and watch" I said

"But I want to do something" she said

It was no fire but the food was almost burning

"I can't believe you got carried away" she laughed

"Your beauty is intoxicating and mesmerizing what do you expect" he said licking his lips "

"Sheesh face your cooking young man" she teased with a seductive smile

"If you don't stop teasing me I don't mind having you right now" I said huskily placing my lips at the crook of her neck

I felt her breathing irregular and her heart was breathing really fast

"It's good to know how much I have effect on you" I teased placing kisses around her neck

"You wish" she scoff and I traced my lips upwards and nibbled her ear and her whole body shudder

It seems that's her weak spot

"You were saying something" I teased but all she did was give out soft moans as I assault her lips and fondle

"Alex"

"Hum"

"The food is burning again" she said and I pulled out

"Shit" I exclaimed

"So much for wanting to cook" she mocked getting down from the v

Kitchen counter

"At least it's good enough to eat" mumbled serving the food to two plates

"Yeah something I am grateful for" she replied and as she walked out and I trailed behind her

I must agree since I've come across her she gave me every damn reason to live a peaceful life

"Why are you staring at me and not eating aren't you hungry" she cut through my thoughts

"Well I suppose but I don't feel like eating This" I said with a smirk

"Why cook if you aren't eating"

"Cause I want to eat you" I said licking my lips

"Why would you do that ain't some sort of a delicacy" she countered throwing a playful glare

"Oh you are wrong baby, you ate one hell of a creamy delicacy" I said huskily leaning close to her

"You are shameless" she said

"But it's only for you darling"

"You ate me all night and this morning and still want more" she said

"When it comes to you, my urge is insatiable" I said sitting back down and digging my food while she just stared at me

I wasn't joking, when it comes to her body I don't mind making love to her all day everyday

It's like an addiction but in this case she's the drug and I am the victim of the drugs influence

Just then the door bell rang and she look at me with a questioning gaze

"You're expecting someone"

"Why don't we find out" I said with a Hidden meaning

"Oh my goodness mom! Clara? She yelled as the door open to reveal them

Yeah I had it all planned, I wanted her to meet her mom and her best friend but she wasn't going to leave my house

Rather I brought them here

"Oh my Clara, you're all big now" she said checking her blabber mouth of a friend out

"It's only been months and you were this chubby tell me has he been you know digging you" Clara whispered but I heard

"What the hell Clara you're rotten now" she said brushing her aside

"Oh my mother, I missed you real bad" she cried

"But I didn't" her mom said rolling her eyes

"I know it's a lie so I won't cry" Alicia said and hug her mom tightly

"To tight ally you have some queries though" her mother said

"Tell me I got into trouble and they came looking for me" Alicia sighed tiredly

"Well yeah, how could you prank an old man till he had an heart attach" her mom started while I just stared at the mother and daughter bond

It's so blissful

"Baby you can have your mom later but right now I need my mother in law" i said dragging her away from her

"I haven't seen her in a while it's only good if I stay with her" she pouted and I almost gave in but no

"Can't you see they came with luggages dummy they're here for a while so shoo" i said and Clara bursted into laughter

"You know if anyone had told me Alexander George is going to be this fun I'd have sent the soul to hell" Clara said after calming down

"Good thing he's mine now so buzz off" Alicia said I smiled

"We have matters to discuss so follow me" Clara dragged her

She's been her for once after they got to know about me

She was the one who helped me prepared Alicia's room and all the others things around her

"So Mom let's talk" I said hugging her

"I thought you forgot me since your heart beat is here" she said

"No I can't"

"What's is this about"

"Our engagement and wedding" I said

"You want to marry her?" She said

"Yes mom I can't let anyone touch expect me and maybe you and ckara" I said and she glared at me

"Kidding"

"So when do you want to do the engagement"

"According to my plan the engagement party will be next week and we will go register our marriage two days after" I said

"Oh you sure in a hurry"

"Yes and you are staying here till then" I said

Alicia

"Oh my goodness I really missed you" Clara said as soon as we entered my room

"As if" I scoffed

"No body to get in trouble with no one to scare me at night, damn it was torture" she said again

"Now I am here no need to worry anymore" I said

"So tell me what actually happened" she said seriously

"I know Alex already explained to you why re you asking me again"

"I just wanted to be sure of one thing"

"What's that"

"Do you love him"

"Yes of course I love him whole heartedly" I replied

"Whoa whoa"

"Yeah" I said shyly

"Get up am famished" she yelled "Glutton"

"Whatever"

Unknown

"He returned with a lady, and she'd leaving with him"

"A lady? What is her job in his house"

"Nothing in particular"

"Maybe his new bed warmer"

"No I don't think so, he's planning to marry her"

"What??"

