FIND OUT IN THE STORY What happens when Tanisha LeBron got dragged into the palace as one of the slaves? In which direction will the life of twenty years old Tanisha turn?, Worse or bad? Who exactly is she?

Sierra is the youngest in the gang, she's seventeen but a professional hacker, she can hack the unhackable within seconds. Shay and Brent are two of the best guys in the gang while Tracy is a moll, she's got crazy skills too "Just now?" Lia asked. "No, an hour ago" Sierra smiled. "And why are you just telling us now!" Tracy yelled, hitting her gloved hand on the table. Sierra stood and glared at Tracy. "I'm not brainless, I know what I'm doing" she said and clicked a button on the laptop, an hotel came to view. "Sheridan hotel?" Shay said. "He lodged there, I had to do a lot before getting his exact location, minister Steve is crafty and cunning you know, he entered unnoticed" Sierra smiled. "Any bonus?" Brent asked.	Talking about the othersthey include Shay, Brent, Tracy and Lia

" Any bonus?" Brent asked.
	" Any bonus?" Brent asked.

" Sure" Sierra smiled, carrying the laptop.
"Cool, the drive to the hotel is twenty minutes, we have to go now" Shay said .
" Not without Princeton" Lia said.
" I know" Shay replied.
They left the room and met Princeton just in front of the it, leaning on the wall expressionlessly.
He's wearing jean trousers on black boots then a white shirt and a leather jacket, covering his tattoos but not the ones on his hand.
A beautiful stud sat on his right ear and his hair was styled into split bangs.
His handsome face added to the aura of perfection around him.
"I could just feel your presence" Lia said.
"Did godmother give approval for the mission already?" He asked flatly.
" Yes big bro" Lia replied.
Without saying another word, Princeton led the way out of the palace.

Landon's suite
The ear-splitting screams of the b*tch getting banged by Landon filled the whole place.
If only screams could bring down a building, the suite will be in shreds by now.
He's in bed with Vivi, holding her neck to the bed as he thrusted in and out of her mercilessly, choking her slightly.
"Oh no LanDon" She choked breathlessly.
" I'm gonna make you c*m on my d*ck massively, scream my name!" He ordered.
" Landonf*ck me harder!" She screamed when he finally released her neck.
He was about to make her regret not screaming loud enough when his phone buzzed on the bedstand.
He stopped to take it, it's a message from Tracy.
YOU KNOW NOTHING THAN F*CK RIGHT?, WE'RE ON THE MISSION ALREADY, GODMOTHER EXEMPTED YOU
His blood boiled immediately he finished reading it.
He pulled out of Vivi roughly and climbed down the bed, his muscles standing out proudly on his

" She's currently having her siesta, she ordered us not to let anyone in" the guard replied and without thinking twice, Landon brought out his gun and placed it on his forehead.
"I'm sorry master Landon but I have to follow godmother's rules" the guard said and Landon shot.
The guard wend down dead immediately the bulled rammed Into his skull.
Landon faced the others. "Wanna get killed too?, I need to see godmother!" He yelled.
One of the guards received a call before facing him.
" She says you can come in" he said, opening the door.
Landon went in furiously and met Zara sitting on her favorite couch, sipping from a glass of wine.
"Why the hell will I be exempted from the mission!" He yelled.
"Princeton went for the mission but not me?, Why is he always the perfect son!, Even Lia went but I'm not allowed?, Just why the f*cking hell!" He yelled.
Zara dropped her cup on the tray and faced him.

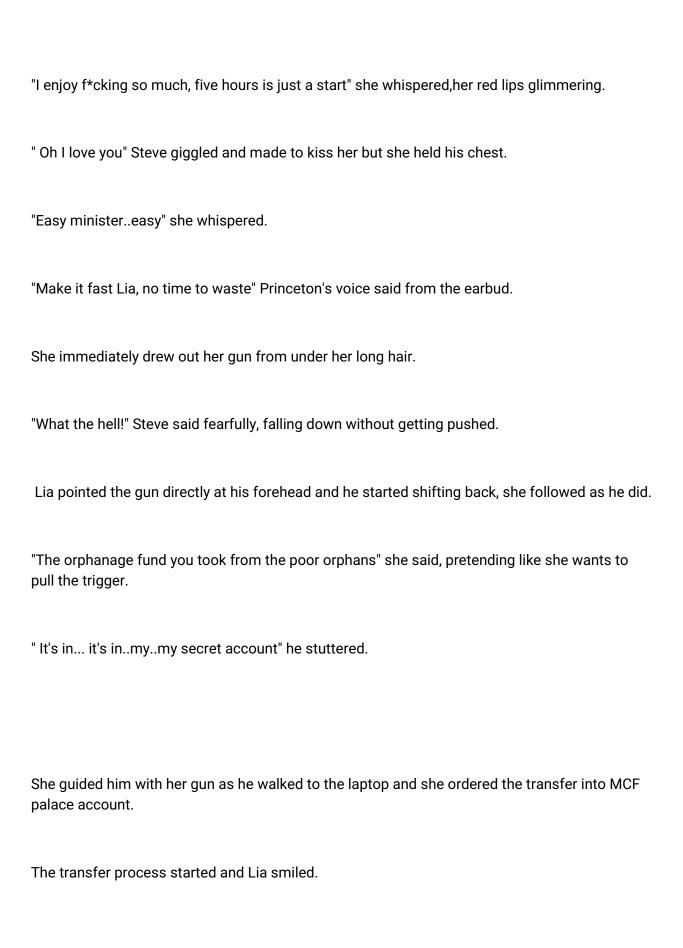

She stood up and before he could wink, she slapped him hard, a gasp escaped his lips.
"I remain the godmother of this palace!, MCF palace belongs to me so I see no reason why you should come here to rant in front of me just because I gave an order. You might be my son, but I'm stillyour boss" she said authoritatively.
Landon looked at her with angry eyes but his eyes softened when it met hers.
"I'm sorry godmother" he said slowly.
"You have a different thing to do with me, we're going to get someone so get ready" she said and entered her room regally.
Landon took the glass of wine and hit it furiously on the wall
"Shit!" He seethed.

SHERIDAN HOTEL
The black Benz stopped in front of it and they all waited in the car, waiting for when Priya will show up.
"Who's entering with me?" Lia asked.
"No one, it'll only cause more suspicions if that happens, the security is tight here, approximately there are more than hundred guards in this hotel" Princeton replied, looking at it.

" How did you know that?" Shay asked
"There are two guards on every spot, I mean main doors,a big hotel like Sheridan will have more than fifty main doors don't you think?" Princeton said without blinking.
" Bravo, ion know math" Brent chuckled.
"What's so great about math anyways" Tracy scowled.
" One million divided by 55?" Sierra asked .
" F*ck your ass* Tracy scowled and Sierra giggled.
"She's here" Princeton said, sighting Priya.
She's almost naked, the gown she's wearing is barely covering her thighs, it's armless too, a large part of her bbs is popping out and her face was dolled up, her heels stood b*tchily on her legs,true appearance of a slut.
"Whoa!, She's hot" Shay said.
"Hot my foot" Lia smirked and checked her face in the mirror after adjusting her earbud.

Thanks to Tracy who did her makeup during the drive here.
"Let's go for this" Lia said and got out of the car, she got a camouflage card and walked to the entrance where two guards are standing gallantly.
Sierra finished the hacking of the door and clicked enter.
Immediately Lia got there and placed her fake card on it, it opened.
She tapped her bud. "I love you Sierra" she smiled as she followed Priya behind, they entered the elevator at a time and Lia tapped her.
Priya looked at Lia and she thrusted the injection Into her neck.
Priya slept off immediately and Lia changed into Priya's gown within three minutes.
The elevator stopped at the supposed floor and Lia peeped out of it, there are two guards in front of it.
She stylishly came out and smiled at them.
"Priya" she said and showed her ID.
"This is not the Priya I know" one of the guards said but when they looked up again, she's already behind them.

She injected them too and dragged them into the nearest restroom with Priya herself.
She locked the restroom and adjusted her dress before walking the remaining meter to minister Steve's room.
She met two guards by the door but they let her in after she showed her ID, seems they don't know Priya's real face
She got in and met Steve in bed already.
"You're late" he said.
"Sorry babeI took time to dress up, it's the first time I'll be having an appointment with you so I tried my best to look good To make you regular you know" she smiled, dropping her bag on the floor gingerly.
" No time to waste, come here" Steve said.
Lia took off her shoes slowly while he watched.
"How can you be so s*xy, I'm getting turned on with your moves already" Steve said, standing from the bed.
Lia started twisting her body, whining and moving seductively till Steve got to her.
He held her to himself and she hanged a leg on his waist, pinning him.

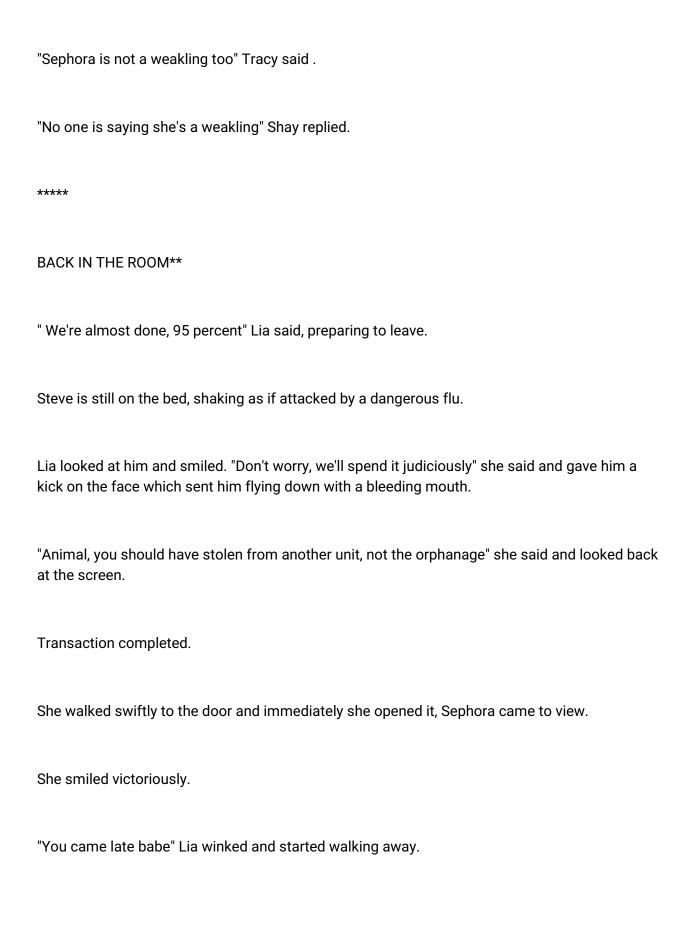

Nana just hugged her tightly, patting her gently.
The entry of two people into the house made her stop crying for a while.
She looked at the door and saw a dangerous looking woman and a guy.
Immediately Nana saw them, she knew she won't be seeing Tanisha again Maybe till forever.
Tears escaped her eyes as Zara appeared with Landon.
"I'm always fair with my judgements, since the one who borrowed the money is dead, I'll take the only available thing" Zara said, looking at Tanisha.
Tanisha held Nana with an hand, she held Sweet with the other.
"I promise to pay you back, I'll work hard" Nana said
"Even if I insist on taking it right now?" Zara said
"Huh?" Nana sniffed.
"You're aware that once the time elapses, I give no damn, Eros died already so I'm taking his daughter" Zara said.
" NoI'm not going anywhere" Tanisha said, hiding behind Nana.

SHERIDAN HOTEL
"Why is G-Dragon not coming out of the car?" Tracy asked no one in particular, looking at the red car.
Sephora went in already, she got an entry card from "God knows where"
"Why are we not coming out?" Princeton asked sarcastically.
"Oh" Tracy said.
"Lia what's up?" Shay asked.
"90 percent" Lia replied.
"Just a little bit, I think Sephora will soon get there" Brent replied.
" I trust Lia, Sephora is a dead meat already" Sierra smiled.

Sephora got it immediately, she rushed after Lia and made to grab her but Lia sensed it and did two handstands, landing far away from her.

"I knew you'd want me to wound you" she said and started running.

Sephora ran after her till she entered a restroom, she entered with her and closed the door.

"The only way to get out of here alive is to transfer the cash back to us" Sephora said.

"Try to make me" Lia smirked and Sephora went for her, she succeeded in wounding her with an hidden knife.

Lia checked out her wounded arm and charged towards her angrily, they bumped into each other and she grabbed Sephora's head, hitting it hard on the zinc, it bled and Sephora still came for her.

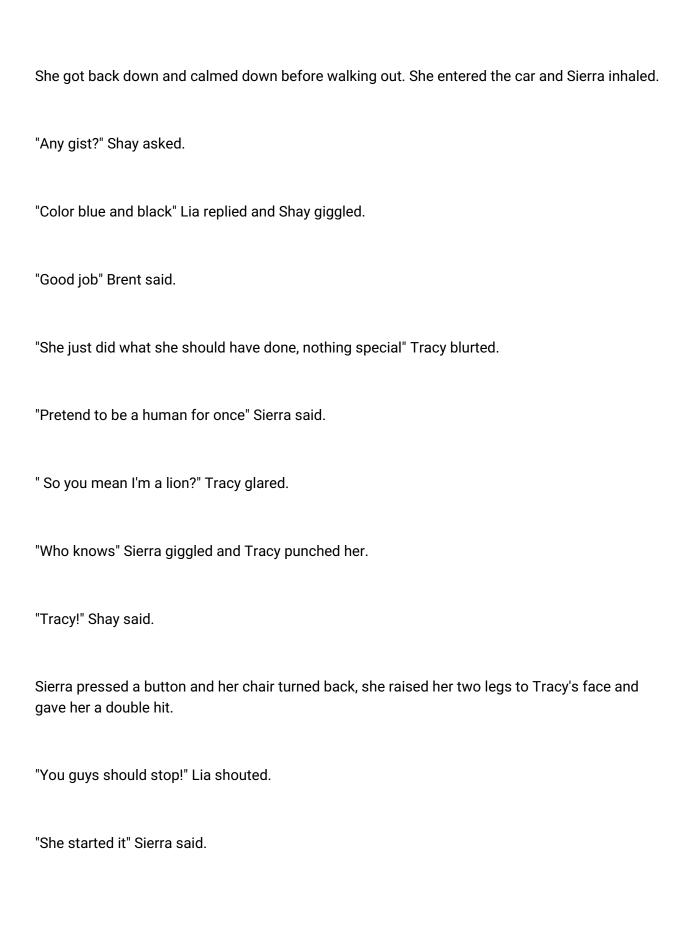

Lia ducked and removed one of the zinc bowls. Sephora threw a punch which wounded her face and the bowl almost fell but she held tight.

She kicked Sephora and made her stagger on the wall, she threw the zinc bowl at her but Sephora ducked thought not completely, it wounded her arm.

Lia smiled mockingly. "Tell G-Dragon you need more trainings, and try to eat well too... It helps" she said and winked before leaving the restroom.

She was about to press the elevator button when it opened, she quickly hid and G-Dragon came out.

The devil himself walked towards Steve's room and Lia quickly entered the elevator.

If there's any weirdest place she has ever seen, then here it is.

It's a home of weird humans, almost everyone has tattoos, most of the guys are shirtless and all the girls look fierce and vicious.

The smell of cigarettes and drugs hanged in the air, she can even inhale it in the car.

The place is rowdy and noisy, some are wrestling in a ring while some are cheering them up.

Surely, she won't like it here and she's never going to like it, all she wants is to live happily with Nana and now this.

And now she regrets the day her dad borrowed money from godmother just to make sure she goes to highschool.

Sweet licked her face again and she looked at it. "You're my only companion" she whispered and the car stopped.

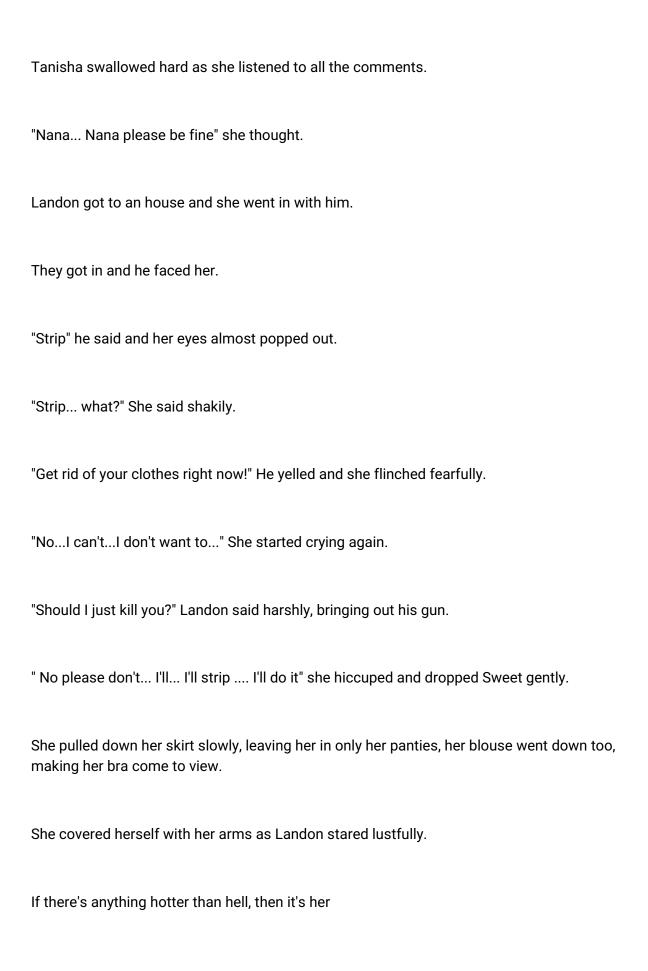

She looked up and the door beside her opened, she was pulled out roughly by Landon and she fell, Sweet fell from her but she quickly carried it again.

Written by Naomi Cindy B.

"Please don't hurt me, I don't want to get hurt" she pleaded, afraid to look up.

" Make her change and take her to the slave house" Zara ordered and Tanisha quickly looked up.

"What!, Slave slave what?' she stuttered unbelievably.
Zara walked away in the company of some guards.
"Waityou think you're coming here to live as a princess?, How funnyget up!" Landon yelled and she scurried up quickly.
His harsh voice is enough to scare her.
She held Sweet more tightly and he took her away. All eyes were on her as she walked behind him.
New gang member?
Talk of one hell of a hottie
No, heard she's a slave
Too bad, she's hot
I feel like f*cking her
Landon or Princeton will have a taste of her first.

"How can she be so tempting and s*xy?" Landon thought, his eyes darkening with lust. Her skin was flawless, her tiny hips stood elegantly, her bbs aren't big in the bra but still, she's irresistible. He started moving closer and Tanisha moved back. He kept coming then he swiftly pinned her to the wall, trying to kiss her but she resisted it. "No...no..no please...no!!" She screamed, struggling with him Landon drew her bra strap, trying to pull it off her body when the door opened. He let go of her and looked back to see Princeton. "Perfect son, you're back from the mission?" He said jealously. Princeton walked in and gave him a blank look before looking at Tanisha who still has her arms wrapped around her almost naked body. "You tried to do something with her?" He said and Landon took three steps closer to him. "You can take over since you're here, take her to the slave house, Mr perfect" he smirked on Princeton's face and started leaving. "Rape is forbidden in this palace, you're aware" Princeton said

Landon stopped for a while before walking out completely.
Tanisha kept her face down, afraid to look up.
What if he's another beast like the one who just left?
She just stayed glued to the wall, covering herself .
Princeton looked at her for a while and sighed.
"I'm not a zombie, ion suck blood" he said but that didn't make her look up.
He took some clothes from a bag which he pointed at her.
"Put these on" he said and she slowly took them from him.
She remained standing, not making an attempt to put them on.
"No one wastes my time" he said coldly and she slowly checked the clothes out.
It's a short skirt, it'll barely cover her thighsthe blouse is like a crop top, it'll surely not cover her belly button.
She was sluggish as she put them on, Princeton watched everything till she was done.

She even looks hot in that, she carried Sweet and sniffed.
Princeton gave her a look that's difficult to decipher before leading the way out.
The nosy gang members stared lustfully as she was led to the slave house.
It's a big house in the middle of the palace, a big metal door stood in front of it which has a big padlock.
He opened the padlock and looked at her.
She slowly walked in and he closed the door.
There are surely a lot of rooms there and the place is noisy as hell, voices are coming out of each room
She decided to enter the first room she saw. She got in and met two girls, they look mean and unfriendly.
She stood, staring at them before one of them stood.
"New member?, You're not welcome" she said.
" First time I'm seeing a slave with a cat, are you the daughter of a cat seller?" She further said, glaring dangerously.
The second girl just sat without uttering a word.

"I'm Reina in case you need to know" the mean girl said from her bed.
" Thanks for accepting me" Tanisha said.
"Who accepted who?, This is no one's house so just shut it and Whatever" Reina said harshly.
Tanisha dropped Sweet on the stool beside the lamp and slept beside Vignette.
"NanaI'm now a slave" she thought and before she knew it, tears slipped out of her eyes.

PRINCETON'S SUITE
The crying of Mina and Sana can be heard and the whole suite is so loud as Princeton entered.
Their nanny (Tammy) looks confused as she stared at the two five years old girls.
They're f*cking identical, no single difference besides Mina's one sided dimple and unless she smiles and reveals the dimple, no one will know her apart from Sana.
"What's happening?, Why are they in tears?" Princeton asked.
" I fed one of them already but they're both claiming they haven't eaten, ion even know which one I fed" Tammy replied and Princeton sighed.

Princeton entered his room and pulled off his shirt, his beautiful tattoos made him look hotter, he lightened a smoke and smoked rebelliously.
He was on the third stick when someone knocked.
"Come in" he said and a girl came in, one of the gang member, she has a proud smile on her face
Of course she should feel big, she's about to spend a night on Princeton's bed.
"Ion know how to go gentle" he said after dropping his smoke, unbolting his belt before removing it from the loop.
"Ion want gentle f*ck too, it's boring, rough sounds better" she replied and like a famished shark, he grabbed her and locked their lips together, traveling to the bed with her immediately.
Two minutes later, her screams rented the air as she received merciless bang from him.

Landon's suite
He just finished f*cking a b*tch, he's busy puffing on his smoke when Tracy came in, she turned him to herself and slapped him
"Are you out of your mind?" He demanded.

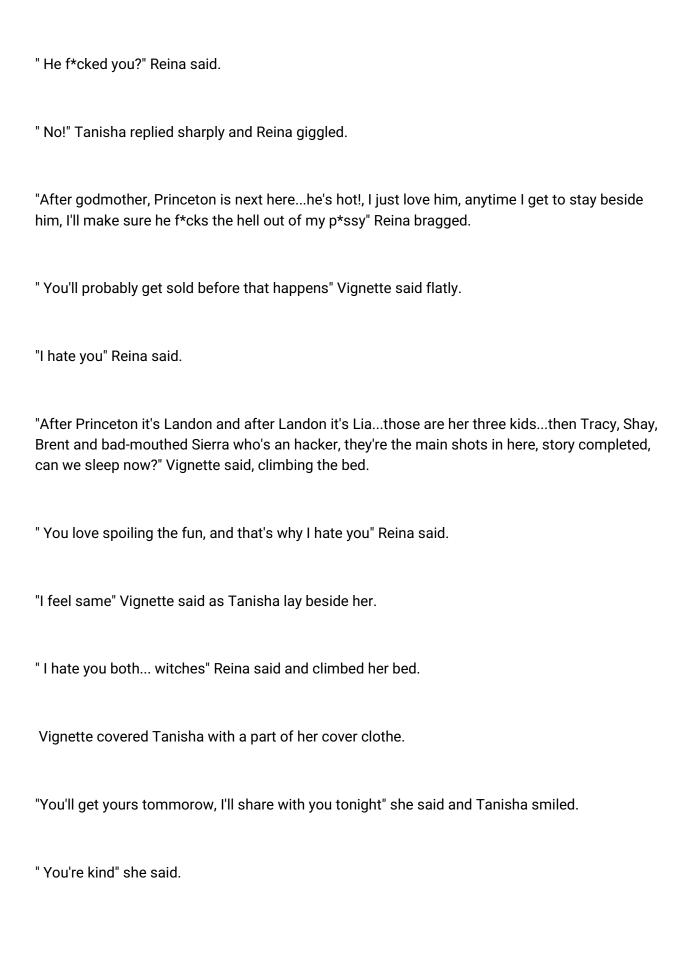

"You were f*cking by 4pm too and that's why you were exempted from the mission and now you're busy f*cking too?, Don't you want to be treated like Princeton?, That bastard made me run round the yard twenty times all because of that b*tchy Sierra" she said, breathing heavily. " And how is my f*cking life your business?, It's none of your business whoever I decide to f*ck so leave!, Stop butting in and stop meddling!" He yelled. Tracy looked at him angrily and made to slap him again but he held her hand and pushed her violently to the wall. A sharp painful gasp escaped her mouth. "Landon let me go!" She said. "I can kill you right now and nothing will happen, no one will ask for your corpse so be watchful of how you speak to me!, I'm still the son of godmother, respect me just the way you do to Princeton!" He yelled to her face and she laughed loudly. "Respect?, I'd rather bow down to Lia, you're nothing but a wasted semen" she said and pushed him away from herself. She laughed as she left the suite. Landon started destroying things, breaking everything he lays his hands on. Tracy got out and exhaled loudly, she looked at the suite again and touched her chest. "That fool" she muttered and walked away. *****

" We'll be on another mission tommorow, Kiss island, I can't wait" Lia said.
" Me too, heard Landon is included this time, I hope he doesn't ruin things as usual" Sierra sighed.
" Godmother will kill him if he does" Lia said
" Shay and Brent will be waiting already, we promised to eat dinner with them you know" Sierra stood.
" Sure, let's go" Lia replied, walking out with her.

SLAVE HOUSE
Dinner was brought in by the kitchen attendant Lady Macbeth, they were all served and Tanisha ate hungrily, she hasn't ate anything since yesterday.
She fed Sweet too as she ate.
"Goshyou eat like a dog" Reina said and Tanisha stopped eating to look at her.
"Dog?"
"Dogs can do better" Reina replied.

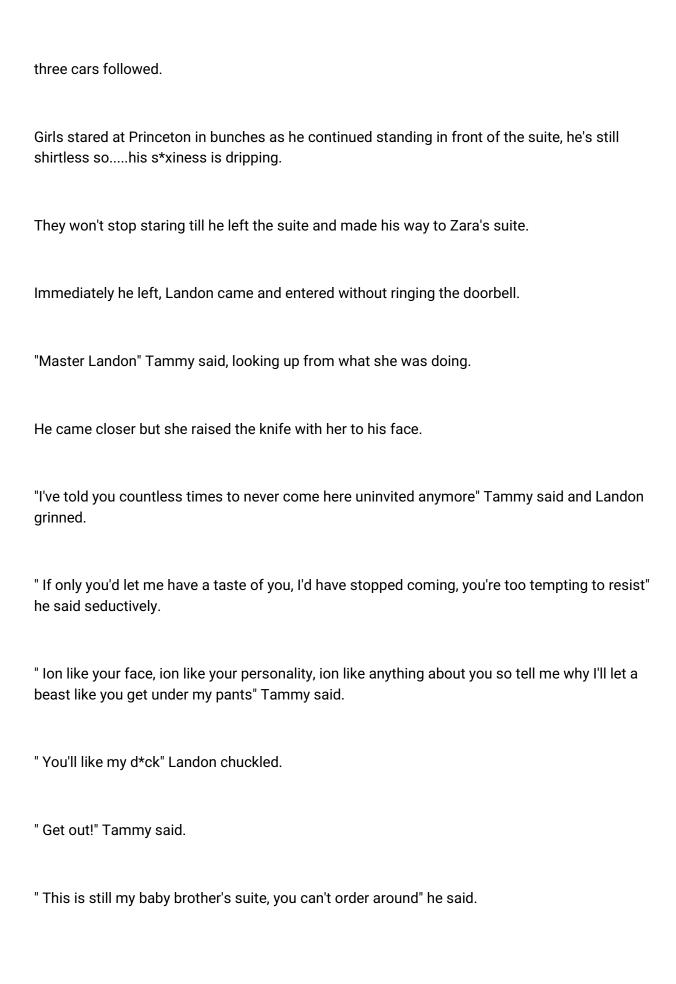

" I'm not" she replied.
"But I like you" Tanisha replied.
" Like yourself" Vignette replied and Tanisha smiled as she turned away.
She sighed and looked at Sweet on the stool.
"Goodnight Sweet Nana I love you"

CHAPTER 4&5

NEXT MORNING PRINCETON'S SHITE

Waking up to see that the girl is still lying beside him got him annoyed, he hates waking up to see anyone he s*xed beside him the morning after.

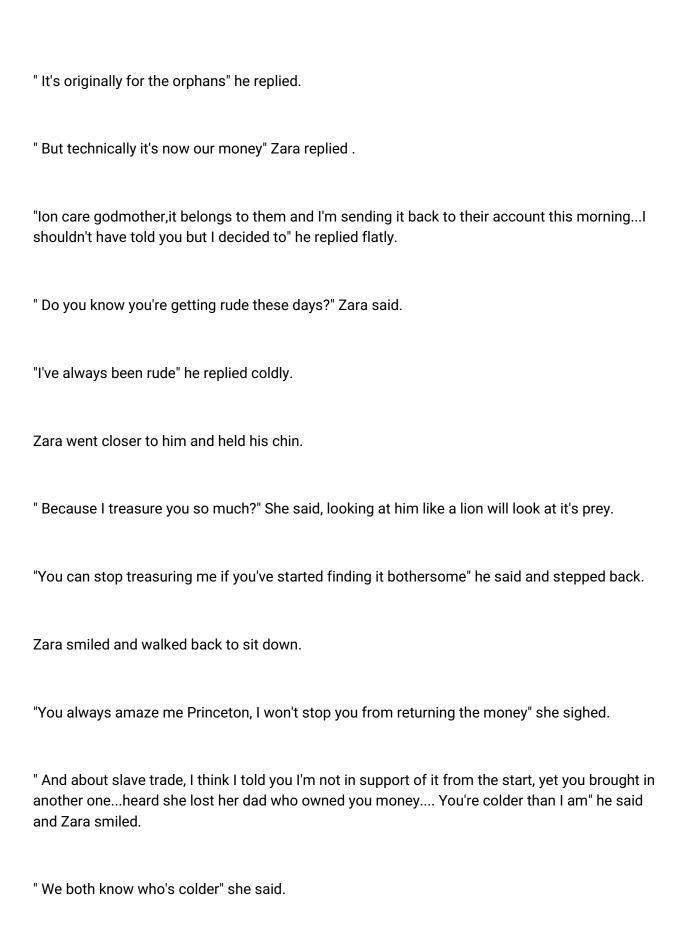

She's still stark naked, sleeping beside him.
"Get up!" He said coldly and she opened her eyes before spranging up.
" I'm sorry I overslept" she said and quickly scurried out of bed, she knows his rules so without waiting for him to tell her, she rushed out of the room after picking her things from the floor where he had flung them last night.
Princeton lightened a smoke and puffed on it for long, he stayed by his window, staring out quietly as he smoked.
"Daddy!!" Mina's voice made him look back.
"Shit" he muttered and dropped the smoke on the ashtray before leaving the room.
He got to the living room and saw Mina and Sana, dressed for school already with the help of Tammy.
"I really want a sweet dad, a sweet dad hugs his daughter early every morning,he pecks them too and tells them he loves them" Sana said
" That's true" Mina added in her tiny voice and he smiled thinly before walking to them, his trousers kept trying to get down from his waist cos his belt wasn't bolted.
He bent in front of them and pecked the both of them before hugging them.
"I cherish you both than myself" he said and they smiled, pecking him too.

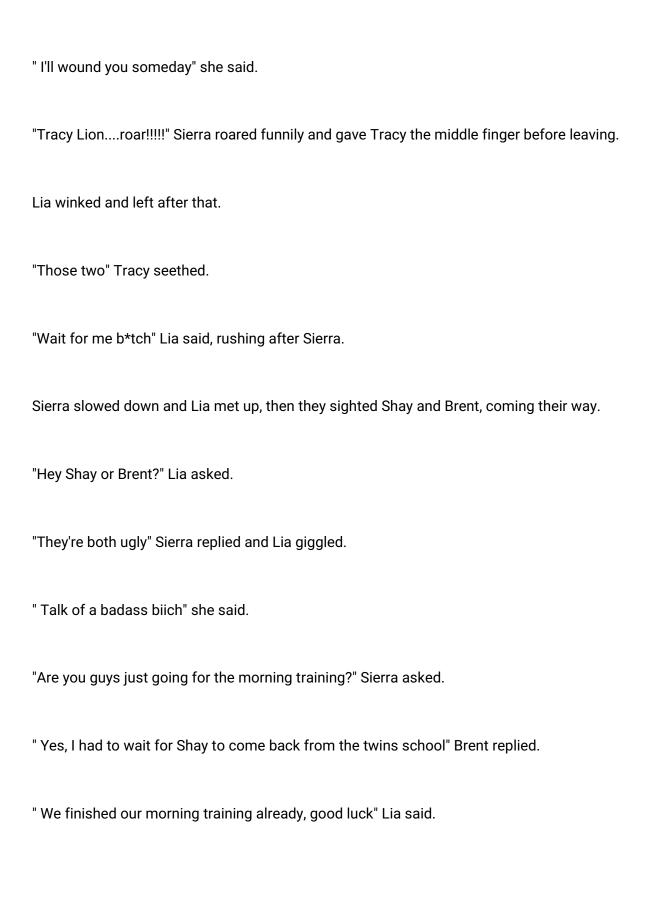

"Did you just say baby bro?, How funnyyou hate admitting that he's your brother and now he's suddenly your baby what? Cut it out and leave" Tammy said and Landon licked his lips.
" I'll make sure I f*ck your cli* like no one has ever done just wait till the time comes" he smiled confidently and started leaving.
He got to the door and looked back, still licking his lips.
"I'll f*ck you" he said and left.
"Maniac" Tammy said and entered the kitchen.

ZARA'S SUITE
The guards bowed when Princeton got there, he has unrestricted access anytime.
He went in and Zara smiled shortly when she set her eyes on him.
"Wasn't expecting you" she said, walking to him.
" The orphanage fund, I'm returning it back to the orphanage this morning" he said and Zara frowned.
" Why would you?"

SLAVE HOUSE
"Have you ever tried escaping?" Tanisha suddenly asked and Reina frowned.
They just finished eating breakfast.
"Are you out of your mind?, How will you escape in this type of captivity?" Reina said.
" I was just wondering" Tanisha replied.
" It's better to stay and get sold when the slave buyers come than get killed while trying to escape" Vignette said .
" After getting sold, where do we go?" Tanisha asked.
" Sell your body to men and make money for your masters" Reina replied.
" What!" Tanisha's eyes widened.
" Why do you sound shocked?, Are you a virgin?" Reina asked and Tanisha bit her lip slowly, looking away.
"I've never I've never hads*x before, I don't want to lose my virginity to a strange person" she replied sadly.

"The slave buyers are here" Vignette whispered and Tanisha's heart skipped beats.
Other slaves from the various rooms came out too, they're over fifty.
They got to the yard where godmother is waiting with two men, seems they're the buyers.
"On your knees" Tracy ordered and they obeyed.
Princeton appeared too, looking at everyone blankly.
"They're fifty seven, you can make your moves, choose your choices" Zara said and the two men started walking around.
Tanisha bit her fingers and started picking on them nervously, praying inwardly that she shouldn't get chosen
Vignette is beside her and Reina is on her second side, they both look fearless and she was surprised
Maybe they're used to it and they're prepared for weather they'll get sold or not.
She kept picking on her nails till one of the men got to her.
He held up her face roughly and she kept shaking till he let go of her face.
She let out an heavy breath of relief as he left that lane.

She looked at Zara and wondered if she's a human at all, it's hard to believe that such a beast gave birth to three children already, she looks like a devil.
Tanisha looked away from her and looked at Princeton.
"Is he kind or harsh? " She wondered and continued staring till his eyes met with hers.
Her eyes became bigger immediately, he won't stop looking at her. She quickly looked away nervously.
She slowly looked at him again but he's still staring.
"On no" she thought and looked down completely, deciding that she'll never look up again.
In the end, the buyers picked five girls who cried as they were led to the car.
The rest were led back to the slave house.
"I was so scared" Tanisha said immediately they got back.
"You should learn to be bold, you won't stay here forever, you'll get sold someday" Vignette replied.
" StillI was scared" she replied, touching her hair and luckily, there's a pin there.
"I need to get out of here" she muttered.

Landon tried to break free but it was impossible, she's too strong so he calmed down.
"Tracy, number one rule of this suite" she said.
"No violence between gang members here" Tracy said and Zara let go of Landon who stood and adjusted his shirt.
"Next time you'll get wounded" she said and faced Princeton.
" Speak" she ordered.
"Sierra" Princeton said and Sierra came in with her laptop, wearing her face cap backwards, chewing gum like a badass.
" I told her to hack into the Island and she did that, she has been doing that since Loki arrived last night" he said and Sierra showed them Loki's suite in the island.
"There's not even a single guard, the cash is not with him yet, entering the island will be useless right now, the right time to get him is just around the corner" Sierra said.
" If you're still insisting on ordering the mission to proceed, dobut don't blame anyone if they come back empty handed" Princeton said and left the suite, leaving everyone dumbfounded.

NIGHT 9PM, SLAVE HOUSE

Sensing that everyone is asleep, Tanisha got up carefully from Vignette's side and stood.
She has been waiting for this moment since the slave buyers left.
She carried Sweet and tiptoed out of the room.
Right now she doesn't care about anything that'll happen, all she cares about is leaving here as soon as possible.
She walked the corridor silently, making sure no sound is made till she got to the metal door.
It's locked from the outside.
"Geezoh no" she muttered and turned back.
She walked to the other side of the corridor and luckily there's another door which has a padlock in front of it.
She slowly dropped Sweet and removed her hairpin.
She curved the two edges before inserting it into the big padlock.
She started moving it as slowly as possible, trying to open it by all means.
"Please open please open please" she hoped in her mind.

Her prayers got answered when it came down, a wide smile spread on her lips and she slowly removed the padlock, it's so heavily cos of the largeness so she slowly dropped it on the floor.
She opened the large door but not without making creaking sounds.
She slipped in after carrying Sweet.
She found herself in an hallway and started running, her hair flowing as she ran fast down the never ending hallway, it seems like it kept getting longer and longer.
Her heart started pounding when Sweet started meowing.
"No please don't implicate me keep quiet Sweet" she muttered and kept running.
It seems there's really no end to the hallway cos it seems still long.
Her heart got stuck in her throat as an hand suddenly grabbed her.
She was pinned on the wall and Sweet fell from her.
The body scent smelt familiar It's definitely
"Hottie" his voice said and she frozethe beast!
The hallway is dark so she couldn't see his face but it's actually the beast who came with godmother to take her, the one who tried to do things to her the other time Landon!

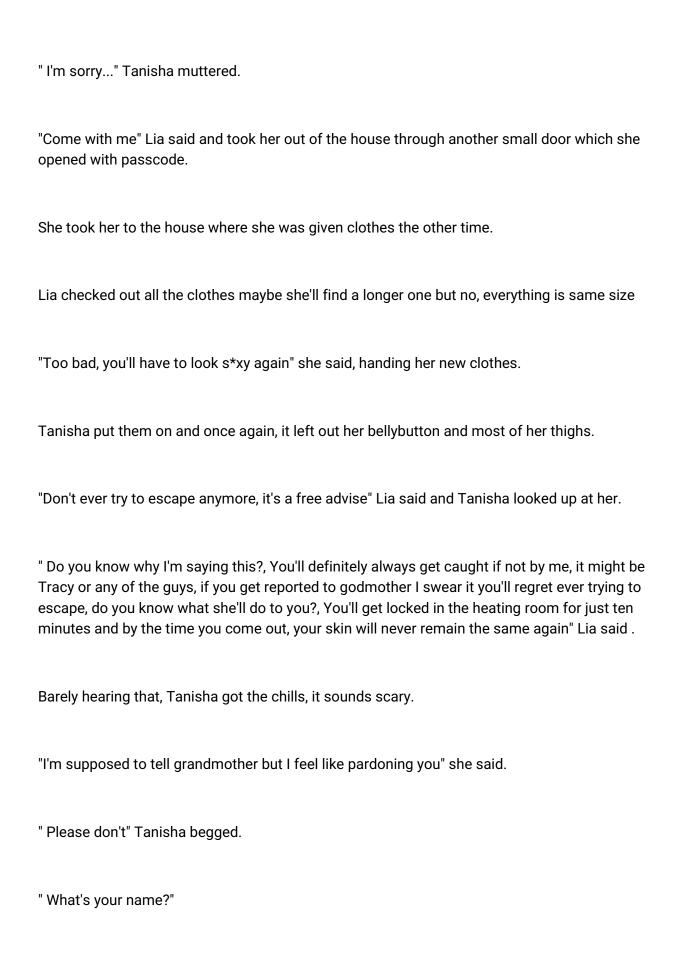

"Seems like tonight is my night" his inhumane voice said and cold sweat ran down her spine.
"Let's get this done fast, no one will hear you scream so scream all you want" he said and she immediately felt his hand under her skirt.
"Nono don't do it!, Don't touch me!" She screamed, struggling uselessly.
Landon slapped her and grabbed her bbs, squeezing it roughly.
"Someone help!' she screamed.

"Someone help!" Tanisha screamed out.

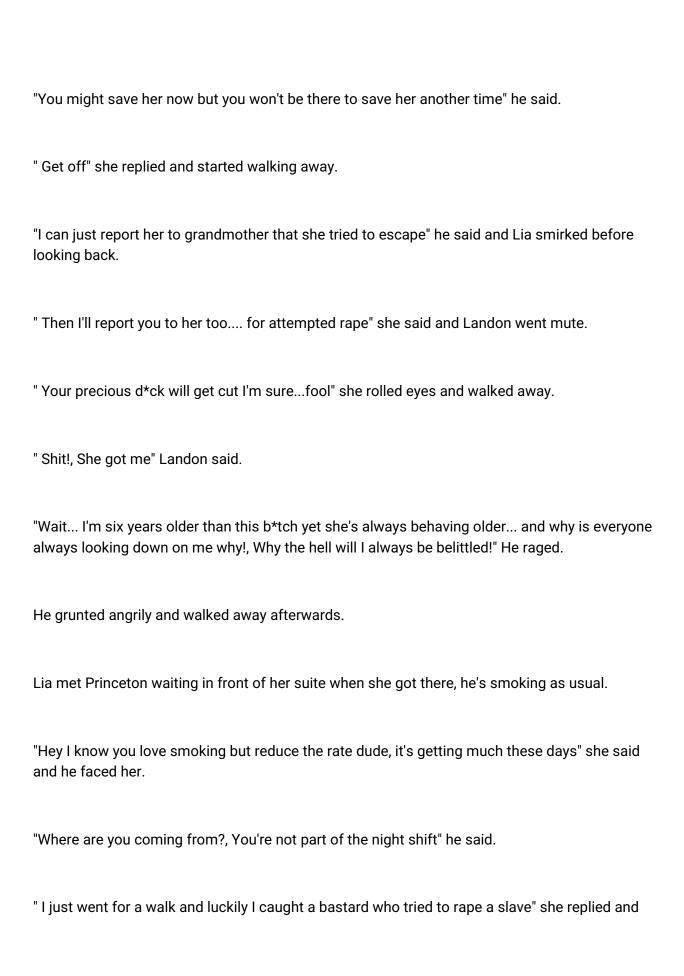

His hand remained under her skirt and he pulled her panties, trying to get it off her.
"Please don't!!" She screamed in tears.
He continued trying to get rid of her clothes, her skirt and blouse are almost in tatters right now.
His hand squeezed her bbs again and she screamed again.
"I'll f*ck you till you lose consciousness I swear" he said huskily.
A loud thud followed and he let her go, someone actually hit something on his head.
Tanisha stared fearfully in the dark, unable to understand what just happened.
The lights came on, revealing Lia beside the switch with a metal stick in her right hand, the one she hit on his head, her left hand is still on the switch while her eyes radiated anger.
She's looking at Landon as if to kill him, Landon is still holding his head, it got wounded slightly as a result of the hit.
"What the hell are you doing here!" He yelled, finally looking up at Lia.
Lia came closer and tried punching his face but he grabbed her hand and pushed her to the wall roughly, making sure she's trapped.
"Don't tell me you hit that metal on my head" he said, his wicked eyes rolling maliciously.

Lia held her chin and raised her face.
"You tried to escape?" She said and Tanisha sniffed again.
"How foolish of you, you actually think you can do that?" Lia smirked and looked at the door.
"Damn it!, Didn't notice the door" she said and walked there, she saw the padlock on the door and came back to her
"You opened the padlock?, With what?' she asked.
" My hairpin" Tanisha muttered.
"You opened the padlock with an hairpin?, Shay said the padlock is one of the hardest to toy with, then how come" Lia said.
" I just know how to do it" Tanisha replied.
Lia sighed and looked at her thoroughly.
Without being nosy, anyone will know she's difficult to resist, she's hot even in her slave dress She's beautiful.
"So if I wasn't taking a walk at the hallway, Landon would have raped you, that bastard is a bastard" she said.