"Yes I just found out right now" I replied

"Let him off for a time and we'd strike" he said

*Okay"

"But first we'd be having fun at his wedding" he smirked and I smiled devilishly

Alex

Just spending few days with her my heart was in pure Bliss

I wasn't going to let her go that's why I am rushing things

Ever since Clara and her mom came she's been smiling and that alone calms my heart

"Baby" I mumbled placing my face at the crook of her neck and kissing it

"Humm" she moaned out as her body shivered at my touch

"You know I love you right" I said

"Yes"

"Let's get married" I said and her eyes widen

"What? Really?"

"Yes please"

"But it isn't it not to fast, we've been together not up to a week" she said

"But my heart beats for you" I said

"Let's get married today, the engagement party is just going to be a Facade"

"What do you mean" she asked

"Follow me" I said holding her hands

I went to my closet where my shoes are packed and raise the shoe but the edge and a secret passage came to view

"Wow" she gasp

'lets go'

As we entered the door slammed shut and the beautiful cave came to view

It's a safe house and a coven specially built for life or death situations

I carried her up and placed her on the table, since she was clad in my shirt her thighs came into view causing me to gulp down nothing

"My father is still alive, though he's hiding but he's on to Me" I said calmly

"Oh my"

"I know there's a spy in the house and my room the dining and the sitting room has a recording chirp"

"Whoa"

"But I got rid of the one in my room and let the others alone, I deliberately talked to your mom about the engagement because I know he was listening to our conversation"

"So he might come that day but as a disguise" she said and I smiled

"My baby is getting smarter" I said kissing her lips

"That's why I want us to get married her and now, I already registered our marriage at court all you need is to append your signature and you are my wife" I said and she smiled

"Are you sure about it" she asked nervously and I held her hands

"Back then I couldn't fight because I am a coward but right now I want to fight, fight for ur love and live in peace is that too much to ask"

"No no it's not"

"Once I avenge my mom's death I will be free from being a mafia and leave a life I have always wished for" I said lowly

"I will marry you and stand by you" she said

"Really?"

"Yes"

I brought the documents and she sighed without hesitation

"Now you are officially Mrs George" I said and she giggled

"But this is a secrete for now" she replied

"Yes it's only a matter of time babe"

"I hope this place isn't bugged" she said

"No device cane work here I made sure of it"

"That's better"

"Alicia"

"Huh"

"You drive me crazy" I said and she giggled

Without waiting my hands found it's way to the holes between her legs

"He had sent words of his engagement out" I said

"Really? He'd be only engaging her but won't marry her, I will make sure of it" he replied with a devilish smile

"Why are you doing this" the 80 year old butler came out staring at my boss

"Why am I do what I don't understand" he replied

"Why do you derive joy in wrecking the life of your only son

"What I do with my family is none of your business okay, you are lucky I trust you I'd have beheaded you for questioning my authority" he said walking out

"Sorry master" the butler bowed and left

I stared at the back of the two elderly butlers that went out and gave out a cheeky laughter

Fools! You won't realize it you are completely ruined

It's a damn promise

Alex

"Steph hope you are monitoring them"

"Yes sir they are likely to make a move at the party"

"Good be at alert don't let your guard down"

"Yes sir"

"I want you to get the rest and go for intense training because it's more like a battle and I am ready to face it" I said walking out

"Baby where have you been" Alicia said coming out of our room hallway

"Attending to something" I said placing a kiss on her lips

"Okay, come let me show you something" she said dragging me her

We stop when we got to the secret room where we did our secret wedding

"Since everyone around us is a suspect we can only trust each other" she said and I nodded

"Good, well you know I am a computer genius and a great hacker" she boosts herself and I just stared

"You don't have to Bragg" I smiled

"Let do it, okay jokes apart while going through the documents here I found interesting clues"

"What's that"

"I don't think the enemy here is your father" she said seriously.

"What do you mean" I asked alarmed

"The person behind this isn't your father it seems twisted but this document proved it" she replied shoving it to my hands

"I will look into it, thanks love" I said kissing her

Who the hell is after my family what do they want..

"Hello" I said immediately I picked my call

"Hey man long time no see"

"Jeremy??"