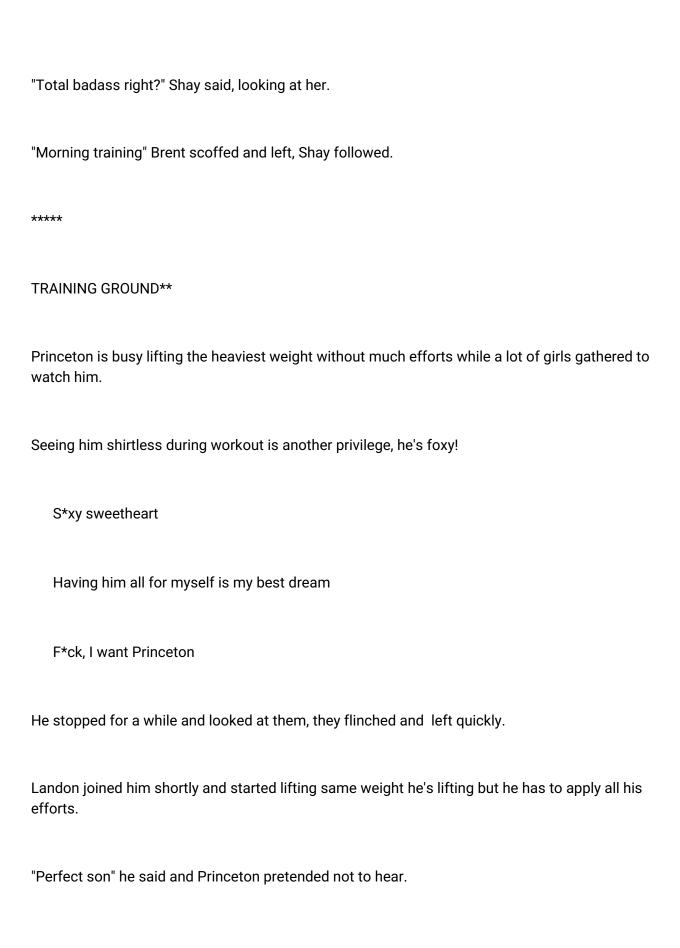

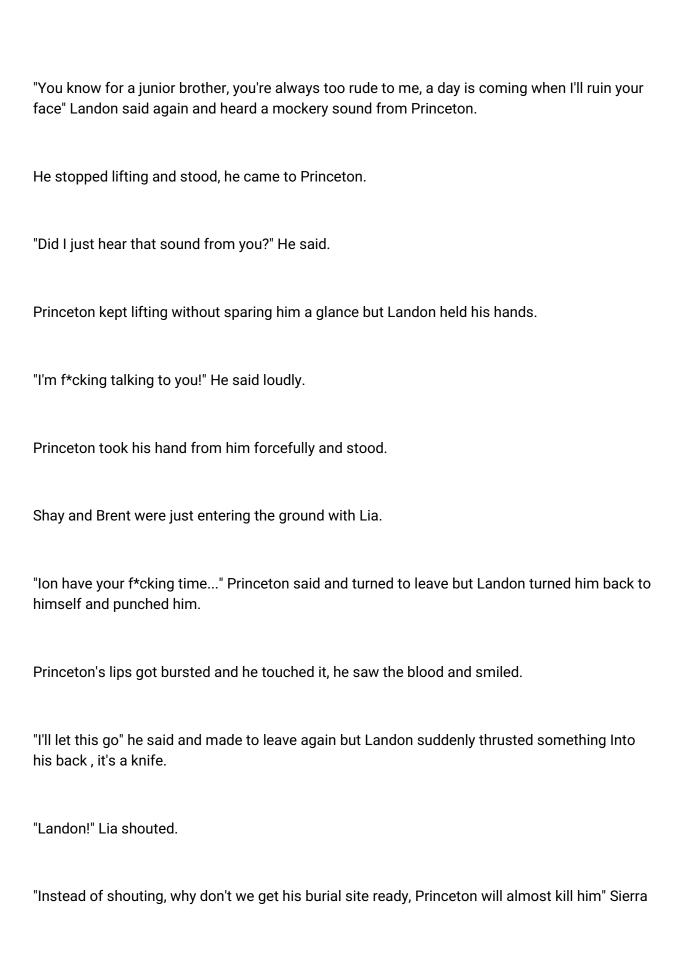

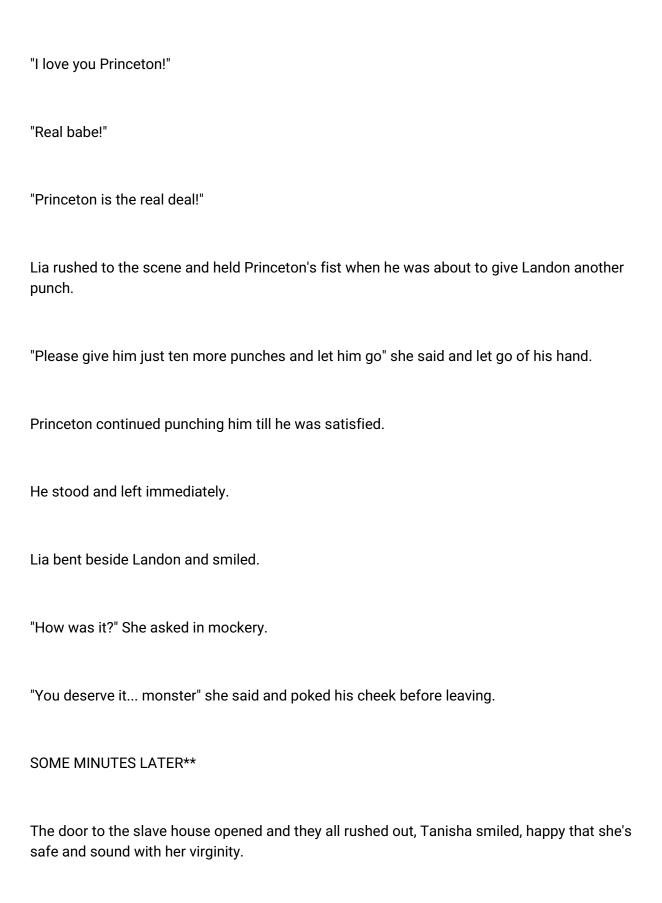

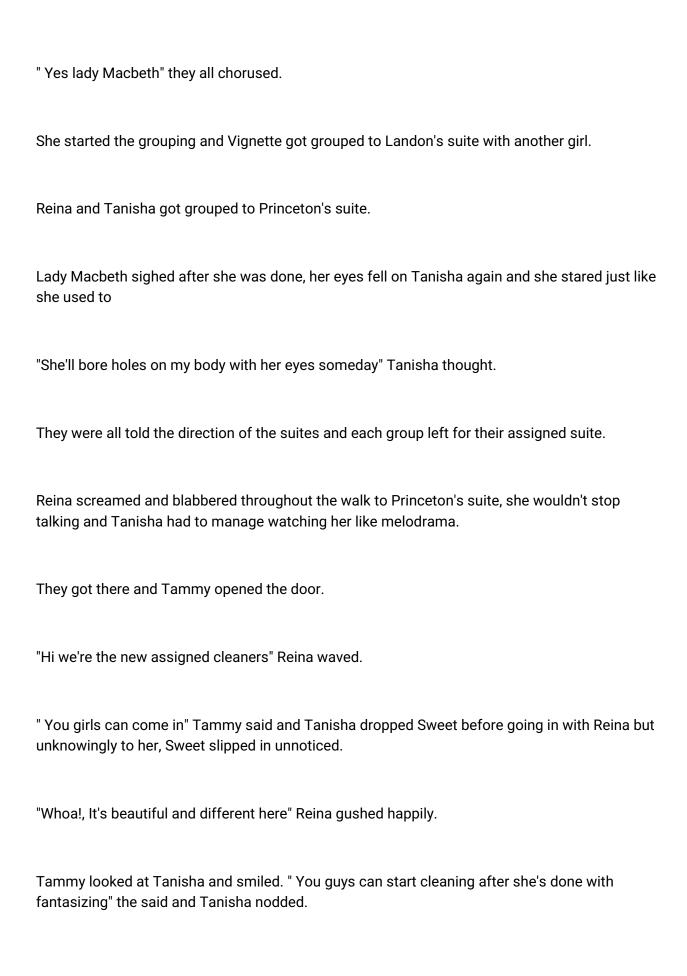

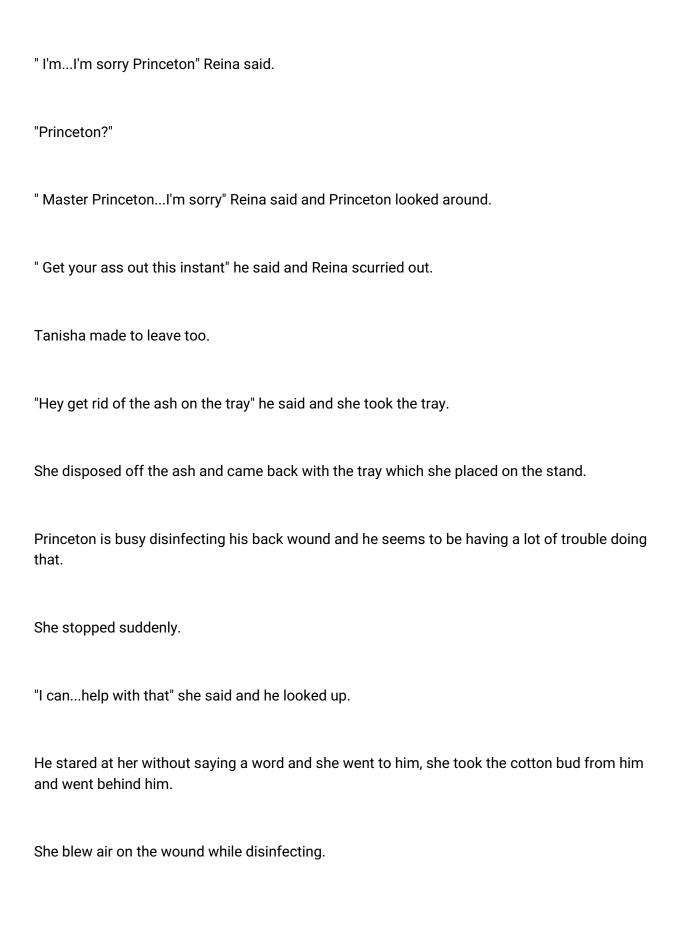

If Landon had his way last night, she'd be crying right now.
They're gonna be free as from todayfree to walk around, rather than having to stay all day and night in the house.
"Why do I feel like your skirt looks newer, even the blouse" Reina said, looking at Tanisha.
" Me?, I dunno" Tanisha replied slowly, Sweet licked her toes and she carried it.
" Maybe I'm overthinking" Reina said, still looking at her.
" Feels good to be out" Vignette inhaled and Tanisha smiled, looking at her.
"You're pretty" she said and Vignette gave a fake smile.
"I hate when people tell me that" she said
Lady Macbeth appeared and they all kept quiet.
"Godmother ordered your freeness feel free to walk around the palace with no intention of escaping, eyes are on you guys and if anyone is caught, it won't be nice" she said.
" Heating room" Tanisha thought.
" I'll group you guys into two each, each group will clean a specific suite everyday" she continued.

She got the mop and soapy water for the both of them and they started cleaning.
The house is clean, just needs little touches.
They went to the rooms too and had to do a lot before they were able to finish cleaning the twins room, it was so disorganized.
Princeton's room was clean except for the cigarettes litter on the ashtray, there's nothing to be done but Tanisha cleaned anyways.
Reina fell on the bed heavily.
"Are you crazy?, Get up!" Tanisha said urgently.
"He's not here anyways, it's my dream to get f*cked mercilessly on this bed, I'll be like ouch!, Harder Princeton seriously I want his d*ck" Reina said dreamily and Tanisha sighed.
"The hell" Princeton's voice said from the door and Reina quickly stood.
Princeton came in looking so furious.
"Are you deranged?, Who said you're free to be on my bed?, How come your f*cking ass was on my bed" he questioned.
Tanisha stood on her spot fearfully.

Princeton stayed still, not moving at all throughout.
She finished disinfecting and took the gauze and plaster, she carefully sticked it on the wound, making sure it sticked well .
"Done sir" she said and stood straight.
When he gave no response, she attempted to leave but immediately her hand touched the door
"So you opened an omega padlock with an hairpin" he said and she froze.
" I I
"You're good at stuttering" he said and she closed her eyes momentarily.
" II'm sorry" she said funnily and can hear him giggling.
"Sorry?, Why?"
"I'm just sorry" she replied and suddenly felt a presence behind her.
She swiftly turned back and saw him right behind her.
"Huh?, I'm really sorry please don't hurt me, I won't try to escape anymoreI swear I won't ever try it anymore please I

CHAPTER 8&9

Princeton's laughter was longer than the first one. Tanisha blinked severally as he watched him laugh.

He laughs? She wondered inwardly.

Princeton wanted to stop but couldn't, he walked back to his bed, still laughing so hard.

The fact that she was stuttering some minutes ago and now she's asking him for money is funny to him...damn funny. Where did the boldness suddenly come from?

Tanisha stood still by the door, looking at him shockingly, surprise will be an understatement, she's shocked to see him laughing.

He eventually recovered and faced her again.

" Your grandma?"
"Yes Nana is her name, I was taken away from her on the second day after my dad's death, I'm the only one she has, even when dad was still alive, I'm the one who cooks and take care of the two of them, and now I wonder how she's doing, it'll be hard for her to survive alone, she has no cash and I don't want her to die!!!" She cried.
Princeton looks astonished by her tears as it trickled down her face, they're not fake, they're real tears.
"I really hate to see tears" he said and she quickly wiped her tears but she kept sniffing everytime.
"I'm not kind butI guess I'll have to pay you back for making me laugh after a long time" he said and dropped his smoke.
"Her address?" He asked.
"The house beside the park" she replied.
" This same Marina Bay?"
" Yes" she replied.
" Ok can we start the tutorial now?" He asked and she smiled.
He left the room, leaving her there.

She looked around more thoroughly, it's crystal clean Maybe that's his style, extra clean life.
The room smells of strong cologne and everything is well arranged.
"Nana" she smiled and Princeton came back with same type of omega padlock .
"Here" he said, handing it to her.
"Hairpin" she said.
"Oh" He said and walked out again.
He went to Lia's suite and can hear the sound of the shower, she must be in the bathroom.
He opened the box on her dressing table and found enough hairpins, he took three of it and made to leave but an hand suddenly placed a knife on his neck.
"Who are you?" Lia's voice asked.
"Get the knife off my neck" he replied and Lia took it off before appearing.
"I could have mistaken you for a spy, why did you come without ringing the doorbell" she said, dropping the knife on the table.
She's only in her towel, water is still dripping down her body.

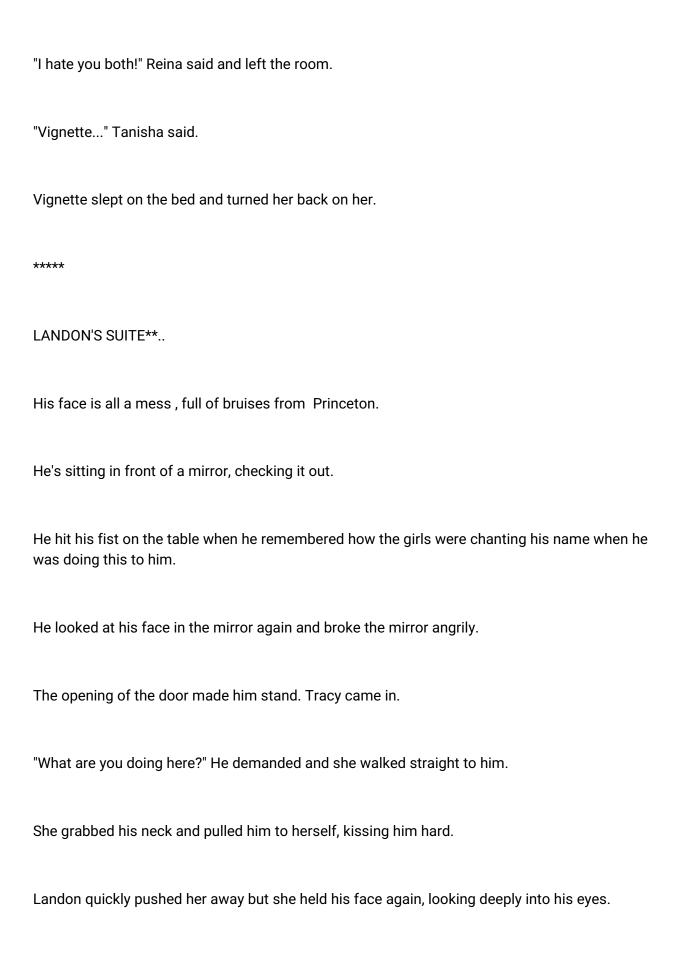

"To steal these" he replied, showing her the pins, her eyes widened.
"My three best pins?, For what?"
"You don't have to know" he replied simply and left.
" Princeton come back with them!, My pins!, Princeton!!" She screamed after him.
You can read more of these story from, unlimited story platform, fresh stories kingdom, house of story room, sweet and nice story room through Kwesi on+233554737287.
He got back to his suite and met Tanisha still standing.
He gave her the pins and she took just one, he stood in front of her and she curved the edges of the pin.
Not just normal curves, it looks somehow unusual.
"Seems hard" he said.
"Not really" she replied and he took the second pin, he tried curving it but he didn't get it right.
"That's not the way" she said and he took the last pin, he still didn't get it.
Tanisha nodded negatively and he left the room once again.
He went back Lia's suite, she's brushing her hair when he got there.

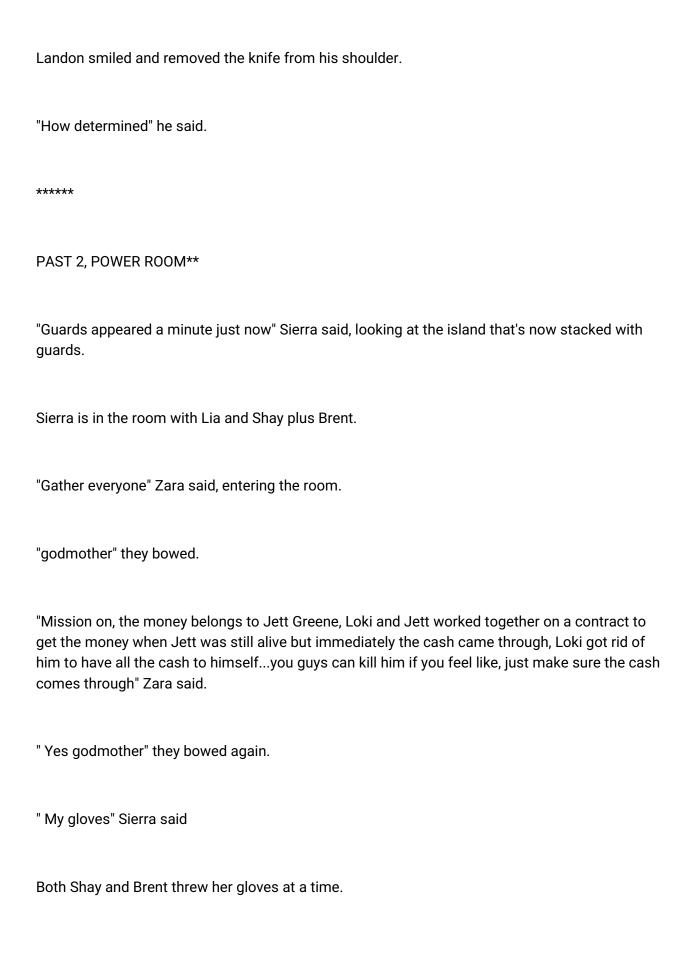

It opened up and Princeton locked it again.
He started trying and surprisingly, he got it fast, he was able to open it at once.
"Easy" he said, staring at the open padlock.
"Yes, it's easyI learnt it on my own, I kind of like trying logic" she replied and he looked at her, she blinked and he looked away.
"Thanks for the help in advance sir, I should get going master" she said and he didn't bother to look up till she left the room.
He locked the padlock again and opened it with the pin.
" She's something" he smiled.

SLAVE HOUSE
Tanisha entered their room and Reina attacked her immediately.
"Hey why did you take long?, Did he f*vk you?" She asked , holding her hands.
" You should pray to God for a brain Reina, I think you lost it to the five guys you f*cked" Vignette said .

" I only asked a question" Reina replied and faced Tanisha again.
"We're friends right?, You can't betray me and allow him to f*ck you when you know how I feel about him" she said.
" It's how you feel about his d*ck, not him" Vignette intruded again.
" Vignette!" Reina yelled
" What!!" Vignette yelled back.
"Stop trying to mess with me" Reina said.
" Who's messing with who?, Wide hole" Vignette replied and Reina slapped her.
Vignette never blinked before slapping her back on both cheeks.
"Whore!, You know I've always vowed to keep shut anytime this comes up but I couldn't, you think she's as cheap as you?, I repeatwide hole" Vignette said to her face
Reina made to attack but Tanisha stepped between them.
"You guys should stop!" She said.
Vignette retreated and sat.

She rolled eyes at the two of them before throwing it back at them.
"It's here" she said, bringing out her gloves from her jacket pocket.
They left the room and met Princeton by the car in the park
Tracy and Landon joined them shortly and they left the palace in two cars.
Zara walked out of the power room with the usual emotionless look, she walked down the corridor and everyone bowed to her as she walked past.
She suddenly came across Lady Macbeth and she bowed too.
Zara stopped for a while before trying to leave.
"Don't you think it's time to tell Princeton and Lia the truth about them?" Lady Macbeth suddenly said and Zara stopped.
" Just a bullet is what it takesto eliminate you if you say one more word" Zara replied coldly.
" I'm sorry godmother" lady Macbeth replied and scurried away.
Zara looked back at her and sighed.
"If you become a bother, I'll just get rid of you Beth" she muttered before walking away.

KISS ISLAND
Sierra successfully hacked into Loki's main suite in the island and he was seen with two blondes, having fun beside a pool, spraying money on the girls.
"Talk of a d*ck" Lia muttered.
"If we enter straight, it'll cause a lot of commotion, G-Dragon might just enter while we're fighting" Brent said.
" We'll be done with them within five minutes, let's attack straight" Landon said and Tracy clapped.
" Nice speech John Cena" she rolled eyes.
" There's a route to his suite inside the suite beside it" Princeton said.
" How did you know that?" Tracy asked
"I came here with Shay and Brent last night" he replied and Lia smiled.
" I'm jealous" she said
Landon stared jealousy.

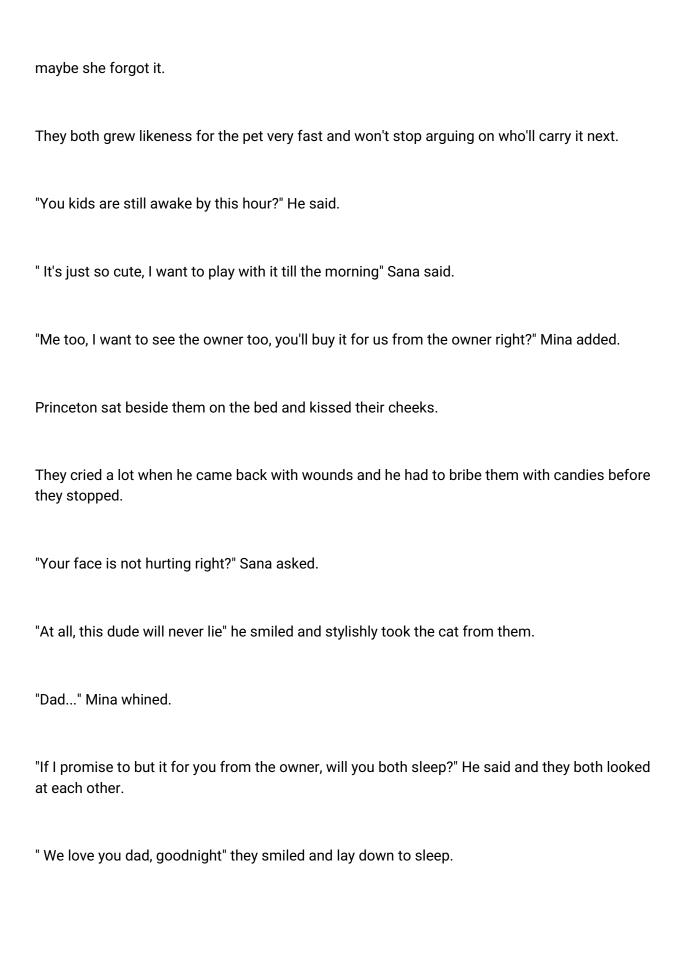

They got down from the car and walked to the suite beside Loki's.
Brent rang the doorbell and a man opened the door, he wasn't able to say a word before Shay punched his face, he fell unconsciously.
They entered the suite and Princeton led them to a restroom, Lia broke the ceiling and they climbed up, finding themselves in a thin passage.
They slipped in one by one and jumped down to find themselves in another restroom.
"Sierra you have to stay here and update us" Princeton said
" Sure, make sure your ear buds are intact everyone " she replied and everyone adjusted it.
They came out of the restroom and walked out to a corridor, Princeton led the way.
"Walking sluggishly won't help, G-Dragon and Sephora might appear anytime" Sierra said from the bud.
" Keep shut" Tracy replied.
They kept going till they got to the thin path which led to Loki's main suite.
It's packed with guards.
"Guess we can't escape causing commotion after all" Lia said.

He ran madly from there till he got to the swimming pool but Loki's dead body was what he found, together with the desd bodies of the two blondes he was sighted with the other time. They were killed in the pool and their blood coloured the water. Princeton ran away from there and kept meeting guards on the way but just a punch from him sends them flying away. He got to the front of the suite and saw a black car leaving. His eyes measured the distance between himself and the car....he ran just five steps before getting to it but he wasn't able to hold it cos the car is speeding. G-Dragon peeped out and shot but he ducked. He continued shooting and he continued ducking till he was able to hold the car. He climbed the speeding car and Sephora started driving roughly so he'd fall but he held tight. He swayed sidewards and grabbed the opportunity. He hit his heavy boots on the window and it broke, he went into the car and grabbed G-Dragon's neck Sephora shot at Princeton and it hit his arm but he never let G-Dragon go.

He kept choking him till he was able to free himself.
Sephora and G-Dragon attacked him and the car started going astray since no one is driving again.
They both dealt him with heavy punches and hits, he got wounded in the face and bled from the mouth till the car crashed Into a tree in a forest.
They all hit their heads on the car body, Princeton took advantage of the unbalanced situation and punched them both on the throat at once .
They both passed out and he grabbed the suitcase containing the cash.
He slapped them both before leaving the car.

7PM, MCF PALACE
PRINCETON'S SUITE
He just finished treating his wounds by himself and a part of him wished the slave could help again.
He walked to the kids room and found them still playing with the cat.
He came back from the mission earlier to meet them with it, Tammy said it belongs to the slave,

They slept off in a short while and Princeton kissed their foreheads, covered then well before leaving the room.
The doorbell sounded immediately and he wondered who could be intruding his privacy.
Since he came back from the annoying mission, he has refused to see or talk to anyone, not even godmother herself. He also gave orders that he doesn't anyone to come see him.
With the intention of bashing anyone it is, he opened the door only to see her.
Tanisha stood there with a fearful look on her face.
"I'm sorryI forgot Sweet here so I came for itI'm so sorry for intruding your privacy i won't be able to sleep if it's not beside me" she rushed.
Princeton looked at Sweet in his arm and sighed.
Seems like it'll rain tonight cos cool chilly breeze started blowing immediately.
Tanisha got scared and started picking on her nails.
Thundershe can't withstand it so she's hoping it won't strike.
It's the scariest thing to her but maybe fate is not on her side cos Princeton kept staring at her, his eyes hovered around her exposing s*xy bellybutton on her flat tummy.
The breeze became harder and colder, then a loud eruptive thunder followed.

"Aarrgh!!!!!!!!" She screamed so loud, blocking her ears with her palms. Thunder strike came again, accompanied with lightning this time. "Aarrgggh!!!!!" She screamed louder, bending down in front of him, still blocking her ears. Princeton swiftly pulled her up by her right hand. He took her in and shut the door. The third stroke sounded and though she's inside already, she's still so scared. She hugged him so tight, her body shivering against his own. The loud thunder continued coming and each time it did, Tanisha clinged more tightly to Princeton.

Her body continued shaking, one will think she's drenched with cold water .
Princeton was shocked but he stood stillafter all these subsides, she'll explain what it means.
The thunder continued for three minutes and when it stopped, an heavy rain started.
Tanisha came back to her senses and quickly let go of him.
Her eyes met with his own and she met coldness.
She immediately went on her knees. "I'm sorry sir, I was just scared, thunder has always been my weakness andI always panic and get terrified anytime I hear the sound of it, dad or granny will always give me a tight hug anytime it happens, it'll always calm me down so I imagined you as my dad and hugged you I'm sorry, I'm so sorry" she rushed.
Princeton stood speechless, looking at her blankly.
He slowly placed down the cat and it walked to Tanisha, she carried it and Princeton went in without saying a word.
"He must be so angry at me, I'm so stupid, what do I do" she said to herself and sat on the ground.
Sweet rested on her chest and slept off.
She quickly stood and made to open the door but she doesn't even know the passcode.

NEXT MORNING
Lia made her way to the slave house, specifically to check on Tanisha.
Sierra ran up to her and held her.
"I told you wait for me" she said.
"I just wanted you to run and you did" Lia laughed.
"B*tch" Sierra smirked playfully.
"You really need to meet her, she's hot and s*xy like Princeton" Lia said.
"I can't wait" Sierra replied.
"What made you stop crushing on Princeton?" Lia suddenly asking.
"He's got too many girls crushing on him here, popular guys are not my type" Sierra replied simply.
"So who are you currently crushing on?" Lia asked.

They entered a room in the building and she was placed on a bed.
"Take off her wet clothes" she ordered and Sierra did that with Lia.
"How can she be so fresh?, I love her tiny hips, s*xy bellybutton and flat tummy, but she has small bbs" Sierra said
"B*tch, is that important right now?" Lia glared.
"Sorry ma'am" Sierra replied funnily.
Macbeth got a box and opened it, she brought out a balm container and was about to start rubbing it on her body when Lia held her.
"What's that?" She asked.
"It's effective in fighting cold, after rubbing this, she'll wake up within an hour I promise" Macbeth replied .
Lia let go of her hand and she started rubbing the balm on Tanisha's body gently, taking note of her features.
She finished up and rubbed a different one on her face before covering her with a cover clothe.
"Done" she said.

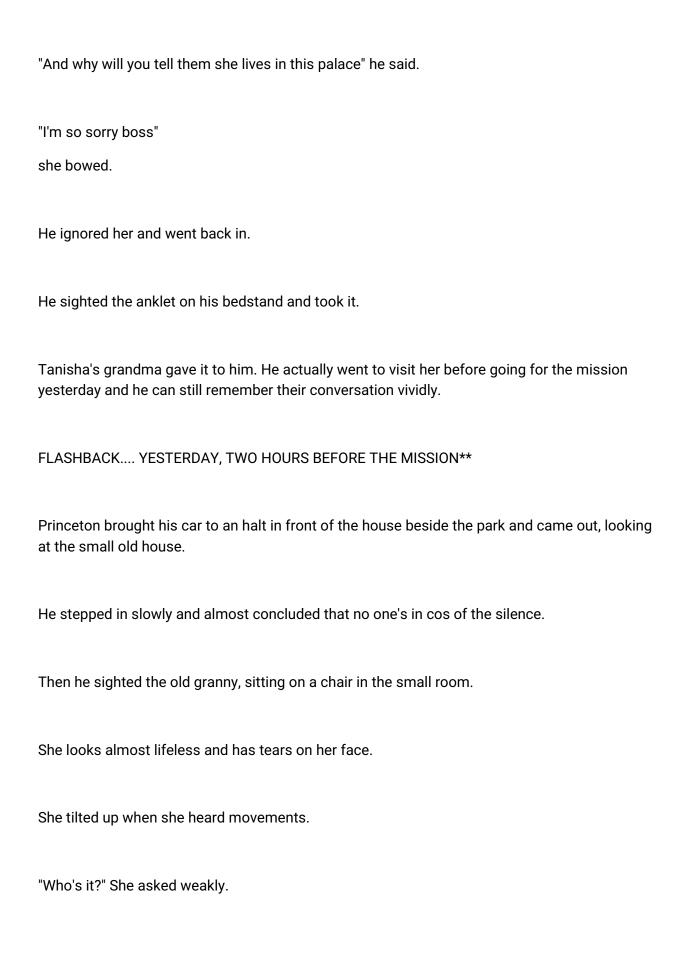

"Thanks" Lia said, looking at Tanisha deeply.
"I just like her the moment I met her" she said.
Macbeth looked at Lia then at Tanisha, she sighed after that.
"Butwhere did she go last night?, Why wasn't she in?, Why was she locked out in the rain" Sierra said.
"She'll tell me when she wakes up" Lia replied.
"We should go see godmother, she ordered everyone to come see her this morning, you don't wanna be scolded for coming late" Sierra said, dropping Sweet beside Tanisha and Lia stood.
"Lady Macbeth please watch over her till she wakes and if she wakes, don't let her go till I come" she said and Macbeth bowed.
"Yes miss" she said.
Lia looked at Tanisha one more time before leaving with Sierra.
Lady Macbeth continued staring at Tanisha and smiled.
"Is it what I'm thinking?, Or am I just overthinking?" She thought, holding Tanisha's hand fondly.

PRINCETON'S SUITE

Mina and Sana refused to go to school, they want to badly see Sweet and they insisted that if Princeton won't provide it, then no school today.
Tammy has begged and begged but they insisted on seeing the cute cat and the owner.
"It's so cute and i love it so much, I just want to see it badly" Sana cried.
"Me too, I want to carry it and hug it" Mina cried too.
They both started crying so loud and Princeton had to rush out of his room.
They're insisting on seeing the cat, they refused to let me bath for them and dress them up" Tammy said and Princeton sighed.
He came out last night some minutes after he went in but couldn't find Tanisha anymore so he concluded that she left already.
"Girls, I promise to fulfil my promise but you both need to go to school" he said, touching their hairs
"No" they both chorused.
"Mina, Sanayou both don't trust me?" He said.

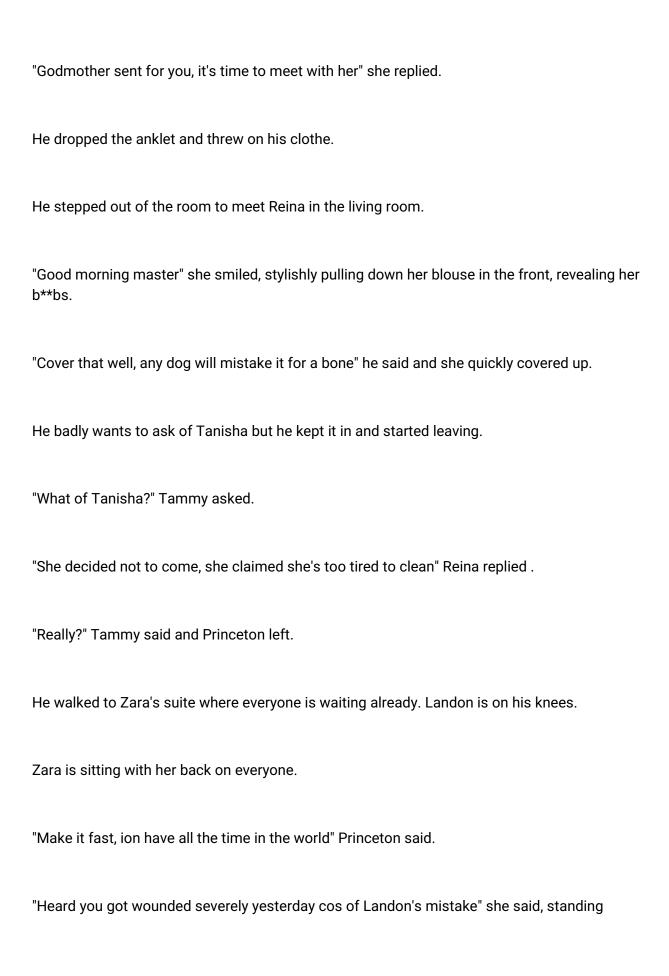

"Bring the cat right now, nanny said the owner is living in this palace* Sana said and Tammy quickly slipped into the kitchen.

"What if I promise to get it before you guys come back from school pleaseyou guys can't skip school" he practically pleaded.
Sana looked at Mina and they both nodded.
Princeton smiled and kissed them both.
"Tammy they're ready" he said.
"We never said we're going to school" Sana said.
"What!"
"You said you're gonna get it for is before we come back from school, if we go to school now, we'll be back after six hours, so in six hours time, we wanna see the cat" Mina said.
"You girls are
"We'll be in our room" Sana said and went in with Mina.
Princeton sighed and bit his lip in frustration.
"They should just strangle me" he muttered and stood, facing Tammy.

Her cheekbones and collarbones are revealing so much.
Princeton kept looking at her without saying anything till she successfully stood.
She walked slowly to him and almost fell but she held herself till she got to him.
"Who are you?" She asked.
"Princeton" he replied .
"Princeton?"
"Yes, from MCF palace " he replied and she grabbed him.
"My granddaughter!!, What did you guys do to her!!, What has happened to my Tanisha!!, She's the only one I have, please bring her back or better still, take me to her pleaseI miss her so much" She cried loudly.
Princeton slowly removed her skinny hands from his clothes and made her sit though she's still crying.
"If you continue crying, then I won't tell you what she told me to say" he said and Nana quickly wiped the tears
"She sent you to me?, My Tanisha said what?, Is she fine?, Is she ok?, Is she getting a fair treatment?" She asked impatiently.

Landon looked at her eyes that has never held any warmth for him, he sighed slowly.
"I'm sorry" he said and Zara threw the gun back to Shay who caught it.
"You're exempted from the next mission" she said
"Mother!" Landon said and she glared at him.
"godmother pardon me please, I really want to go to the next mission" he said gently
"Not allowed, Boris port Saturday Next batch of drugs is coming Princeton, it must get here safely, waste any hijacker who pops up" she said.
Princeton never talked before walking out
The rest followed then Landon stormed out last.
He sighted a girl member and grabbed her on his way to his suite.
The girl followed her excitedly till they got to his suite.
He took her in and tore away her thin clothes, he widened her legs before zipping down
Throwing away his trousers, he roughly dived into her and the girl pulled him closer.

He started his hard f*ck, letting his d*ck move without stop inside her.
He poured all his anger into her and she kept screaming throughout, even wanting more.
His balls slammed rebelliously on her as he made his harsh moves,
He never bothered to suck her, it's not even on his mind, all he wants is f*ck while raging.
He pulled out suddenly and pulled her down from the bed.
He bent her over the bed and rammed into her p*ssythrough the back.
"Landon f*ck!, You're too large I sweargosh feels like heaven!" She screamed so loud.
He spanked her ass and she screamed louder, he continued spanking and f*cking till her ass cheeks turned bright red.
Her legs shivered and her insides turned upside down.
He felt himself coming undone and pulled out of her.
Before he could finish c*mming, he became hard again.
She hasn't taken up to three breaths when he pushed her to the bed and pushed himself into her p*say again, making her scream out.

Sweet moved beside her and she carried it, hugging it tight. "I'm glad you're fine, sorry for letting you sleep in the rain" she said and Macbeth smiled, watching her cuteness. She looked at the food again, stacked with meat. She quickly picked the fork and started eating the meat, feeding Sweet too. If there's anything she loves most after her Nana and late dad, it's meat...she loves it madly. She finished the meat within seconds. "Want more?" Macbeth asked and she nodded slowly. Macbeth gave her another plate of meat and she drank the juice after finishing that too. She was given her clothes, it's all dried now She put it on and carried sweet. "Bye lady Mac" she waved and before she could stop her, Tanisha left. "Oh... Lia told me to stop her" she said, sighing afterwards. Tanisha walked energetically back to the slave house but stopped when Landon appeared in "Ahh!" Tracy gasped, falling blindly.

For a good her eyes were blurry
For a second, her eyes were blurry.
"Get up" Princeton ordered and she looked up at him.
"I won't repeat what I just said" Princeton said and she stood slowly.
" Anyone there?" Princeton beckoned and two guys appeared.
"Take her to the yard" he ordered and Tracy was taken away.
Princeton faced Tanisha who stood gummed on her spot.

She looks pitiful and she has little tear on her face.

His eyes darted to her legs and he saw the scratch, he looked at her bleeding lip again and took two steps closer.
"I already told you I hate tears" he said and she quickly wiped her tears.
She looked at Sweet who fell during the torture, it's sitting beside her, she carried it and it started looking into her eyes.
"I'm fine" she said and hugged it.
"Follow me" Princeton said and led the way out of the corner.
He started the walk to his suite while she followed slowly behind till they got there.
He opened the door and faced her.
"Go in" he said and she obeyed, walking in slowly.
"Hey what are you doing here?, You weren't here with Reina in the morning to clean andwhat's up with your face?" Tammy asked immediately.
Princeton came in and she kept shut.
"Treat her wounds, I'll be right back" he said.
"Yes boss" she replied and Princeton left.

She applied all her strength and carried it but she had barely reached half of the way when she dropped it.
She's already swearing a lot and her back aches already.
She hit her leg on the metal repeatedly, pouring her anger on it.
"I hate everyone!, I hate everyone! Landon!!!!!" She screamed.

PRINCETON'S SUITE
"Reina said you claimed you were too tired to clean" Tammy said as she wiped the blood on Tanisha's lips with cotton buds
"I never said that, I've not seen her nor Vignette today, I was locked out last night and I passed out in the rain" she replied and Tammy gasped.
" You what?, Are you ok?" She asked, touching her forehead to feel her temperature.
" I'm fine, Lia and Sierra took me to lady Macbeth and I got treated" she replied and Tammy smiled.
She focused back on her lips and gently applied an ointiment on it.

"Hi cutie!" Mina waved at Sweet.
"You girls are so persistent I must say" Tammy smiled.
" Hi Miss, are you the owner of it?" Sana waved.
"Sweet?, Yes, it's mine" Tanisha replied simply, staring at them nonstop.
How can kids be so adorable?, Their blue eyes, their curly hair and pretty perfect faces, wow!
"It's name is Sweet?, It's really really sweet, I love your cat so much" Mina smiled, stroking Sweet's head.
Sweet raised it's paw and Sana quickly held it.
"How cute!" She smiled.
"You're so pretty" Mina said, looking at Tanisha.
" Huh?, Me?" She said.

" What's your name?" Mina asked.

" Tanisha" she smiled.
" Whoa, are you a gang member?" Sana asked.
" No" she replied.
" An help in the kitchen?" Mina asked.
" No"
" A friend to a gang member?" Sana asked.
" Are we in an interview now?" Tammy cautioned but the girls continued looking at Tanisha questioningly.
"I'ma slave" she finally said and their eyes widened
"That's not nice" Mina said.
"I like you and I like your dog too, I don't care if you're a slave, so far you have a pretty face and a cute dog, you seem warm too" Sana said.
" Same here, I love you already, can we play with Sweet?" Mina asked.
" Sure" Tanisha replied and released it for them.

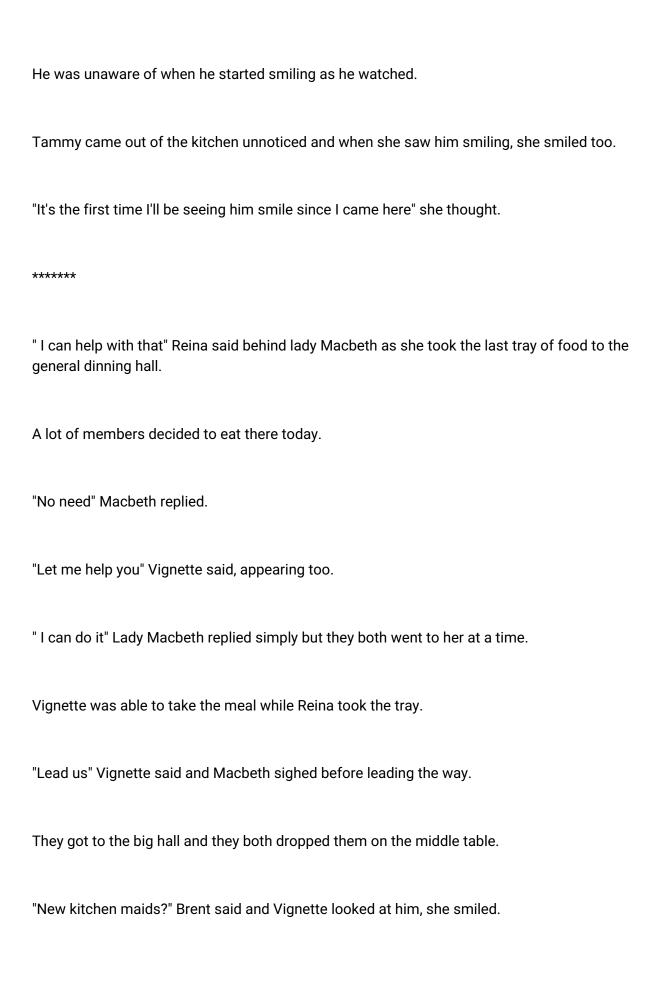

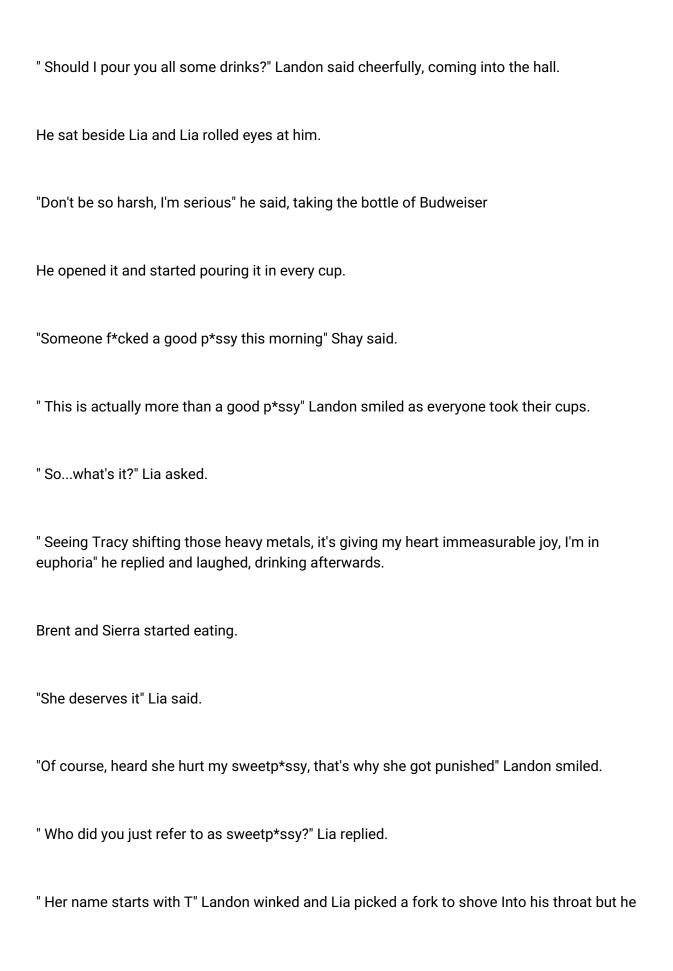

Princeton closed his eyes frustratedly and Tammy smiled.
"You really can't leave it?, When they want something, they won't give Princeton peace of mind till they get it" Lia said
"I've really gotten used to sleeping beside Sweet since dad bought it for me, I can't do without it anymore" Tanisha replied flatly.
The girls kept crying.
" Don't go yet" Princeton said, facing Tanisha.
"Huh?" She replied.
"Don't go yet, stay till night before you leave, let them have it to themselves till tonight" he said
" But
"He might get angry if you argue" Tammy whispered and Tanisha stopped.
"Yes sir" she said and Princeton faced the twins
"We love you daddy!" They shouted and he entered his room.
"He's difficult to understand right?, This minute he's warm, the other minute he's cold and harsh" Lia said.

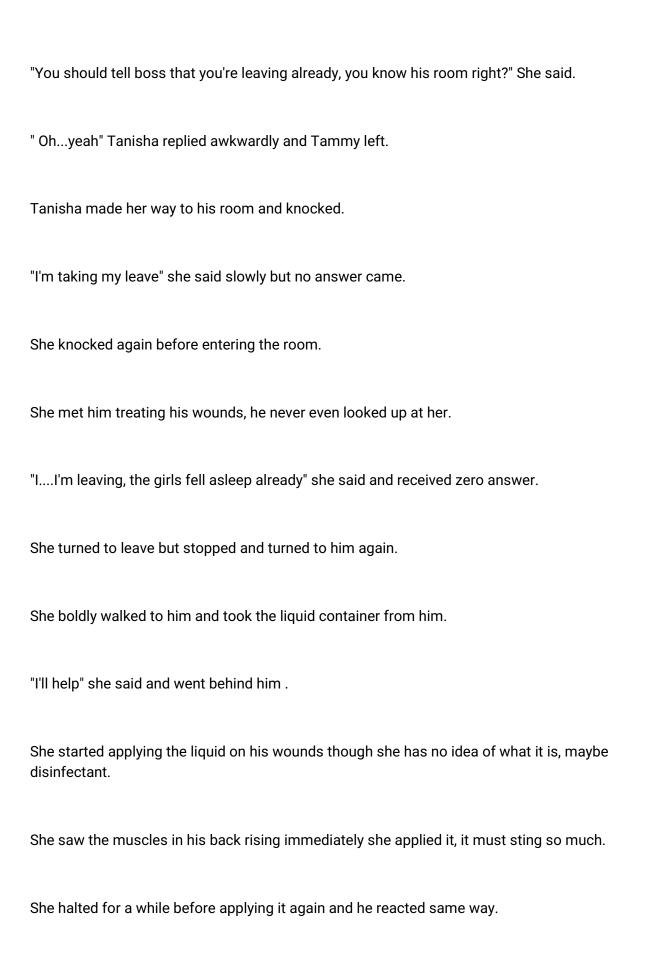

"No, they just helped" lady Macbeth replied.
"They shouldn't do only the cleaning, I'll talk to godmother, they should help you in the kitchen too, it's not easy for only you to be making meals for over hundred people" Lia said.
" That'll be nice" Shay replied.
" Can I eat with you guys?" Reina asked and everyone went silent.
" Eat with us?, Is your brain on a trip at the moment?" Sierra replied and Reina gulped.
" Take them away lady Mac" Brent said and Macbeth led them out.
"Who's willing to pour the drinks?" Lia asked.
" Me" Sierra replied, standing to pour it for everyone but Shay and Brent held her hand at a time.
Lia swallowed nothing, staring at the hands.
"I'll do it" they both chorused.
"Let go of my hand, you both" Sierra glared and they both let her go.
" Everyone should pour their drinks" Sierra said and sat.

ran out of the hall Immediately
"Jerk" she spat and started eating too but she noticed no one is talking again
She looked at the rest and saw Shay and Brent, staring at Sierra who's busy eating.
Lia smiled shortly, wrapping her palm more tightly around her fork.

PRINCETON'S SUITE, 9PM
Tanisha stared tiredly at the kids, they're fast asleep in the living room.
They played a lot with Sweet, they must be so tired.
She ate dinner with them since Tammy insisted though she ate almost all the meat, the twins allowed her though.
Sweet had a large meal too and she can't be more happy.
She looked at the twins again and touched their hairs. "Thanks for making my day, you both" she smiled.
She carefully took Sweet from Mina and Tammy came out, she took Mina inside first then she came back for Sana.

Now she has the chance to look carefully at his back
It's full of scars, even his arm, he has many scars. There's a fresh gunshot wound right there.
How does he manage to look fine with all these? She wondered.
She changed the patches on the wounds and stood.
"Done, I'll take my leave" she said .
"Did you eat?" He finally asked.
"Yes, I ate some meat" she replied.
"You a gumiho?" He said
" I just love meat" she replied and he sighed.
She kept standing in front of him and his eyes fell on her bellybutton.
For a minute, he wasn't able to look away, it's too s*xy to look away from.
He looked at her face and never allowed his gaze to leave it, she's beautiful.

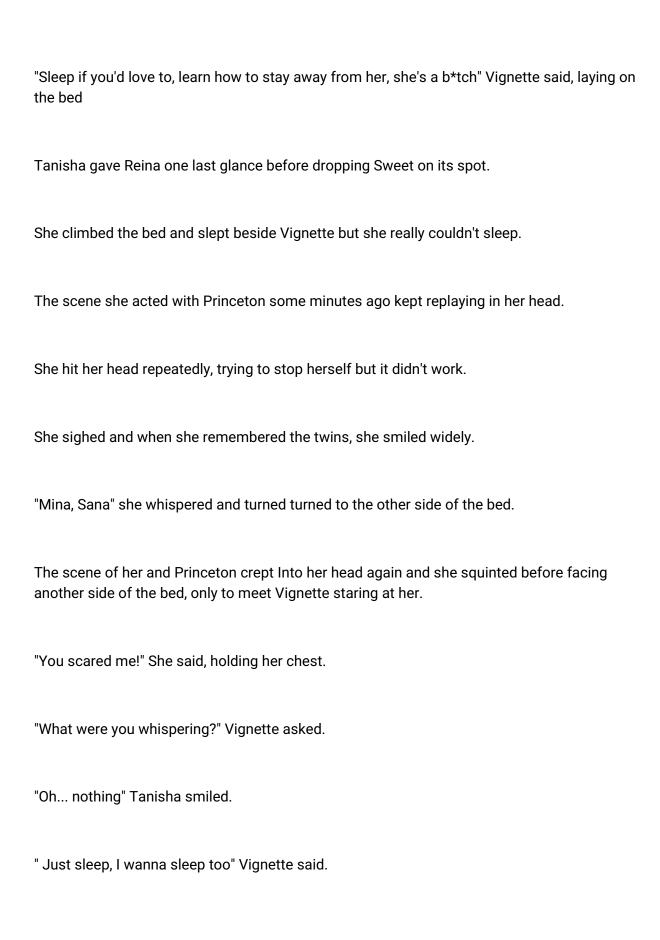

Tanisha looked up and saw him staring, she started picking on her nails.
Princeton suddenly pulled her hand and she fell on him.
He swiftly changed position, coming on top of her.
She blinked like hundred times a minute immediately and her eyes won't return to their normal positions.
He stayed on her, staring into her eyes like his muse.
Her eyes caught his tattooed biceps and triceps, his abs which stood elegantly on him.
She blinked again and knotted her hands.
He started smiling.
Is he deranged? She asked herself, looking at him surprisingly.
He's on top of her, smiling dementedly too.
How can he smile handsomely in this type of situation?
He started moving closer quickly, his eyes changing to what she couldn't explain.
She quickly blocked his chest with her palms.

"The S word, sometimes F" he said and the smoke fell from him when he started laughing again
" S*x, sometimes F*ck" he said amidst the laughter.
"Damn" he laughed.

CHAPTER 14&15

Tanisha ran all the way to the slave house and when she got in, she stayed behind the main door for almost three minutes, thinking about what almost happened.
How he suddenly pulled her to join him on bed.
So if I hadn't stopped him She thought and gasped with big eyes.
"I'd probably be under him and he'll be doing things to me right now" she whispered and covered her mouth with her palm.

"Our kids, they've grown so strong and vicious just like you've always wanted, I groomed them to become fierce Farris, I promise to kill who did this to you... just a little bit more... A little bit more Farris" she said and pulled off the bracelet on her wrist, a small tiny key was attached to it.

She inserted the key into an unnoticeable hole in the frame and a door opened.

She went in, her red shoes making slow steady sounds at every step she takes.

She got to a glass door and pressed a button, a sensor appeared and she placed her pointer finger on it, it opened and she went in.

She smiled when she saw him. She continued her slow steady steps till she got to him.

"I've come again, how are you today?" she smiled, holding the bed rails.

NEXT DAY, PRINCETON'S SUITE

The girl he slept with last night quickly got up from the bed, she gathered her things and rushed out of the room before he could open his eyes.

He actually invited her over last night after Tanisha left, he was feeling so horny and no other means than to f*ck....he f*cked her till midnight before letting her sleep.

Princeton opened his eyes and got down from the bed, he entered the bathroom to take his bath and when he came back, he went with comfy clothes, black pants and a sweatshirt.

" You're the best brother in the world, I love you a lot" she teased and he looked at her.
" Stop mentioning love" he said seriously.
"Is this still about Ava?" She replied and he made to leave but she held him.
"I'm sorry for talking about her forgive me" she said and he took his hand from her.
He started walking out of the room and she walked behind him but she suddenly saw an anklet on the dresser.
"Whoa!, It's gorgeous" she said, taking it immediately.
Princeton looked back to see it with her, she came back and snatched it from her.
"It's not yours" he said flatly.
"It's for girls, I'm the only girl you're used to, if it's not for me then it's for who" she said curiously.
" It's not yours, that's all I f*cking have to say" he replied and left the room.
" Jeez!, I hate you!!!!" She screamed after him.
They got to the living room and met Mina and Sana, all dressed up.

" It's unfair" Mina cried too and they both went back in.
" And now they'll lock themselves up in their room till God knows when" Tammy said.
Princeton left the suite and Lia followed him.
She pulled his arm and he faced her.
"Why are you being like this?, You're being harsh to them" she said.
"I have to beif I want to make them understand, you know what I'm talking about" he said sternly.
" But
"No more talks" he interrupted and started walking away
Lia threw down the pin box and punched the air, imagining him as the one she's punching.
"I hate you!!" She screamed and took some of the pins, she started throwing them at him but he kep moving till he went out of sight.
"That wildcat" she breathed.

LANDON'S SUITE "Come back here tonight by 9" Landon said to Vivi. She just got down from the bed, walking round the room nakedly, her bbs bounced on her chest as she walked. "I can't wait" she smiled and continued pacing before facing him. "Are you trying to get down with that slave?, I heard Tracy went crazy because you tried to touch her" she said and he giggled, standing up too, he's still stark naked. "So...what if I wanna get down with her?" He said, walking to her. " Not like I own you, so far you satisfy me with good f*ck every night, I won't stop you from f*cking another girl" she smiled and he fondled with her bbs when he got to her. "I like you yunno...you're understanding and... mature" he said.

" Don't tell me you like me, I might become possessive" she smiled and he shoved his fingers inside her suddenly.

"F*vk, try giving me heads up before your moves" she said and he ignored her.

He carried her and balanced her b*tt on the dressing table then he resumed f*cking with his fingers.

"Every part of you amazes me, even your fingers feel good inside me" she moaned, bending her head back while he captured her right n*pple between his teeth, he slightly bit it and her body shivered.

She pulled him closer and he grabbed the second one in his thick palm, pressing it as if to get milk out of it.

At the same time, his fingers moved faster and she closed her eyes tightly, holding his shoulders.

"Don yes!, Yes yes!, There Don!"

"Harder!, Harder Don....add one more finger, one more Don.... one more.... faster!" She moaned so loud.

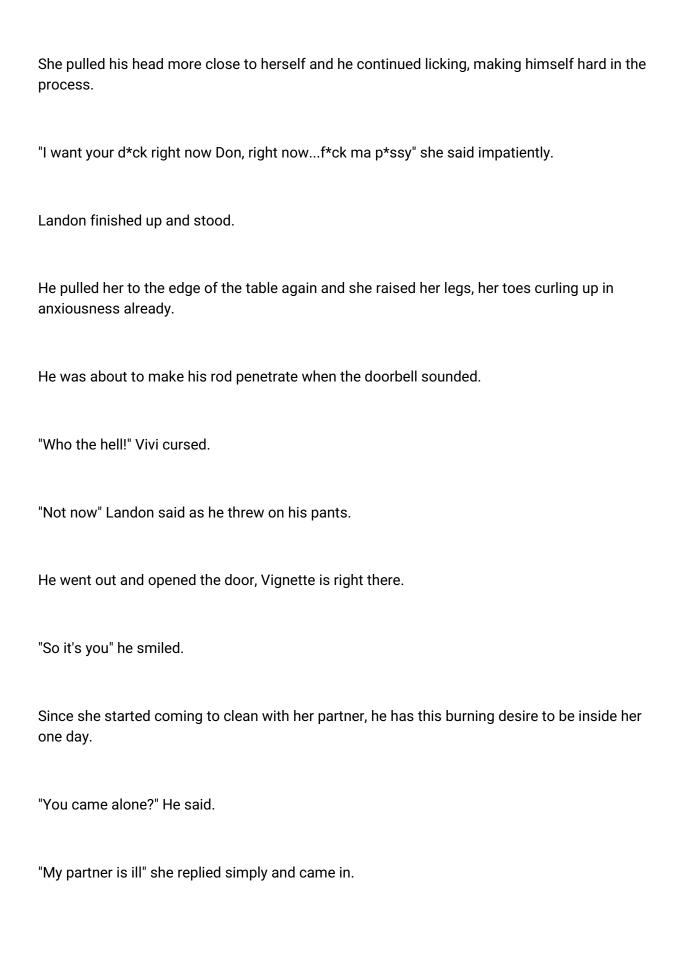

Her orgasm started building and her walls started tightening on his fingers.

"Jeez!, Feels good master... feels good" she moaned, opening her mouth so wide to reveal her front teeth.

" I'm about to c*m master...I'm c*mming" she breathed and Landon kissed her lightly as she came undone right in front of him.

He bent in front of her and licked her off, making sure to take care of every drop of her juice.

His tongue swiped her c*nt and touched every part of her p*ssy.

Vivi came out of the room, dressed already.
"You're leaving?" He asked.
"Should I have stayed?, She ruined everything" she replied, rolling eyes at Vignette as she left. Chat FIRSTLADY on plus two two eight ninety one fifty four three thousand to be added on her story group
Without another word, Vignette started work, Landon's suite is always messy since he loves destroying things.
The flower vase has been broken by him again.
She started by cleaning up the broken flower vase and throughout, Landon stared lustfullyhe's still so hard so his head is filled with imagination of him and her in bed.
She bent down to carry the container in which she packed the broken vase and he grabbed her ass from behind.
He tried caressing her and she stood still.
"Should we have a good f*ck?" He said seductively.
"You should get a good brain instead of looking for a good f*ck, dog!" She said and turned to him, she stuck a piece of the broken vase into his arm and he screamed in pains.
"Are you insane!" He yelled, holding his bloody arm.

" Oh you expect me to still be sane when I have to come here to clean the suite of a nuisance like you?" She replied sassily.
" Nuisance?" He said shockingly.
" Come closer and you'll have to say bye to that weeny little thing under your trousers" she said and continued cleaning.
" Do you know the density of what you just did?" he said.
" Do you know the density of rape or attempted rape here?" She replied and he gave her the middle finger before going in.
"Empty head, I guess his brain was filled with semen, not neurons" she muttered.

LIA'S SUITE
" Stop coming here to add to my frustration" Lia said when Sierra came in.
" Today is somehow boring swears, I wanna die nothing to hack" she replied, crashing beside Lia.
" Tonight is the mission at Boris port, I hope G-Dragon interferes, I want to flex my muscles a bit" Lia smiled.

" When are we going for the gold bars?" Sierra suddenly asked.
" That should be next week, I seriously can't wait" Lia replied.
"U definitely can't, it'll be so much fun, I'll have so much to hack since we're entering an underground safe in a skyscraper, who owns the gold?" Sierra asked.
" It belonged to dad before his death but it was confiscated and kept there by some bastards, we have to take it back by all means" Lia replied.
" Really?, Then we really have to take it backlook enough of chats, let's go for training" Sierra said, pulling Lia into the room
They both got changed into short thighs and fitting singlets before leaving the suite.
They left for the training ground and started exercising.
They're perfect already so they need no trainers, only the newbies gets trained.
They were fighting each other, trying to avoid each other's punches and kicks when Shay and Brent appeared for their training too.
It's the first time they'll be coming out shirtless and f*ck!, They're hot.
Lia took off her gloves and they fell from her as she stared endlessly.
Other girls who are also in the ground stared with wide mouths, they're handsome.

Sierra looked at Lia and smiled when she saw how hard she's staring.
She turned her face to herself and smiled sheepishly for a sec.
"Breath in and breath out seven times, you'll regain your sanity seems you lost it" she said and left her.
Lia looked at her gloves on the floor.
"What was I thinking" she whispered and quickly picked them before rushing out of the place.
"Lia come back!" Sierra shouted after her.

PRINCETON'S SUITE
Tanisha did almost all the cleaning while Reina just walked around.
Tammy isn't around, she went to see lady Macbeth in the general kitchen.
"You should stop coming with me if you're gonna continue walking around" Tanisha said and Reina faced her.
" Is this place your house?, Stop ordering around idiot" she said hatefully and Tanisha sighed.

She continued cleaning and when she remembered today is Saturday, she thought the twins should be at home.
"Why aren't they here?, Did they go out?" She wondered.
She finished with the living room and decided to go clean their room next.
She went in but Reina remained in the living room.
When she saw no one is around, she entered Princeton's room and walked around, smiling dreamily as she checked everything out
"Clean sweetheart" she said.
She opened his closet and inhaled the scent of his clothes.
"I love you so much Princeton" she smiled.
She fell on the bed afterwards, imagining Princeton on top of herself.
"F*ck me harder sweetheartoh PrincetonI want your d*ck" she moaned and smiled.
" I'll get f*cked by him someday, I promise" she said and stood.
Something came into her mind so she tore a page from the note she found on the table, luckily she found a pen too.

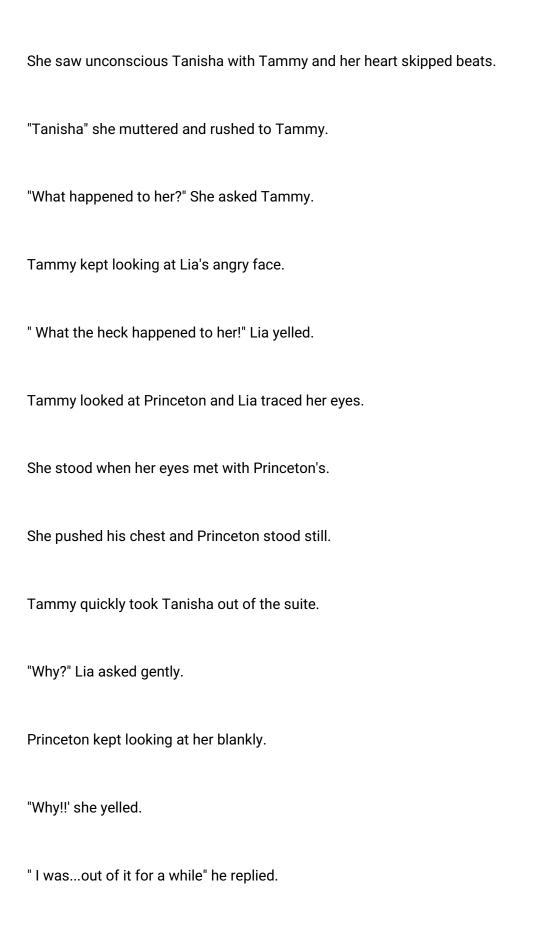

She wrote a short note and dropped it on the bed before leaving the suite.
Tanisha got to the kid's room and found out it was locked from inside.
"Are they asleep?, They don't want disturbance?" She thought and went back to the living room.
Princeton came in immediately. "Good morning sir" she said and he ignored her
He went into his room and Tanisha stood on her spot, not knowing what to do.
She needs to clean his room but it'll be impossible now that he's in
"I'll wait till he leaves" she thought.
"I'll wait till he leaves" she thought. Merely seeing his closet, Princeton knew someone messed with his things, this isn't how he left it.

Tanisha faced him , glad that he's about to leave but he came to her instead.
He grabbed her neck before she could speak, imagining her as Ava.
"How dare you drop that on my bed!" He demanded with angry emotionless cold eyes.
" Mymyneck" she coughed, blood came out of her nose immediately but he doesn't seem to care.
"I hate love!, I hate you more!, I want you to die!" He roared and tightened his hand more around her neck.
She struggled slowly, tears coming out of her eyes.
"Please don'tkill Me" she managed to say and her eyes started closing.

CHAPTER 16&17

Princeton slowly looked back at Tanisha's face and his eyes widened when he saw it's really her.
The door opened and Tammy came in.
"Boss!" She shouted with wide eyes.
He quickly let go of Tanisha who slumped on the floor unconsciously.
Tammy rushed to the scene and held her up.
"Tanisha!, Tanisha!!" She shouted.
She won't budge, her neck is so red and has thin bruises as a result of the choking.
Her nose is still bleeding even in her unconscious state.
The twins kept crying on the stairs while Princeton kept standing, coming back to his senses slowly.
His hands are shaking so he folded them as he stared at Tanisha's unconscious body.
"Princeton take it or leave itI'm here to disturbreal disturbance" Lia said, entering the suite too.
She stood by the door for a while and watched everything speechlessly.

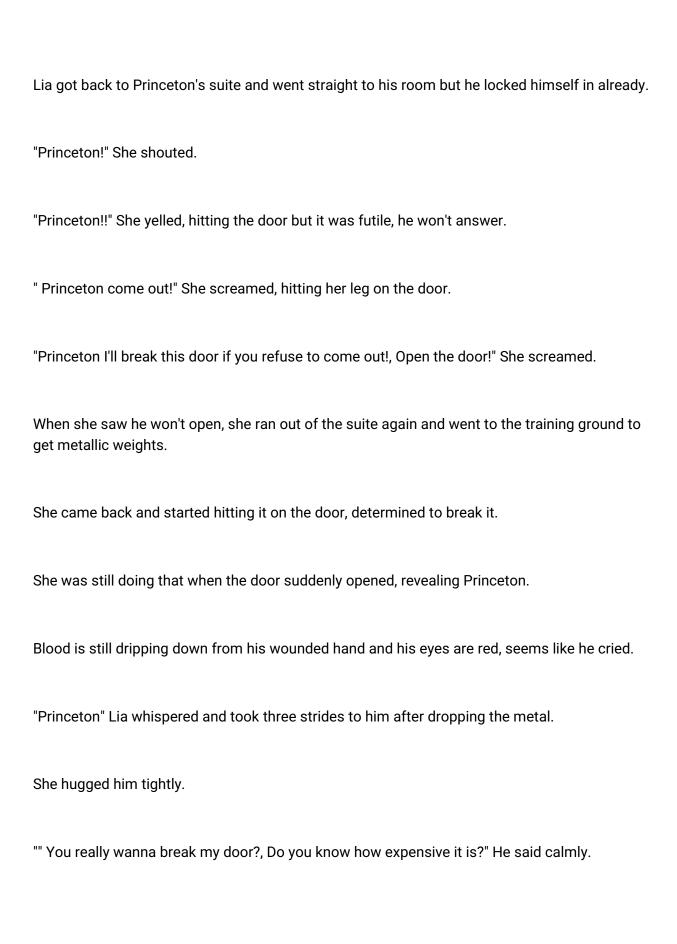

His blood streamed down the broken mirror and he slowly removed his hand.
The blood kept dripping on the ground as he walked to his bed.
He sat and dipped his left hand into his pocket, bringing out the anklet.
He let his eyes have a feast of it before folding his palms on it.
AVA, that name is the most bitter name he has ever known, the name of a serpent who belongs in hell.

KITCHEN
Lia got there and met Tanisha on the bed again, she sat beside her and took her hand.
"I hope it won't be severe" she said sadly.
"It won't, she'll wake up after getting enough air, that's why I opened all the windows" lady Mac replied.
" Her neckthe redness won't persist right?" Tammy asked
" She has a delicate skin, let's just hope it won't" lady Macbeth replied worriedly.

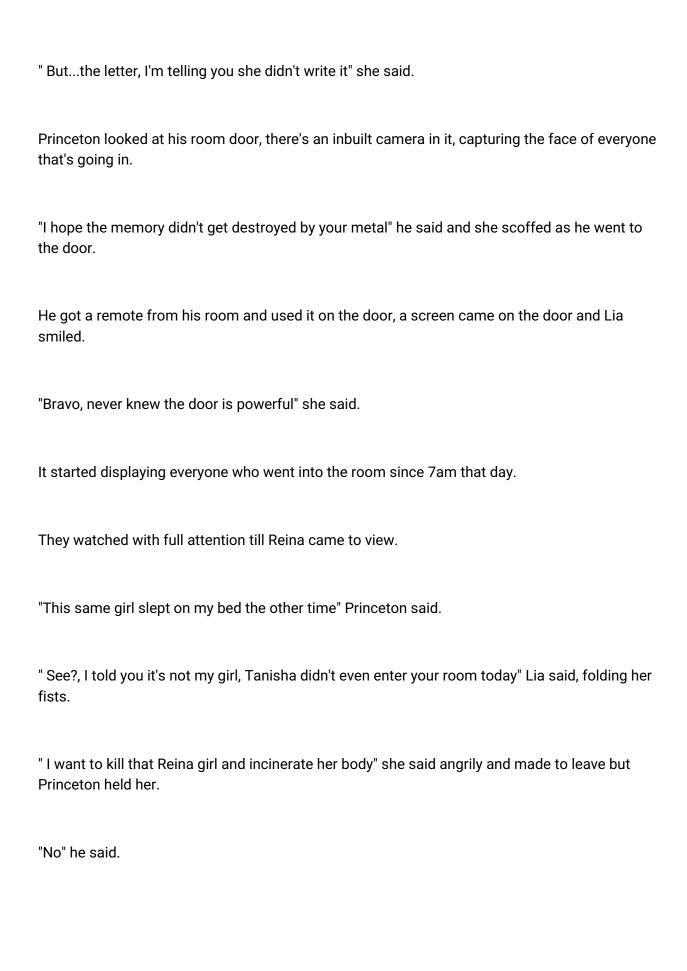

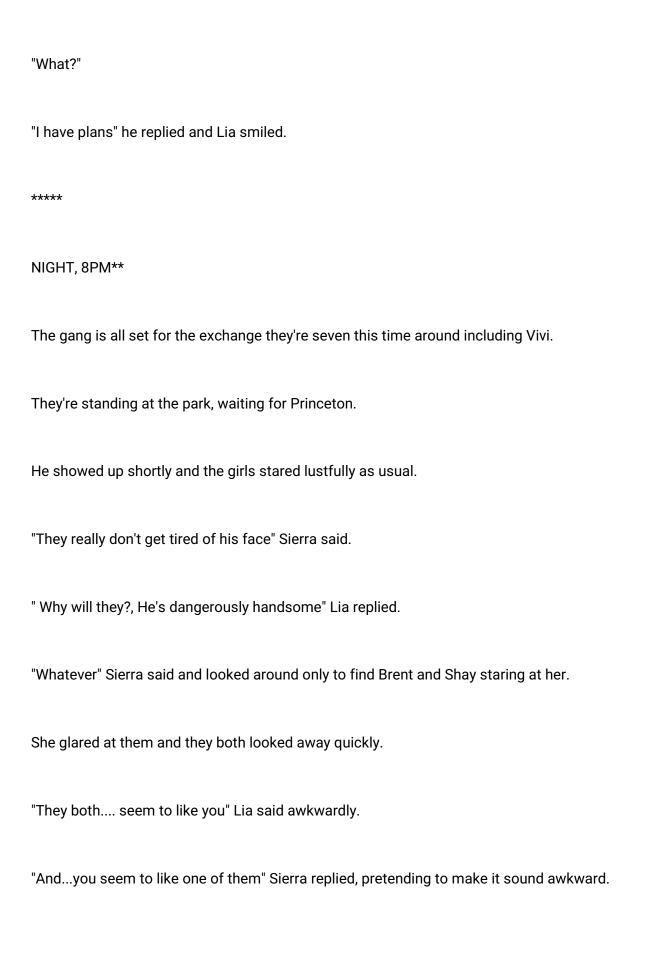

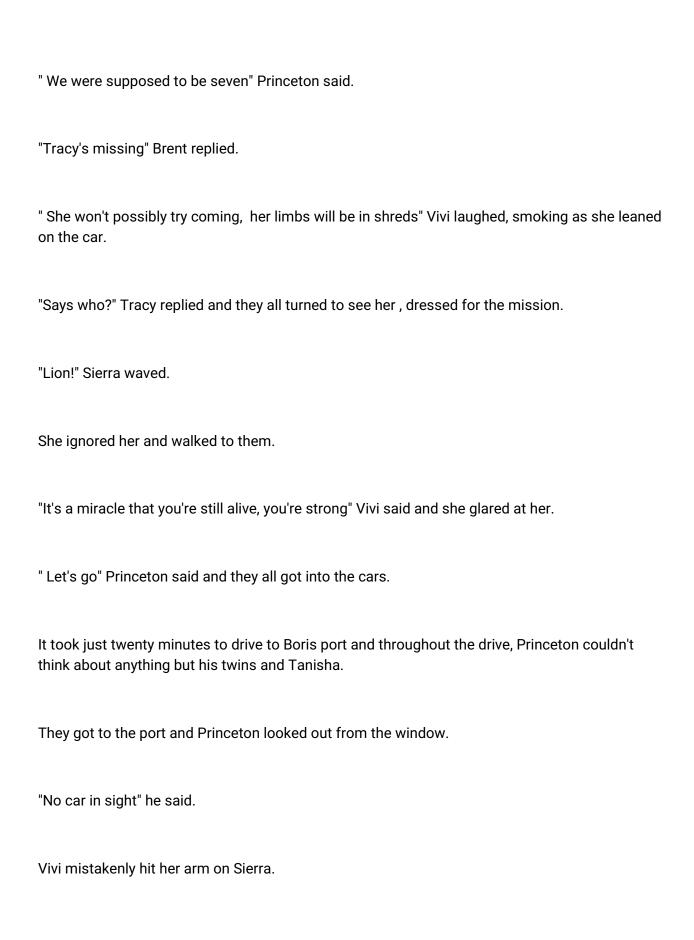

"I think it's gonna be a peaceful night, G-Dragon won't show up with his darned Sephora, Cruel Monster won't show up too Flakes isn't coming but why?, I wanna break some bones" Lia complained.
"I feel same but what can we do?, Let's just wait patiently till next week, mission gold" Sierra smiled.
" I can't f*cking wait" Lia smiled and they stuck hands.

MCF PALACE, KITCHEN
"You should pass the night here if you want" lady Macbeth said after Tanisha finished eating.
She woke up not long ago, she was unconscious for longer than expected.
"No, I want to go back to the slave house to meet my friendsbut before that, I need to go get Sweet, I must have left it at master Princeton's suite earlier" she replied.
" You're not scared to go there?" Mac asked.
" I'm scared butI really need to get Sweet, I'll get it and go to the slave house, thanks lady Mac" she said quickly and rushed out.
PRINCETON'S SUITE

After staying by the twins door for so long again, they refused to open up.
Princeton went back to the living room and met Tammy.
"I tried luring them out to eat but you know how stubborn they can be, I think you should summon Tanisha tommorow, they'll come out if it's her, I'm sure" she said.
" You think she'll come after what I did? " He replied and Tammy sighed.
" I'm not sure"
" You can go sleep" Princeton said and Tammy went in.
He made his way to his room but surprisingly, he saw Sweet by his door.
"It was here?" He said and went closer to it.
He carried it and went into his room.
It started meowing.
"Is it hungry?" He wondered and placed it on his bedstand.
He went to the dinning room and got the kids milk from the freezer, he made some with warm water and came back.

He dropped it in front of Sweet and the pet started licking it hungrily.
He smiled shortly. "So it's hunger" he thought
The intruder beep sounded on the monitor, it came on and Tanisha came to view on the screen.
Luckily for Tanisha, she peeked on the passcode when Tammy pressed it the other time so she was able to open the door.
She went in and started looking everywhere for the cat, calling it's name slowly.
"Sweet" she whispered.
She thought it might be with the kids so she went to their room but it was locked and no playing sounds is coming out of the room.
"Did it sleep with them already?" She thought and came back to the living room.
Then she started hearing soft meowing sounds from Princeton's room.
She stood still at first but later mustered courage to go in.
She took lazy steps to his room and met the door opened.
She stepped in and found Sweet on the bedstand, licking milk.

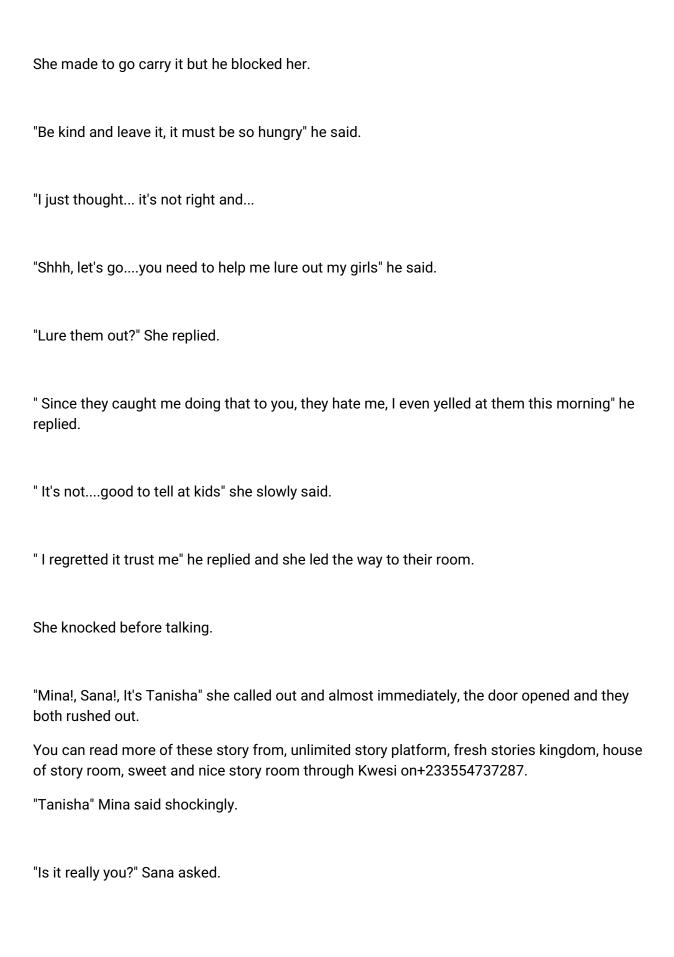

Her eyes widened and she rushed to it
"Are you crazy?, How dare you come in here and even take milk, was that how I trained you?, Unbelievable! I'm in another trouble" she said and turned to go but the sight of Princeton behind her made her flinch.
"I'm sorry I didn't mean to come inI was hearing it's meow meow sounds from this room and II came" she said, still shifting back in fear
The scene of how he choked her in the morning was still lucid in her head.
"Meow meow?" Princeton said calmly.
"Huh?" She said and looked at him slowly, shockingly he's smiling.
He surely has dissociative identity disorder, yes he's deranged she thought as he started coming closer, looking at her red neck.
She shifted back quickly.
"Nono" she said fearfully.
He won't stop advancing till he got to her and grabbed her arm, touching her neck with the other hand.
She held her breath as he continued touching her neck gently, tracing his fingers on the red lines.

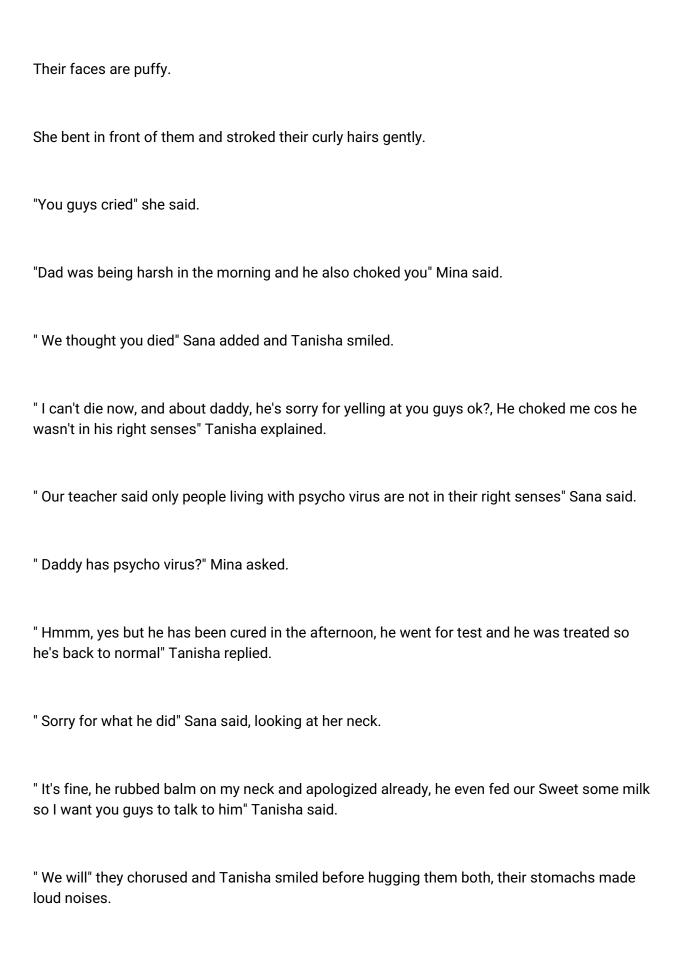

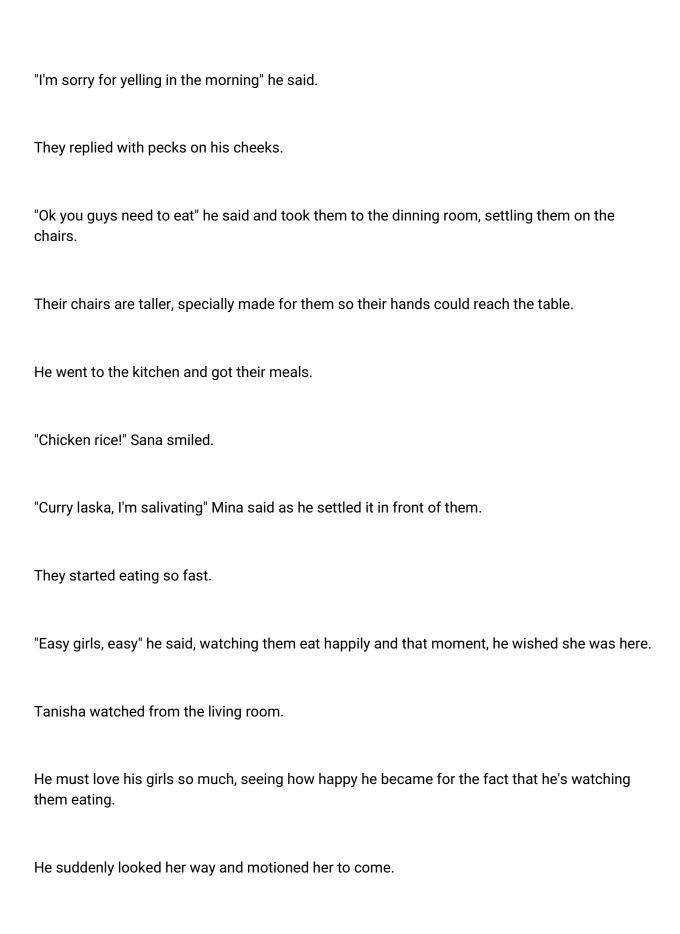

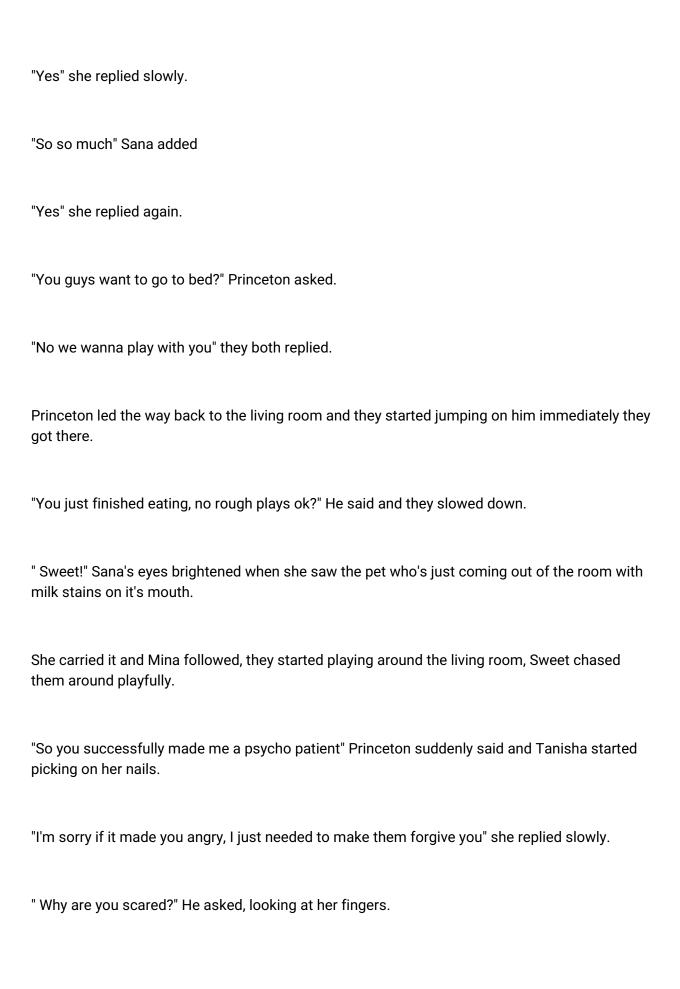

She walked to the dinning and he told her to sit, she sat slowly.
"Since you love meat a lot, why don't you eat" he said, pointing at a dish in front of her.
She opened it and her mouth watered when she saw meat.
The big plate was stacked with meat
She lost control immediately and picked her fork, she started eating fast.
Sana and Mina stared at her and smiled at her great appetite.
She continued eating, drinking water in between.
She finished everything within ten minutes and drank water again.
"I'm full" she said and then she remembered she's in Princeton's suite, in his dinning room!
She slowly looked up and met his eyes and his twins eyes on her.
She buried her face in the plate and Mina and Sana started laughing.
"You love meat a lot" Mina said.

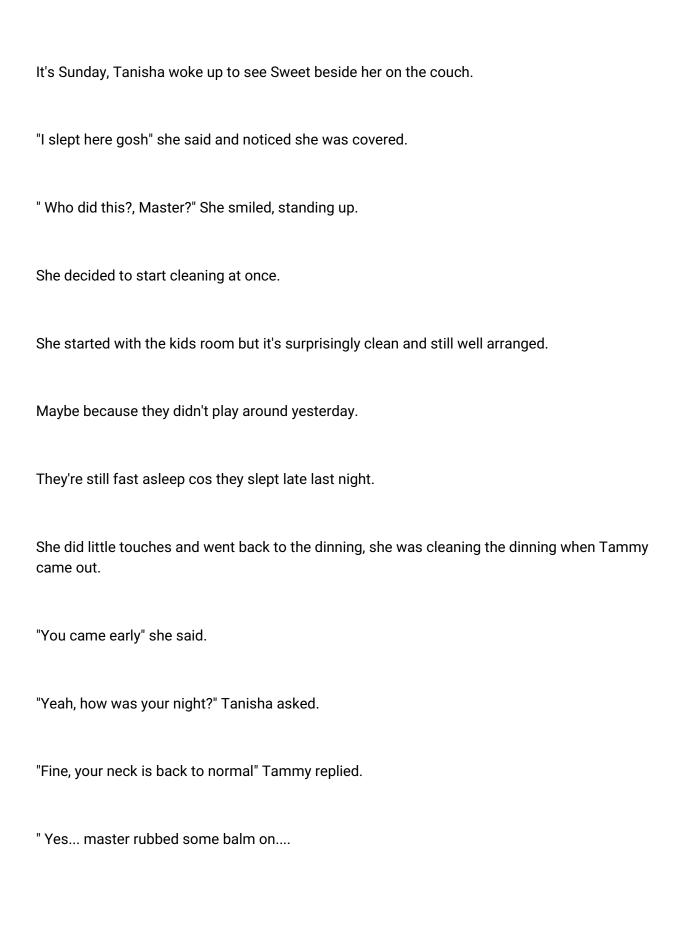

She quickly stopped picking.
" Why will I get angry when you helped?, Thanks for making them forgive me, honestly I won't be able to sleep if they hadn't, they're the main reason why I live, and that's why I have to protect them with everything I have" he said.
" I understand" she replied.
" I wish they'd live normal lives like other kids tooyou know, go out for shopping on weekends, do what other kids do, mingle and have friendsbut it's Impossible, no one wants to befriend the daughters of a gangster, how will I allow them to go out when a lot of gangsters are after them?, I can't" he said seriously.
" Then you can stop being a gangster" she replied and he smiled dryly
" It's not that easy once a gangster, always a gangster. And I ain't quitting if I don't achieve my aim killing the bastard who killed dad" he said.
She decided not to talk so she won't slip.
" Your grandma wanted me to give you this" he said, bringing out the anklet.
Her eyes got bigger.
" MG!, I lost this!" She said, taking it from him.
" From your late dad?" He asked.

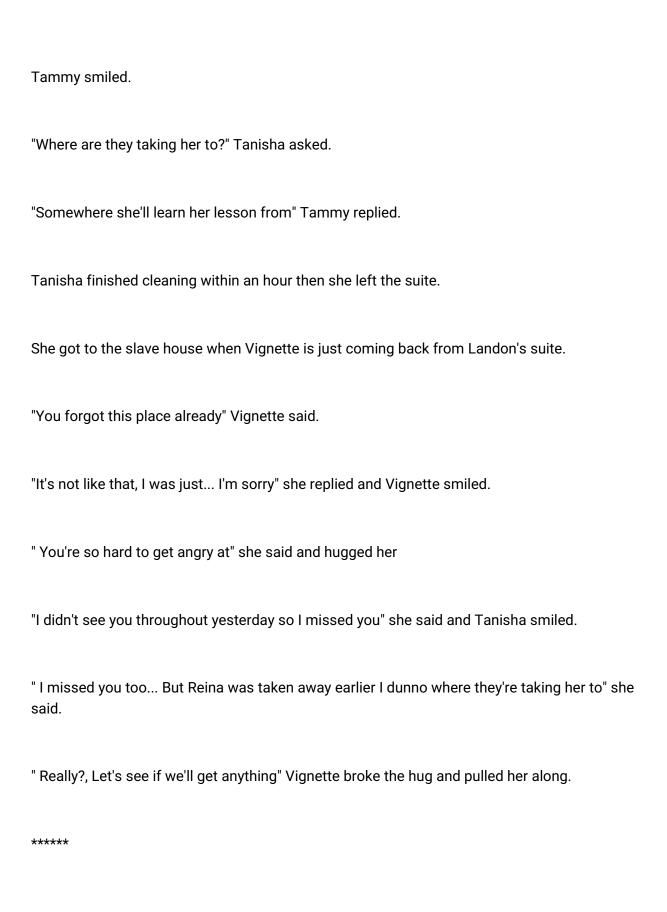

Seeing her s*xy bellybutton again turned him on.
He quickly looked away and went into his room.
He got a cover clothe and closed his eyes, covering her with it before leaving the suite.
He started walking around the palace, thinking about the punishment that suits Reina most.
The gang members are still out, partying all night.
Moans are coming out from different angles, many are f*cking in the open.
He stopped when he started feeling uneasy.
He looked back in the dark but found nothing.
He started walking again but same feeling came.
He doesn't feel uneasy without a reason.
He looked back again and felt the need to go back.
He started going back slowly and at the third step, a gunshot sounded and he quickly ducked, somersaulting to another lane.

Someone ran out of a corner and he followed swiftly.
The figure continued jumping blocks but at each block, Princeton jumped with him.
Each turn he makes, Princeton makes too.
He entered one of the empty buildings and Princeton entered too.
He stopped when he couldn't find him but he knew he's here.
He stood still, balancing his breath, then he heard the light scrapping sound.
He quicky bent down and the knife missed him.
The guy was actually trying to stab him with a knife.
As a result of the move, he lost balance and Princeton took his legs off the ground.
He fell and Princeton matched his face, a loud yelp escaped his mouth.
"You entered the lion's den, get ready to be devoured hungrily bastard!" Princeton said and marched his face again.

NEXT MORNING

TORTURE GROUD

Macbeth shifted back fearfully.
"Cos it'll be a waste to kill you with my bullet, you know too many secrets about this palace and keeping you alive, will be dangerous" Zara said and made to shove the knife into her chest but Landon appeared and blocked with his hand.
The knife entered his palm and came out on the back of his hand.
"Landon!" Macbeth shouted
"What did you just do!" Zara yelled.
His blood started dripping.
" She's the only one who cares about me in here, I won't let you hurt her" he breathed loudly.

He got the kit himself and wrapped the hand with bandage.
"I'm off" he said and made to leave but Macbeth held him.
" I'm sorry you got hurt because of me" she sniffed.
"I don't care about anyone in this place, even the godmother herself, ion care if anyone dies and that's why they call me wicked but you've been kind to me a lot of times so taking this for you is nothing" he replied flatly and left.
Macbeth sat sadly.
"He must be in so much pains" she cried.

Reina's torture is still going on, she's at the verge of losing consciousness and her screams are coming faintly already.
Princeton's eyes met with Tanisha's and even without speaking, he knows she's pleading for her release.
Her eyes said it all.
She's picking on her nails as they stared at each other.

Princeton stood and raised an hand, the torturers stopped immediately. "Release her, and everyone should search the whole palace, the spy will surely plant some bugs I'm sure" he said and left immediately. Tanisha released a breath she wasn't aware she was holding. Reina was released and her body slumped on the ground. The whips drew different patterns on her body and it looks pitiful. She was carried back to the slave house by two girls. Vignette and Tanisha followed. She was placed on her bed and she kept wriggling in pains. "What do we do?" Tanisha asked,full of pity for her. "Are you seriously asking what we should do?, You know we're never on good terms" Vignette replied and left the room Immediately. get stabbed, he'll help the stabber to make sure I really get stabbed, but he destroyed his palm cos of Macbeth? " She snickered loudly and sipped again
" You just gave me one more reason to eliminate her, I'll made sure she dies by my bullet" she said and walked in.
She went through the secret door and five minutes later, she's in the secret room.
She let her red lips curve, forming a smug smile.
"Crime Lord, I'm here again" she said, tracing her fingers on the bed rails, her perfectly manicured nails hitting gently but eerily on it.
"I brought champagne so we could drink together, cheers" she said and sipped from her cup.

DINNERTIME, GENERAL DINNING HALL.
"Do you know why I love eating in this general hall?' Sierra asked, walking in with Lia who has her gaze fixed on Shay and Brent's table.
"Why?" She asked absentmindedly.
"Cos I get to watch a spectacular everyday" Sierra giggled.
Lia kept quiet and that prompted Sierra to look at her.

"Shay or Brent?, Who do you like?, Stop confusing my soul it's so hard to figure out" Sierra said.
" Are you talking to me?" Lia woke.
" No I'm talking to your shadow, you're so hard to figure out these days, I'm asking if you love Shay or Brent" Sierra replied.
" Shay or Brent?, Who said I love one of them" Lia replied.
"Do I look like a double digit IQ dummy to you?, I have the brain of a human, not an orangutan's" Sierra replied and walked faster to sit.
Lia sat with her and it only took one minute before Brent and Shay joined them.
"Here they are again, can't you guys let us eat peacefully?" Sierra said as lady Tanisha served their food.
"Hey you work at the kitchen now?" Shay asked.
"Yes, besides cleaning every morning, we have to help at the kitchen to prepare meals" Tanisha replied.
" I actually talked godmother into it and she agreed, they won't have to be bored in the kitchen" Lia smiled.
" Yes I love the idea, I love staying in the kitchen cos I love cooking" Tanisha smiled.

" But how did G-Dragon get a whiff of it?" Brent asked.
"He has known about it for long even before we started planning on go for it, he's just waiting for us to move so he'll follow, I can smell blood, but not MCF blood" Lia smiled.
" GOLDEN BULLETS blood staining the ground" Shay said.
" Bang bang" Sierra laughed and Tracy came in "Lion!" Sierra waved.
Tracy hardened her expression and started coming to their table when Vivi suddenly threw a foil cup at her.
It hit Tracy's head and she stopped.
"Oh sorry, you somehow looked like a trashcan" Vivi mocked and Tracy glared angrily.
Vivi smiled and moved closer.
"Landon is a good f*cker but too bad you won't get to have a taste of my baby's d*ck till you die" she whispered into Tracy's ear and Tracy grabbed her neck furiously.
"I never wanted to kill you but since you asked for death yourself, I'll give you" she said and continued pushing her back, choking her.

"You won't get f*cked by him loser!, Never!" Vivi jeered, laughing loudly despite her hooked neck
Tracy let her go and raised her boot to her face.
Vivi was faster, she did an handstand and crossed a table.
Tracy jumped down with her and Vivi climbed the next table, Tracy climbed too.
They started combating, ruining each other's face with kicks and punches while jumping from one table to another, pouring away foods.
"This is an example of the spectacular I was talking about, ion even know which one to cheer cos I hate them both" Sierra said.
"But isn't it funny to see two girls fighting because of Landon's d*ck?, I have a d*ck too and no one is fighting cos of it" Brent said.
"Maybe because it's the size of a pen cover, size matters you know" Sierra replied.
"Sorry bro" Shay laughed.
Landon came in and when he saw the two girls fighting, he started laughing.
"Landon's d*ck is popular" he said amidst the laughter.
" He's crazy" Lia smiled, looking at his bandaged hand and wondering what happened to it.

"He's always not concerned about the b*tches that are always fighting and suffering cos of him" Sierra laughed.
" Why will he be concerned?, Not like he told them to fight" Shay replied.
The fight continued till Tracy and Vivi gave up at a time, seems they can't defeat each other.
With wounds on their faces, they both left the hall.