"Yes boy, am back" he said with a cheerful voice

"Where have you been, we have a lot to talk about" I said coldly

"Of course we do, you have to explain how your Stony heart got a lover" he said and I rolled my eyes at his stupidity

He's still the same childish friend of mine

"Okay meet me at home"

I guess I'd have to seek for his help on this

"It's been a while" J eremy said with a cheeky smile

"Yeah" I replied coldly with an expressionless face

"I wonder how you manage to get a girl with your cold attitude" he said eyeing me

"Well we all know I am very attractive" I said with a smirk while just nodded

"You said you needed my help with something" he asked

"I actually wanted to invite you personally to my engagement" i said and he gave me a confused look

"That's not true" he said

"I am actually serious, plus you'd be my right hand man it's only best I do so" I said

"Whatever you say, so where is the bride herself"

"She went shopping with her best friend in regards to the ceremony" I replied

"Wow and I wanted to meet her"

"You'd get to see her on the day of the engagement"
I replied

"I will get going now though" he said while I just nodded

Alicia was right, his attitude recently seems suspicious

I wanted to confide in him as a best friend before but alicia made me change my mind

Beside at this time the only person I can trust is Alicia and the elite team

Since my father is that desperate to ruin me there's a lot of things he might want to carry out through the use of money ..

Alicia was around I just don't want J eremy to see her

His way of talking and behaving has changed giving me more reason to doubt him

Alicia is just in the secret room practicing self defense and hacking systems

"I can see the guy is gone" Alicia voice came through and I turned back

"Yup"

"I looked in to his profile and everything about him is mysterious"

"What do you mean"

"Don't tell me you don't know anything about your supposed 'best friend' huh" she asked

"I know the things he told me" i shrug

"You are just stupid, the guys detail and history was cleared up, it was something intentional and I was able to place a bug on him through the drink that he was served" she said with a mysterious smile

"What did my love do this Time around" I asked

"A microchip was inside the drink now I can monitor every of his moves and detect when he's angry sad Happy s what he eats places he goes to and all" she said

"Damn you are one badass" I said nibbling her lower lip

"All for you darling" she replied

"I have an idea and I think we'd Better use it at the engagement party" I said with a smirk

Alicia

"Are you going to sit all day without any form of preparation for your engagement" Clara said

"Its not that big of a deal" I said

"It is"

"Okay fine I will tommorow okay but now I am busy"

"Hum produce my godkids" she teased and I rolled my eyes

I stood at the balcony and watch as the car brought him the guy

His facials looked familiar and his sight alone tells me there is more to him

That was why I resolve to the microchip

I will get him but first all we need is a full prove plan

Jeremy

I thought he was going to say it, damn how will I go about

If I had probe further he might be suspicious

Or may be he doesn't think his father will make a move

All my thoughts was that he was going to tell me his plan for taking down his father then I will give him my already made plans

No matter how smart he is, he wouldn't be able to get any information

Alex

Today was the day of the engagement party and everything looks set

My elite team were disguise as important guest and are mixed around the room making friends

Just in case they want to prove any form of violence they'd just switch

There are different surveillance cameras implanted at designated angles of the room

I don't want to take any chances

I sat at the secluded area watching the arrival of each guest but Jeremy isn't here yet

Based on our last discussion I discovered he's up to something and not to be trusted

"That man in grey suit is suspicious" I heard and I turned back to see Alicia grinning at me

"You are not dressed yet people are around" I said

"Chill darling it's our wedding and I want series of drama" she smiled

"Fine what were you saying about draco"

"Through the facial recognition Machine I used in scanning every damn person that comes in I discovered he's not the real one but a fake

It's a skin peel imposter part of your father's gang

And J eremy is here disguise as a business man you knew through Mable's

See him over there" she pointed at the side

"But that's J eremy just coming" I pointed at the gate as he enters

"That's his imposter they want us to think that"

"Damn this people are up to their A game"

"Sure they are not attacking Tonight but came to create loopholes for penetration

According to their plan which I manage to take a peek from they want to kidnap me, kill me and make you devastated" she said simply

"I won't allow them" I said gritting my teeth

"Me neither, that's the whole download for now

Let's go dress and act it all up besides the microchips are all placed in the drinks everyone except us is going to be under our monitor

Anyone that tries any thing funny

The button on my dress is the trigger that person on will wake up at the cemetery or emergency room in general hospital" she said and laughed

"Let's get married" I said

"Actually engaged"

"Call it anything"

"You are all welcome to the engagement party between Mr George Alex and miss alicia" the anchor said and everyone clapped

"I can't believe I am getting married to you" alicia beamed whispering to Alex's ears

"Duh to them we're getting engaged"

"They are all fools"

"Except my mother in law" Alex said smiling at

Alicia's mom

By the time the whole party was over I was pretty exhausted

"Ump....I should carry you in" I said and Alicia argued drowsily placing her lips by my earlobes

"Damn babe do you want me to have you here right now" I groaned feeling the sensation in my body

"Someone is here" she whispered and I dropped her facing front

"Hey son congratulations" he said with a sly smile

"Father??"

"I am back"

"Alex there's trouble" Alicia said as soon as I entered the safe house

"What happened the party is over and no one made any attack attempts" I said

"Partially true, you remember when I said your father wasn't the real enemy" she asked

"Yes though I doubt it" I said and she glared at me

"There is a chip stuck up in his brain making him to be used as a robot" she said and I almost laugh

"Okay this is not so funny" I said

"Am serious here, the average normal human eye pupil is either black Brown or the those special people that has blue eyes and cat eyes" she said

"Yes true but where are you driving at"

"Your dad's eyes isn't tampered with, it's not a normal human eye due to the chip

Round the outer corner of the eye there are particles of digits and analogue resulting to computation" she explained

"Okay this techy stuff is messing my brains up"

"The chip is set amidst the cross section of the brain and placed like a projector giving out his orders. kindly hi novels republic on WhatsApp on plus two three four eight zero five five eight eight nine one right three to get added to the novels group

Meaning his main brain cells and mind is on lockdown and he is out of his mind

His just a prototype of the invention

According to what I saw it's been in his system for quite a long time" she said and I signed deeply

"It's seems the issue is more or less complicated"

"I guess so"

"So what are we going to do"

"We have to find a way to capture him, or either wait for him to strike and lure in to a trap" she said

"Hum but first we need every information of the chip we can get"

"That's not a problem but this will take a little big of time because the factors backing it up are of greater heights and has people in power as back bone"

"Okay we'd wait for him to attached and trap him"

"Do you realize I will have to cut through your father's head" she said and I stared at her"

"Huh??"

"Yes since it's in his brain we'd go the source"

"I thought you were a computer operator since when don't know about surgeries"

"This is confidential matter we can't risk going to a Norma hospital, we can't trust just anyone, not to forget I graduated as a qualified surgeon and researcher before venturing to technology

You can call computer operation my hobby" she grinned

"You never seize yo surprise me my love"

"You never can tell"

"I love you"

"I love you too" she replied nuzzling her nose on mine

"Not to forget mom and Clara" she said almost immediately

"I will send them to explain certain parts of Africa as a distraction" I said

"That's good"

"Let the games begin" I said

"You make it sound like we are in some kind of war"

"Practically this is battle"

Alex

The next day I made arrangements on how to send my mother inlaw and Clara abroad

We claimed that we wanted to spend our honeymoon here at our house

Though it didn't sound convincing enough we were able to pull it off

Various bodyguards were station to shadow them through out there stay there and two were to act like their tour guards

The intruder were been monitored and even the spies planted amongst us are under interrogation

Alicia

"I have found the basics" I said as Soon as I entered the safe room

"What did you find out"

"It's pretty rusty than I thought" I replied and Alex squinted his eyes

"What happened"

"It turns out this chip was invented by your grand father and with a little help from his best friend

The main aim of the invention was to receive a noble price and use it for the government against our enemy

But something went wrong

During the cause of it's production your grand father's best friend request he has a part of the prototype

That is they should make two copies and let the others be a photo copy of the main ones

Your grand father been who he is disagreed and didn't listen to his friend

He had a basic idea of what his friend wanted to use it for so he didn't give in

That was left for some period of time and the chip was allowed to be produced

To your grand father he thought his friends gave up so he didn't think much of it

Since they both were in their late twenties and we're at marriageable age

Your grand father fell in love with a lady he met at his test field

Unknown to him that she was his best friend's child hood sweet heart

They met countless times and they fell in love

But the time your father's best friend found it about it she was already pregnant

He was furious and lay claims on her on front of his friend

And for the first in years they fought

It wasn't what he's friend could let go easily

For a complete year your grand father friend vanished like he never existed

Your grand father felt he gave up again

But the time he resurface your father was done with the last stage of the chip

That night after the launching and various recommendation from higher ups

His friend cane and stole it overnight

By the time your grand father found out he was angry and furious

He made attempt to go meet him an unleash his anger on him that was when he had accident and died

So they said, but when I digged further I discovered it was a premeditated murder and all it's traces were cleaned up

His friend had back up in the government and people who were interested in using it in the black market

What your grand father didn't know was that his friends. Was a part of the underworld

That was when the whole issue started....