NIGHT, PRINCETON'S SUITE
Tanisha was let in by Tammy and she met the twins asleep already.
It's already past 9, she came late cos she had a lot of dishes to wash with Vignette after dinner in the kitchen.
Tammy came for Sweet in the afternoon so the pet has been with the twins since them.
It's sleeping beside them.
"I was just about to carry them to their room" Tammy said and Tanisha smiled.
She touched their faces fondly before Tammy carried them in.

Vignette is fast asleep too, she must be so tired from all the dishwashing.
Tanisha sat on the bed after placing Sweet on it's spot.
"He was f*cking a girl, she was screaming so loud" She muttered and lay on the bed.
" Her screams won't leave my ears" she said and covered herself completely.

NEXT DAY, 2PM
"Mission gold is set" Princeton said to Zara from the bud.
They're all standing by the two cars they're taking, ready to move
Landon, Tracy and Vivi inclusive.
"I have nothing to say anymore butthe gold must get here before 7" Zara replied.
" And Landon, you're wounded but hell bent on going, if you ruin things again, I'll kill you" she said.
Landon kept quiet as they all got in the cars which moved immediately.

Sierra chewed gum slowly, working on the laptop.
"One hour thirty minutes journey to get to the skyscraper" she said.
" You said that countless times already" Lia replied.
"I'm just saying it again for the sake of some deaf people in here" she replied.
" How much will I have if I wanna buy this skyscraper?" Shay asked.
" About five hundred billion dollars" Brent replied.
" Ok" Shay replied and Lia smiled.
" If Lexi was aware that such fortune was kept in her building, he'd have protected it with his life" Sierra giggled.
Vivi and Tracy kept exchanging hateful glares while Landon glared secretly at Princeton.
They got to the skyscraper and Princeton came down with the guys.
They're all dressed in suit, Lia came out with them, she's wearing a long wine coloured gown on heels, then a small hat.
"We've been expecting you Mr Kayden, boss is waiting in already" a man said, meeting them in front of the building.

"I came with my associates" Princeton smiled, gesturing at the rest.
" Even better sir" the man replied and led them in.
Ten minutes after they left, Sierra came down from the second car with Tracy and Vivi, her laptop was packed into a bag, strapped to her back.
They're dressed like agents.
"From the repair station, we got reports that your CCTV cameras are malfunctioning" Vivi said.
" Follow me" the guard replied and led them in.
" We'd check the power room first" Sierra said and they entered the elevator which took them to the sixteenth floor, same floor as Princeton.
They were taken to the power room, the guard went in first and they followed.
Sierra made signals to Tracy and Tracy shoved the injection directly into his neck, he slept off Immediately.
Sierra shut down all the CCTV coverages and connected her laptop.
"They're in the next room I guess, Vivi you should sedate the room right now" Sierra said.
Tracy took the bottle from the bag and climbed the ceiling.

She crawled on the thin space till she got to the next room where the conference is going on.
"We've been waiting for this since ages, can't believe we're finally partnering, you won't regret partnering with Lexi holdings Mr Kayden" Mrs Lexi smiled.
She's with five of her management teams.
" I knew I wouldn't regret it, that's why I came" Princeton smiled and his eyes twitched when he saw flames coming into the room.
He looked at Lia and Landon rolled eyes.
"We should proceed to signing the contract now Mr Kayden" Mrs Lexi said, gesturing at the papers on the table.
" I understand" Princeton replied and the flames puffed in large quantities.
They all quickly used masks and Mrs Lexi slept off with the other five.
Sierra, Tracy and Vivi jumped into the room and they all shifted the giant table from its spot.
They raised the rugged mat and an entrance appeared but it was locked with a padlock.
"godmother said it's a keyhole" Lia said.
"How come I'm looking at a padlock" Shay replied.

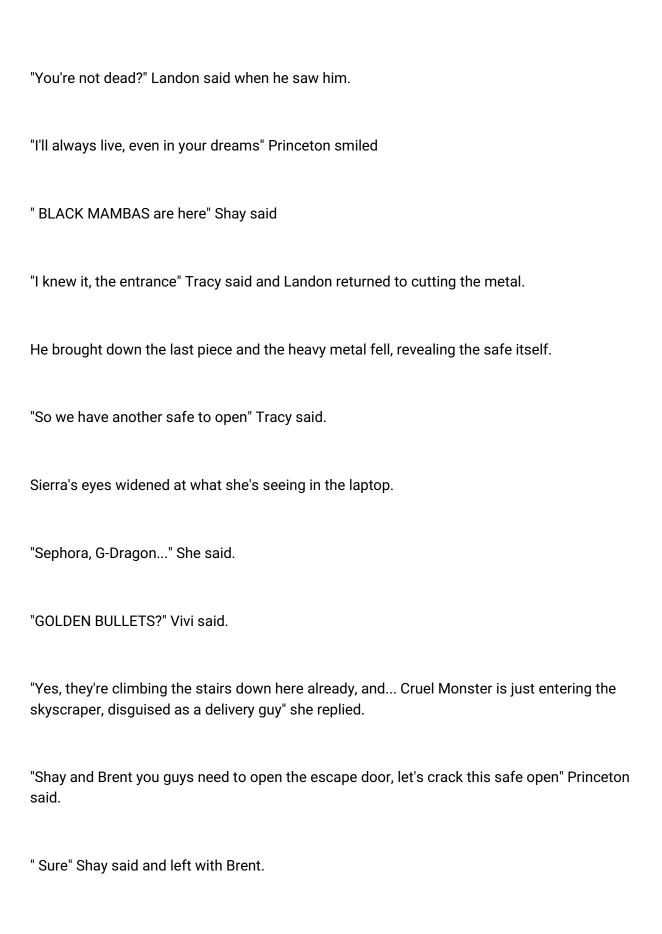

"Ava!!!" He shouted.
He was stopped by gunshots from the end of the dark lane.
More than six bullets hit him all-over the chest at once.
Blood erupted from his mouth as he went on his knees.

CHAPTER 22&23

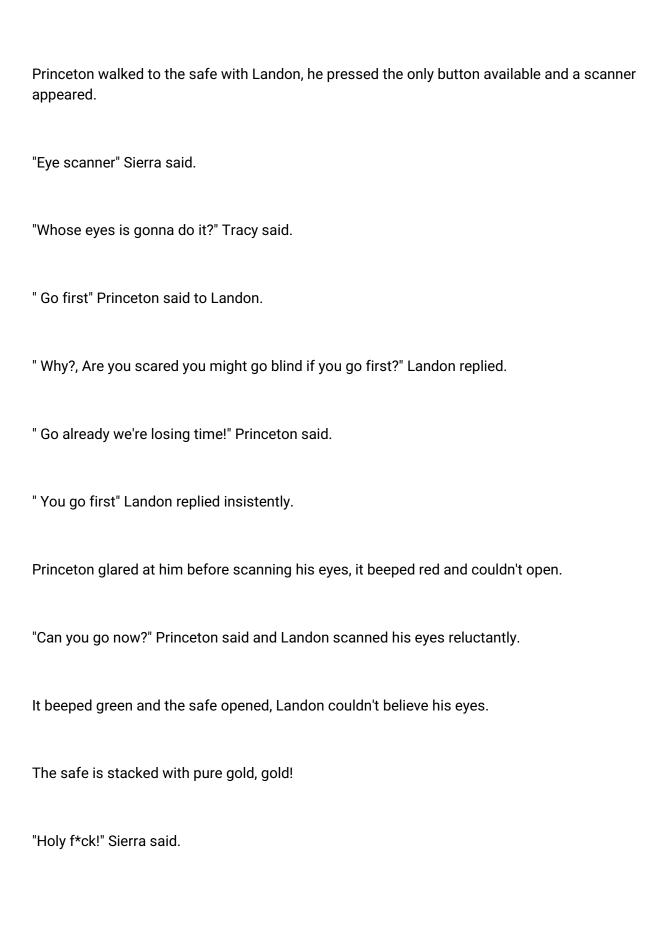

Princeton's blood stained the ground as he spit it out in large quantity.

"Princeton!!" Lia screamed, coming with Shay and Vivi, the rest are still handling the safe.

Princeton raised his hand, telling them to stop and they did.
He smiled and his bloody lips shone.
He stood surprisingly and another gunshot made him duck, he rolled down the dark lane and dissappeared.
"Where did he go?" Lia said, trying to go into the dark but Shay held her.
He told us not to come, you know he means everything he says" he said and Lia sighed impatiently.
They stood there and soon they started hearing battling sounds from the dark.
"I can't just stay here" Lia said he made to step in but lights came on in the dark, revealing Princeton and three dead guys.
He killed the guys with a knife cos the knife with him is bloody.
"Princeton" Lia said, rushing to him.
"How?, We heard so many gunshots and it looked like you got shot" she said, looking at the holes on his chest.
" I can't be killed that easily,learn to trust me" he replied and took off his suit, he unbuttoned the white inner shirt, revealing a bulletproof vest.

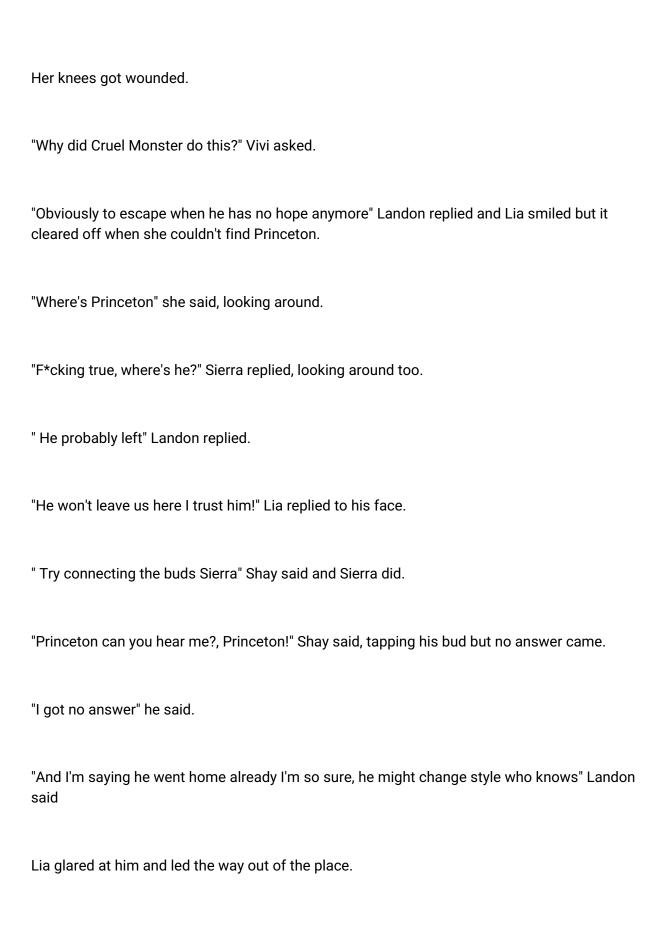

"We should go, that one isn't important" Lia said and Landon chuckled.
"godmother knows how many gold bars she's expecting, what do you think will happen if it's short by one?, She'll waste you all and you know she never jokes, I'm going to get the one" Landon said.
Before anyone could stop him, he went into the place again.
"I guess we can't escape combatting today, it's the first time we'll be facing the GOLDEN BULLETS and the BLACK MAMBAS at once" Lia said, stretching herself.
" Move the car " Princeton said and the drivers drove off the cars containing the golds.
The loud crashing sounds inside the safe made then know it's already down.
Princeton led them in and they were attacked by the door.
"Go on in!" Princeton ordered and the others went in.
G-Dragon appeared and raised his leg to Princeton's chest, he hit him right there and Princeton flew down the safe.
He stood, smiling at the devil himself.
"We met again" he said.
"It's not nice to meet you anyways" G-Dragon replied.

" Same here, and don't you feel pained?, I meanwe got the gold already" Princeton said.
" I sent my guys after the f*cking cars already, the gold is mine" G-Dragon replied and Princeton grinned.
" Let's see if they'll lose in one piece, bastard!" Princeton said and charged forward, throwing a punch which G-Dragon avoided.
He threw Princeton a punch too but Princeton did same.
They kept avoiding each other's punches till Princeton was able to give him one on the the face.
G-Dragon withdrew his knife and wounded Princeton with it after several trials.
He shoved it into his arm and Princeton pushed him away with a punch.
He went for him Immediately and bumped into him.
They both fell, rolling down the slope.
IN THE SAFE
"How can you love me so much?, You came back for me" Lia said, smiling at Sephora who's swinging a small sword in front of her.
"You're so dead, today" Sephora smiled

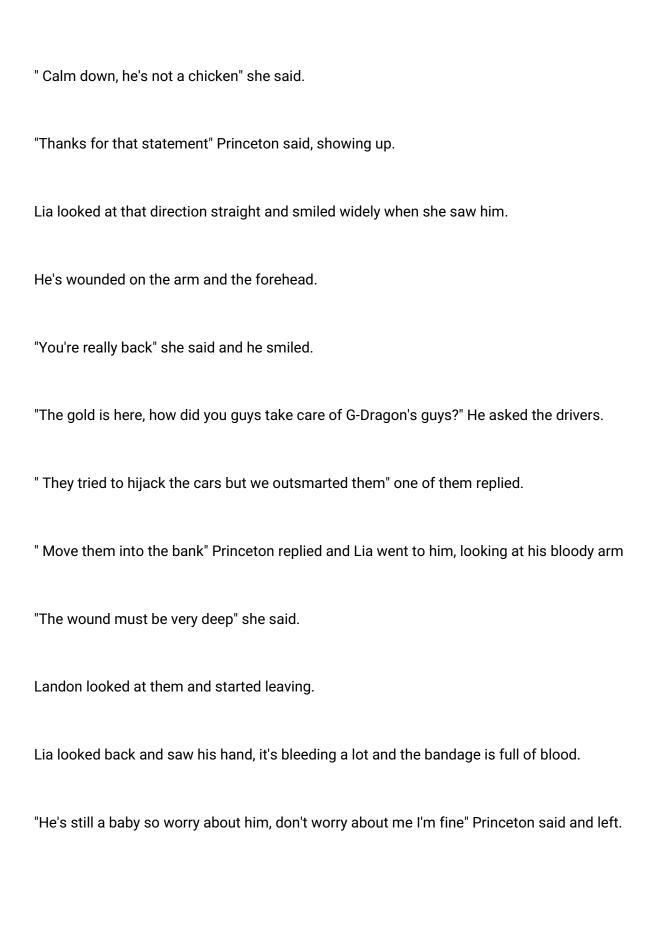

"Ok, you can now come to mummy" Lia winked and Sephora came at her, they slammed each other's backs on the wall repeatedly before letting go.
Sephora threw the sword and Lia ducked, the sword hit the wall instead.
Lia removed the sword and ran to Sephora, trying to just slit her throat.
Sephora got her instead, taking her legs off the ground.
Lia fell and the sword fell from her
Sephora took it and tried diving it into her again.
Lia rolled away from her and she kept running after her as she rolled around the place.
Lia got to the wall and quickly stood, she left the place.
Sephora is already on motion so she couldn't stop, she crashed on the wall and Lia pinned her there, she brought out a small knife and shoved it into Sephora's side.
She bled blood and fell, passing out immediately.
"You won't die yet, I still want us to meet again" Lia smiled.
Cruel Monster (CM) is combatting with Landon and despite his wounded palm, he's handling him well.

Vivi and Tracy are fighting one opponent too, a member of BLACK MAMBA.
Sierra is fighting a member of GOLDEN BULLETS, she's laughing and fighting, obviously making fun of the guy.
Shay and Brent are tackling same opponent too, taking turns to punch him.
Everyone is doing well, of course they should, they're members of MCF anyways, the greatest.
CM suddenly started running out of the place which seems so confusing.
Landon made to run after him but Tracy held him.
"I think he planted a bomb" she said.
"MCF run!" Lia screamed, rushing out with the others.
They continued running, leaving their opponents behind.
They jumped out of the safe and almost immediately, it blew up, throwing them all in various directions.
The safe started burning viciously.
"Gosh!, That was hectic" Sierra breathed, standing up.

Two cars came for them after five minutes, they got in and it sped back to the palace.
The drive back was longer than when they were coming, took bloody two hours and no one talked, everyone is tired.
They got home and met the cars with the gold bars in front of the palace bank.
"Where's Princeton?" Lia asked the first member .
" He's not back" he replied.
"Shit!, I said it!" She said, facing Landon.
"You trust him right?, He's ok, he said he's not dying anytime soon" Landon smiled.
" If he doesn't come back within ten minutes I'll kill you!" Lia yelled.
" Fine" Landon smiled.
" I'm sure the bars are complete" Zara said, coming out to them.
"Yes godmother" Brent replied and ordered the opening of the booths.
Zara smiled when she saw the gold.

"Farris I accomplished one of your missions, I'll use it well" she said and faced them.
" Good job everyone, this month party will be made special, when is the last Friday of this month?" She asked.
" This coming Friday" Vivi replied happily.
"You mean four days to come?, How time flies, Well I'll make it grand cos that same day, this palace will be celebrating it's forty years anniversary" Zara said .
" F*cking exciting" Tracy smiled.
"I'll invite my gangster friends from Italy, the palace will start changing as from tommorow" she further said and smiled again.
" Call the guys, they should move the gold Into the bank, I'll find buyers pretty soon" she said and started leaving.
" You're not concerned about Princeton?, He's missing!" Lia yelled after her.
Zara stopped and looked back.
"When I called him my alpha, I wasn't joking" she said and left.
" What's she spewing!, My brother is missing and she's talking about a f*cking alpha!" Lia said.
Sierra placed an hand on her shoulder.

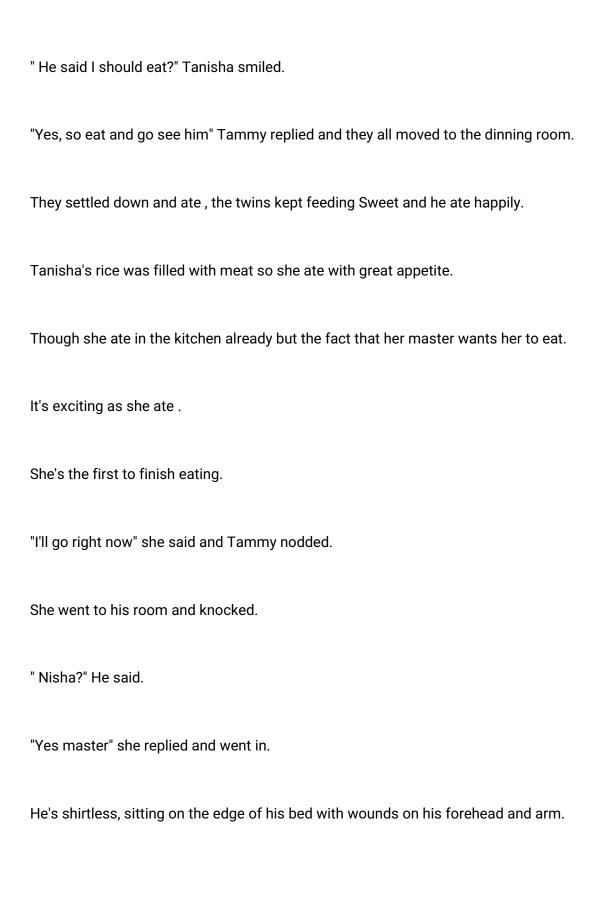

"Palace party?, So this scary palace holds a party too?" Tanisha said after Lady Mac broke the news.
Macbeth smiled and stood from her stool
"Yes, every last Friday of the month, Zara hosts a party for the gang members and it's always fun, but this month is special cos this Friday collided with the anniversary, this palace will clock forty that same day" Macbeth said.
" Whoa!, Meaning it'll be grand" Tanisha said.
"Exactly, she's inviting her gangster friends from Italy, she does that every year during the party, so as from tommorow, our chores are gonna be doubled, let's go serve" lady Macbeth said.
" I hope no one tries shit" Vignette finally spoke.
" You should be called ice, you're so cold" lady Macbeth said.
" But she's nice and kind" Tanisha replied and Vignette glared at her.
" I know" Macbeth replied.
"I'm not kind* Vignette said.
Macbeth smiled as they started taking the meals to the general dinning hall.

KITCHEN

PRINCETON'S SUITE, TWO HOURS LATER
"Tanisha!" The twins exclaimed when she showed up
"My blue eyed cuties!' she smiled, hugging them both.
Sweet has been with them since they came from school, Tammy came for it as usual.
"Hope it wasn't stressful at the kitchen today?" Mina asked.
"At all, school was great as usual right?" She asked.
" Of course, we were about to eat when you came, let's eat together" Sana said .
" You should do that, then after eating, you can go see boss in his room" Tammy said.
" Is he around?" She asked quickly and never realized the anxiousness in her own voice till she finished speaking.
"I meanishe around?" She said slowly and Tammy smiled.

" Yes, he told me to tell you to come see him in his room after you might have eaten" Tammy replied.

"Here" she said.
There was total silence for a while, only the sound of the ringing phone.
The door suddenly opened more widely and instead of taking the phone, he grabbed her hand and the phone fell.
He pulled her into the bathroom the shut the door.

CHAPTER 24&25

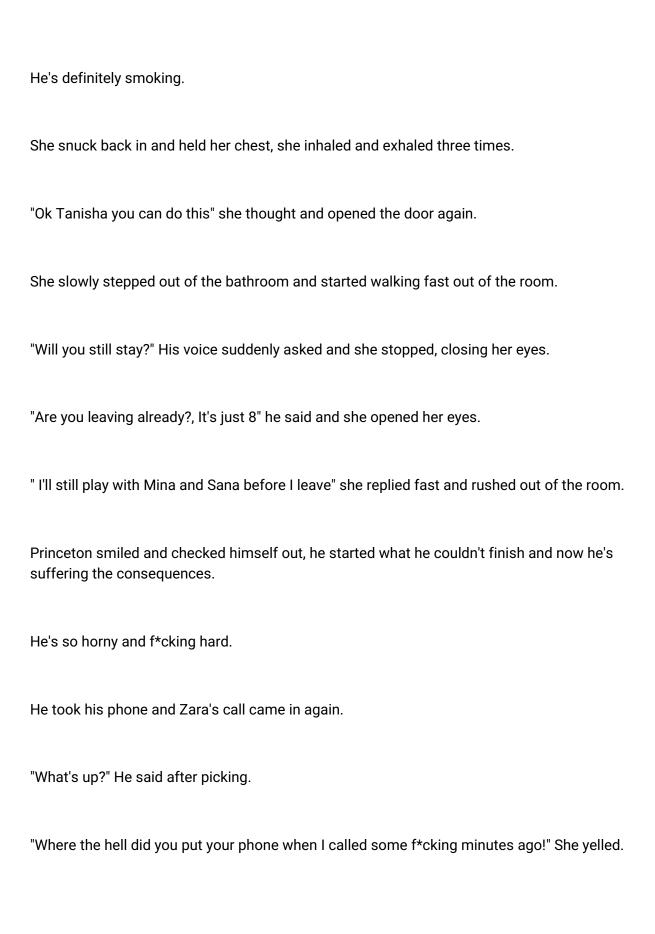

Princeton pulled her into the bathroom and shut the door.

Tanisha's heart almost jumped out of her mouth when she found herself backing the wall.

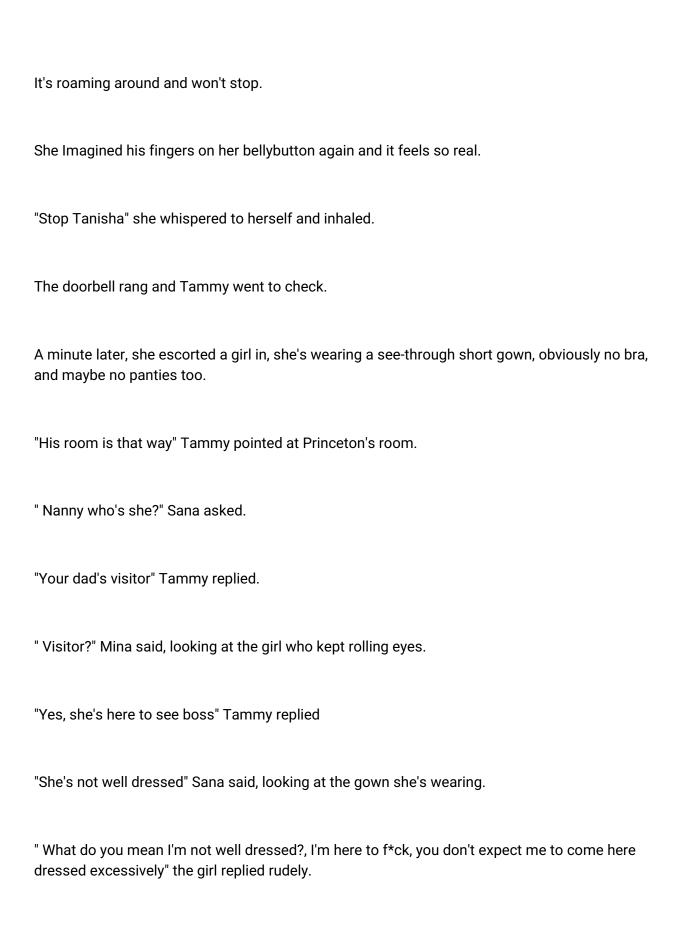

Princeton pinned her to the wall, caging her there.
Her whole being started shaking as she looked up at him.
He's still shirtless and hell, he's beautiful, his abs stared at her and she gulped down emptiness as she stared at his tattoos.
He's much taller so her face is just on his chest level.
She slowly started looking up.
Her eyes met his own and got stuck on each other.
She folded her fist fearfully, hoping he won't hurt her.
Is he gonna grab my neck like the other time?, Am I gonna die for real this time? She thought.
Princeton kept their eyes locked, not looking away from each other.
He tried his possible best to resist her but she's damn hard to resist, not when her s*xy bellybutton is always exposing.
The worse is that, it seems he loses control at the sight of it.
He slowly brought his hand to it and immediately Tanisha felt his finger on her belly button, she froze, that was unexpected.

He started caressing her bellybutton while still looking deep into her beautiful eyes. Tanisha held her breath as he continued, no one has ever touched her that way, no one. He'll be the first guy to do that and damn, it's making her lose her breath, and maybe her mind too She folded her fist more tightly and he hardened his stare on her. Caressing her bellybutton feels like the best thing Princeton has ever done, it's crazy! Her breathing became heavy and fast, he can hear it clearly. Her lips presented itself appealing so he wanted to capture it at once but he stopped. What if she runs away after that?, No I can't His lips stopped right in front of hers and her breathing became even more heavy. She stared at his curvy lips and looked back into his eyes. Something she doesn't understand is in there, he's looking at her differently. He raised his head and his fingers slowly left her bellybutton. He sighed and stepped away from her.

He gave her one last glance and walked out of the bathroom after taking the fallen phone.
Tanisha released the breath she has been holding and sighed.
She stood on her spot for a while, thinking about what just happened.
He touched my bellybutton she thought and before she knew it, she smiled, remembering how it felt.
The look in his eyes when he was doing that and his lips when he almost kissed her.
"Should I be happy?" She muttered.
"Should I leave?, Should I go?* She asked herself.
She looked around the bathroom and sighed.
The whole bathroom can be the size of her whole house, it's big!
The jacuzzi tub, the shower glass, shower head, toilet everything looks expensive too.
She walked slowly to the door and opened it slowly.
She peeped out and saw him by the window, he's leaning on it, his back on her and the whole room smells like smoke.

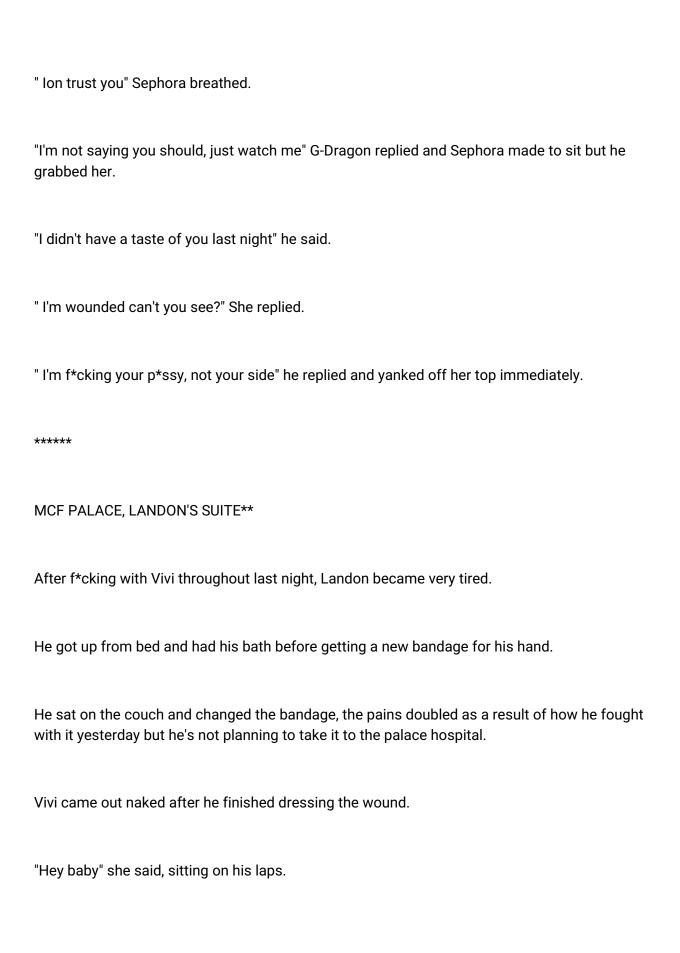

" Get out of here!" Sana shouted.
"Well I'm not going anywhere, it's a golden opportunity every girl in this palace wants, I got it and you're tryna make me blow it off?, No" the girl replied and started walking to his room.
" No!!!!!!" The twins screamed and Princeton rushed out.
"Tammy what's wrong with them?" He asked quickly.
" They they'reI dunno" she replied.
" Don't make babies with her, we don't want her as a new mother' Sana said.
"Yes, you can't do intercourse with her" Mina said.
Princeton ran his hand through his hair frustratedly before facing the girl.
"Leave" he said.
"But masterl
" Get out" he interrupted and she left reluctantly.
"Happy now?" He said .

" Will I be in your position by then?" Tanisha asked.
"It's obvious, you're the closest to him after me" Tammy replied and Tanisha sighed, different thoughts running through her mind.
TEN MINUTES LATER
Tanisha walked into the slave house with Sweet , thinking about what'll really happen if Tammy leaves.
"I'll live with him as a nanny to the kids?, Will that be the case?" She thought as she entered the room
" Anyone will think you're going to master Princeton's suite to get f*cked these days" Vignette joked.
" You're still awake?" Tanisha replied.
"This b*tch here woke me up" Vignette replied, pointing at Reina's bed.
She's gone.
"Where's she?" Tanisha asked quickly.
"You want me dead right?" Reina said, coming in.
Tanisha faced her and smiled.

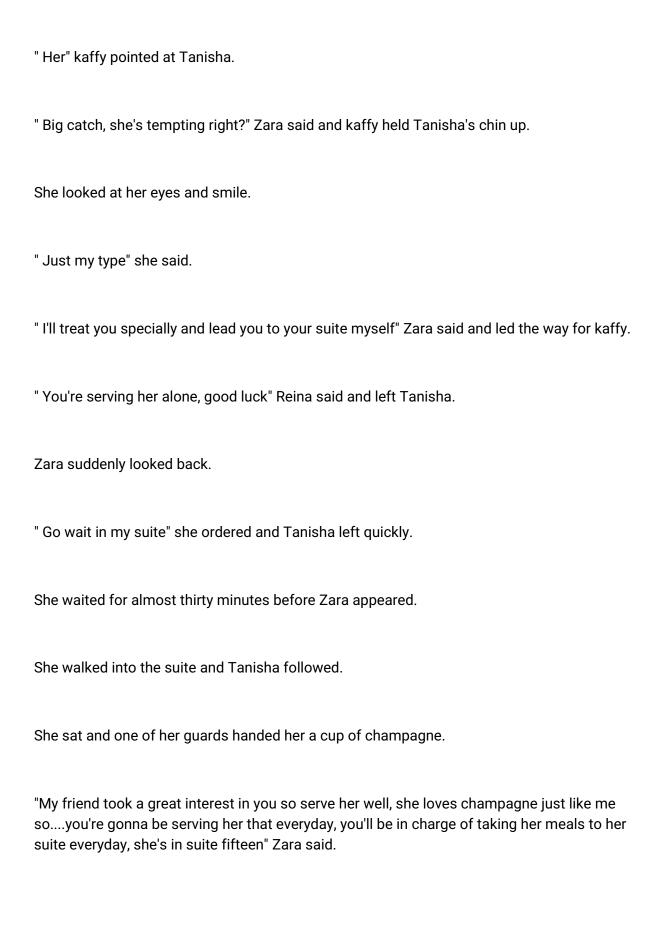

He tried touching her but she slapped away his hand.
"Get the f*vk out of this room!" She yelled at him.
"What?, Cos we couldn't get the gold?, It wasn't my fault!, Everyone from MCF palace is crazy when it comes to combat!, We're no match for them and that's why they keep winning" he replied.
" You couldn't even take care of Princeton, that f*cking bastard wounded you again!, You have great body build more than him" Sephora claimed.
" It's not about body build b*tch!, It's about potentials and power!" G-Dragon snapped.
" So you lack potentials and the power to fight Princeton?, You're admitting that you're weak?" Sephora grinned.
" And you need to admit that you're weak too, Lia is the youngest of Zara's children but she manages to defeat you everytime" G-Dragon replied.
" Out of my room" Sephora said.
" We need strategies, planting a spy in their midst might help this time, an unsuspected one" G- Dragon said.
" Have you forgotten what happened to the one we planted the other time?, He f*cking died and his body was sent back!" Sephora shouted.
" This will be different, we'll have to lay low for a while and they might just let their guards down, we now have an ace on our fingers, we can just use her again" G-Dragon replied.

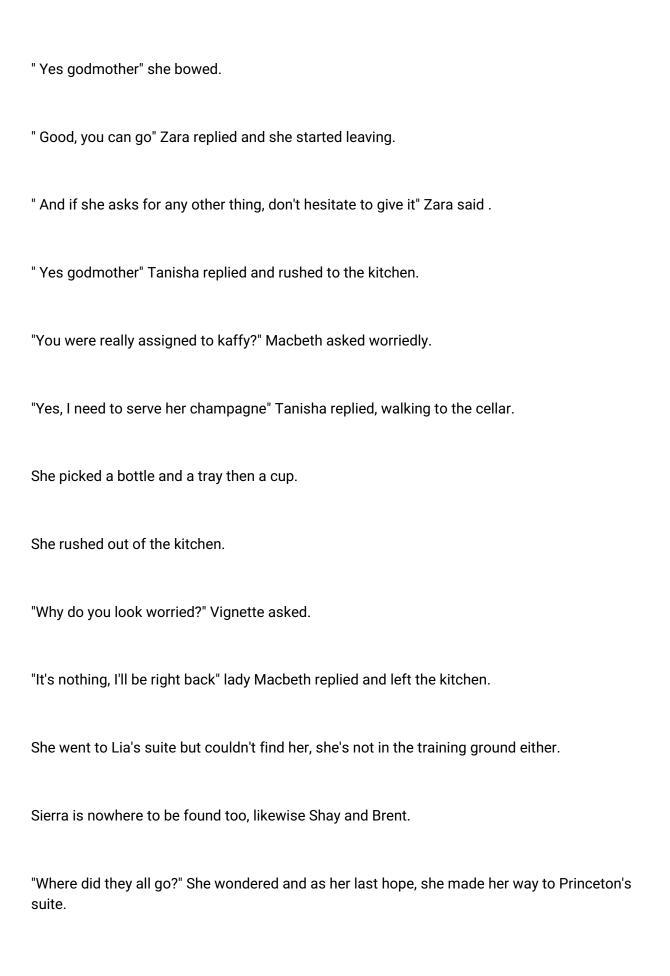

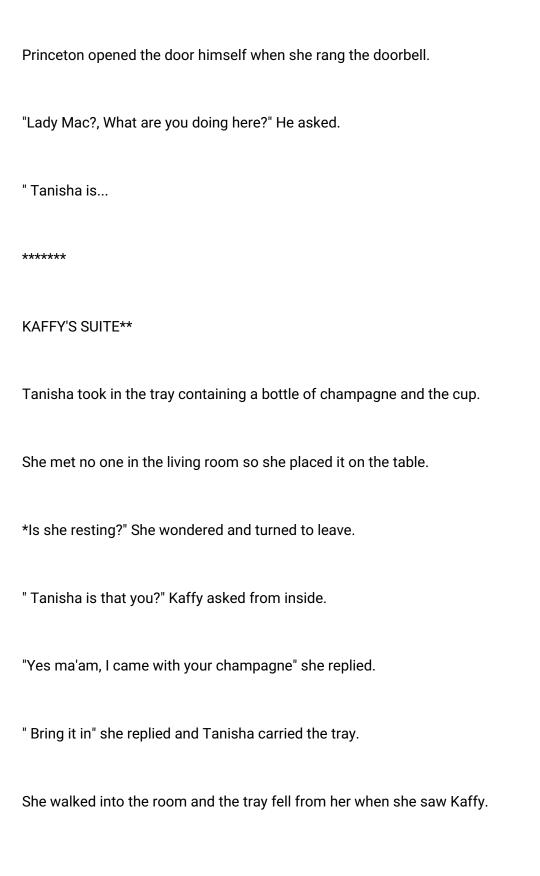

"You should leave now" he replied without looking at her.
"What's wrong?, You won't suck me?" She replied, scooting closer, her n*pples dangling in front of him.
" You need to leave nowI'm tired" he replied and she stood.
"You're boring!, F*ckkkkk!!" She shouted, going in to dress up.
She came out and didn't say a word to him before leaving, Vignette came in immediately.
"Cleaning on" she said and never wasted time.
Landon stood and took the flower vase, he dropped it intentionally and it broke on the ground.
He went in after that.
"I always come here to clean broken pieces of the flower vase, how annoying" Vignette muttered.

EVENING, PALACE PARK
"Kaffy" Zara smiled widely when the first visitor came down from her car.

She's one of her friends who came for the anniversary from France.
"Zara I f*cking missed you" she replied, hugging her lightly.
"You didn't tell me you'll be coming today, I meanthe anniversary is still three days to come" Zara said.
" There's nothing much to do in France so I f*cking came early" she replied.
" You didn't come with your girl" Zara said.
" No, I got tired of her, maybe I'll find another one in here" kaffy replied, looking around.
Tanisha and Reina appeared.
"They'll both serve you in your room from now till you leave" Zara said and they both bowed.
Kaffy smiled, licking her lower lip as she stared at both of them
She walked around them, checking them out.
"I think just one is enough" she finally said.

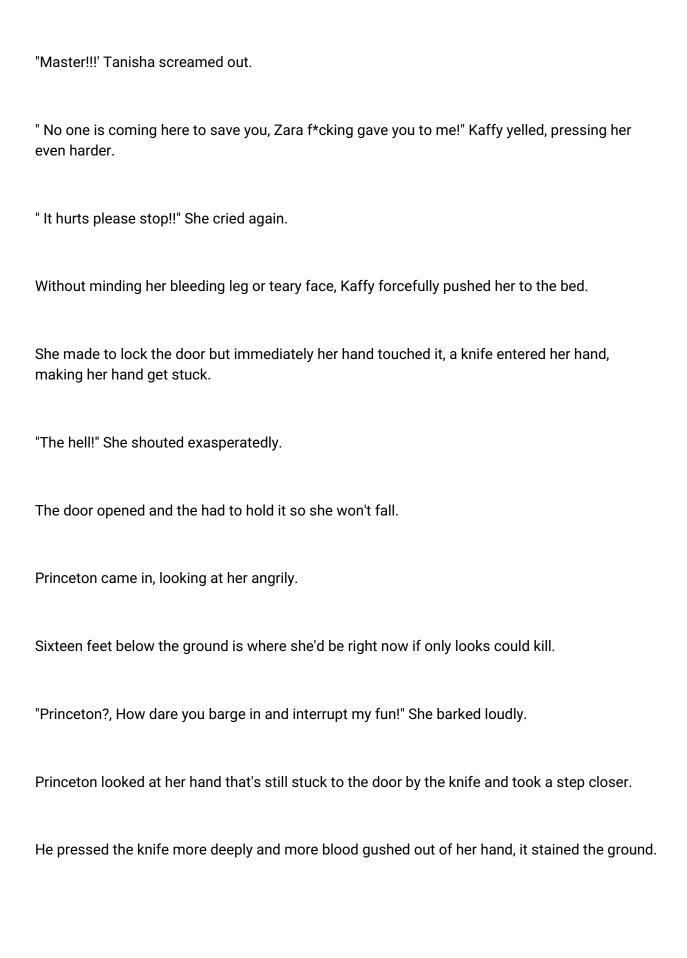

"I don't want to!!" She finally cried, covering her br*asts with her arms.
"But I want to and in here, I make the rules" Kaffy replied and pulled her skirt down too.
Kaffy licked her lips when she saw her irresistible p*ssy.
" Please please!!!" Tanisha pleaded tearfully.
Kaffy ignored and took her small pink n*pple in the middle of her fingers.
She pressed it so hard and Tanisha screamed out loud.
"Master!!!"

CHAPTER 26&27

"Princeton are you out of your f*cking mind!, Zara sent her to me and now I'm in trouble cos of that?" She said.
Princeton turned his furious eyes to her.
" To hell with you and Zara" He spat, shifting his gaze from her.
He looked at Tanisha who's naked on the bed, covering her body with her arms, crying slowly.
He walked to her and got the thick bed cover, he covered her with it and that's when she looked up.
Her red teary eyes is making him wanna kill kaffy right now, her swollen face is making him fee like sending her to hell where she belongs.
Then he noticed blood on the bed, he traced it to her leg and saw the big cut on it.
His anger released itself into his bloodstream again and he made to go back to kaffy and end her life but Tanisha held him.
Though she said nothing but the look in her eyes only means she wants to get out of here.
How it happened, he doesn't know but he just detected that by looking at her eyes, he understands what she wants.
He carried her in his arms and she let her arms go straight round him, she rested her head on his chest and closed her eyes.

He walked out of the room, deciding to leave kaffy for another day, she might just make another mistake before she leaves and that's when he'll kill her. He took her out of the suite and the gang members he passed by looked on surprisingly, this is the first time he'll be making the mistake of carrying a girl in his arms, it has never happened. Those from afar stood and gazed at him but no one saw the face of the girl he carried. Lia suddenly caught up with him and blocked him. "Did you change style?, Are you now carrying a girl in your arms to go f*ck?, how classy" she laughed but her laughter ended when she saw the ankle of the girl. The anklet that's always on Tanisha's ankle is right there. She guickly raised the clothe from her face and her eyes widened. "Tanisha!" She said shockingly. Her face says it all that she's not ok, the tears is still on her face and her leg is bleeding "What happened...to her?" She asked calmly.

Lia rushed all the way to the kitchen and met lady Mac, preparing dinner with Vignette and Reina.

"Ask lady Mac, and you need to bring her something to wear, not the slave dress, I mean....bring her one of your trousers and top" he said and left.

"I've looked everywhere for you, where have you been?" Mac asked
"I was at the palace pool with the others, tell me everything" Lia replied.
" Well godmother assigned Tanisha to kaffy's suite and
"Kaffy?, Her lesbian friend from France?" Lia interrupted.
" Correct' lady Mac replied.
" Holy f*ck" Vignette muttered while Reina smiled.
"So I contacted Princeton and
Lia stormed out of the place before lady Mac could finish.
"But you said nothing earlier" Vignette.
"You wouldn't have been able to do anything even if I told you" lady Mac replied.

PRINCETON'S SUITE

"What happened to your leg?" Mina asked, noticing first.
"Nothing much,it doesn't hurt a bit" she replied simply.
" Are you sure?" Sana asked.
" Come on, I'm fine" she replied and Princeton left the suite with Lia immediately.
They head for Zara's suite and found her sitting regally in her living room with Kaffy who has a bandaged hand.
"What the hell do you think you did!' Zara yelled, standing up.
"I should be the first one to ask that question, what the hell did you do!, Thought we made the rule that raping is forbidden here!" Princeton yelled back.
" And how can you call that rape?, She's my slave and I decide whatever I want with her!" Zara yelled.
" So sending her to a lesbian was the next thing on your mind you witch!" Lia shouted.
" You've grown some nerves, guess my alpha poured some into your empty skull and that's why you have the balls to shout at me Lia!" Zara spat.
" I'll do it again and again mother!, Oh it even sounds bitter to call you mother cos you're so cruel!, That girl is too innocent and pure to be defiled by a piggy woman!" Lia shouted.

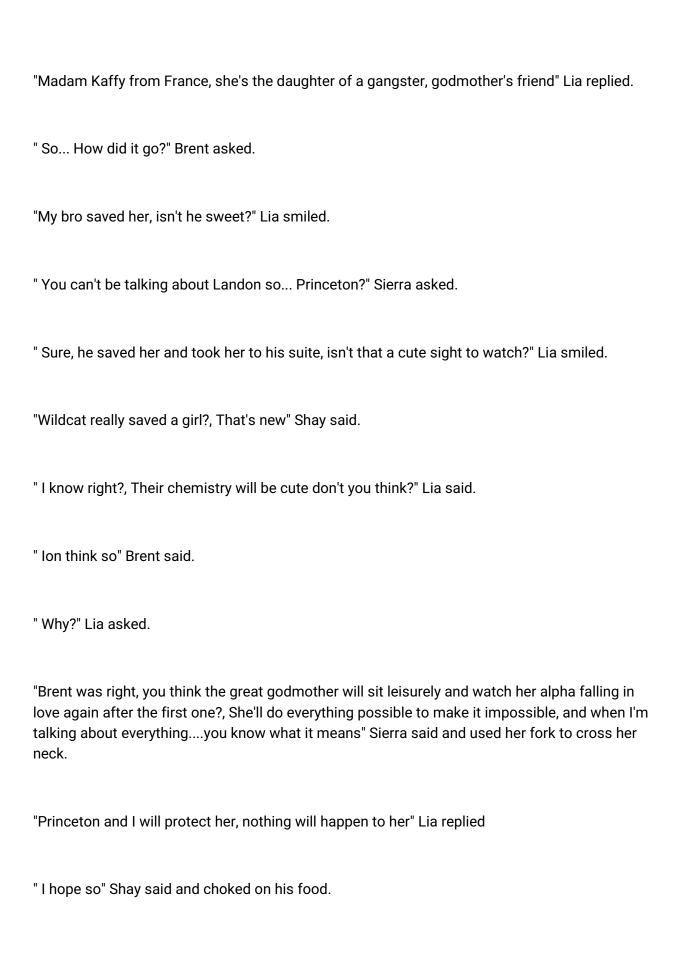

" Did you just address me as piggy?"Kaffy stood.
" Of course pig!" Lia yelled.
" And why are you both doing this?, I've never seen my two best standing up for a slave" Zara smiled.
" Cos she's different" Princeton said.
"And that's why you carried her out of that suite in your arms?, Tell me are you in love again?, Did you forget what happened about Ava?" Zara said.
" Don't talk about her!!' Princeton shouted.
"Of course I should, I should do that to bring you back to your senses and stop you from falling further in love with a worthless slave!" Zara yelled.
" She's not worthless Zara!" Princeton shouted.
" You just called me by my name?" Zara said shockingly.
" What?, Weren't you named Zara on your dedication?, She's your slave which makes her your property, but I once told you that whatever I want among your property shall be mine right?, I'll take her" he said
" Impossible!, I ain't giving her to you!, You can't fall in love and allow history yo repeat itself again!" Zara yelled.

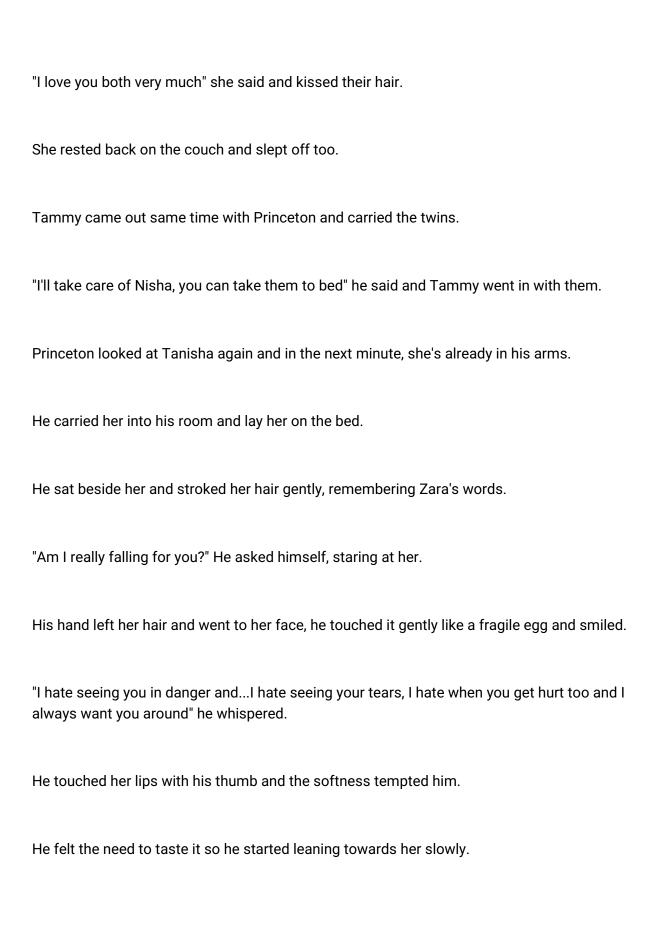

"Don why are you
" Leave, f*vking is not part of my schedule today" he said seriously and Vivi giggled.
"Landon?, You just said f*cking is not part of your schedules today?, You f*vk more than four girls a day so what are you talking about?, All your schedules are always taken by f*ck!, I want you nownow Don' she replied.
"And I told you to leave!" He yelled and Vivi flinched.
"Really?, You must be f*cking that slave already, your cleaner.
You must be getting into her p*ssy already and that's why I disgust you now right?, Don't come begging, I won't let you" she said and left angrily.
Landon fell back on the couch and unwrapped the bandage from his hand.
"This f*cking hurts" he said, staring at the wound.

GENERAL DINNING
"A lesbian almost f*cked Tanisha today" Lia announced and Sierra choked on her water.
" Thef*vk!' she said.
" Lesbian?, In this palace?" Shay said.

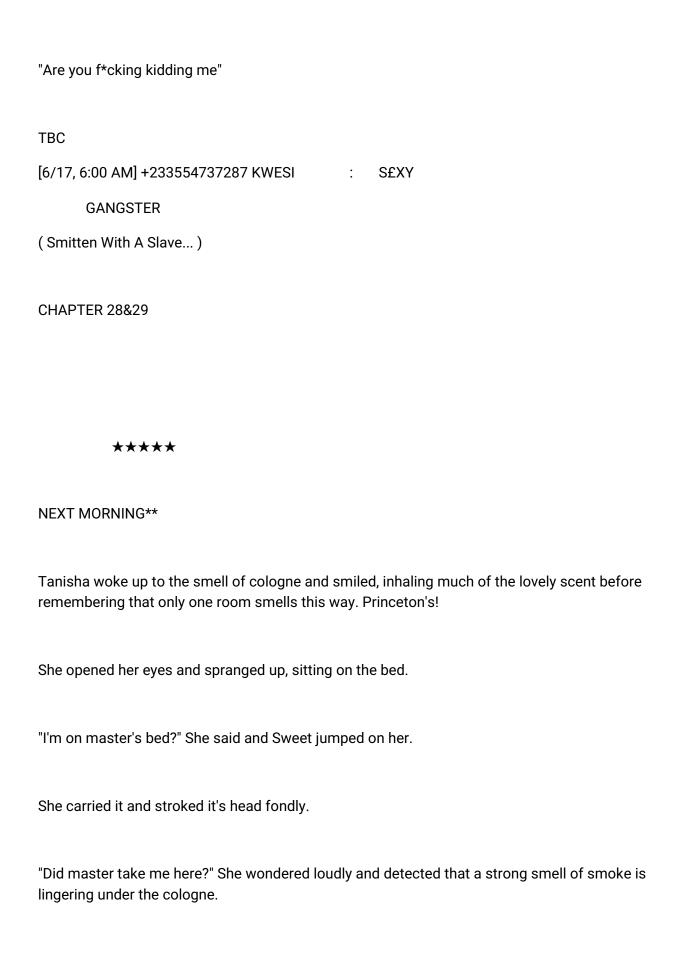

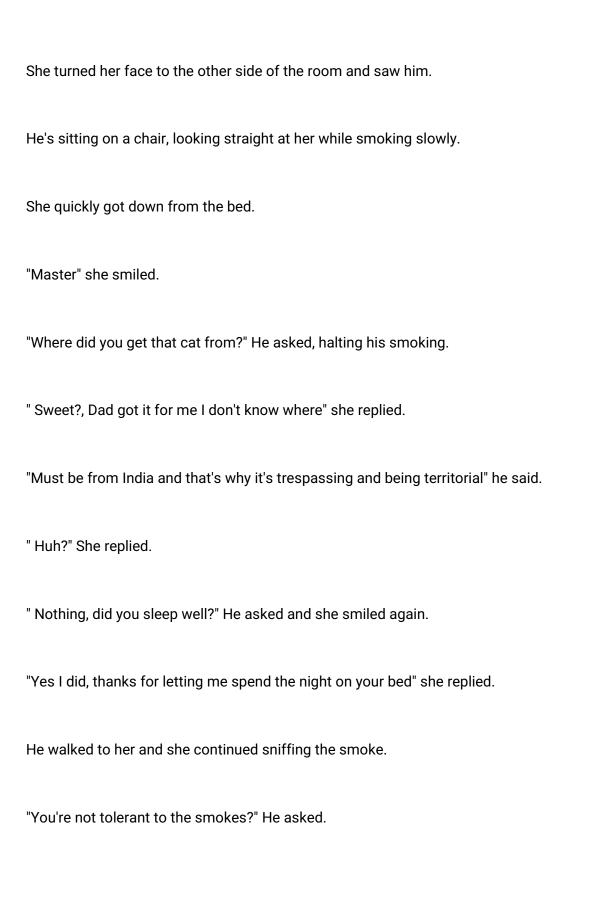

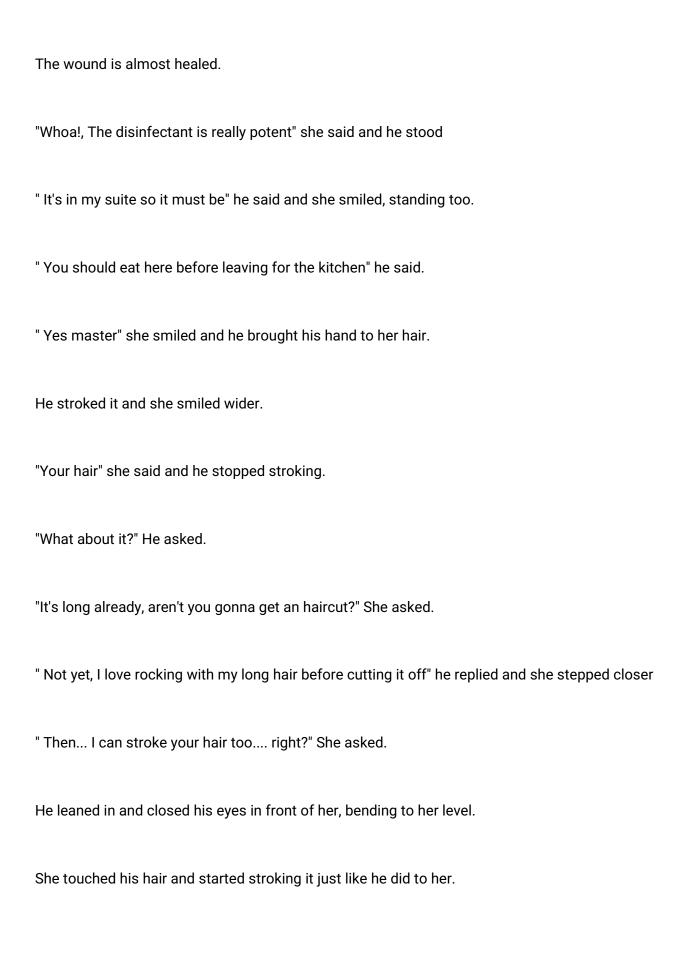

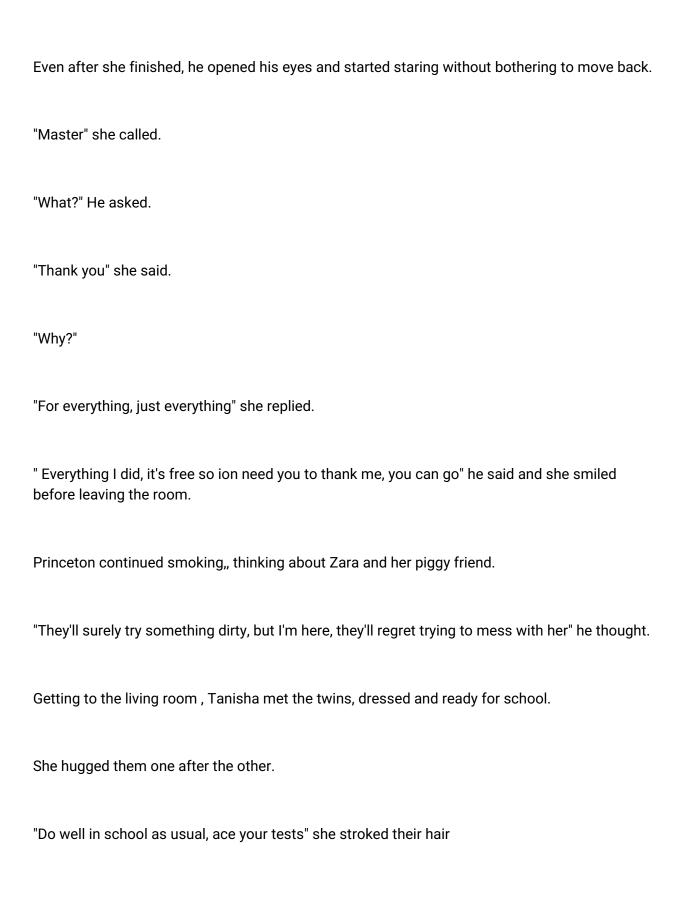

He closed his eyes when his lips was about to touch hers but someone suddenly jumped on him from behind.
He drew his gun within a second and stood swiftly, pointing it to whoever it is.
His arm dropped when he saw Sweet on the bed beside Tanisha.
"You?, When did you get here" he said surprisingly.
Sweet meowed cutely before laying beside her, spreading it's legs widely.
"Seriously?, This is still my bed nosy cat" Princeton said and Sweet scooted even closer to her.
" You still won't leave?" He said and Sweet closed it's eyes.
Princeton carried it and placed it on the bedstand but almost immediately, Sweet came back to sleep beside Tanisha again.
Princeton drew his gun again and placed it on Sweet's skull
"Get up or I'm gonna really kill you" he threatened.
Sweet went closer to Tanisha and placed it's head on Tanisha's bre*sts, sleeping off immediately.
Princeton stared unbelievably.

A DAY TO THE PARTY

Just like Lady Macbeth said, the palace is full of guests already, the party will be happening tommorow so almost all the guests are around already though the last batch of guests will arrive in the evening.

While Tanisha is busy in the kitchen with Vignette and Reina, Zara is having fun with a group of her already present friends.

Lia is at the pool with the rest of the gang, having fun.

"Did you get a dress already?" Sierra suddenly asked.

"I have more than hundred dresses I haven't even tried on, I'm not ready to go for shopping so I'll just go with one of it" Lia replied simply.

" Ion have time to go for shopping too so you'll give me one of the gowns, deal?" Sierra asked.

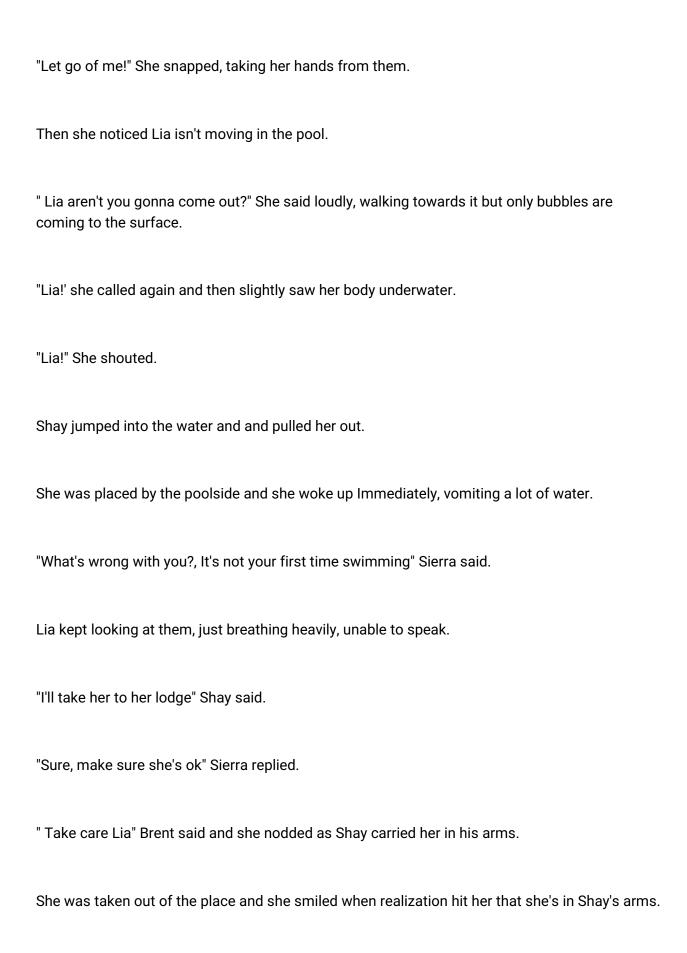

" No deal, pay me first" Lia smiled.

"No don't be like this Lia, we're friends remember" Sierra pouted and Lia laughed.

" Why didn't you go for shopping yesterday?" Lia asked.

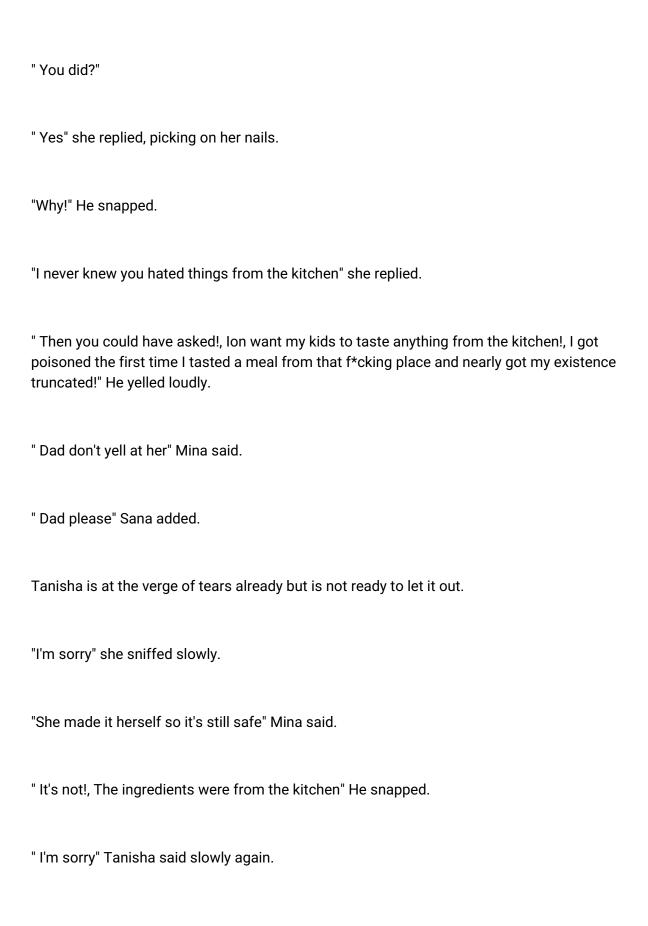

" I can make you fall in love with me you know, I can do it" she said desperately.
" I don't want to like you, not to talk of love so please just leave me alone!" He yelled and walked away.
Vivi watched satisfactorily from her spot and smiled.
"I'm still in his heart, I know he'll call for me soon, he can't forget about me that easily" she smiled .
Landon entered the kitchen and came across Vignette who's just coming in too.
She ignored him and went to join the others.
"Lady Macbeth!, I'm starving!" he said loudly.
"Don?, Good to have you here" she replied, looking up at him.
She walked to him and tried looking at his hand but he raised it up so she won't have the chance.
"I'm fine, the hand is fine too" he smiled.
"I hope so" she replied.
" I'm hungry" he said and she led him into the room behind the kitchen.

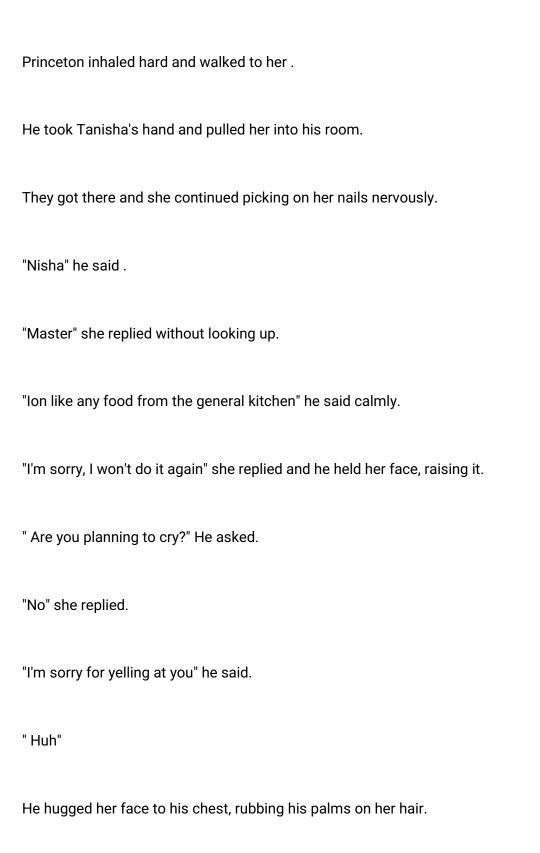

" I'll send something delicious soon" she said and left.
"Vignette you should go serve him, he's your main master you know" lady Mac said.
" I don't want to" she replied.
" It's an order" lady Mac said.
" F*vk' Vignette muttered as she was handed the food.
She took the tray of food to the room and settled it in front of him.
He still couldn't eat with his wounded hand so he used the left one.
"Ion know what's wrong with your hand but you should go for treatment" she said.
" It's none of your business" he replied and she smirked at him.
"Not like I care, ion care if you rot but I just decided to behave like a human for a while" she replied and started leaving.
He walked to her and pulled her back, he slammed her back on the wall roughly.
"You have no right to talk shabbily at me, I'm your boss!" He sneered.

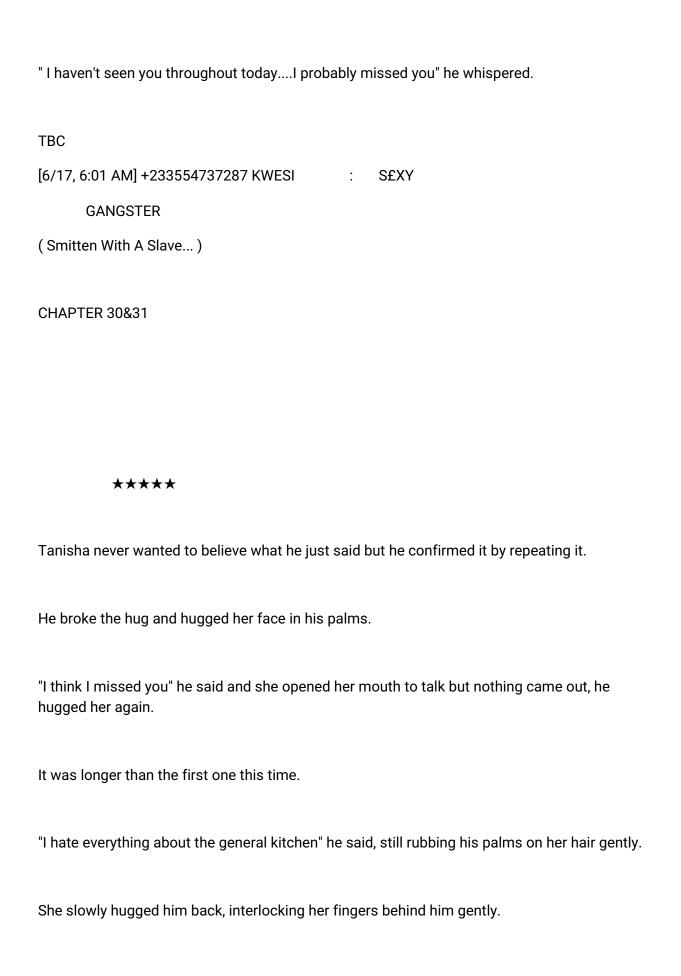

"Yeah, from the general kitchen but I made it myself" she replied, feeding Sweet too.
" Thanks for making it, it's really delicious and that means you'll know how to cook" Mina said.
" I can cook any dish" she smiled.
" Then will you cook for us someday?" Sana asked.
" Of course" Tanisha replied.
"What are you wearing tommorow?, It's the anniversary" Mina asked.
" I'll just be a random server, I'm not part of this family anyways' she replied and the twins went sad.
"You guys are attending?" She asked.
"Yes, dad will allow us, we got same gown and shoes, same headband and same color of everything" Sana said.
" Then you guys should enjoy tommorow, I'll be watching you both from my serving counter, can't wait to see you both looking more adorable in your dresses" she replied.
" But it's still sad that you'll be there as a server" Mina said sadly.
Tammy came out of the kitchen and her eyes widened when she saw the plate of fries.

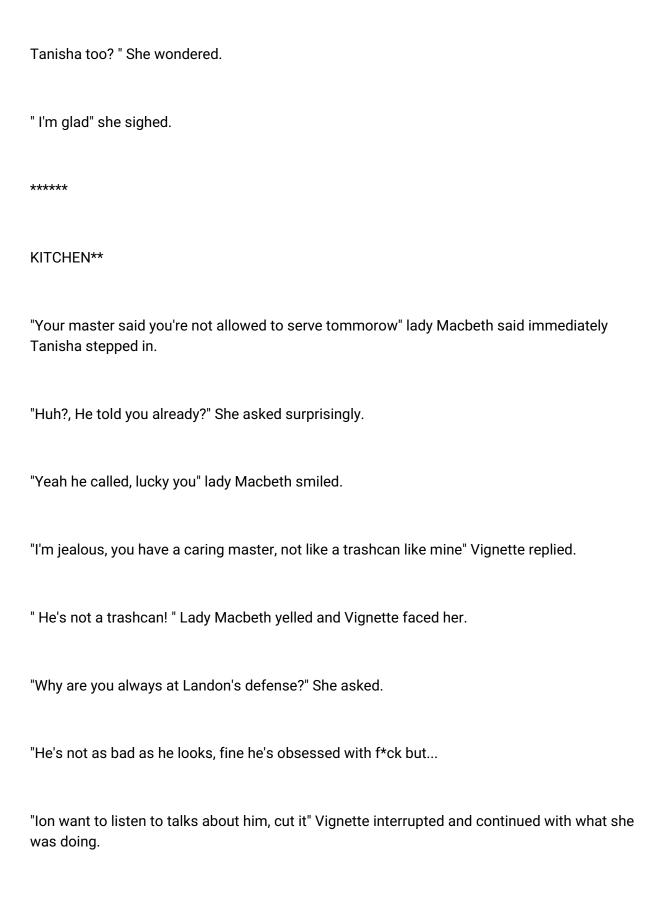

He smiled and drew her even closer though there's barely any space between them anymore.
He just wants to feel her warmth on his body so badly.
"I got poisoned by a dangerous poison the first time I ate there and almost died but all thanks to Landon and lady Macbeth, they saved me and till now, no one knew the culprit, I stopped eating there since then, I only eat anything cooked by Tammy" he said.
She just kept her head on his chest, his warmth is soothing too, she loves it.
"I'm sorry for making you worry" she said and he broke the hug.
" It's fine, but shouldn't you get to know my likes and dislikes?, Tammy is leaving after the party and you'll be in charge of the kitchen here, you'll be a nanny to my girls" he said.
" I'll really be?, Tammy was not joking?, But what about
"godmother?, I'll take care of her you don't have to worry" he said.
She started picking on her nails again but she stopped her.
"Don't be scared, I'm here" he said.
She nodded slowly.
"And you too, be careful of whatever you eat in the general kitchen, godmother is not nice and she might just manipulate lady Macbeth by force" he said.

" Should I stop eating there?" She asked.
" Exactly, stop eating there, always eat here and only here" he replied and she smiled.
" Yes master" she said.
" And about my likes and dislikes, you'll have to learn it yourself,watch me closely from now on" he said.
" I don't need that, I'll just take a shortcut" Tanisha smiled.
" What shortcut?" He asked curiously.
"You don't need to know master" she winked and made to leave but he pulled her back.
"Tommorow at the anniversary, don't serve" he said.
"Why?, All the slaves will serve" she replied.
" I know, but don't, sit at a table in the middle of the hall, I'll keep an eye on you from there" he said and she looked at him.
" Will there be danger?" She asked.

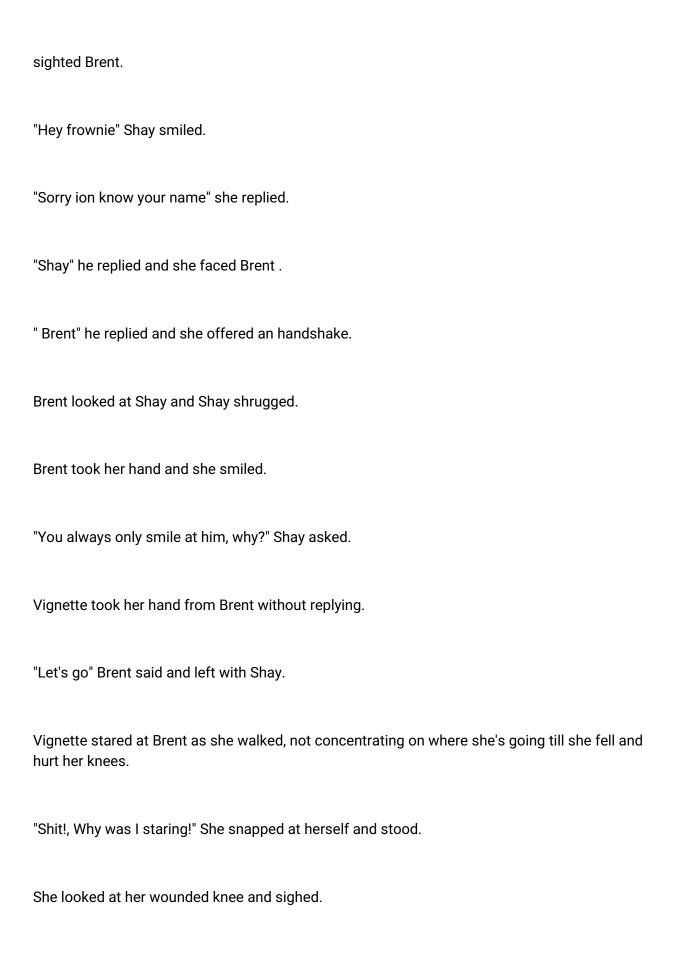

"No, I need to go help with washing in the kitchen, I'll be back by 9 to get Sweet" she replied.
" I'm sad" Sana pouted and she bent in front of them.
"Promise me you guys will still be awake by then so we can all play before I leave" she said.
" We promise" they chorused and she gave then a kiss on their foreheads before standing.
"Bye Tammy!" She waved happily before leaving fast.
The twins continued playing with Sweet while Tammy was left to wonder in bewilderment.
She stood on her spot, staring into space.
"My suspicions are true" she whispered.
The last time she disobeyed Princeton by mistake, he punished her by making her kneel in the heavy rain for an hour and she passed out in the rain before he ordered her treatment.
Back then he was still the cold and inhumane Princeton butwhat happened to him?
He took her in and did what?
Tammy smiled and walked into the kitchen.
"He's in it again, I heard he was madly in love with Ava back then, is he madly in love with

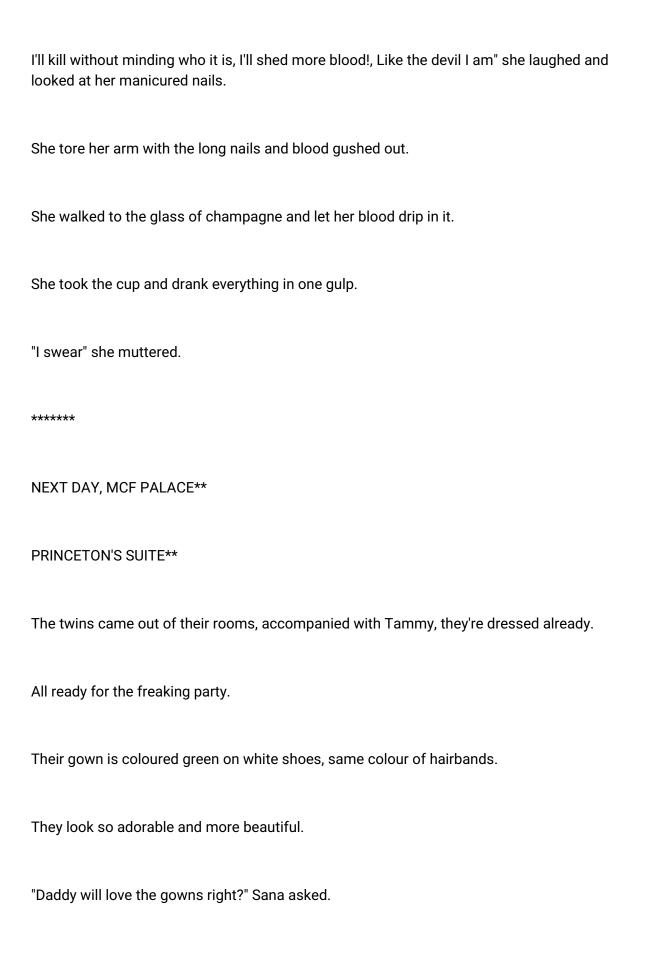

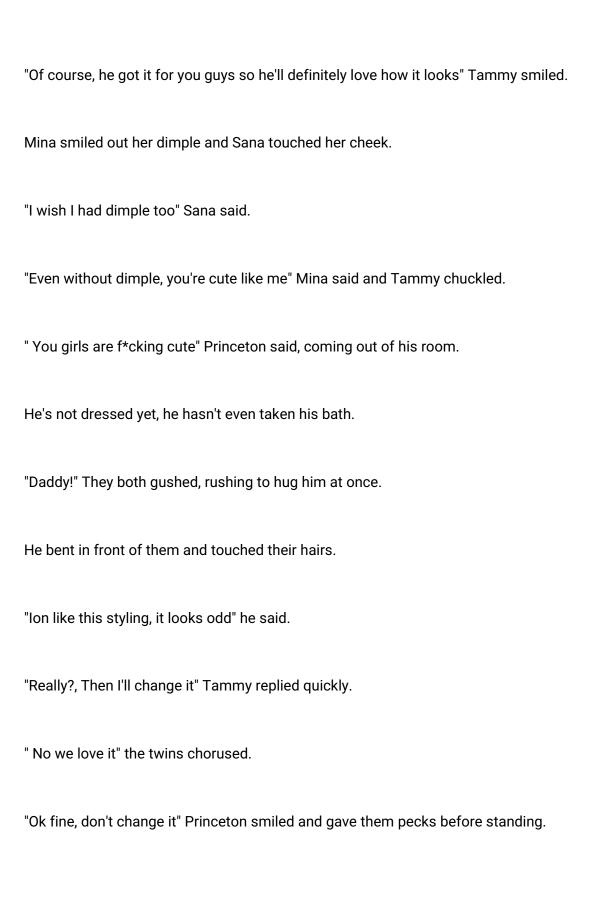

She looked back at him again and stopped, watching him till he left her sight.

ZARA'S SUITE
Zara has a bottle of champagne in her hand as usual as she walked the secret corridor that led to the secret room.
She's smiling satisfactorily as she made her entry into the room.
She laughed loudly immediately she entered.
"This palace is clocking 40 tommorow Crime Lord, f*cking 40!" She said loudly and dropped to the bottle of champagne on the table.
" Aren't you ashamed that it turned out this way?, You never wanted this day to come right?, Your dream was to end this palace but nonot in this lifetime, MCF palace will forever exist!' she said seriously, letting every word come out with a pitch of meanness.
She smiled darkly and walked around menacingly before coming back to the bedside.
"I won't let this palace crumble!, I'll continue to make it stand till all the enemies bow!, Our alpha is doing well and I promise to take care of all the stumbling blocks in his way including that girl" she said and laughed so loud.
" Crime Lord, this isn't ending soon, but anytime it ends, I can't promise the safety of anyone cos

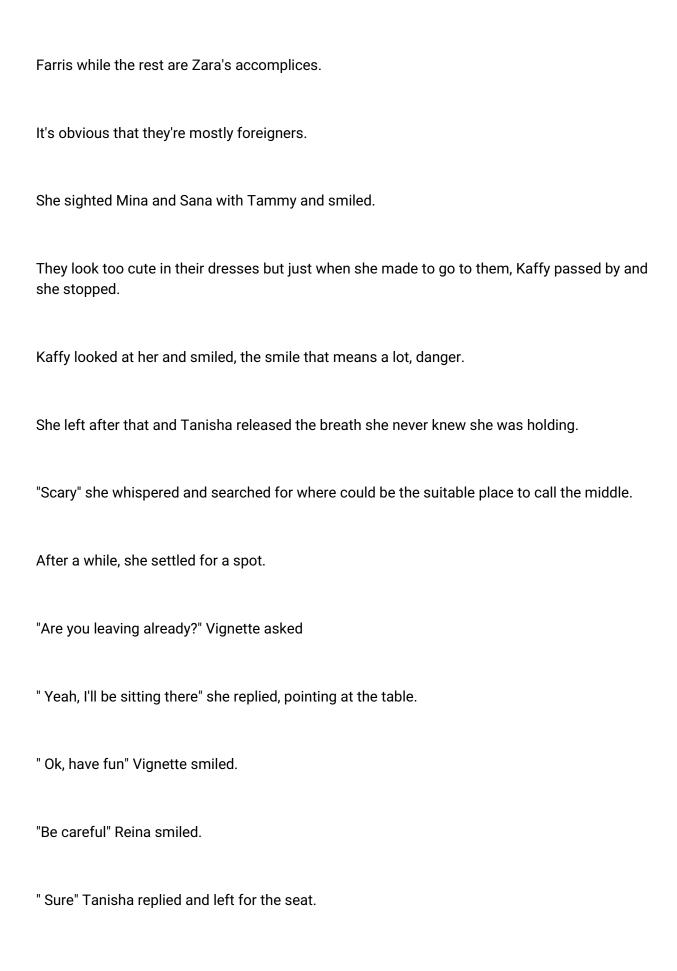

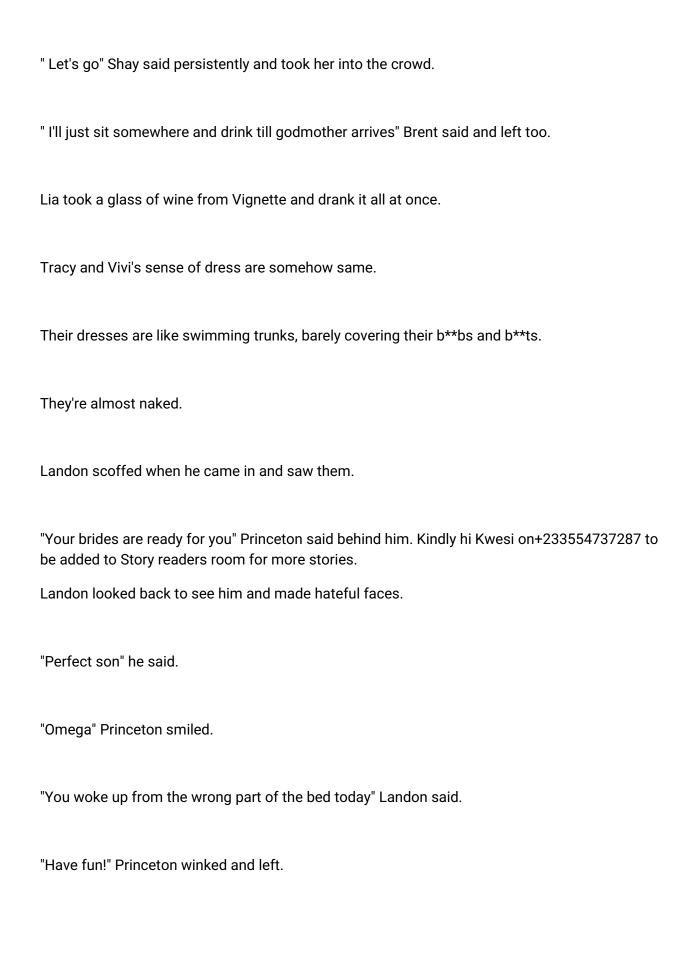

" Nisha isn't here yet?" He asked.
"No, only Reina came to clean earlier, Nisha must be busy moving the drinks to the party ground" Tammy replied.
" The palace guards doubled so no fears, you can go with them I'll meet you guys" he said and Tammy nodded.
" Bye dad!, See ya!" They waved and he replied with a wink as they left.

LIA'S SUITE
"Gosh!, I never knew I'll ever look good in gown" Sierra gushed, checking herself out in front of the mirror.
She's wearing one of Lia's gowns, it's tight and short but it was slitted on the right thigh.
"This slit made me love it more, if a ruckus happens, I can fight with it" she further said.
Lia is wearing a long gown, it'd have been crawling on the ground if not for the heels she's wearing.
"Last year anniversary what did you wear?" She asked.
" Don't kid me, I wasn't here during the last anniversary, I got recruited last year ending" Sierra

Brent and Shay came in that instant, dressed in suits, they both look dashing!.
Vignette rested on a table as she stared at Brent and Reina smiled.
"Guess you're not innocent either, are you obsessed with Brent or Shay?" She said and Vignette glared at her before lady Macbeth came.
"Start serving" she ordered.
"Yes ma'am" they both chorused with the other numerous slaves
They started serving the drinks around.
"Hey Sierra!" Shay waved when she came in with Lia.
"Your husbands won't let me be, what should I do with them" Sierra said.
" My husbands?, You're crazy" Lia said
The guys got to them and Shay grabbed Sierra.
" Let's go drink, you love drinking right?" He winked and Sierra blinked
" No" she said.

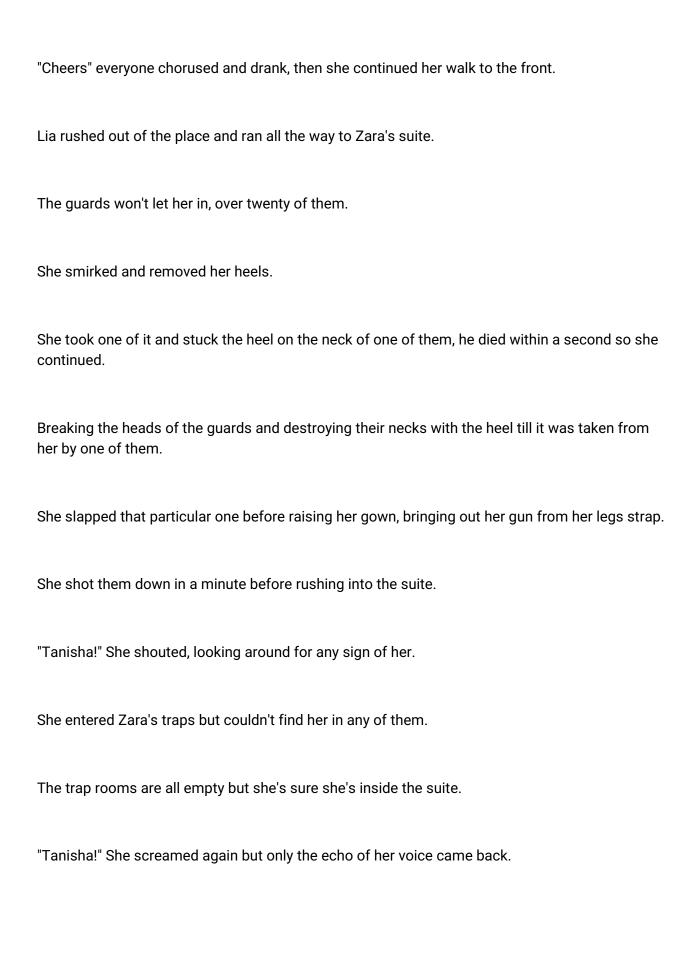

"Slaves aren't allowed to drink anything here" Tanisha whispered.
" But you're more like a guest since you aren't serving so enjoy, it's ordinary mojito" Reina winked and left.
Tanisha took the cup and drank a little from it.
"Gosh!, Cool" she smiled and continued drinking.
TEN MINUTES LATER
"The soul of this party will make her entry now, welcome Zara Masterson, the godmother of this palace" one of the guests announced and everyone went silent as the big door opened and Zara came in.
She's in all red, she looks dangerous and hot.
She's not smiling and that only makes her look colder.
She stood by the door for a while and allowed her dangerous aura to mix with the air before stepping in but immediately she stepped in, the glass cup fell from Tanisha and broke on the ground.
It was supposed to be total silence when Zara is making her entry but Tanisha stood, obviously drunk.

Everyone turned their attention to her shockingly.
She smiled tipsily and started licking her lips as she walked to the door.
"I believe i can fly
" I believe I can touch the sky
" I think about it every night and day
" Spread my wings and fly away
She sang drunkenly.
Zara's veins revealed on her neck, excess anger blooming in her blood.
Tanisha got to her and held her hand
"You're so hotvery hot" she said, smiling crazily before raising up her gown
"I'm so coldI'm coldthe air around is too chillymy gosh!" She blurted and bent in front of her.
She crawled under Zara's long gown and hid there.

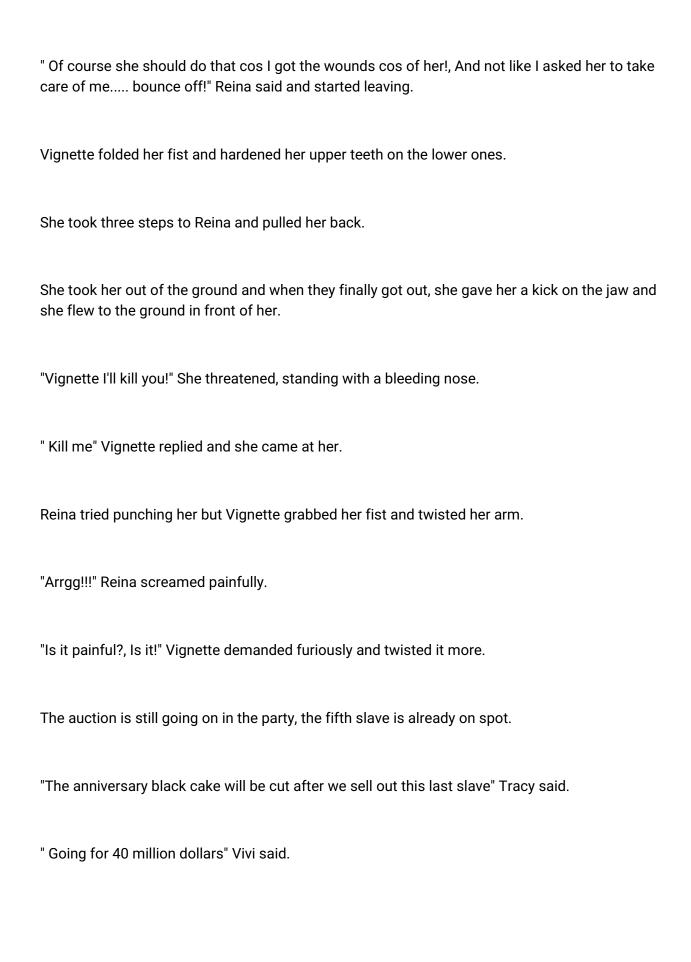

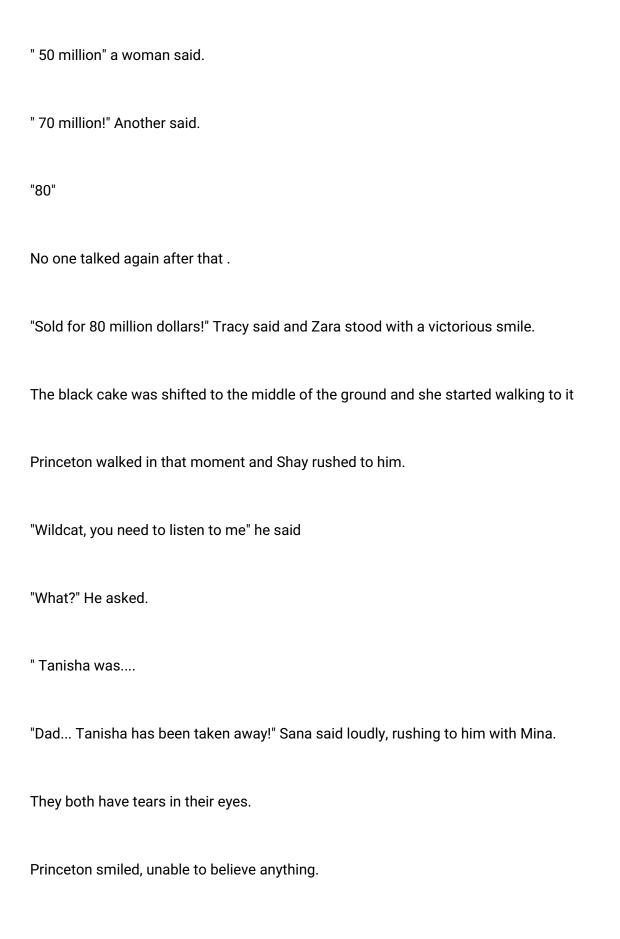

"Aren't you gonna make a move?, Tanisha!" Sierra said and Lia looked at the direction she's gesturing at.
Tanisha is already at the door with the guards.
Her eyes widened and she started running there but before she could get there, Tanisha has been taken in and the door has been shut.
She pressed the black buttons repeatedly but the door won't open.
She gave up and walked back to Zara.
"What just happened?, Where are they taking her to!" She demanded loudly.
" Everyone saw what she did some f*cking minutes ago!" Zara yelled.
"Tell the guards to bring her back, Right now!" Lia shouted and Zara smiled.
" Too late" she said and faced the crowd.
"Let's start the party" she said and everyone raised their cups.
A glass of champagne was handed to Zara too and they all raised the cups to cheer
"Cheers to MCF palace for clocking 40 today" she said.