"He's on the move" Alicia said

"Who?" I squinted my eyes

"Your father, he left the base and is heading towards the east coordinates" she said

"Okay go lay ambush and pick him up" I ordered the guards

"Yes sir"

"Are you sure it's going to work" I asked worriedly

"That's what we should hope but I trust KY instincts they don't mislead me" she said confidently and I kissed her fiercely

"About them discovering, I have it all covered up"
she said

"What are you up to little wifey" I said

"I have them distracted okay trust me" she said kissing me on the cheeks

"Everything is set and all we have to do is let him have a sense of security then he'd lower his guard down then we'd strike"

"Shouldn't we strike now it's the best time"

"No give it time okay, you will be going out with old George today"

"What am I doing with that old scum today father this is totally unfair" he grumble

"I want to use him as my tool of weapon, simeon his back and I want him dead so that's the job I want him to do"

"But that a life or death situations he could get caught" he said again

"Since when do you care for the old fool anyway besides it's for our gain he's be the suspect and we'd be Free if investigated he'd be proven guilty" I said

"Whoa that's genius"he said

"Go prepare you'd be going in a few minutes"

At the mainland bridge, across the the road on a sixty fifth floor of the skyscraper stood a standby sniper

A Bentley car was moving in full speed followed by two Camrys and three disguised bikers

"Boss the target is at view" the man on the building transmitted

"Is every one ready" Alex said watching the whole action from his basement

"Yes sir" they answered in unison

"They are approaching a sharp seluded bend two miles from now, shoot the tries once they make the bend and capture everyone" Alex roared

Back on the road, the two people who were totally oblivious to all that was brewed up were busy planning their victory

"Are you sure we'd not get caught" he asked fearfully even though he pretend to be strong in front of his father he's totally weak and just putting on s front

"We wouldn't be I am very sure if that" the 50 year old but agile man said

Bang!

The sound of constant shooting filled the air as they made a sharp turn

"What the hell is going on" the boy shouted

"I don't know either,"

We aren't even there yet they are already setting their guards up" he said

"Shut up and let's think of a way out" the old man said

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The four tyres we're already bursted

"Sh*t" the guy cursed

On the other side

Two cars from Alex team were already closing up on the almost damaged car

The three cars screech to a halt at the dead end of the road and the two elite teams came out

The two people in the middle car were already unconscious

"Boss we've got them"

"Good bring them to the base" Alex said with a smirk

I guess it's time to kick some ass.

"Alex??" The old man stuttered as he caught a glimpse of me

"Hey father how was your lil nap" I smirked

"What do you want why did you bring me here against my will" he growled

"Don't worry it's for your own good, so be a good man and cooperate" I snapped

I yanked off the sack on the head of his accomplice and I gasp in shock

It was Jeremy And glanced at Alicia and she grinned

"You knew??" I asked her

"Of course that's I've been keeping close tabs on him" she replied

"So you are part of them,let me guess our friendship was a facade" I asked

"Thank goodness you're smart" he smiled and I was enraged

"Cool down will ya" my father said and I ignored him

"You can't do anything our team would find us" Jeremy said

"You'd have to think that again" I replied

"This place is locked down and out of service no other devices can transmit In or out of here except the ones here" Alicia answered simply

"Lock him in the dark room" I ordered

There was no way her could get out if the dark room

It's door was built with the strongest of all irons and it has a very tiny window for ventilation

It's naturally cool like a cold room with average temperatures

The door was made with technical locks and can only be opened with passwords

Even if he manage to get out of the room there is a huge door separating it from the outside world and only recognize Alicia and my face so he'd have to work extra hard to get out

"It's all set" Alicia came out wearing a surgery over all

"Okay he's already asleep and the anesthesia was admitted on him"

"Good put him on the stretcher and wheel him to the lab" she said and walk ahead

He was wheeled to the lab and I watch as Alicia place the IV drip on him and brought out the various requirements

Unknown

"Why aren't they there yet" I growled and the others bowed in fear

"We can't hear anything from them" one answered

"I hope they aren't trying to betray me because I won't mind killing them both" I yelled

"Sir I found something" a gaurd ran in

"What"

"Checking the road survilance cameras we discovered that their car was double crossed and they were kidnapped" he said shakily

"What did you just say" I asked in a calm cold and sharp voice.