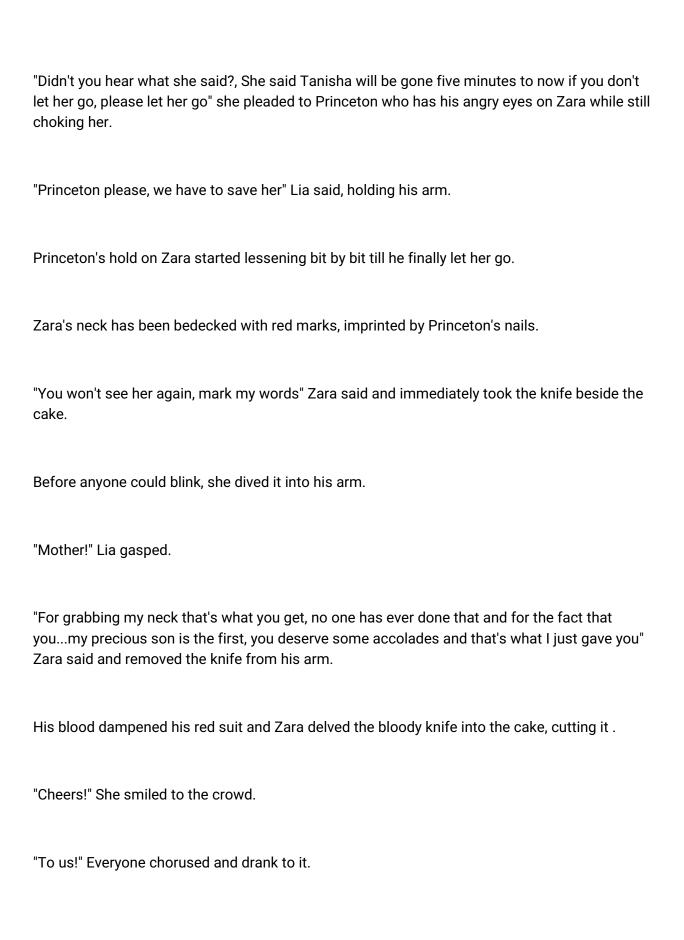

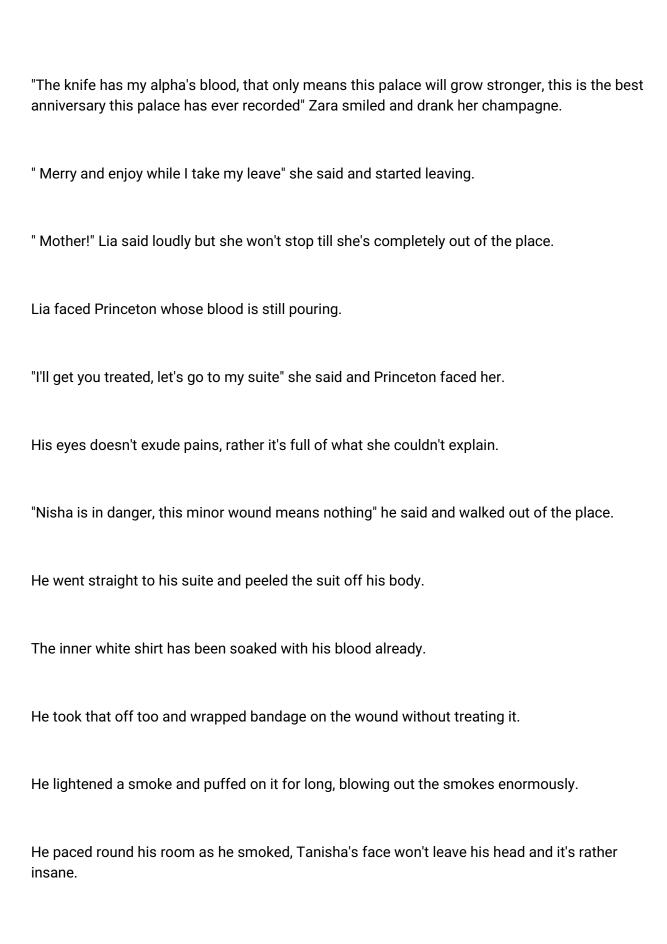

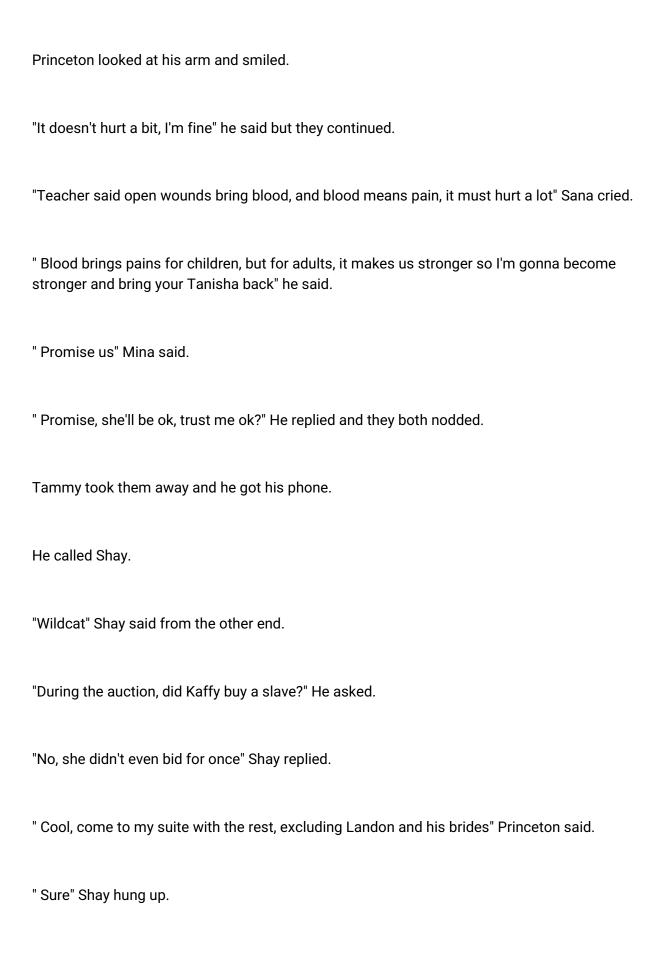

"You know ion always get freaked by jokes" he said and Tammy nodded.
" It's not a joke boss, she was really taken away by godmother's guards" Tammy said.
" She got drunk and interrupted her silent entry" Shay said.
" She has really been taken away" Sierra said, appearing with Brent.
Princeton looked at Zara who's already in front of the black cake and his eyes shone anger.
His eyes darted to Lia, she's standing not far from him with a guilty look on her face.
He looked at Zara again and before anyone could stop him, he started walking to her.
Zara was about to take the knife when she saw him.
She stopped till he got to her .
He stood in front of her, glaring dangerously at her, he's taller but thanks to her heels, they're same height right now.
"Where's she?" He asked calmly but the calmness in his voice held coldness and meanness.
"She almost destroyed my party and you expect me to spare her?, She's in somewhere she belongs, I'll just kill her after this party" she replied in same manner.

His eyes turned red in minutes.
He brushed his fingers on his hair and closed his eyes, trying to figure out what'll happen next.
He's sure she won't kill her, one of the things she can't do is kill slaves.
Zara will rather punish her inhumanly or sell her and make her money.
It seems the lather is the most possible.
"Kaffy" he said and smoked again.
"Dad!" His twins came in and he faced them.
"Go to your room guys, I want to be alone and think" he said.
"Will she be fine?" Sana asked worriedly.
Their tears dried up already but immediately they saw his arm, they started crying again.
The bandage has been soaked with blood.
"Blood" Mina cried

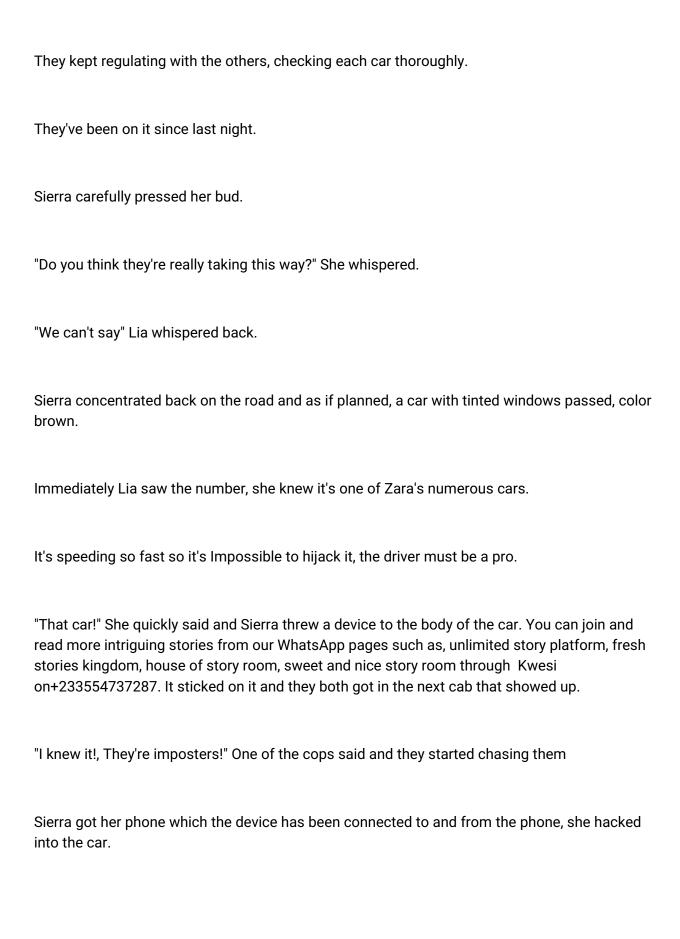

Princeton dropped his phone and continued smoking.
The fact that Kaffy didn't buy a slave is another evidence that Zara is planning to give Tanisha to her whenever she's going back.
Kaffy buys a slave every year when she comes for the anniversary, but this year, she's going with Tanisha?
"Boss, they're here" Tammy said by his door.
He left the room and Lia gasped when she saw his bloody arm.
"You're losing blood, it's dangerous" she said.
"I'm not frail , ion care about it right now, all I care about is that, Nisha must be fine" he replied.
" She's somewhere in her suite, I searched all her trap rooms but couldn't find her" Lia said.
" What were you doing when I left?, I clearly told you to watch over her" Princeton said, looking at her
"I'm sorryIlost concentration for a while" she replied slowly.
"Must you always lose concentration?, It's becoming rampant and it's dangerous!" Shay snapped.
Lia looked at him hurtfully and turned her face away.

"I'm sorry" she said. "Even if we search Zara's suite till eternity, we won't find Tanisha, there are a lot of secret rooms in her suite, hidden ones, there's an underground trap too though I've never entered but....she told me herself, ion know the location, I just know that everything is in her f*cking suite" Princeton said. "Kaffy might leave anytime soon, the fact that godmother has an underground trap in his suite means there's a way out of this palace in the underground, she might just take her anytime she likes, but she can't f*cking escape" Sierra said. "There are two roads that leads to the airport, the highway and the main one, I and Shay will start watching the highway for any sign of her, we just have to act like road maintenance cops" Brent said. "Cool, Brent and Shay you both should watch the highway, Sierra and Lia, you both should watch the main road, I'll stay at the intersection, we're moving tonight" Princeton said . " Sure, let's move" Shay said, standing up with the others.  NEXT MORNING* ZARA'S SUITE, UNDERGROUND TRAP Tanisha woke you to a splitting headache and held her head lightly, trying to figure out why.

She squinted with her eyes closed and managed to open her eyes but Immediately she saw where she is, she forgot her headache and spranged up.
"Where's this?" She asked herself, looking around confusedly.
Her head jingled again and she held it, remembering all the incident that happened last night instantly.
Her eyes came wide and she stood.
"I did all that?, I did?, Me?" She said and fell on the ground again.
" I'm dead, I'm so deadwhere am I?, Why did I drink?, Why did I drink!' she yelled at herself and stood again
"Master warned me never to take anything from the general kitchen anymore but i didn't listen, did my brain leave my head back then?, Oh Tanisha, I'm in trouble, am I gonna die now?" She said.
The opening of the door made her stop rambling, Kaffy came in with Zara and she froze.
They walked to her and she started shivering.
"Now you're officially mine" Kaffy smiled, touching her face.
She trembled more.

" I know Princeton won't sit and watch, he's probably planning something and that's why you have to go ahead of him by moving early" Zara said.
" I understand, can't wait to get to France" Kaffy replied.
Two guards came in and Tanisha was dragged out.
The place looks different as if it's not part of the palace, the park has more than twenty posh cars and she was pushed into the backseat of one of it.
Kaffy brought out a shiny knife from her purse, dangling it in front of her.
"You'll die by this the moment you make the slightest sound" she threatened and Tanisha bit her tongue to keep her from talking, tears rolled out of her eyes.
Kaffy sat beside her and the driver sat in the front seat.
They drove out of the place and kept cruising a forest till they got to the highway.

MAIN ROAD CHECKPOINT
Sierra and Lia managed to dress like male cops after knocking out two of them in their cars, they took their uniforms and rolled up their hairs, they had to walk like guys too so the others Won't suspect.

The car suddenly turned down a rocky site and started bumping into stones, going zigzag and bumping dangerously till it bumped into a rock.
Silence prevailed for a minute then wires sparked and produced fire.
The car blew up Immediately.

Princeton came out of his car and refused to believe what he's seeing.

"Nisha!!!!" He shouted, running to the burning car.

THREE MINUTES LATER

(Smitten With A Slave...)

CHAPTER 34&35

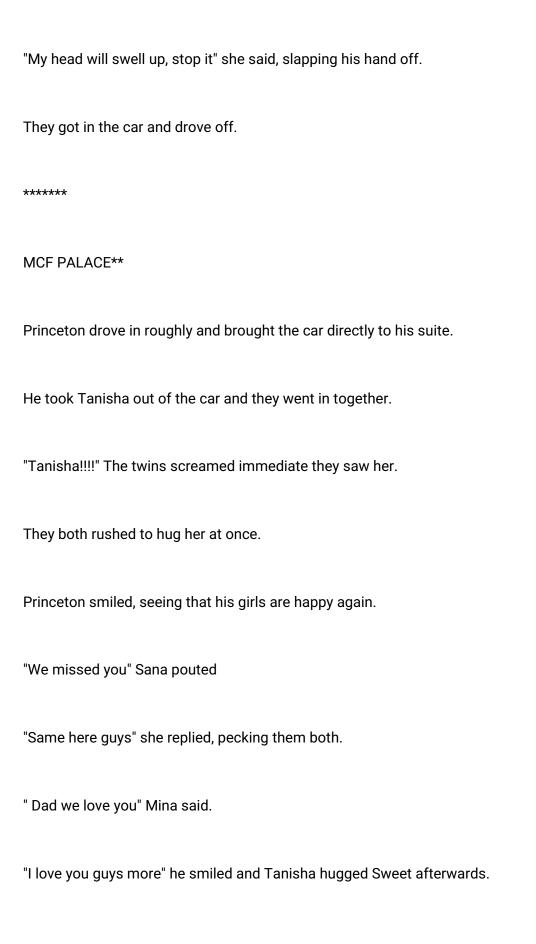

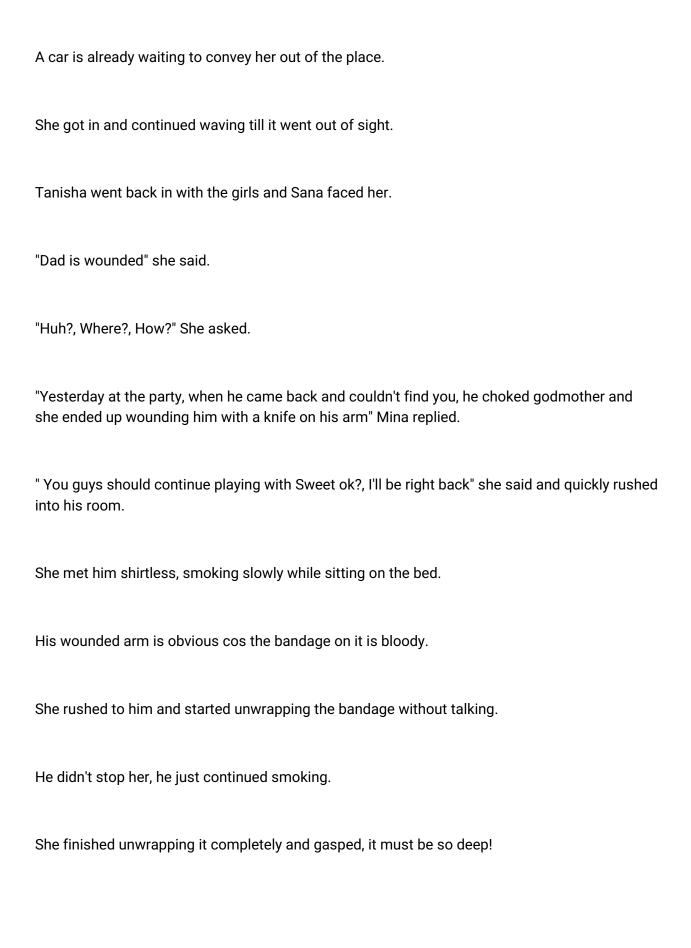

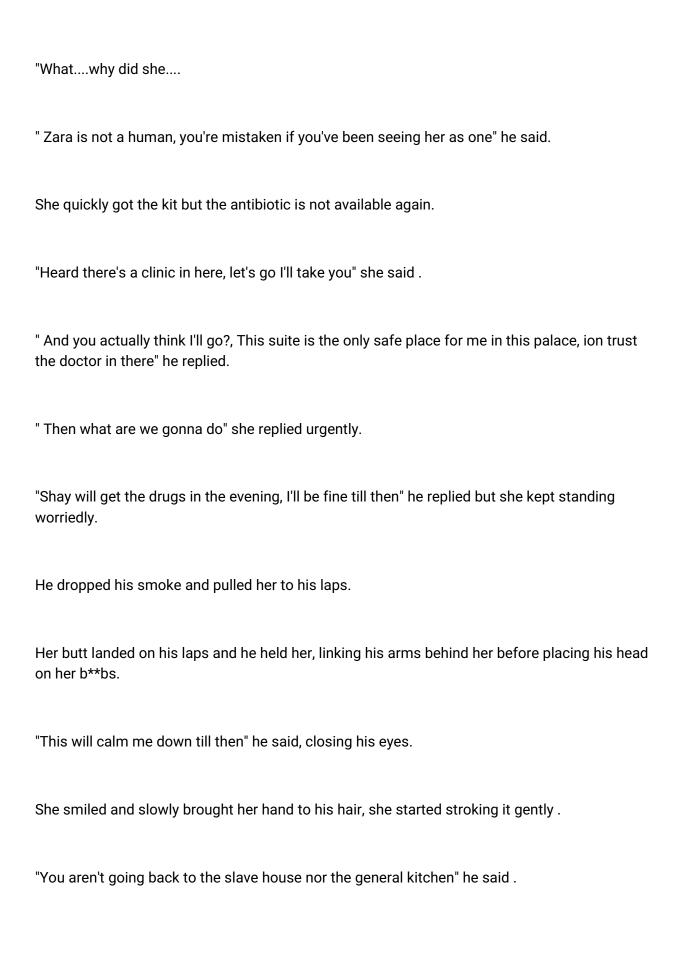

"I thought I was never gonna see you again" she said, stroking it's head fondly.
Tammy came out with a bag and Tanisha stood immediately she saw her.
"You're leaving already?" She said.
"Yeah, I decided not to leave till you come back and here you are, so I should leave" she smiled.
Tanisha walked to her and hugged her tightly.
"I'm gonna miss you a lot, I hope we meet again" Tanisha smiled sadly.
" Same here, please take care of the girls I beg you" Tammy said.
" Of course" Tanisha replied, disengaging from her.
The twins hugged her too, both has tears in their eyes.
"Can't you stay a little bit longer?" Sana asked.
"I have to go help my junior sis in taking care of my sick mum, but I promise to come visiting once mum gets better" Tammy replied.
" We'll miss you badly" Mina said.

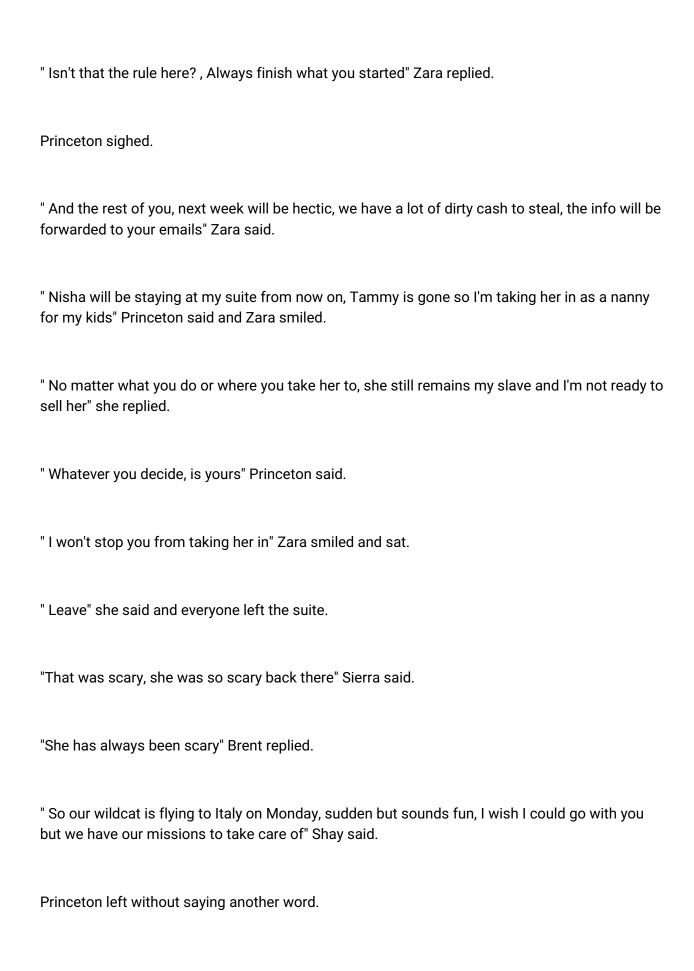

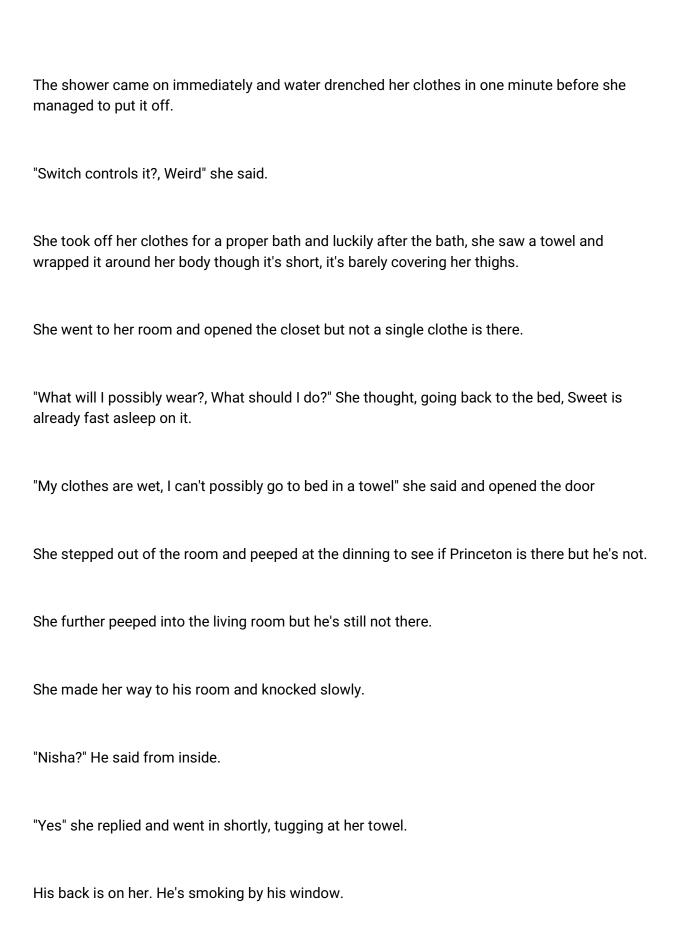

"I already said I don't care" Princeton replied
" You're biting more than you can chew all because of one f*cking girl!, Come back to your senses!" She screamed.
Princeton only smirked.
" And you allyou helped him in carrying out the plan, your punishments awaits you, everyone of you guys!" She barked.
" And why did you call everyone?" Landon asked.
"Princeton you should be preparing to fly to Italy on Monday" she replied.
" And why?" He asked.
" Pascal is in Italy right now, you lost him in India two months ago, you must kill him this time around" Zara ordered.
" Why am I just hearing about this?, And you think I'll actually go?" Princeton replied.
" I got the information just now so get your f*cking ass ready for the trip on Monday, he stole countless bars of gold from this palace before he escaped, seeing him cruising the world should be annoying, make him stop breathing" Zara said.
" So because I started the chase, I get to finish it?" Princeton replied.

Landon looked at his palm and sighed.
Of all the wounds he has been getting, this hurts most, maybe because it's from his mother.
And it's weirder that he's not feeling like treating it.
"Should I just let it rot and kill me?" He thought, still staring at it.
Vivi came to him and grabbed the hand.
"Hey what's up with it?, Is it wounded?, Why did you bandage it?" She asked.
" I don't remember telling you to be worried about me" he replied sharply and left.
" Why is he becoming boring these days" Vivi said .
" Probably because you've become his past, you're like a passerby in his life" Tracy whispered beside her and she looked back at her.
"You wanna die?" She questioned.
Tracy smiled and left.
" You guys will come to my suite tonight right?, Let's have fun together" Lia suggested.

"What?, It tastes bad?" Tanisha asked curiously.
"No, it's the best we've ever tasted, how can you cook better than nanny Tammy" Sana said and Tanisha poured them some water before starting to stroke their hair as they ate fast.
Princeton said he's not eating yet, maybe he'll eat later.
She kept staring at his door till the kids finished eating but he didn't come out.
AN HOUR LATER
The twins slept off some minutes after eating and after Tanisha took them to their room, she took Sweet with her to Tammy's room
It'll be her room from now.
She dropped Sweet on the bed and entered the bathroom, smiling as she looked around.
She entered the dry jacuzzi tub and jumped countlessly in it.
Then she went under the shower.
She saw a switch and wondered what it might be for.
"What's a switch button doing here?, Is it for the lights?" She wondered and slowly put it on

"I have nothing to wear to bed andmy clothes are wet" she said, suck cutely.	ing on her bottom lip
Princeton took another puff before facing her but immediately he saw he him.	r, the smoke fell from
How could she think of coming here like this when he's trying all possibl	e best to resist her?
His eyes widened and she moved uncomfortably on her spot as he stared	d.
He can't take his eyes off her, how will he be able to do that when she's li	ke this.
Her wet hair that's sticking to her face, her pink lips and her fresh thighs a	and legs.
She's f*cking hot.
He got turned on crazily and the monster between his legs stood erect.
He started walking to her, still not looking away from her and she wonder	red why.
He took the last two steps to her and pulled her right hand.
Her legs moved her to him and her chest slammed on his own.
"I can't take it anymore, sorry" he whispered and her eyes widened.

His hands grabbed her ass as his lips found it's way to hers.
Her lips got stuck inside his mouth and her eyes continued widening in their sockets.
He opened her mouth with his tongue and when she did, he bit her lip lightly, causing a light gasp.
He hardened the kiss and she shivered.
The way her lips fitted Into his own made him conclude it was made for him, she's just as sweet as he has Imagined.
Her soft lips drove him into another realm of craziness entirely.
Tanisha still couldn't process what's happening, it's like a dream.
He lifted her up by her b*tt and wrapped her legs around his torso, their lips still on each other.
By now, she's just recovering from the shock.
Her towel suddenly fell from her upper body and she tried to cover herself with her palm but he held her hand and broke the kiss.
He looked at her pleadingly, that usual look is on his face, the one she doesn't always understand.

That only did more insane things to him, her moans were melodious to his ears and his d*ck stood more erect as they reached his ears.

His tongue swiped her mouth as if searching for an hidden treasure, his second hand squeezed her b*tt softly and she released more moans.

Whatever he's doing to her, she had no idea but it's surely new, she has never felt that way before and it felt so soothing.

The flesh between her legs arched and she can feel herself getting wet already.

Princeton broke the kiss and bent his head to her chest, he kissed her br*asts and she gasped.

He looked at her and she took in her bottom lip, it still tastes like him.

He has the taste of intoxication, hard to point out but just,... Crazy.

His eyes were full of emotions which he finds hard to spit out, if only she could see through his eyes.

She's breathing heavily and he can hear the sound of her slamming heart, it's so loud.

He leaned in and kissed her lips lightly.

She held him tighter and he did it again and again till she started anticipating for more.

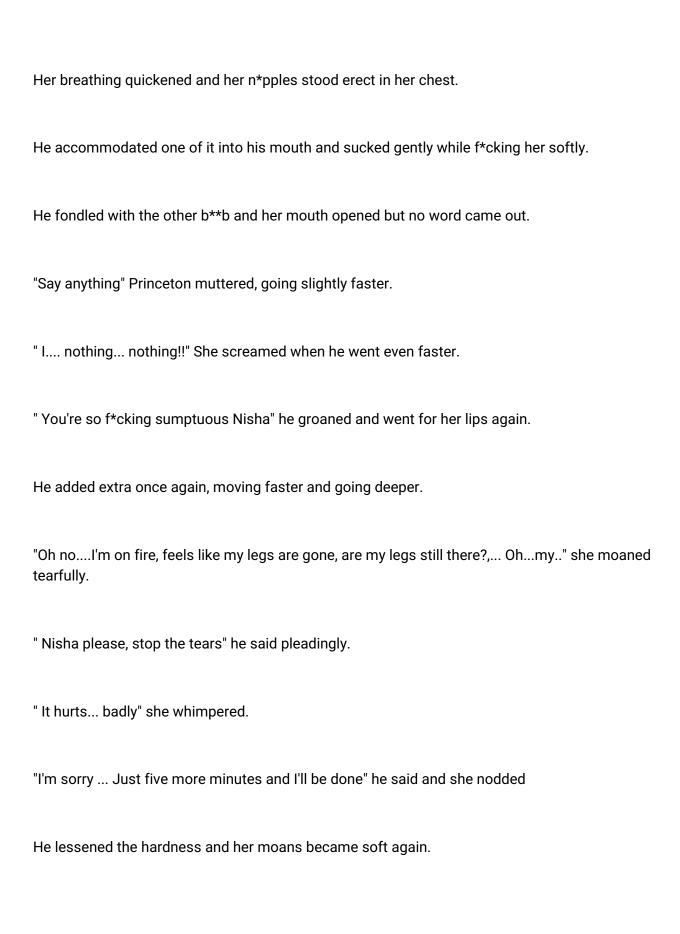

He broke it and she kept staring at his wet lips, wanting him to do it again.

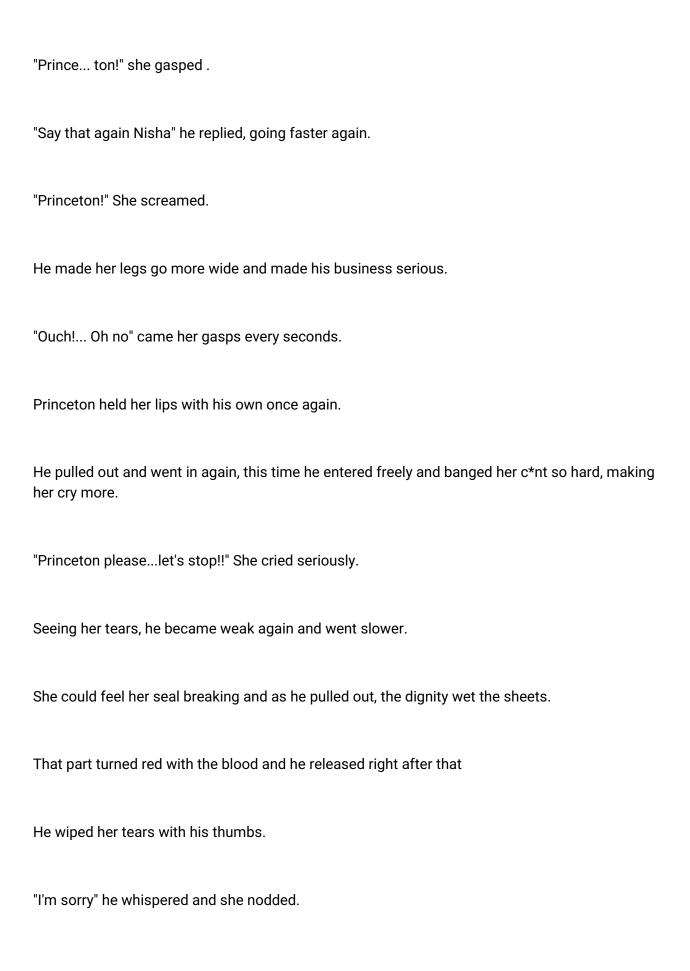

He looks so s*xy and freaking hot right now, he has always been but tonight, it's trapping an extra beneath it.
She was still staring at his lips when he took her right hand.
He touched his lips with her thumb and left it there.
She started rubbing his lips slowly and that too feels like the best.
How can she manage to have access to his green button with even the slightest touch?
It's amazing but f*cking cool.
"Nisha" he whispered and she swallowed hard before answering.
" Master" she whispered back and he smiled.
" You won't hate me for this right?" He asked.
"Will it hurt? " She asked.
" A little bit" he replied and she bit her lip again.
That too drives him to insanity.

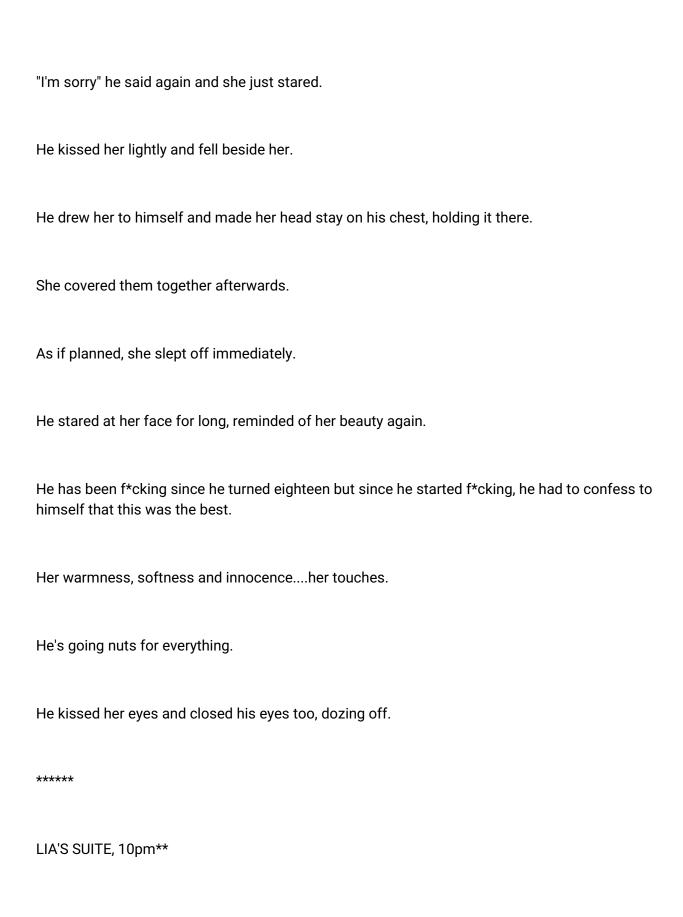

"Will I scream?" She asked.
"That depends on how much you can take" he replied.
She's trying hard not to look at his lips but her treacherous eyes won't listen, they kept staring at his lips.
She started leaning in by herself, slow and steady.
Princeton waited patiently and it felt as if time stopped as she kept moving closer.
She held his shoulders and Immediately her lips touched his own, he welcome it with more zeal, hardening it immediately while pulling the towel completely off her body.
He threw it anywhere and gently lay her on the bed, still kissing away her fears.
Her eyes remained shut, shyness that she's really naked in front of him won't make her open it.
"Caress me" he whispered, letting his words melt into her.
She doesn't seem to understand so he took her hands and placed them on his body.
"Rub my body gently, drive me more crazy" he whispered and she started slowly.
Like he expected, that made him go wilder

The way her warm palms roamed rhythmically around his body is something to go gaga for.
She's magic herself, her whole body is.
He continued devouring her lips and when she felt something inside herself, her eyes flew open.
"This will make it easier, just endure ok?" He whispered and she nodded with difficulty.
He started moving a finger inside her and she gasped repeatedly.
She held him tighter and he plunged deeper, making her scream shortly.
He covered her lips with his, keeping her shut as he doubled the finger.
"Ouch!" She gasped in his mouth.
"Hold it Nisha" he whispered, moving the two slowly.
He locked eyes with her and pinned her hands on the bed with an hand.
He continued his business and made it go on for minutes, her pre-cum wet his fingers and he pulled out.
He widened her legs and licked her clean, she tastes good there too.
Her body must be sugar-coated

Tanisha grabbed fistfuls of the bedsheets, closing her eyes tightly as he continued letting his tongue do justice to her V.
"Ouh!" She moaned consecutively, making her fist more hard on the sheets.
Her legs shook and her whole body is already shivering by the time he was done.
He came back to her lips and kissed her gently.
This was gentler than the ones he started with.
She tasted herself in the kiss as their lips moved in sync with each other.
During the kiss, he slipped off his pants and before she knew it, he went inside her.
"Ouh!' she gasped, breaking the kiss.
Her eyes met his own and her heart melted, his eyes carries a lot of care and she never looked away from him.
He started f*cking her gently, making her squint up her face at every thrust.
"Painful" she muttered.
"Sorry" he whispered and slowly down even more.

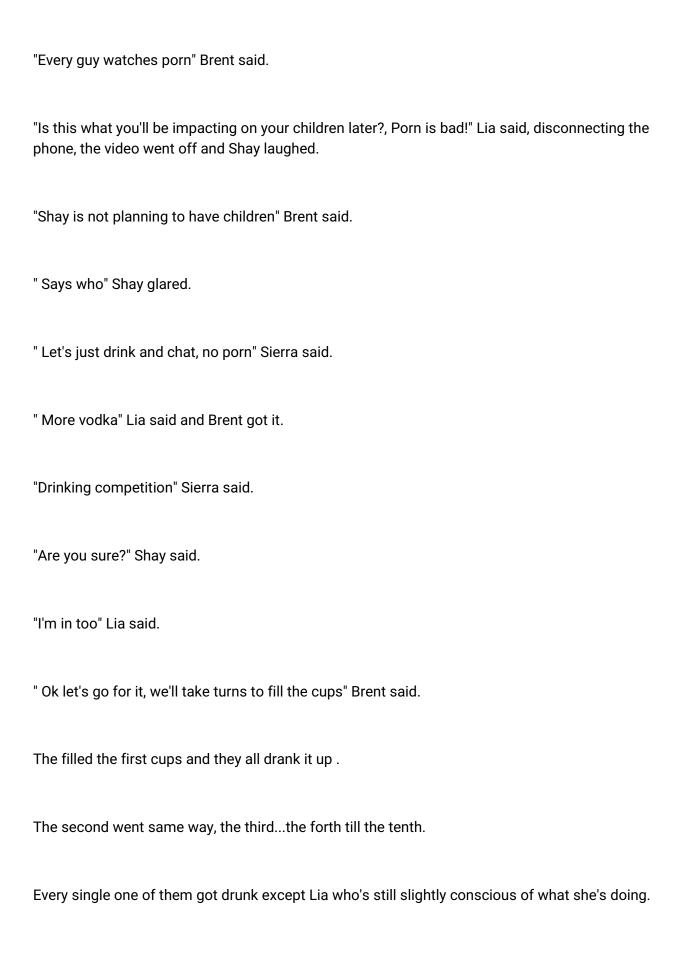

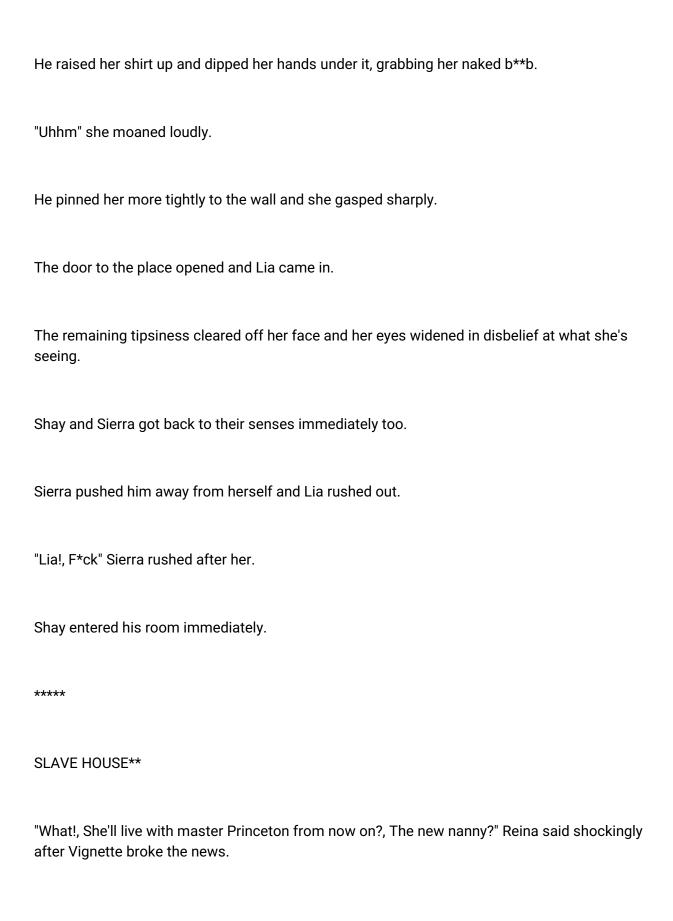

"Cheers to the anniversary" Brent said, holding up his cup.
"Cheers to us" Lia replied and they all clinked glasses before drinking.
" Feel free to get drunk, as much as you want" Shay said.
" Of course, a carriage is available to carry you home" Brent replied.
" So if I get drunk, you'll carry me in a carriage?" Lia asked.
" Sure , you're so heavy I can't possibly carry you in my arms" Brent replied.
Lia faced Shay.
" Me?, I can't carry you either, Sierra is much lighter so I can carry her but Brent already said he'll use a carriage for you" Shay winked.
Lia felt bad and drank.
" Let godmother see you conveying her only daughter in a carriage, you'll be as good as dead" Sierra said.
" Not like she cares, even if I die" Lia replied and drank again.
" Are we only gonna sit and drink?, Let's watch something" Shay said.

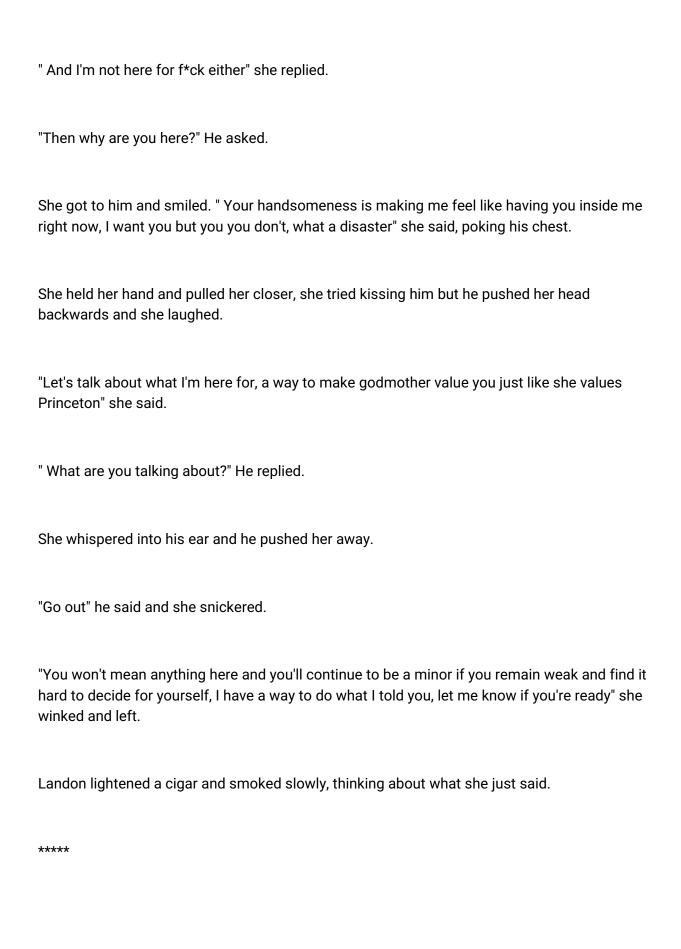

"What's the name of the first Americana to wear shoes?" Sierra asked.
" I'm not so sure, maybe John Cena" Shay replied.
" Of course, I almost forgot, then Mike Tyson is the first to ride a car" Sierra smiled.
" Smarty pants" Lia laughed.
" I'm so sleepy" Brent muttered, licking his lips.
" I feel so pressed, I need to use the restroom" Sierra said and staggered up.
" It should be that wayI meanthe restroom" Shay pointed.
She made her way to the direction and almost fell several times but she was lucky.
A minute after she left, Shay went that way too.
Sierra finished her business and came out only to meet Shay outside the restroom.
"Oh naughty boy what are you doing here" Sierra smiled tipsily.
" I want to pee too" he smiled.

" Have the way, have it all, young boy" Sierra said, backing the wall, trying to hold herself.
Shay rolled his eyes before trying to enter but restroom but he suddenly faced her.
"I'm notthe restroomgo in" she said, closing her eyes afterwards.
She slipped off the wall and was about to fall when Shay held her back.
"Sierra?" He said, getting conscious of his actions a little bit.
"You know my name?, Do you know me?" She smiled, rubbing her eyes.
" Of course" he replied and leaned closer.
" What?, Are you trying to kiss me young boy?" She asked.
" Yes" he replied and hardly crashed his lips on hers without hesitation.
She responded immediately as if she has been expecting this for years.
She held him closer and hanged her hands on his neck, biting his lips so he'll kiss her more deeply.
His hand went to her b*obs and he started squeezing them hard, she moaned so loud and the kiss hardened.

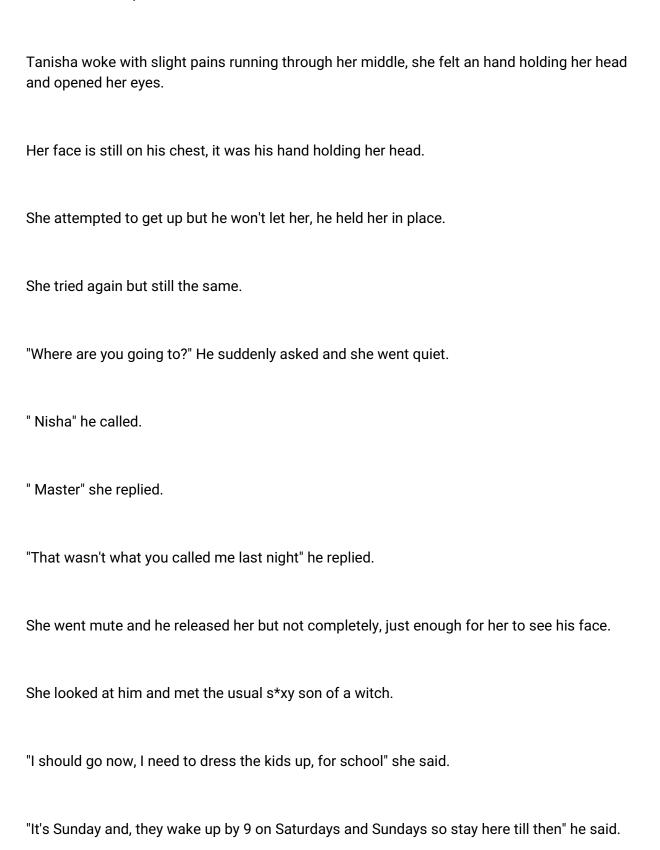

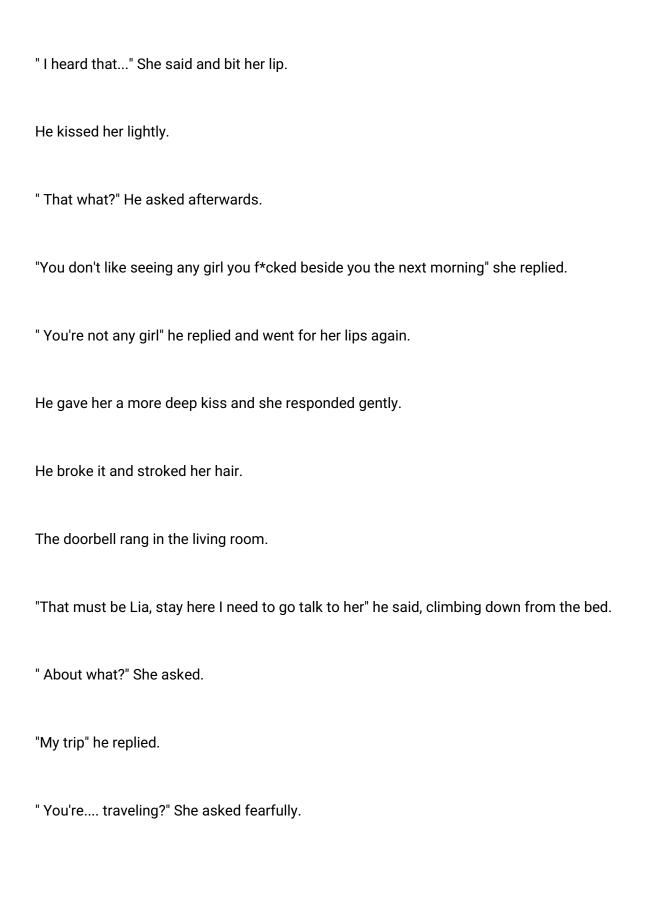

"Are you shocked?, Well you should be, you want her to die right?, And that's why you're trying everything possible to make that possible" Vignette smiled.
" Is he in love with her or something?" Reina said, pacing around.
"Maybeyou can go and die, wench" Vignette replied and lay on her bed.
Reina held her hair to her head, still walking around.
"Tanisha" she muttered hatefully.

LANDON'S SUITE
Landon is asleep already when he heard the opening of his room door, he jumped up and got his gun.
He rolled down from the bed and aimed sharply for the door only to see Vivi entering .
"How did you get in?, How did you know my passcode?" He questioned.
" I was once your favorite f*ckmate, I spied on it" she smiled, still coming closer.
" Get out, I already told you I'm not in the mood for f*vk" he said, still pointing the gun at her.

NEXT MORNING, PRINCETON'S SUITE

CHAPTER 38&39

" Why did you call me here?" She asked.

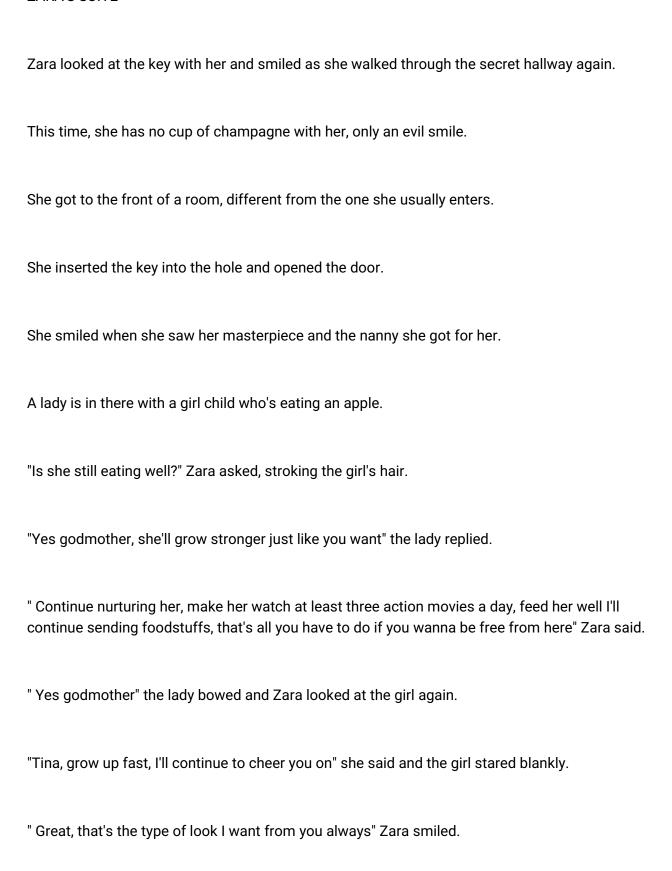

"I called the others too, you guys need to do something while I'm away" he replied.
" Others?, Including Sierra?" She replied
" Your red eyes, is it about Sierra?" He asked.
" I never said that" she replied.
" Looks like it" he replied and stood when he sensed the rest are here already.
He opened the door and the three came in.
Sierra sat beside Lia but Lia is not jovial as usual.
"Lia you'll have to watch and protect Nisha pending when I'll be back from my trip" Princeton said.
" I know " She replied.
" If you slack off like the other time, I'll hate it, nothing must happen to her" he said Lia smiled shortly.
" Sure, I'll do that" she replied.
"I doubt if that'll work, we have to go for missions throughout this week and during those times, she'll be left alone in this palace" Sierra said.

" She can just stay in here, the level of security in here is not to toy with either, no one can toy with the door without knowing the passcode" Shay said.
" And after every mission, come straight to this suite to check on her, I mean everyone" Princeton said.
" Ok done" Brent said.
" If I can bring Pascal down in just two days, I'll be back on Thursday" he said
" Pascal, that bastard is not to be underestimated" Lia said.
" I know, and I'm not to be underestimated too" Princeton replied.
" The point" Shay smiled.
" That's all, right?" Lia asked.
" Sure, and you guys should be careful too during missions" he said.
"We will, will you eat dinner with us in the general dinning tonight?" Sierra asked.
" Not like I'm leaving for life, ain't doing that shit" Princeton replied.
" I knew it, ain't doing that shit" Brent mimicked him.

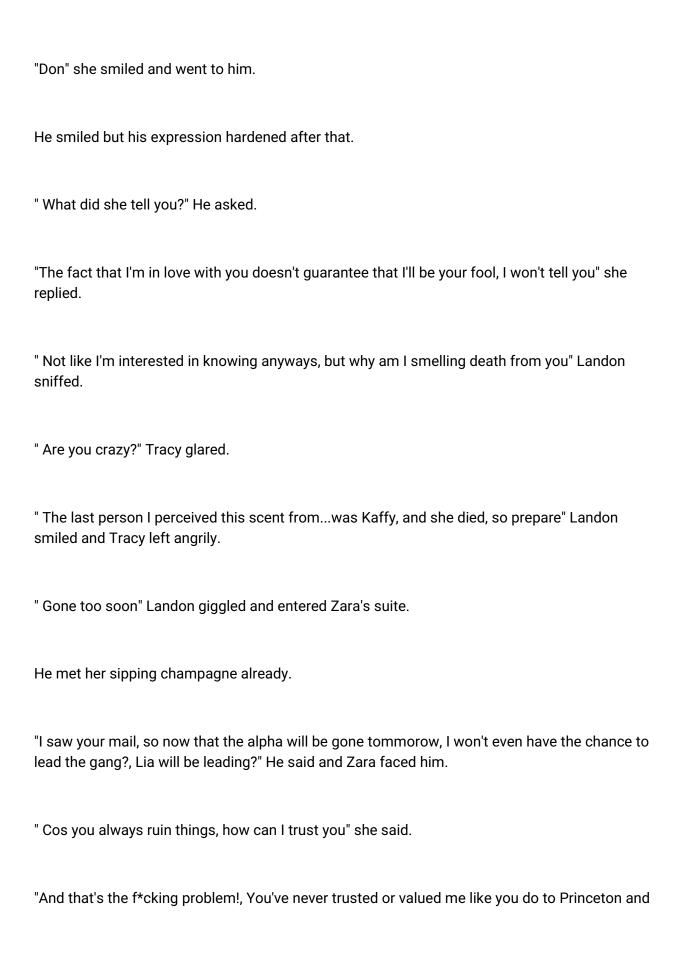

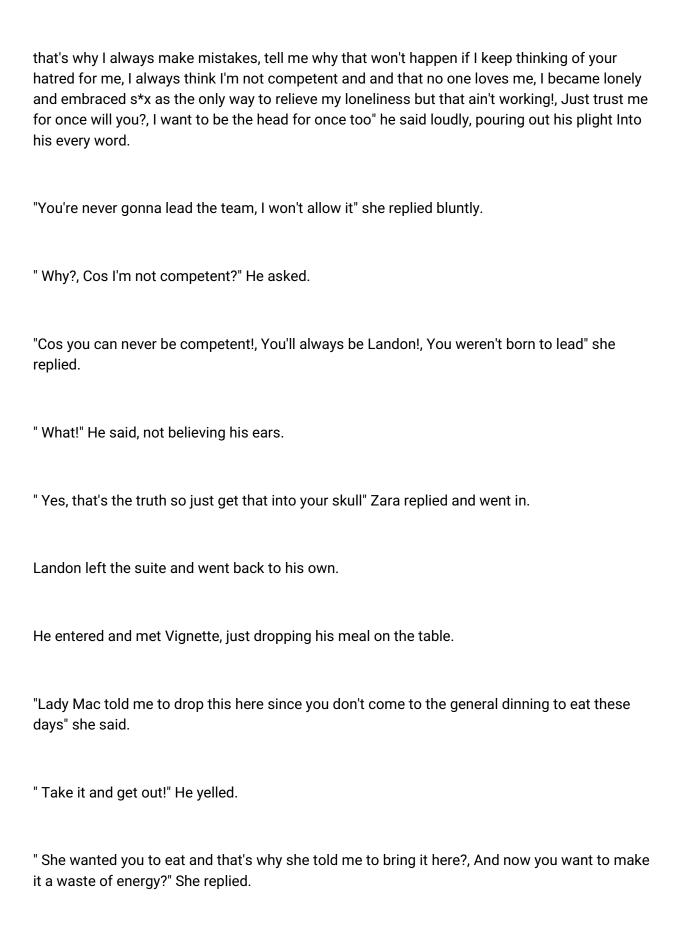

"Why don't you just tell him how you feel?" Sierra replied.
" You think it's that easy?, He obviously doesn't feel the same way, he's f*cking Into you" Lia replied.
" But, you just have to spit out how you feel, to him you'll feel more relieved I swear" Sierra replied.
" Are you sure you're not in love with him?" Lia asked Sierra took a while before answering.
"I'm not into him, trust me" she said and Lia smiled.
"Let's go for workout" she said and they both left for the ground immediately.
"Where have you girls been?" Shay asked when they got there.
He's already combatting with Brent.
"Face your combat before you get a wounded face" Lia replied.
" Let's go change, I think I'll go with the punching bags this morning" Sierra said and left with her.

ZARA'S SUITE

She walked out of the room and locked the door afterwards.
She walked out of the trap and met Tracy in the living room.
"You sent for me godmother" she bowed.
"I gave the job to Reina already but, I think I should make you guys two so i can achieve what I want faster, keep an eye on Tanisha as from tomorrow and report every of her moves to me" Zara said.
" Yes godmother" she bowed happily.
" I let you do it cos I know you hate her too, you once got punished cos of her, hatred dies but not easily, I'm sure you still hate her" Zara said.
" I hate her most in here" Tracy replied and Zara smiled.
"If possible, work with Reina, just make sure she gets into my trap" Zara said
" Yes godmother" Tracy bowed and left the suite.
She kept smiling, happy that there's finally a way to get back at Tanisha.
"She must have offered you something big, and that's why you're smiling like an idiot" Landon said in front of her and she quit looked up.

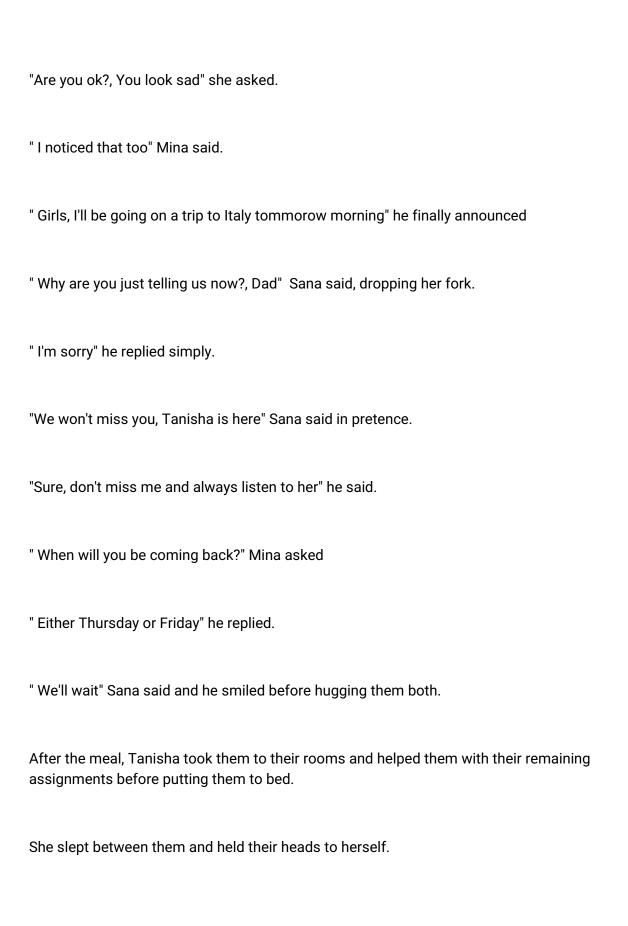

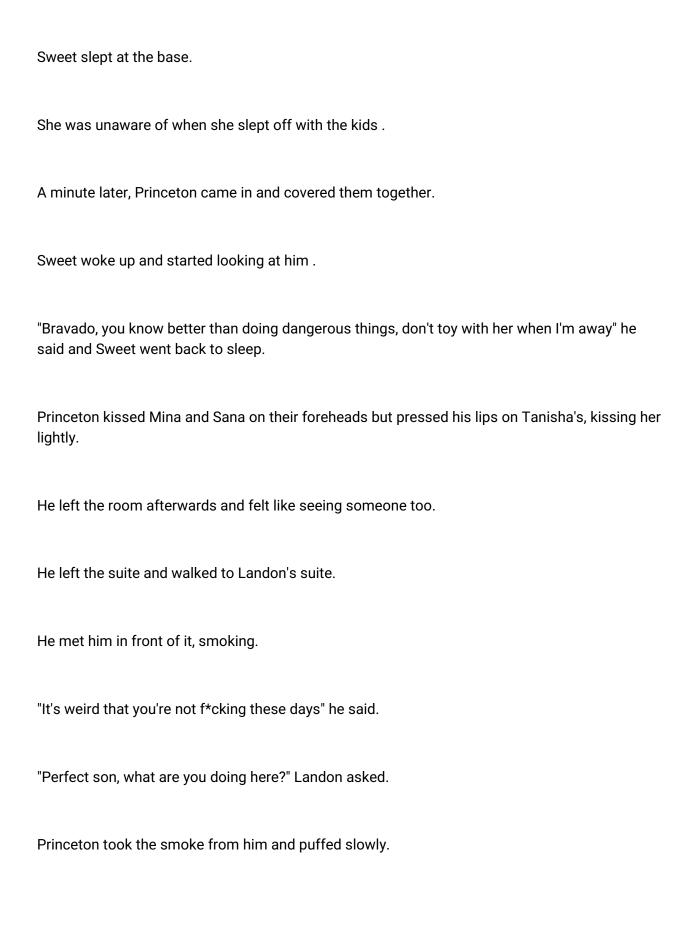

" He changed a lot these past days, he's more calm and quiet, but seeing him like this only means someone said something hurtful" Brent said
" He can't take too much, he's too emotional and that's why wildcat always say he's still a kid, he gets worked up over slight things"Shay added
" godmother must have said something painful again, she's really a witch" Brent said.
All these while, Vignette has been staring at Brent.
"Are you ok?" Brent suddenly asked.
"Yes I'm fine, he's always being a jerk so I'm not surprised" she replied.
" See you around" Brent winked and she smiled as he left with Shay.
She looked at Landon's door again and hit her leg on it.
"F*ck your balls!!" She shouted before walking away.

PRINCETON'S SUITE, 7pm
Princeton is at the dinning, eating dinner with Tanisha and his kids.

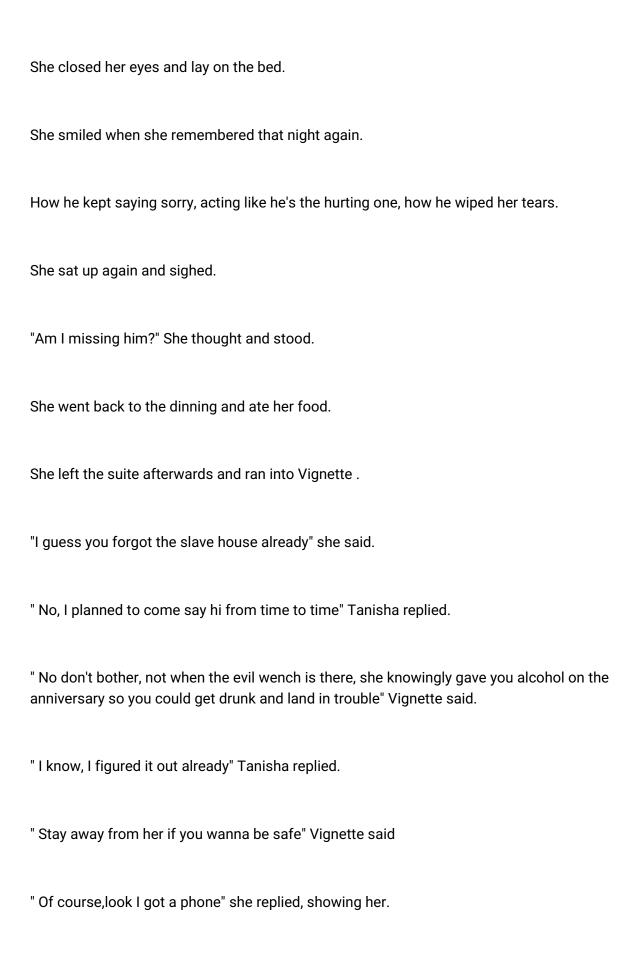

" Whoa!, You're so lucky to have a master like him, heard he travelled" Vignette replied.
" Yes, I hope he comes soon" Tanisha replied.
" You missing him?" Vignette asked.
"Not really* she replied with a smile.
" Silly"
"I should go back, I actually came out with the hope of seeing you and I've seen you" Tanisha said.
" No, go back after watching the guys at the training ground with me" Vignette replied.
" You're obsessed with watching wrestles" Tanisha said.
" Thanks" Vignette giggled and continued pulling her.

ZARA'S SUITE.
"What the hell!, Landon said what?" She said unbelievably.

Zara never brought the gun down, she kept targeting him and aimed for his arm. She pulled the trigger and shot but Landon seemed at alert. He quickly ducked and the bullet flew past him. Unfortunately, Tanisha and Vignette are just coming that way. The bullet hit one of them and they both gasped, looking at each other with wide eyes. TBC. Tanisha's breath almost seized when she saw blood gushing out of Vignette's mouth.

The bullet actually hit her in the tummy and the spot is already bleeding too.

"Vignette!!" Tanisha screamed loudly.
Vignette vomited more blood before going on her knees, Tanisha rushed to her and knelt in front of her, holding her shoulders.
"Vignette you're bleeding, are you ok? Huh?" She cried.
Vignette went down afterwards, falling on her face.
"Vignette!, Vignette!!" Tanisha shouted.
Landon stood and faced Zara who has finally brought down the gun.
"Shoot again, aim perfectly for me this timeb*tch" he sneered and left.
" Go join the others, I'll send someone to join you guys" Zara said and Tracy bowed before leaving.
Zara walked closer to Tanisha who's still crying beside Vignette.
She bent beside her and felt Vignette's jugular vein on her neck with her fingers.
She felt there's still life in her, she looked at crying Tanisha and smiled, wishing it hit her instead, she'd have left her out till she dies completely.
"Two guys!' she ordered and two guys ran to her.

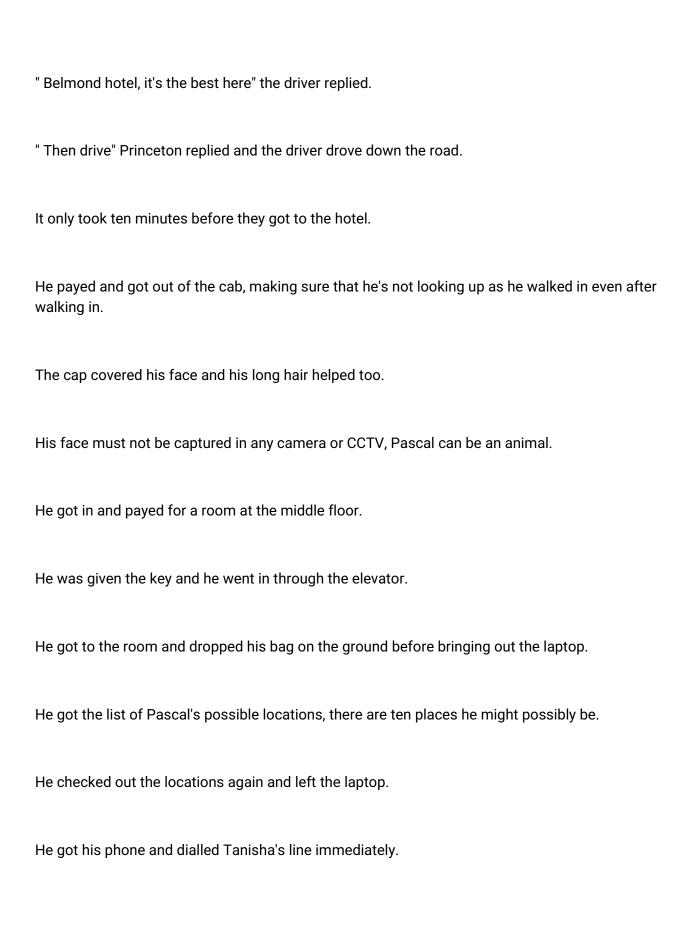

" Take her to the clinic and have her treated" she said.
"Yes godmother" they bowed and jointly took Vignette away while Tanisha followed.
Tracy got back to the park and Lia gave her questioning looks.
"He f*cking stood on his words , godmother got angry and shot at him but he escaped and a slave got hit instead, one of those who serve in the kitchen" Tracy explained.
" Wait, which one?" Lia asked.
" The tall one, ion know her name" Tracy replied.
" Vignette " Sierra said
" Vignette?, F*ck" Brent said.
"Where did she get shot at?" Shay asked.
" Do I look like a reporter?, Stop the damn questions!" Tracy yelled angrily.
" Hi guys!" Reina smiled, joining them shortly.
She's changed from the slave dress Into leather trousers and strapped top.

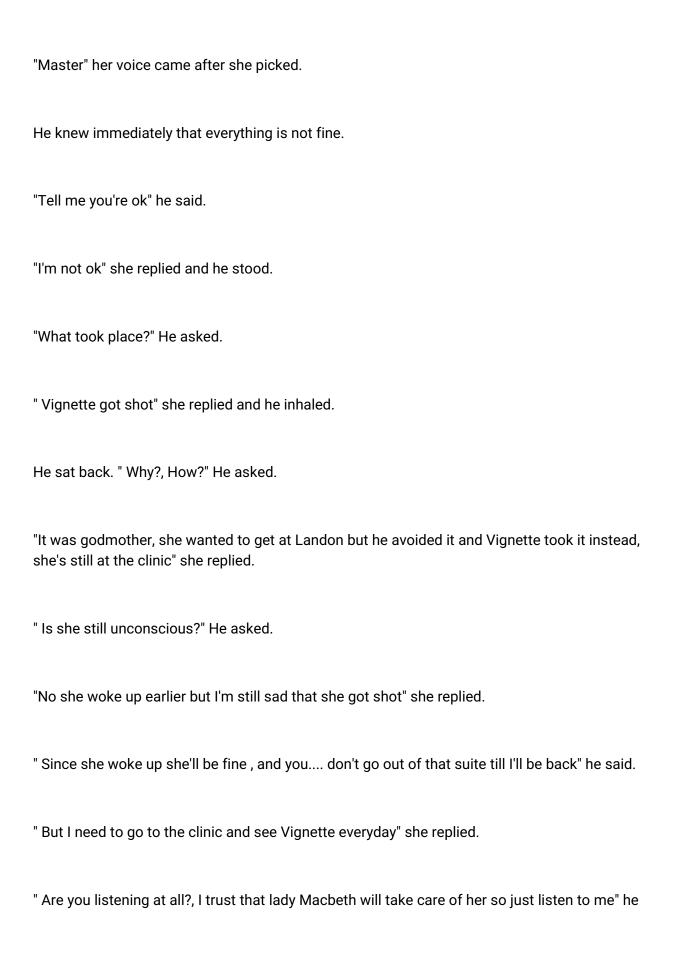

"What's going on" Lia said
"godmother sent me here to join you guys, she recruited me I think" Reina replied.
" Recruited you without training?, You're a f*cking slave!" Vivi said.
" I was a female wrestler before I got kidnapped and taken here as a slave, I was kidnapped in the wrestling ring" she replied.
" Who cares?" Lia replied.
godmother really recruited her Tracy said
" Tracy!' Reina smiled at her and went to stay beside her.
" When a b*tch meets a b*tch" Sierra muttered.

"She'll represent Landon for now, it's my order, her trainings starts tommorow but today, feed her with the news on the way to the building, she's competent so I'm sure she'll do well, but if she fails, she'll have to pay with her life" Zara said, appearing in front of them.
" How is this right?, We're having a new gang member and we're just getting to know right now?" Lia said.
" If you feel like disobeying, there's always room for that but you'll probably lose your face after that" Zara said and Lia got in the car angrily.

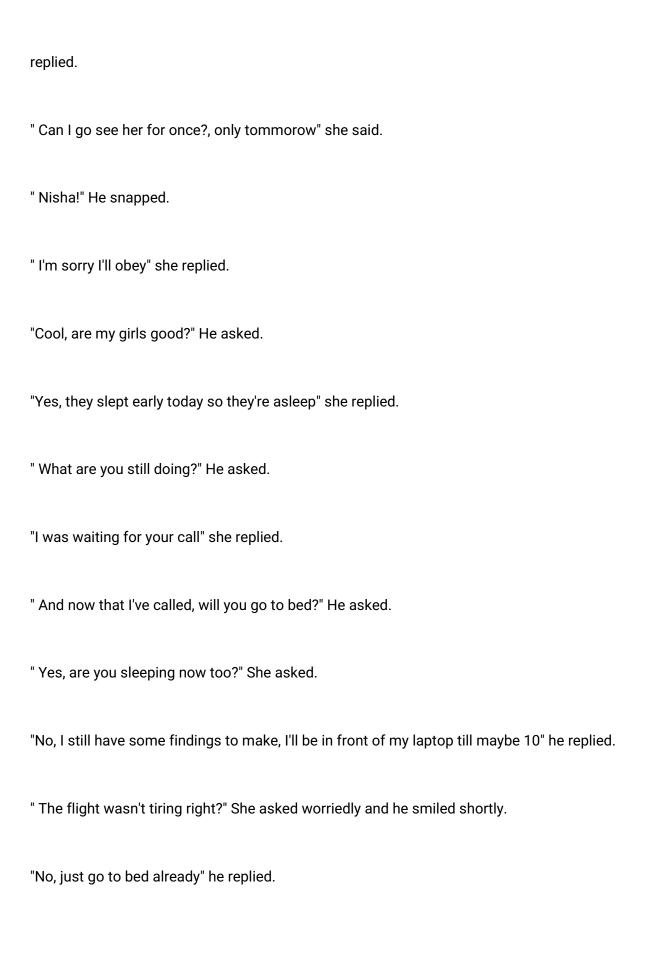

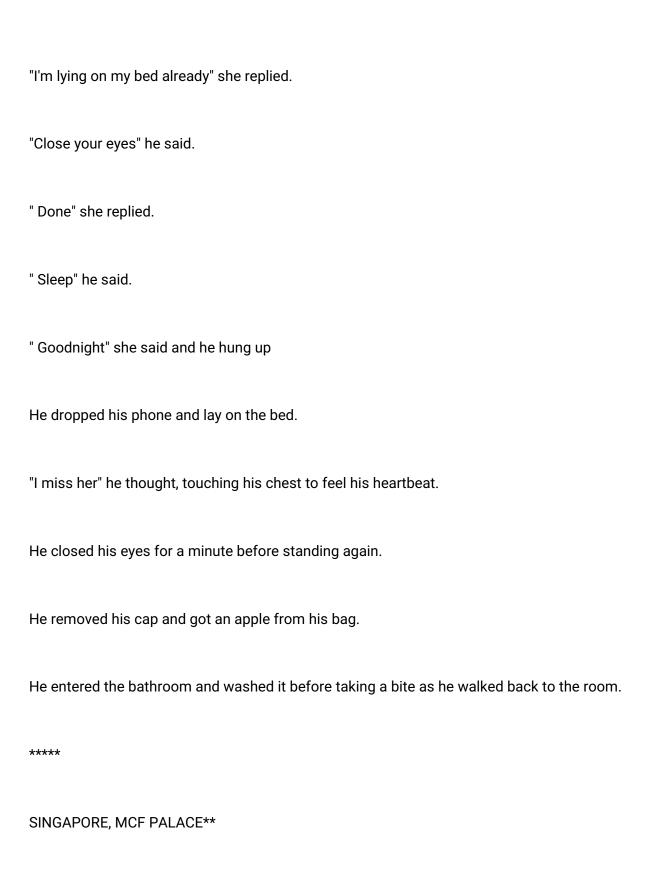

"Tanisha!" Lady Mac said loudly, rushing in.
"Lady Macbeth" Tanisha stood.
"I heard about it from some guys at the training ground, how's she faring?" She asked.
" Doctor said she's fine, she's strong so she'll wake up soon" Tanisha replied.
" I've always known she's strong, Should I start calling her Rocky?" Lady Macbeth said and Tanisha smiled.
" She loves watching wrestling so much, I should have stopped her if I knew this was gonna happen" Tanisha said.
" It's only normal if she loves wrestling, her dad was once a soldier who got indicted as a spy, he had to escape from Thailand with her, they came to Singapore to hide and when things became hard, he met someone who told her to meet godmother and lend money, he did that but three months later, he died of cancer, he has been keeping his condition a secret for his daughter, and just like Zara did to you, she took her here too, she beat up ten guys all by herself the first time she stepped in here, she was so stubborn, so much that she was locked in a cage for almost a month, I advised her to let it go and just eat to survive in here, I never knew she'd listen to me, she did and when godmother saw she changed, she made her join the others at the slave house" lady Macbeth explained.
" She has refused to tell me her story, so it's as sad as this, never knew she's from Thailand" Tanisha said.
" Just as sad as yours" lady Macbeth said.
" I see dad in my dreams everyday, he always tells me that grandma is fine, he always begs for

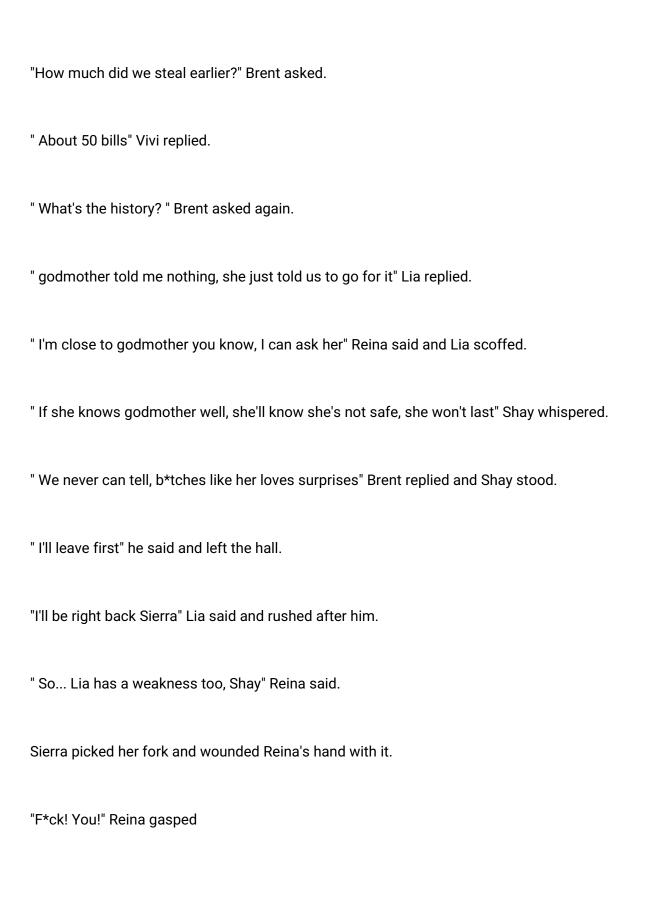

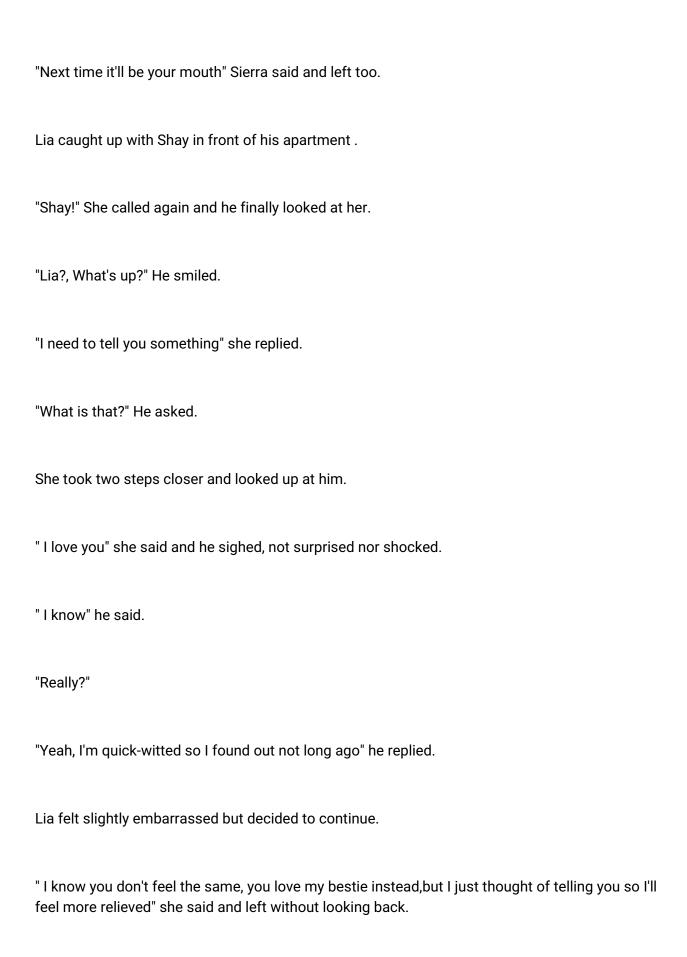

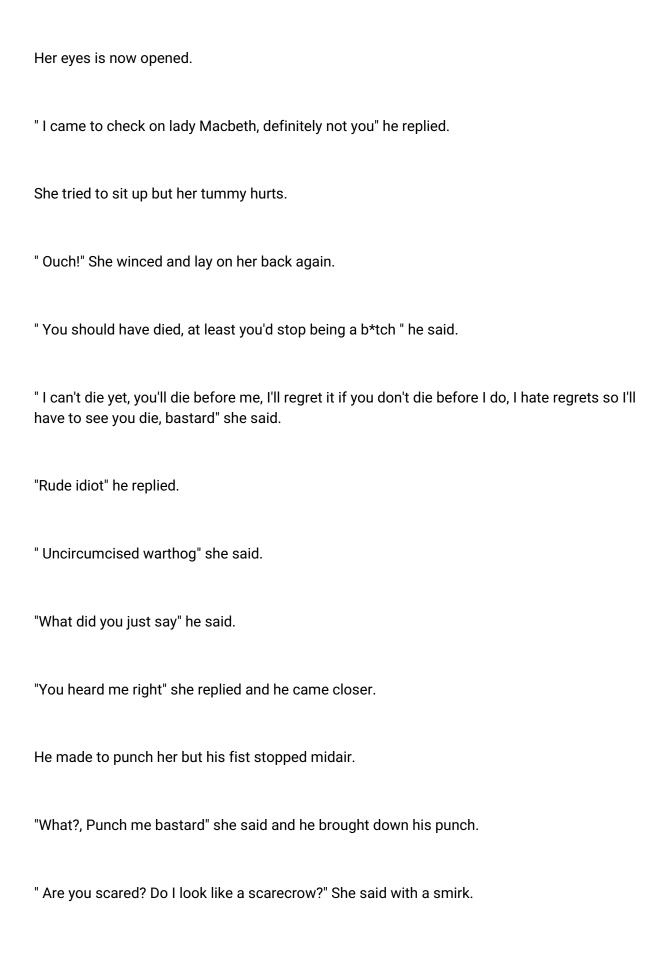

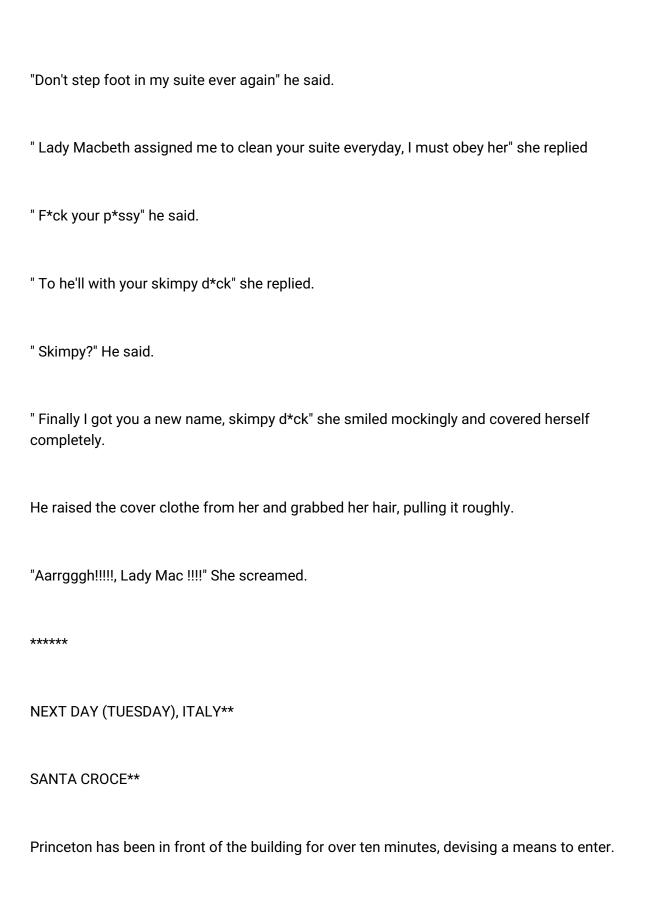

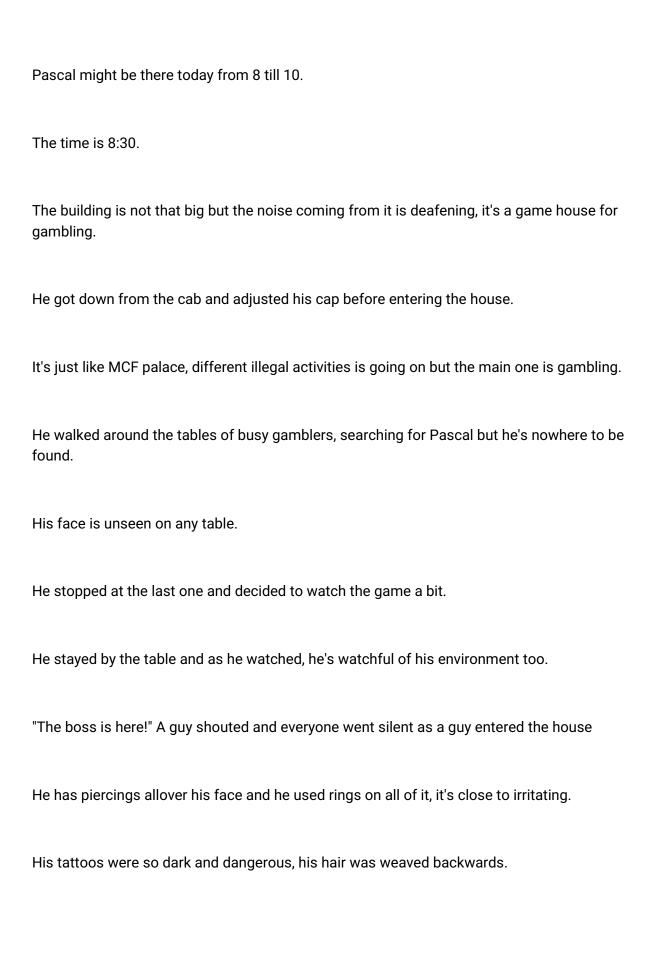

Shay entered his apartment and within a minute, he's already smoking.
His mind is not interested in Lia at all, Sierra is always the one, she has always been.
He remembered the night they made out drunkenly and wished it could happen again.
He looked at his palm and smiled when he remembered he caressed her bbs with it.

CLINIC
Landon entered Vignette's ward and met lady Mac asleep with her head on the bed beside Vignette.
Vignette is asleep too.
He stayed by the bed and sighed.
"She seems fine" he muttered to himself.
He turned to go
"Why did you come, prick" Vignette said and he turned back.

"Pascal" Princeton thought and hid his face.
"Who the f*ck opened up this place, I told y'all that this f*cking house will not operate today and yet y'all have the balls to walk in?" He said authoritatively.
"We can't just f*cking ignore it yunno" a guy said and Pascal shot him dead immediately.
He looked around again and his eyes fell on Princeton.
"The black cap" he said.
"Shit!" Princeton thought and slowly dipped his hand into his strap for his gun
"Black cap, show your f*cking face!" Pascal yelled.
Princeton made a countdown to three and aimed directly for Pascal's heart but Pascal quickly used a guy to cover himself.
The guy got shot instead and Pascal rushed out.
The whole place went rowdy as Princeton went after him.
He set traps as he ran but Princeton jumped them all and kept shooting at him .
He managed to shoot Pascal on the arm before he got in his car and drove off

Princeton hijacked a car from a driver and went after him but it was too late.
Pascal went out of sight before he could catch up.
He stopped the car and came out, his hair covering part of his face.
"Sh*t!, Not again" he breathed.

Zara is in the secret room already, Tina is in front of her and the lady is watching them from a safe spot.
A mice is in the hands of Tina and Zara is smiling at her.
Zara suddenly faced the lady.
"Chloe" she called.
"Yes godmother" she replied fearfully.
"Pray to your ancestors so Tina will do what I expect, if she doesn't, that means you've not been doing a good job and I'll give you what you deserve, death" Zara said and Chloe shivered.

PRINCETON'S SUITE
The twins are just returning from school, Tanisha took them in and locked the door
The twill are just retarning from concert, rumona took them in and looked the door
"How was school today?" She asked.
"It was boring, the art teacher was being too strict, ion like her" Sana said and Tanisha smiled.
" I like her strictness" Mina said.
" Lucky you" Sana muttered with a pout.
" Every teacher needs strictness to impact knowledge" Tanisha said.
" I know, but excess strictness is not ok" Sana replied.

" Yes dad, you too" Mina said.
" Get me a pink teddy bear when you're coming" Sana said.
" I want a white one and a lot of burgers" Mina said.
"Waffle cookies too" Sana added.
"Roger that" he replied.
Tanisha took the phone and ran out of what to say again.
"You have nothing else to say?" He asked and she bit her lip slowly.
" Nisha?" He called.
" I
"You what?" He probed.
" I miss you" she said quickly and hung up.
She met the smiling faces of the twins.

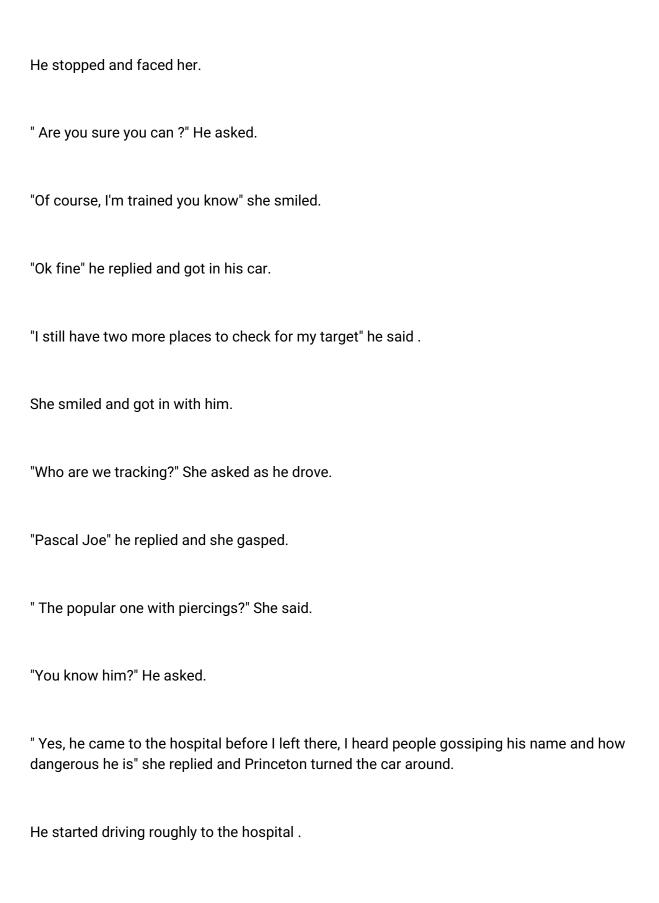

"We're hungry" they chorused.
"To the dinning room" Tanisha replied and they led the way out.
Tanisha sighed, holding her chest
"They're handfuls" She said, following them.

ZARA'S SUITE
"I've not been seeing her around since Princeton left, seems she was instructed not to come out" Reina reported.
Zara turned her chair to face Reina.
"I wasn't expecting less, her prince charming would have told her that, or Lia" she smiled.
She spread her palm sidewards and one of the guards placed a cigarette on it, he lightened it and she puffed a lot of smokes before standing.
She walked to Reina and let out all the smokes.
"Make her come out, lure her out by all means possible" she said.

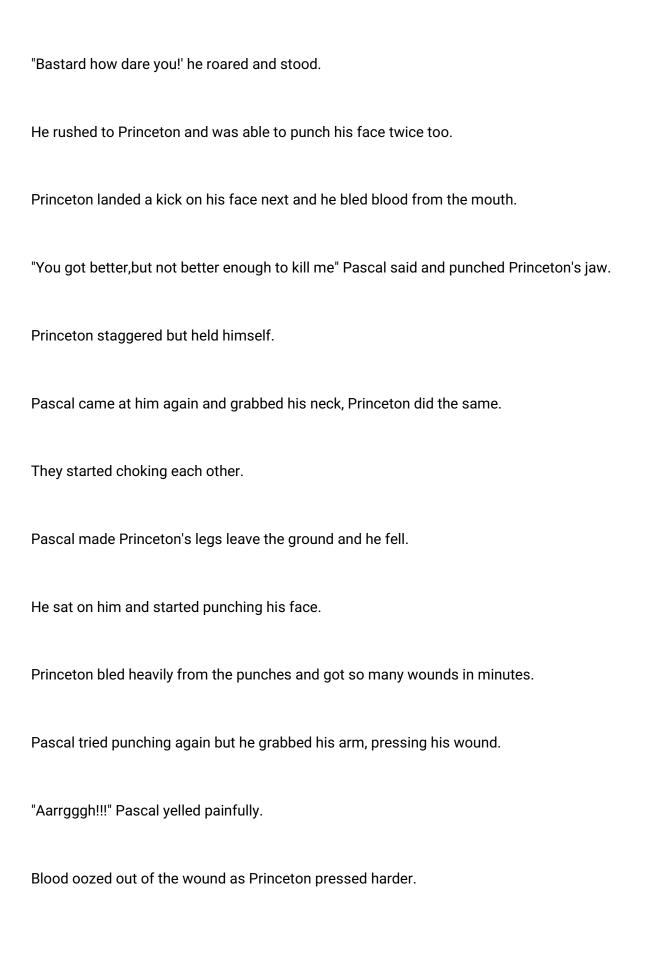

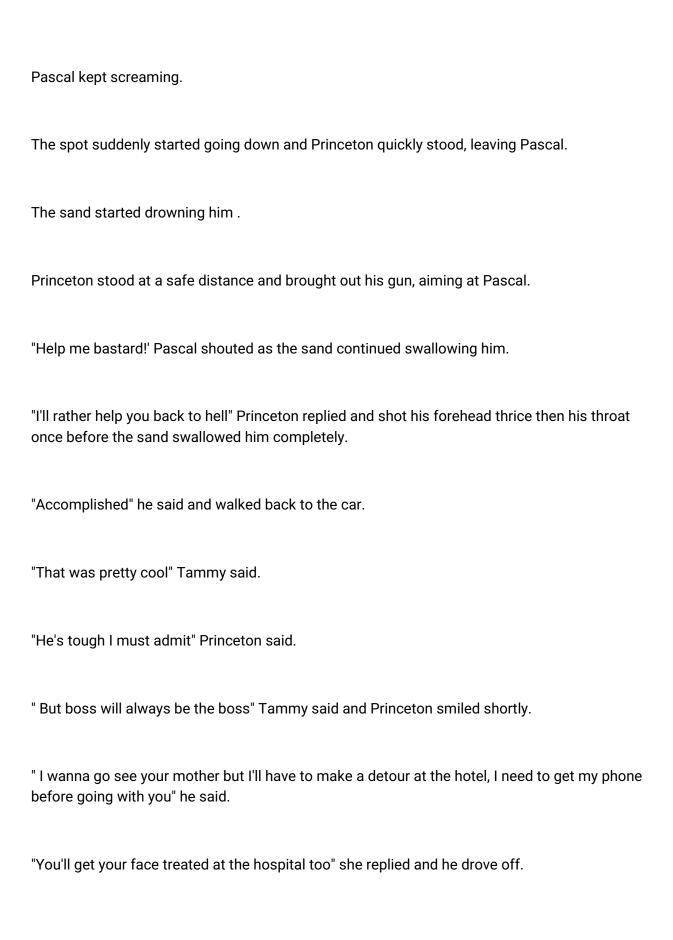

"He must have gone there to treat his wounded arm, I gave him a shot yesterday" he said.
Pascal was just coming out of the hospital when they got there but immediately he saw the car, he got in his car and drove away roughly.
Princeton went after him Immediately.
"It's gonna be rough, don't get hurt" he said and Tammy nodded after fastening the belt.
Pascal is surely a rough rider, he's not giving any chance to catch up with him but Princeton isn't simple either.
"There's a shortcut over there, we can just cross him" Tammy said and Princeton went that way.
He came out at the other end and their car collided with Pascal's.
Pascal quickly made a turn and went down the road again.
"He's playing, but it'll end in regrets" Princeton said and followed him.
They kept the running game up till he chased him into a silent Sandy area.
"This area is dominated by quicksand, it's dangerous" Tammy said.
"Just stay in the car and never come out" Princeton said, leaving the car.

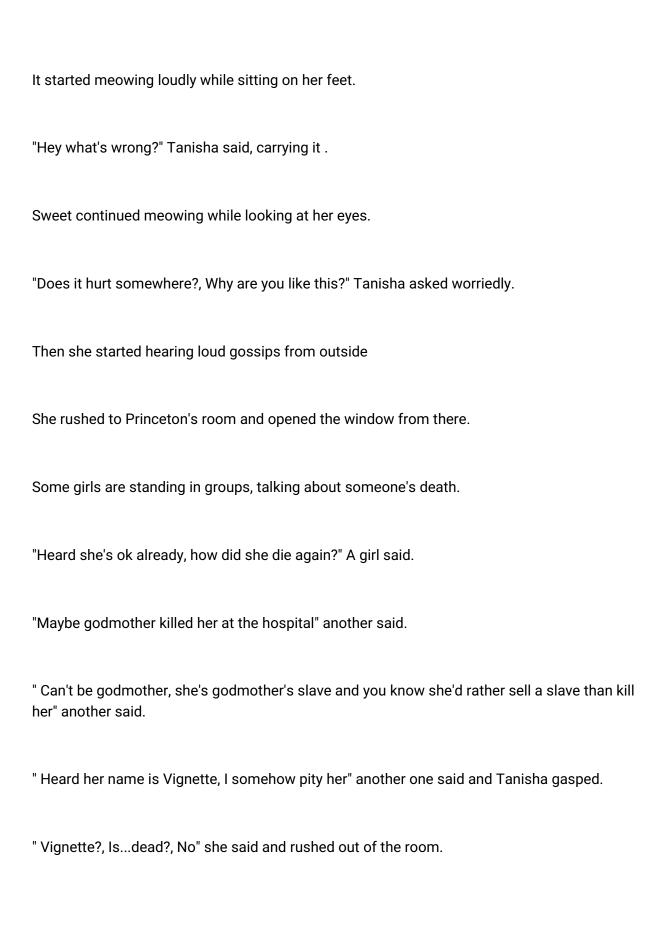

Pascal came out of his car too and smiled.
"Princeton, you've grown so much, Zara must be really taking care of his alpha" he said.
" And I'm here to take care of you" Princeton replied.
" Oh I'm lucky" Pascal smiled, rubbing his palm on his weaved hair.
" I love confident thieves, they give me more reason to eliminate them" Princeton smiled.
" Why don't we make this easy?, I'll give you some dollars and you'll leave without having to die' Pascal said.
" You think I'm here for some f*cking dollars" Princeton replied.
" Since you want to really die, then let's do it" Pascal replied and came for him.
They locked hands and started trying to push each other, their muscles and veins revealing massively.
Beads of sweat formed on Pascal's forehead while Princeton smiled.
He finally succeeded in pushing Pascal.
Pascal held himself but Princeton dealt him two heavy punches which sent him to the ground.