"They've been kidnapped" he replied almost crying

"Ha hahaha" I laughed out loud

"Find them" my eyes darkened

Alex

"This is the chirp" Alicia said showing me a ring stuff that's almost invisible.

"Yup small but dangerous by the time he wakes up he'd be back to normal" she sighed dropping it on her tray

"What do we do about J eremy"

"lure the leader out and kill them both"

"Sounds like a plan, so now wifey is there something you're not giving me" I grinned raising my eyes

"Get out prevert"

It has already been 24hours since my father has been operated on and he hasn't opened his eyes yet "He'd wake up soon so stop sulking" Alicia's voice came from behind

"Ain't sulking just running out of time, I want to clear this off so we can be peaceful" I said dragging her
to myself

"I understand you but I hope you know he'd be traumatized from everything that had happened over this years" she said

"I know but find it hard to believe" I signed

"Uhh" I heard a low grunt and I look at the bedside

"He's awake" Alicia said

"Obviously" I grumbled

I watched as the old man tried to sit up properly

"Laura? Where's Laura" was the first thing he said

My mother?

"Who are you what are you doing here" he exclaimed when he sighted me and Alicia

"Shit he has no memory of what he had done at all they shut down his sense when they were in control" alicia said face palming herself

"Hello father am your son" I said staring at the sudden dump man

'he's still your father' I thought

"Son? How are you my son, Laura is still pregnant and she's not due till the end of the week" he said Adamantly

"Sorry but that was probably twenty something years ago" I replied

"Huh? What? Where is Laura I want to see her" he said

"You won't be able to see her again" I muttered sadly

"Why where is she, she's never going to abandon me" he said hysterically

"My mother is dead and you killed her so chill let's solve the case" I said impatiently "Dead? How is she dead? Why would I kill her l?"

She's my wife you guys are playing tricks on me, let me go" he yelled

"It's hopeless, he's forgotten everything, the best way for him to understand is to just explain quietly to him and not let him leave till we defeat their big boss" alicia said facing me

"Dad just rest you would understand later" I said softly as we walked out

"So are you ready to face J eremy yet" alicia asked as soon as we got out

"No at least not now, I will capture his father who is the main culprit and kill all his armed men" I said

"Okay that's good"

Unknown

"How is the search going" I asked my subordinates

"We can't find anything, how and where they were taken to wasn't linked

The CCTV footage proceed as if nothing happened it is a no go area" he replied

"What the hell are you saying" I bang the table causing them all to shriek in fear

"Boss we have tried we can't find it" another interjected

"Losers! Fools! You are all fools! You can't trail a single shoot out how did I get to work with you' he yelled while they all stay silent cursing inwardly

"You know what you guys stay here I would do it myself okay" I said

Alex

"It worked he wants to figure it out himself" my spy said

"Good that was he'd fall into my trap without much effort" I said

"Yes sir"

"Make sure you enter their midst and poison their minds more against him" I said

"Of course working on that"

Hehe... It's just a matter of time before I get you

Alex

"How it going" I jolted out of my thoughts as I heard Alicia's voice

"We've managed to get him on our tail" I said

"Hmm" she said tracing her hands on my biceps

"Damn Alicia are you trying to turn me on" I groan

"Obviously" she winked

I was about to carry her to the table when my mobile chimed

My face darken as I said what's on the screen

"What happened" Alicia asked

"He's here" I said

By 'he' she already knows who

"So fast I was betting on s week' she said with slight excitement

"Really are you supposed to be happy, for an average girl you should be squealing and panicking by now but you are unexpectedly calm" I frowned

"That's where you got it wrong, I am not some average girl but your wife

So accept whatever you see" she smirked

Oh well she's right

To be my wife you have to be fierce and bold

So I liked it

"Stay here while I attend to the old fool" I said kissing her on the lips

"Don't get hurt I know we can do this" she said smiling at me

"Of course he's in my territory and his backups are all flopped" I smiled

"What did you do" she narrowed her eyes at me

"Well I didn't kill them all I paid them off recruited some and kill others, but those killed were his loyal dogs that will rather die than betray him

It's all a waste of sperm" I said

"Whoa"

"Invite him to the inner sitting room near where his son is locked up if he down soon" I said over the phone

"Yes sir" came the reply

"Let's get this over with" Alicia jumped up

"Where are they" he attached as soon as he saw me

"Well well well if it isn't old Kelvin Brooks" I smiled

"I am not here for formalities" he growled

For a man who had been working under the shadow for a long time he's quite stupid

And for the fact her was my father's best friend

Tsk tsk. What a waste and great distaste

I wonder if my father didn't have eye to distinguish between human beings and apes

"Answer me young man" he yelled

"What are you talking about" I asked innocently

"Tell me for the last time where is my son and your father" he growled

"For your son you have right to ask of him but my father? Who do you think you are" I asked narrowing my eyes at him

"I owe you no explanation" he said Adamantly

"Okay follow me let's go meet your son" I said lazily and I could see fear in his eyes

Of course he should because after today I doubt if he'd ever see the sun shine ever again

Episode 3 8

A week later...

Alex

For the past one week my father's health had improved

I was able to get him a private doctor and his mental health was quite stable

Kelvin's men are all disconnected and all his assets were taken by me

Since that day he had been trapped with his son in the dark room

When I noticed they were making a plan to escape I lowered the temperature in the room and made them uncomfortable

Though I didn't let them freeze to death

Every morning I go there to give them punishment and my perfect revenge was in the making

Alicia on the other hand had been behaving strangely

She sleeps rather too much and her

Appetite is quite large

She gets angry at any slightest thing and it makes me wonder if she was sick

I would have brought back her mother but I wanted to finish Jeremy and his father first

"Son" my father's voice cut through my thoughts

"Good morning father" I greeted

Though we're talking to each other but our relationship is rather strained

We are not too close and there is this wall built round my heart in defense

"You seem lost are you thinking again" he asked in concern

"No just analysing some things" I replied

"Oh okay where is my daughter in law" he asked with a smile

"She is.."

"Am here Father" Alicia walked in with a bowl of apples in her left hand and piece of apple on her right

"Good morning dear" he greeted her with a smile

"How are you doing Dad" she smiled

"Am okay" he replied

Getting fed of being ignored I walked over to her and hugged her from behind biting her earlobes

"Sweetie" she said softly

"Why didn't you greet me" I asked

"Are you jealous of your own father" she raised her eyes

"He's a man too and he's quite handsome" I shrugged

"Be reasonable boy don't even think about it" my dad snapped standing from the bed and Alicia bursted into laughter

I felt fulfill and happy since I could make Alicia smile endlessly

During this past week we had told Dad all that happened and how he was manipulated

He was every angry and almost lost it

If it wasn't for the doctor's intervention it would have been another case

"What are you going to do to those scumbags" Alicia asked and my dad stared at me expectantly

"Well I'd treated J eremy the same way you were treated

Fry his brain and take control of his sense

As for his father I'd peel of his skin bit by bit" I said meanly

Alex

"Argh" he cried out as the knife worked on his flesh

"I said I'd win didn't I" I said with a sinister laugh

"You won't get away with this" he growled in pain

"But I already just got away with it" I snapped

"In your dreams" he said

"What kind of man kills the woman he loves just because she fell another man that isn't him" I yelled

"Answer me you son of a bt" I snapped slapping him

"She was mine and no one else's" he said as he spat out blood

"And how are you the judge of that" I retorted

"I saw her first" he mumbled

Pah!

The belt in my hands to his peeled hand and he cried out in pain

"That's why you won't die that easily" I said leaving him covered in blood

"Are you done" I asked my subordinates

"Not yet he's in the surgery room" he replied

"I changed my mind, make him a complete idiot and turn him to out servant" I ordered

"Yes boss"

"Baby" I heard a soft voice behind and I stopped on my tracks till I felt her warmth.

"Good morning my love" I said staring at her pretty face. Kindly Hi Novels Republic on +2348055889183 on WhatsApp to get added to our novels group and get PDF links

"Are you alright" she said looking between me and the door I came out from

"Am fine" I replied and she cupped my face

As I held her hand we walked out of the confinement building straight to ours

"What's it" I asked when I saw her face scrunched up

"My insides are burning and my throat feels somehow like I want to puke" she said rubbing her neck

"Sorry" I said caressing her neck for her

"Blurghh must you feed us dog food all the time" I heard a familiar voice

"Clara" Alicia called happily leaving my arms

"There goes our personal time" I grumbled

"I thought you said you'd be here tomorrow" I said

"You see mom they don't want us to be here" Clara said facing my mother in law

"Mommy" Alicia called childishly running over to her

"He's done" a guard came to give me a feedback

"Take him to the dungeon behind the house" I said

"Okay sir"

"Let's just go inside" I said ushering everyone in

"Oh how I missed this beautiful house" Clara said clapping her hands

"Oh Clara don't be melodramatic" Alicia rolled her eyes

"Even after getting married you still bully me" Clara fake sob

"Yeah right....wait how did you know we're married" Alicia asked

"I did some snooping and found your marriage certificate" she grinned

"You're married?" Mom asked in shock

"Hey Mom" Alicia drawled playing with my nail tips

"Can someone tell me what the fudge is going on" she demanded folding her hands

"Erm... you sees... urghhh" Alicia put my hands on my mouth as she ran to the nearest bathroom

"Alicia are you okay" I said behind her as i ran towards her direction

"Am... urghhh" she vomited as she tried to speak

"Call the doctor" i Yelled at the butler standing near us

"No need seriously am very fine" Alicia said as she comes out of the bathroom

"Nope i don't agree with you" i said checking her whole body

"Oh my baby" mom said hugging Alicia causing us all to stare at her in awe

"Mom why are you smiling" Alicia asked the stupid question

"When last did you run your menstrual cycle" she asked instead

"That's two ago,,,,,oh" Alicia stopped on her tracks

"You're pregnant" mom winked at her

"What am what now?" Alicia asked

"I am very sure i heard the word PREGNANT" Clara said rolling her eyes

"Oh my gee your pregnant!! Am about to become a mother" Clara said again jumping happy

"How are you the mother when i am the one carrying the baby" Alicia asked

"I mean godmother" she smiled

'i am becoming a father' i thought happily dancing with in

I scooped her in my hands and twirl

Final episode

After the whole Kelvin Brooks ordeal Alex was finally free from his controller's clutches

Even though it took almost two years for his father to get back on his feet he still fueled the expenses

Jeremy on the other hand was made to pay for his father's sins and experience what being controlled feels like

He made him turn to their servant and served his father tirelessly

Alex at a time got angry at himself considering how he treated his own father but knowing he was being controlled at that time

If not for Alicia's intervention he'd have projected his father as his own enemy and killed him leaving the main villain alive

But he was greatful he fell in love

After that years drama he regressed from the mafia and focused on the company he had built from the very beginning

He was a business guru and even with his mafia duties he had been able to create sublet from the main company and had many companies around the world

In the underworld, few people were against his sudden decision to step down as the emperor king of the underworld

But he wanted to give Alicia a peaceful and a life worth living for Though majority were happy and weed hopeful of getting their ass on the kingship throne

But at least he did something to avert further troubles.

Even though he had stepped Down from the underworld

His enemies are of great numbers but his personal built army are formidable wall that enemies couldn't penetrate

At that time Alicia was first pregnant and he had to take extra precaution avd safety

"It's this a new hobby" Alicia's voice broke through his train of thoughts

"Huh" her stare at her blankly

"Zoning out" she said

"How's that even an hobby, I have just been reminiscing the goodness of these past years" he said dragging her to himself

"Hmm, are regretting or appreciative" Alicia asked gazing deep in his eyes

"Am regretting, I should have net you earlier" he smirked biting her lower lip

"Mama....dada" their one year old don Mike crawled up to them

"My baby" Alicia said scooping him up

Mike was their fourth child, don't Blame them Alex had the inevitablity of shooting goals

They had Kira as their first child and exact replica of Alicia with Alex's eyes

While are second child we're twins, fraternal twins

The eldest of the twin was the boy and Alex replica, the female twin was a abstract of the couple

Had both of their features, they were be J ake and J anette

Their third child was a male and he was named after Alex but called Xander

His personality from birth was aloof and cold

Alicia was still gazing lovingly at Mike when the door opened and the rest of the kids rushed in

"Mom" they all called simultaneously

"What of your father" Alex said brewing in jealous

"Cool your bones old man I gave birth to them"

Alicia teased and Alex frowned

"But it's was product of my sperm" Alex said shamelessly

"Mom what's a sperm" Jennette asked and Alicia slapped Alex's thigh

"How was school today" she changed the topic

"It was okay" they all replied

"Alright alright take your baby brother and go prepare we have a party tonight" Alex said dismissing the children before facing his wife

"What's up with you" Alicia said feeling the familiar gaze on her

"You know it's been long baby now they'd be distracted for a couple of hours how about we make another baby" Alex said huskily

'hell no" she shouted and jumped off

Even though they've been married for years

They never ceased to live everyday like newlyweds

And all this started with a deal

THE END.. ..