They got to the hotel and he went in, leaving Tammy in the car.
He got to his floor and started feeling uneasy.
He looked around but there's nothing suspicious.
He walked to his room door and was about to scan the card when he heard movements behind.
He made to draw his gun and turn but whoever it is was swifter.
Something was hit violently on Princeton's head and he lost consciousness immediately, falling on the ground.
"Take him" an husky voice ordered.

The twins are playing in the living room while Tanisha is still busy preparing their dinner in the kitchen.
Sweet suddenly came into the kitchen.

She went back to the suite but the twins said it hasn't come home.
She left the suite and started calling Sweet round the palace.
"Sweet!!"
"Sweet!!"
She went to the slave house but it's not there too.
She came out frustratingly and sighed.
"Where are you Sweet" she said worriedly as she continued her search.
She got to the gold bank and started hearing meowing sounds from there.
She went closer and closer and the sounds kept becoming louder.
She placed her ears on the door.
"Sweet!" She called and Sweet meowed more loud.
"How did you get in here, how do I get you out?" She said and looked around.

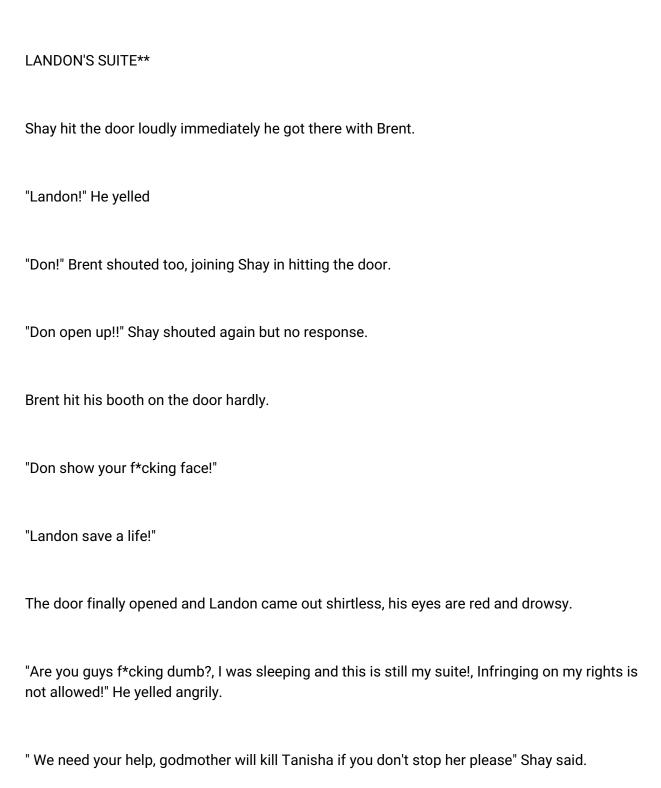

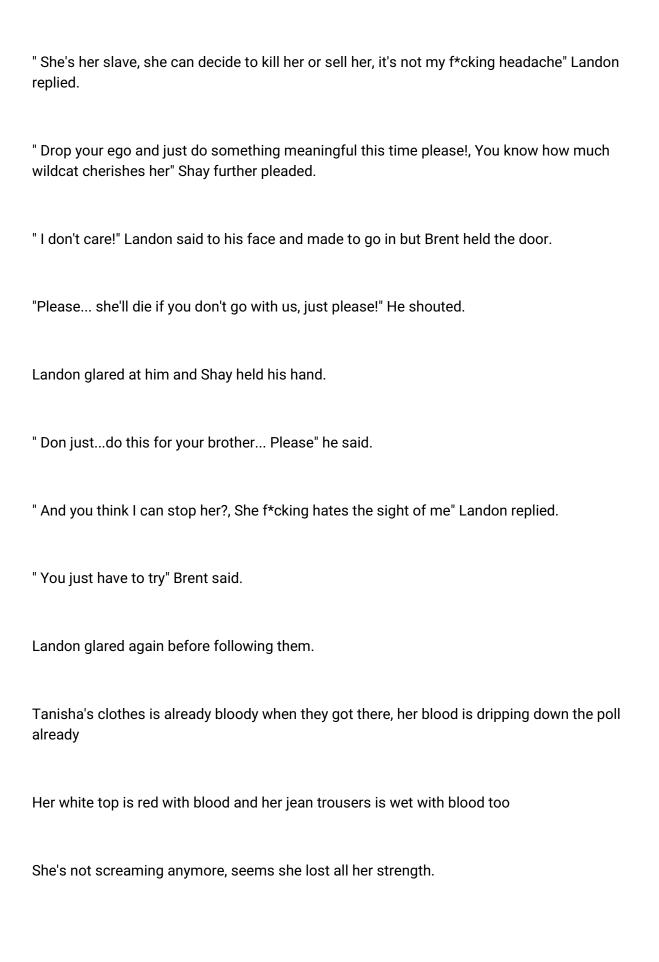

"I didn't steal, I went there to get Sweet ion even know how Sweet got there believe me" Tanisha cried.
" This isn't the right time for Lia to sleep off" Brent said.
" Doesn't this seem like a plan?, Why would Lia sleep off after eating?, And then this happened" Sierra said suspiciously as Tanisha kept crying.
"Lia is her protector, so to get at the prey, they made the protector sleep" Shay said.
" Lady Macbeth!" Sierra seethed and rushed out of the place.
" You're finally dying" Reina smiled as Zara appeared with a gun, smiling wickedly.
Everyone bowed when she got there.
"That gun" Shay said, looking at it.
"Nail gun?" Brent said.
"Yeah, it has sharp poisoned nails instead of bullets and at a shot, it releases three nails" Shay said.
" Heard once you have twenty one nails in your body, you'll stay alive in pains for three days and for those three days, the blood will turn black completely as the poison spreads, then the person dies" Brent replied.

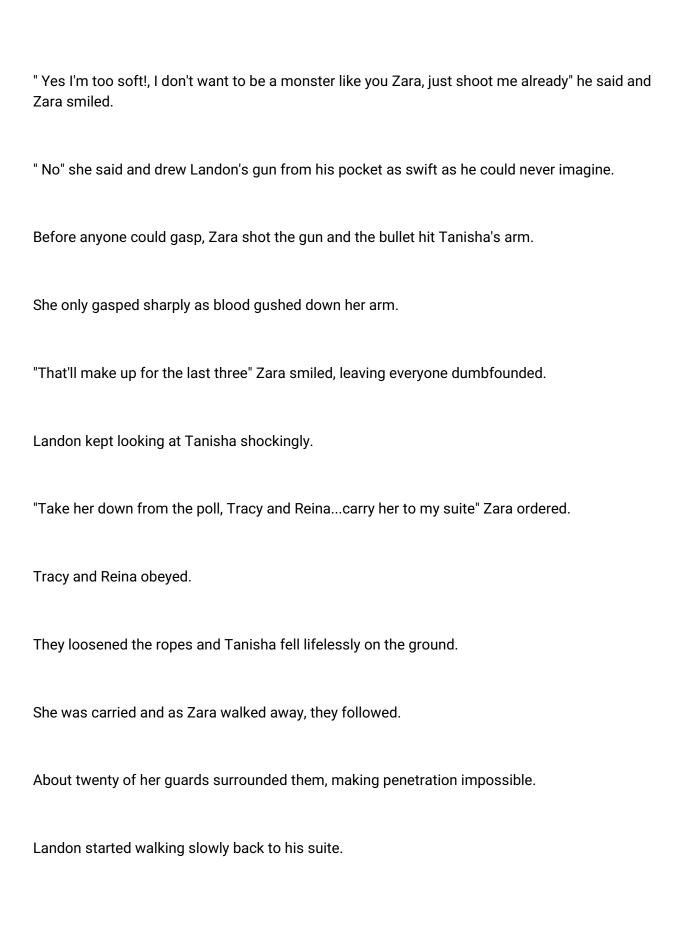

"Zara is gonna use the gun on Tanisha?" Shay said.
" It's obvious" Brent replied.
" Tie her to the poll" Zara ordered.
" Yes godmother" Reina and Tracy chorused.
" NoI didn't try to steal!!, Believe me I really didn't try to do it no!!!' Tanisha screamed tearfully as she got dragged to the poll.
She was tightly tied to it.
"Only Lia has the balls to confront godmother, we can do nothing" Shay said.
" Landon" Brent replied.
" Ion think so" Shay replied.
"Let's just try" Brent replied and they rushed out of the place to Landon's suite.
"Don't kill me don't kill me I didn't try to steal please!!" Tanisha cried .
" It'll hurt more if you keep talking" Zara said and pulled the trigger.

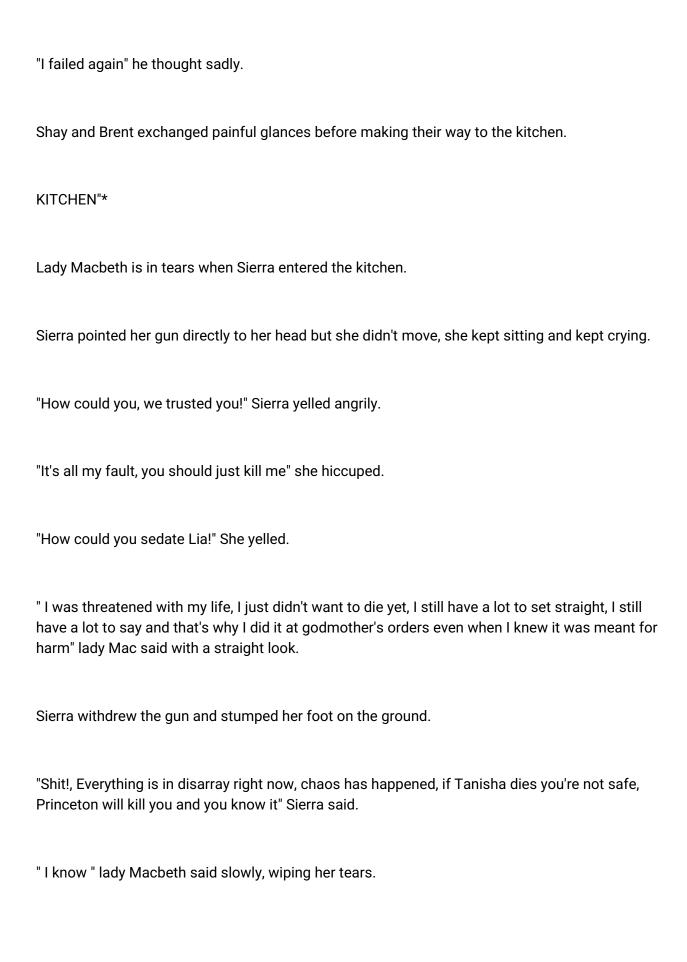

She shot the gun and three sharp nails flew out of it, rushing to Tanisha.
The three nails entered her tummy.
"Princeton!!!" She screamed painfully as blood gushed out of the three spots and her mouth.
Pains shot through all her body and it feels like hell.
She hasn't recovered when Zara shot another.
Three nails entered her right thigh.
"Princeton!!!" She screamed agonizingly

They got to Princeton's suite and met the door locked.

"Only Princeton, Lia and Tanisha" Brent said.

" Stop kidding yourself, it won't open by hacking, not Princeton's door" Brent said.
" Why?"
" Try it and see what I'm talking about" Brent replied.

Sierra connected her device to the door and started trying but red kept beeping from the door security panel.
"Why the f*ck is it not opening!" Sierra yelled.
"Even the windows can't be hacked" Brent said.
"Oh no I got a virus on my phone" Sierra said.

" It's with me, I'm burning it tonight and I'll make sure it leaves no trace" Tracy replied
"No one messes with Zara and goes scot free" Zara smiled shortly and picked her phone.
" My alpha hasn't called yet, I knew it'll be a tough one, I knew Pascal is not a weakling and that's why I sent him, keep being busy Princeton, your adorable princess is dying" she smiled and her champagne was brought.
She sipped from it and smiled.

Landon was just getting to his suite when Vivi appeared.
He was about to shut the door when she held it.
"What are you doing here?" He questioned.
"Well shouldn't you be glad now?, I think you'll become the alpha soon" she smiled, slipping in.
" What are you saying" he replied.
"Princeton is dying soon" she replied and Landon swiftly faced her.

ITALY, NEXT MORNING (THURSDAY) Princeton's face was wet with water and that made him wake up. He found himself tied to a metal chair, he's shirtless already, the environment is unfriendly. The house looks like an haunted one with cobwebs around. His vision was blurry at first but within a minute, everything became lucid. More than seven guys are walking around the place and they all look dangerous with spider tattoos. He kept looking at them and when his eyes met with the one who poured water on him, he scowled. "Finally woke up huh?" He said. "Who the hell are you guys and where the hell am I?" Princeton questioned. "That question will pend till boss arrives" he replied and almost immediately, a man came in. He's wearing a black hat but even with that, his white strands of hair still stretched out.

His face is slightly wrinkled but looks rebelliously wicked.

He must be in his early sixties.
The guy in front of Princeton left his spot and the man stepped in.
He gave Princeton an heavy punch on the face and he bled from the mouth.
He threw another punch again and kept dealing his face with punches till Princeton's face bled allover.
Princeton spit out blood and looked at him, wondering how the punches of an old man could be that heavy.
"Who are you?" He asked .
" You're the rascal who killed my daughter" the man replied and Princeton scoffed.
" How funny, so you're Ozzie, the f*cking father of the b*tch who tried shit with my girl" he said and smiled after that.
" You still have the nerves to talk, whoa!, Zara trained you well and that's why you're still smiling when you'll be dying any moment from now" Ozzie replied.
" You should have confronted me man to man, if you miss your daughter I'd have gladly sent you to where she is" Princeton said and Ozzie got a plank.
He hit it on Princeton's head and blood ran down his face.

Princeton smiled mockingly.
" It takes talent to grow old without brains, you're just like your daughter" he said and Ozzie let him go.
He drew his gun immediately, pointing it at Princeton.
"Goodbye" he said and pulled the trigger.

CHAPTER 46&47

Zara stormed into her room and grabbed a gun from the wall hanger, the longest one.

She walked out of the room and made her way to her traps.

She opened the door with her heels and stepped in, hanging the gun on her shoulder.

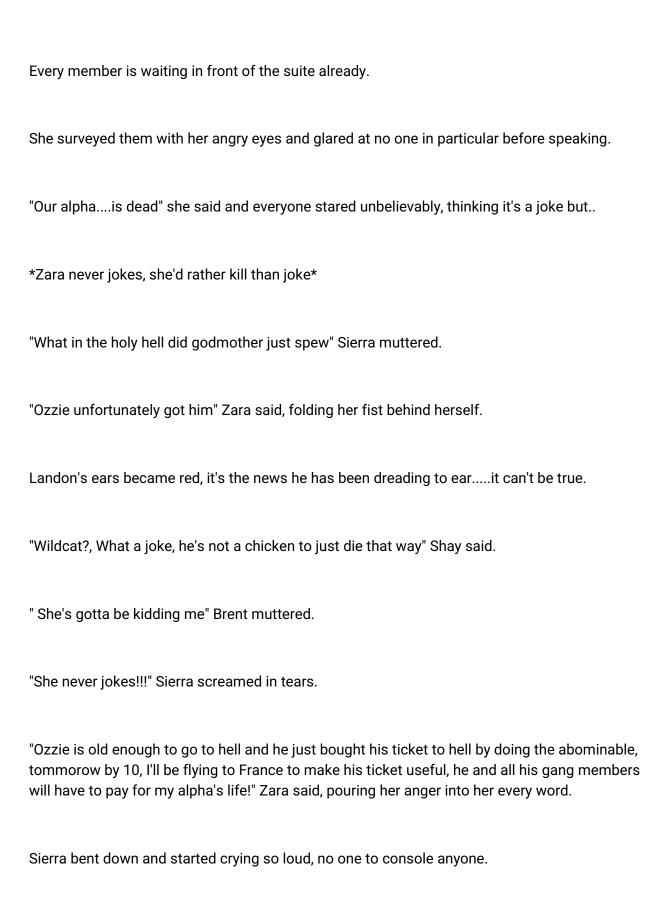

She has a straight face and her eyes are still wide from the shock but anger mixed with the shock this time, making her look like a an evil princess who just got awoken from a long sleep.

She got to the door to Tanisha's trap and opened it violently, stepping in slowly.

All she has in her crafty head is to kill her and make her regret having anything to do with her alpha.

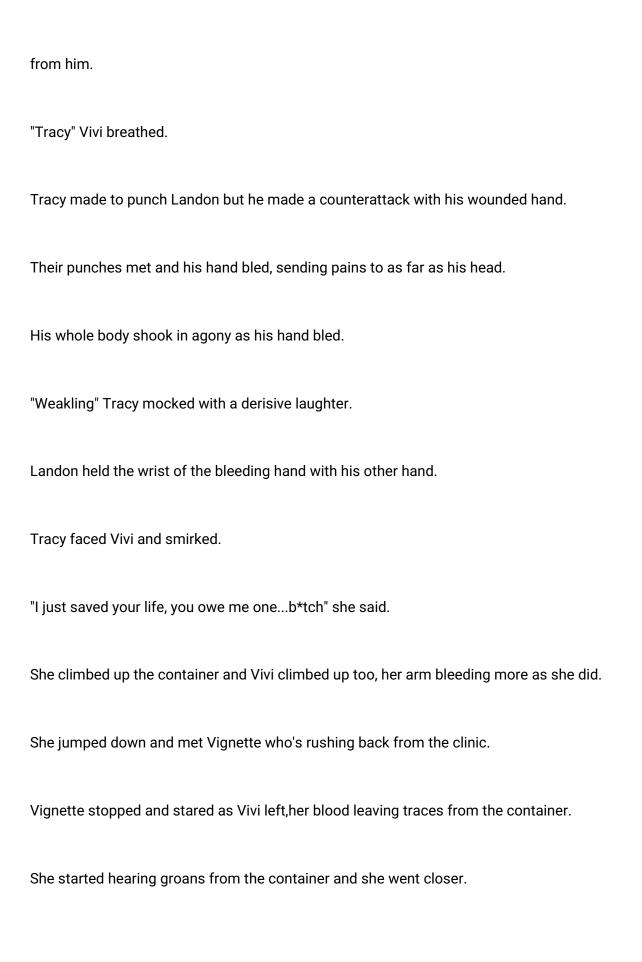

Princeton is dead because of her, if he hadn't killed Kaffy because of her, he'd still be alive by now .
Ozzie won't have had any reason to eliminate him!
Tanisha is groaning in pains from time to time, her blood is still draining, her eyes are closed and her skin has started changing colour.
"I'll just end the pains for you, I hate the fact that you're still alive when my alpha is dead!" Zara yelled.
Merely hearing that, Tanisha moved slightly.
"Prince Princeton" she muttered in pains.
" You killed him!, He eliminated Kaffy cos of you and now her f*cking dad eliminated my prince!, You deserve a painful death!" Zara spat.
Though her eyes is void of tears already but what she just heard made tears come out of her closed eyes.
"No it'snot true He's not deadstop lying" she cried slowly, folding her bloody hands.
Zara bent swiftly beside her and pulled her hair.
The blood on her face has dried up and left traces on it.

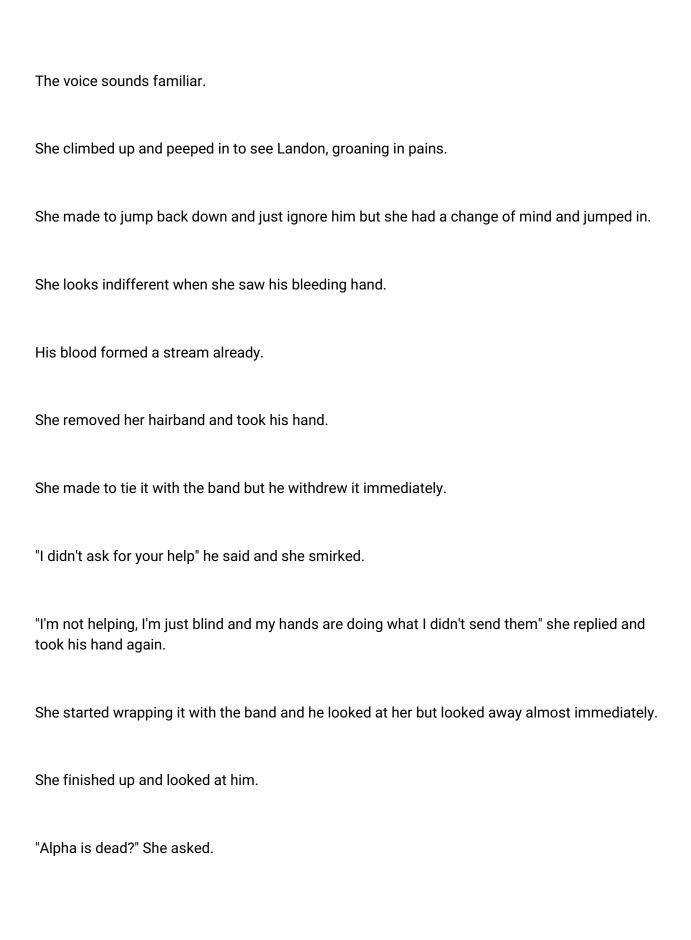

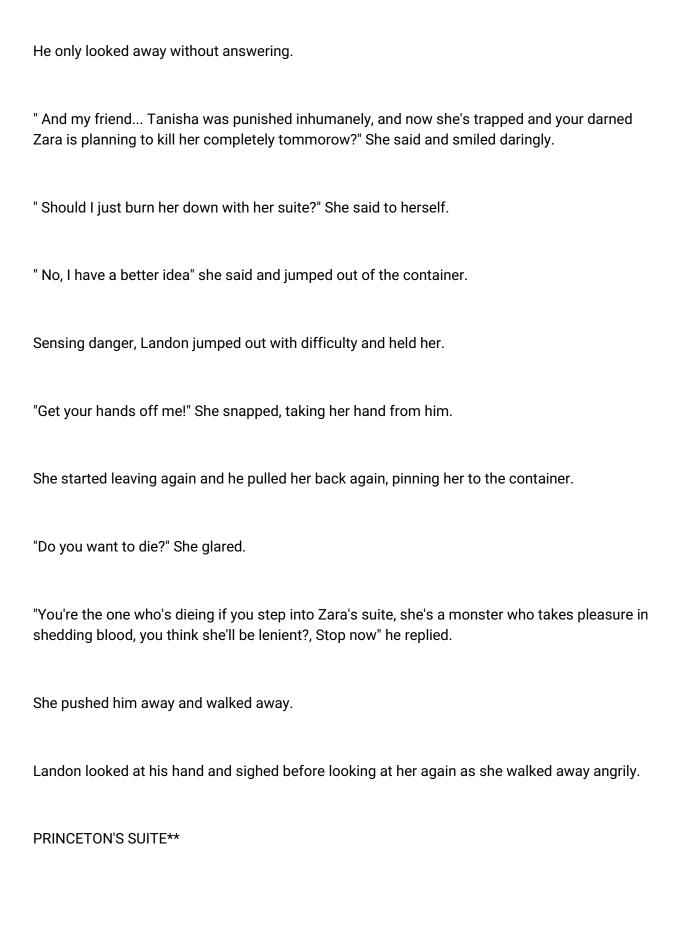

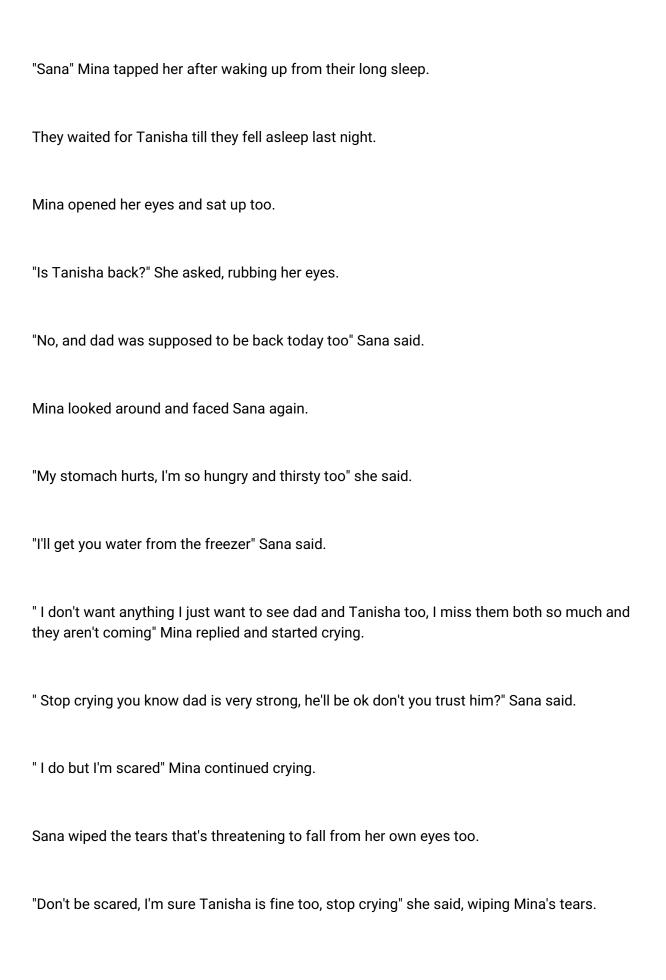

Shay stared blankly with red eyes while Brent swallowed nothing down his dry throat every minute.
Sorrow spread it's shawl over the atmosphere.
Vivi smiled but when her eyes met with Landon's burning eyes, she stopped.
"But before we move by 10, I'll hold a death ceremony for the sole cause of this, Tanisha LeBron" Zara said and Sierra looked up with teary eyes.
"She's half dead, but I'll make it full tommorow morning by 8, everyone should be present at the torture ground by 8" Zara said and went in.
Landon started walking to Vivi slowly, looking at her meanly.
Vivi never suspected till she looked his way and saw him.
She wanted to stay boldly but when she saw the look in his eyes, she took to her heels.
Landon went after her and chased her out of the place.
She ran with all her lot, not stopping to hide for once.
Landon got his gun and started shooting at her as she ran.
She doubled her pace and jumped into a metal container.

Landon ran past the container but when he got a brainstorm that she might be there, he came back.
He jumped in too and Vivi froze when he saw him.
"I only helped you and now you're trying to kill me?" she breathed, shifting back.
Landon has no emotion on his face as he stepped closer and closer.
"I swore on my blood to kill you if it happens, it happened and I'll gladly send you on an exile to where you belong" he replied and pointed his gun at her.
" I love you, that's why I did it Don, Don I love you a lot and I just couldn't stand how they're all belittling you, you can't do this Don, drop that gun" she said .
He aimed for her heart and shot but she swiftly turned and it hit her back.
"Aargh!" She groaned, holding the shot area.
Landon aimed again.
"Don please don't do it" she said.
He never replied and aimed for her forehead this time.
He was about to pull the trigger when someone jumped into the container, hitting the gun away

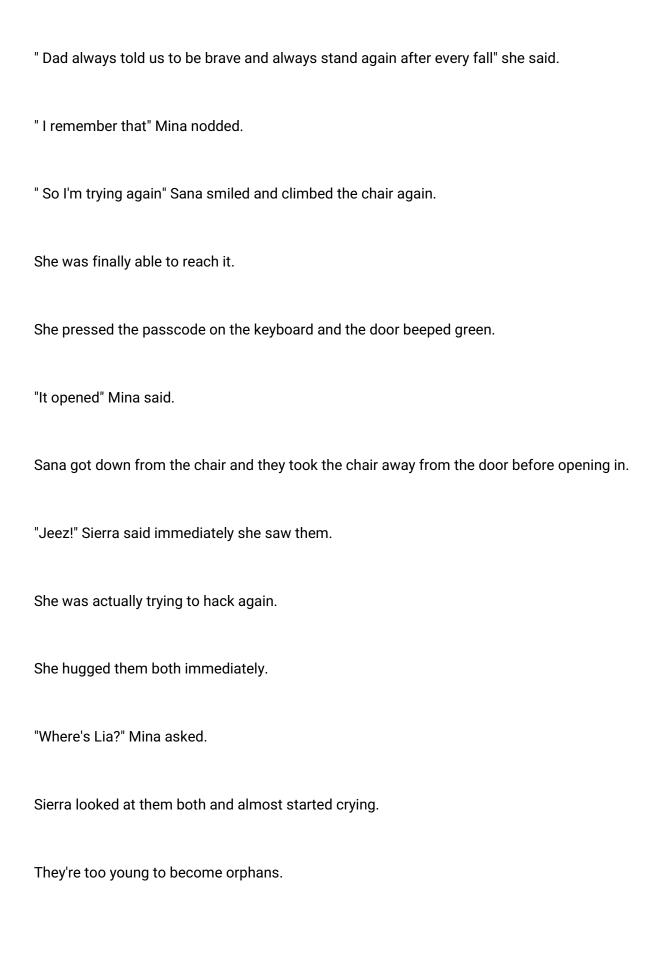

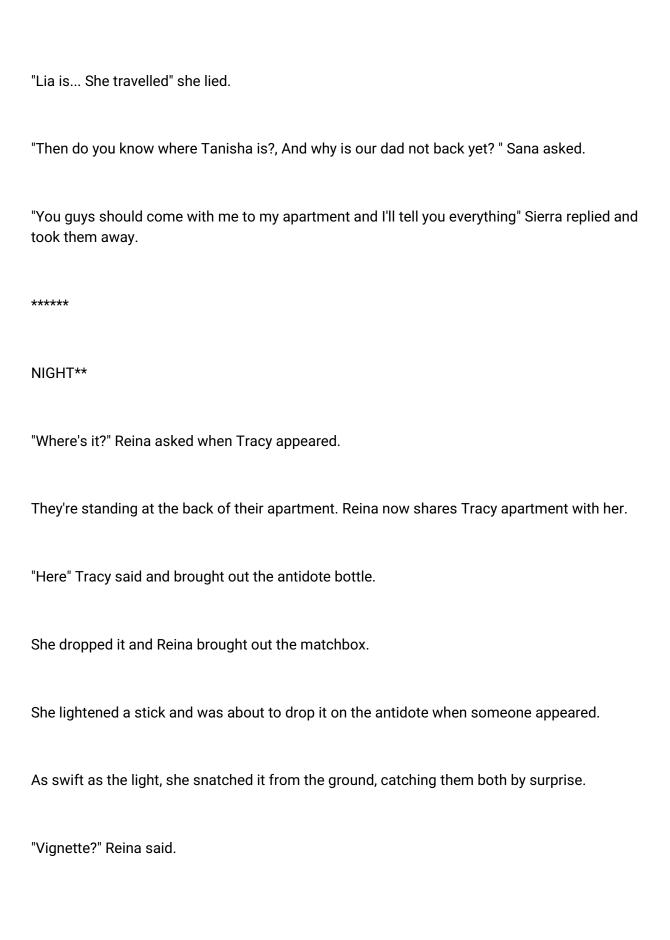

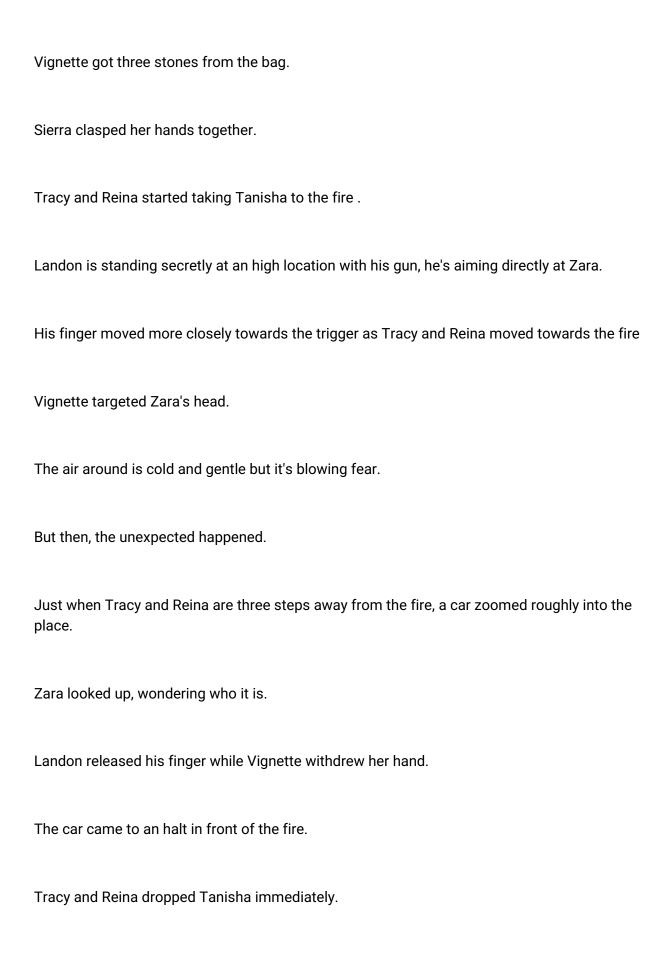

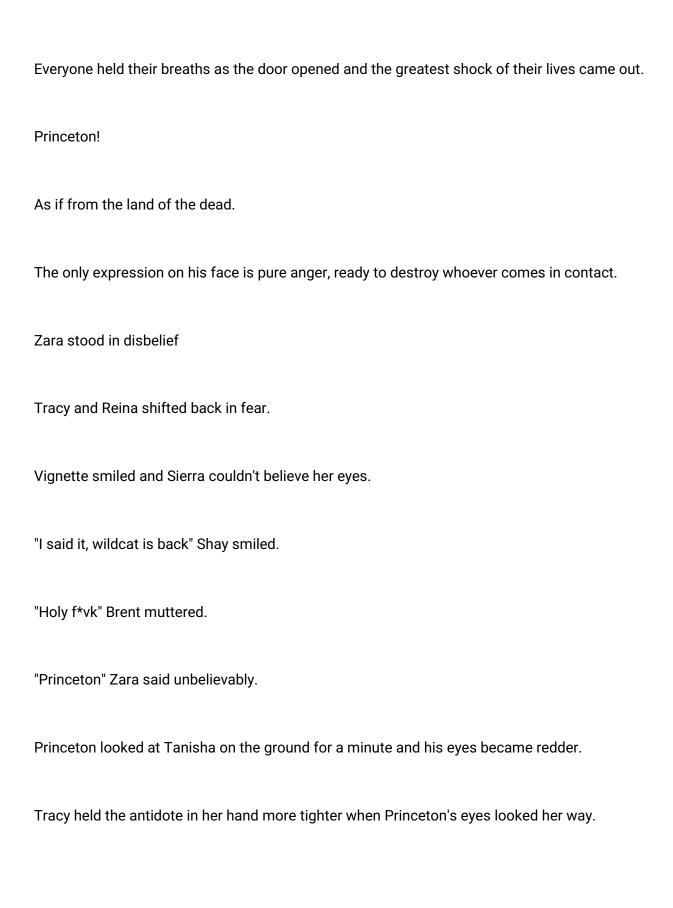

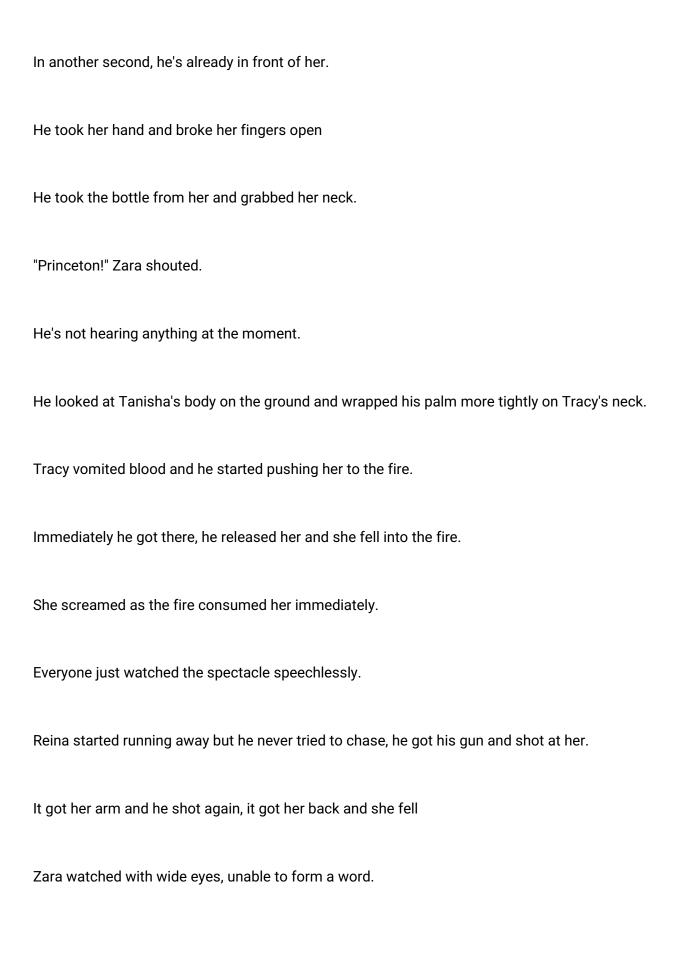

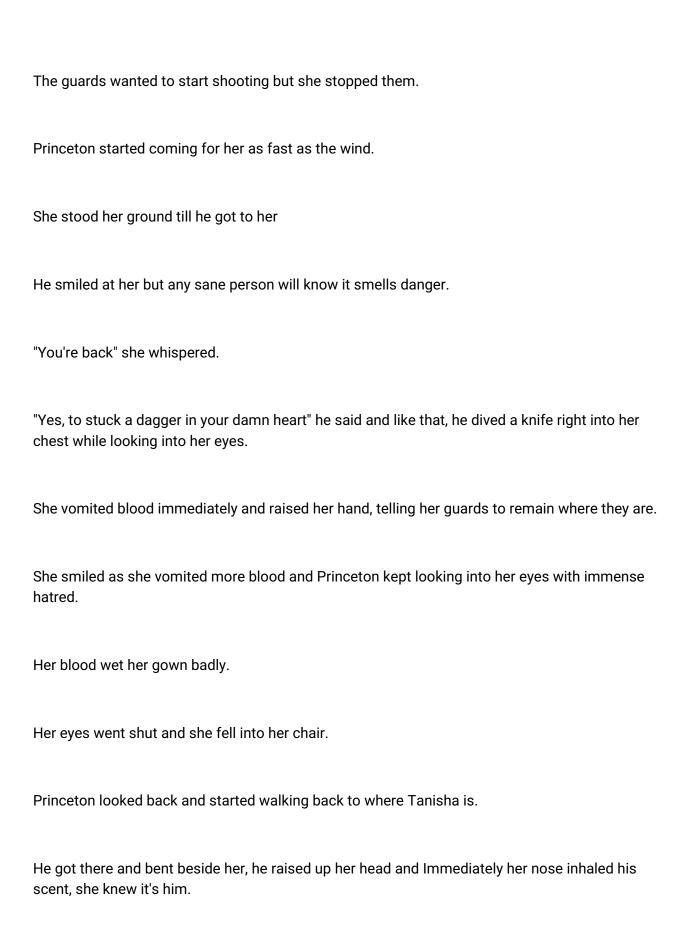

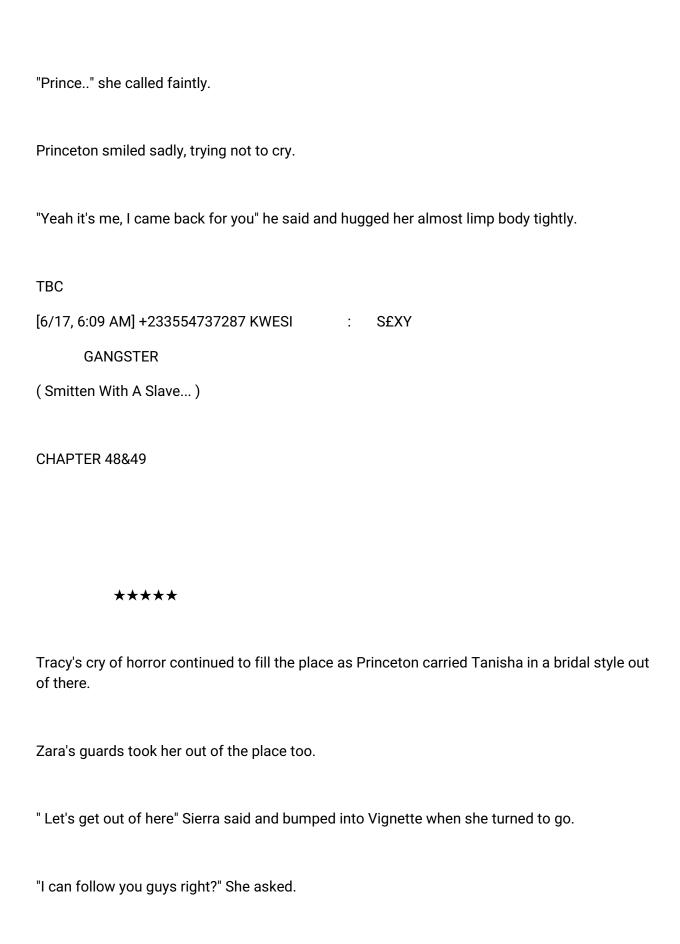

A large fire is burning beneath a poll already.
"Heard godmother is gonna tie the slave to the poll and let the fire scorch her till death" a girl said.
" She's not beef for hell's sake" Sierra said.
Vignette held the bag with her tightly, watching everything like an hawk.
The bag contains stones and she plans to break Zara's head with it.
Either Zara or her, she's planning to make sure one will die.
Zara finally appeared and with Tracy and Reina behind her.
They're both carrying Tanisha whose sight is too pitiful.
Vignette hardened her teeth on each other.
Zara sat on the chair prepared for her, she's wearing all black, her lips are black too.
She smirked with the corner of her lips.
"Tie her over the fire" she ordered.

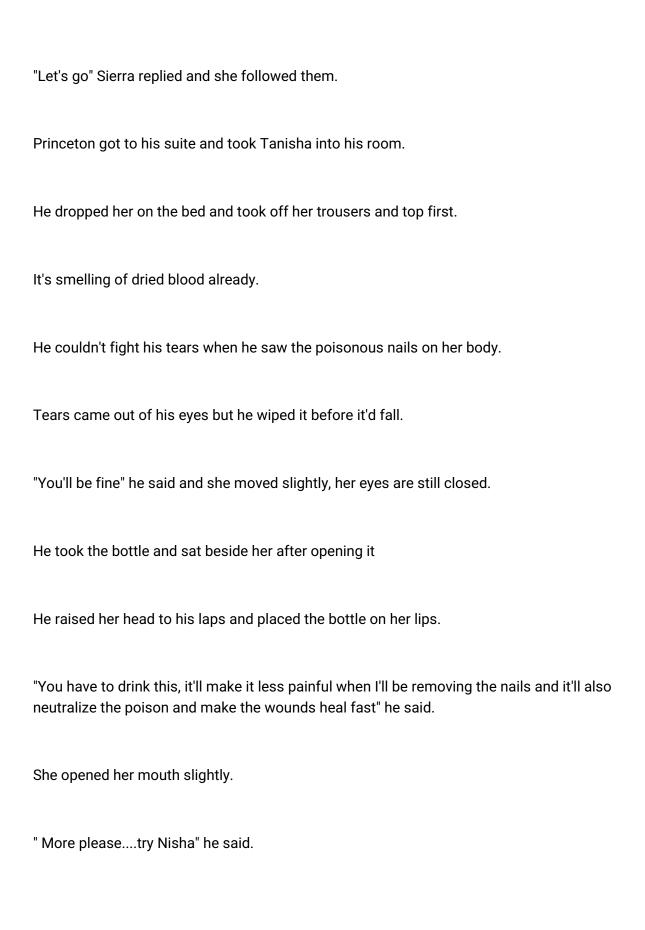

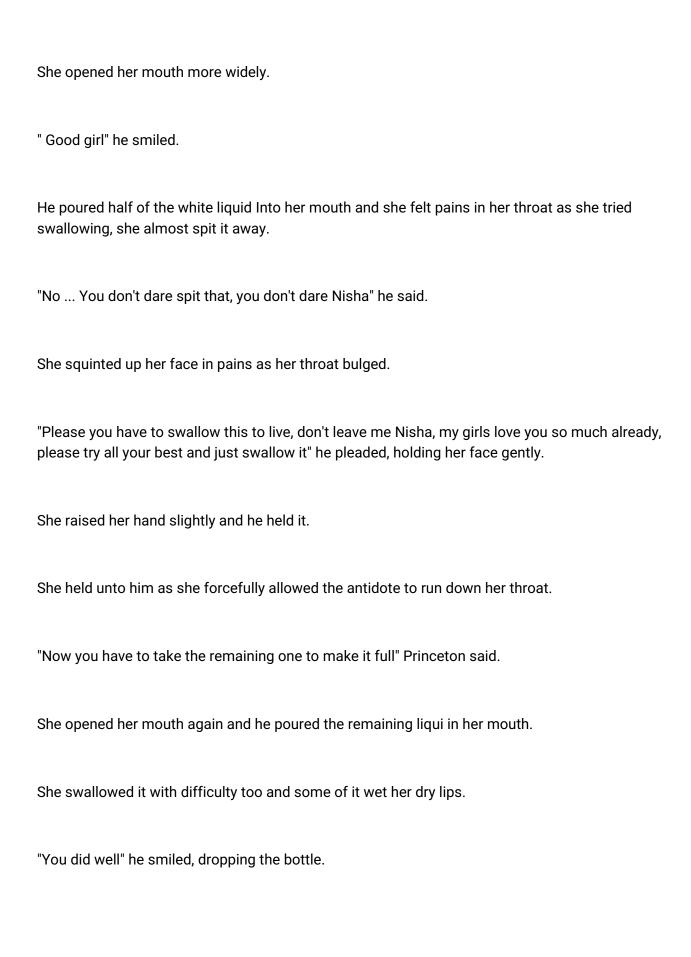

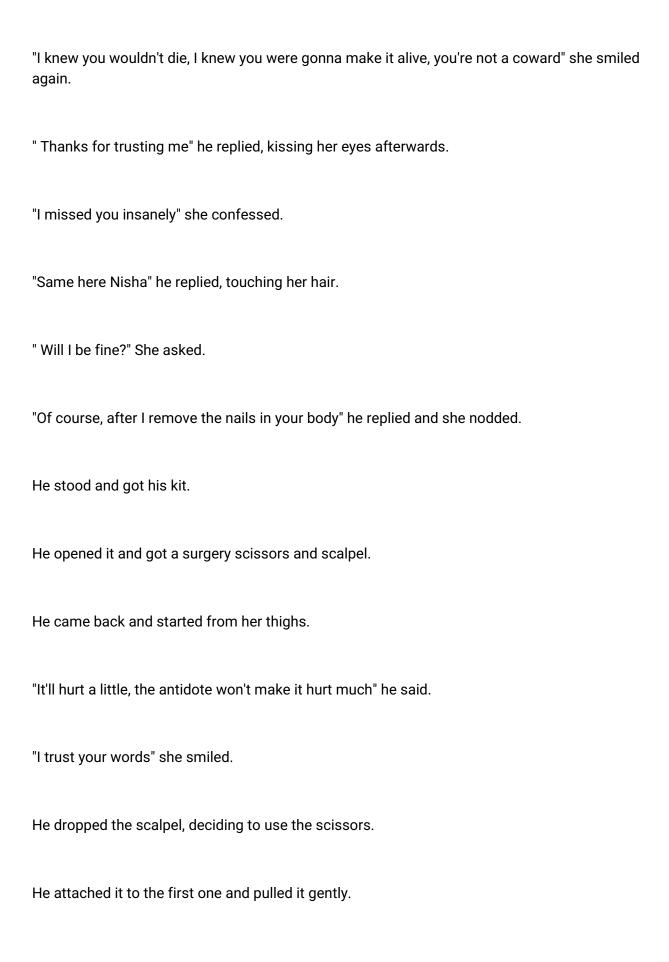

"I hate you" she cried.
" I'm sorry angel" he replied, stroking her hair.
" I was scared but I had to act strong, I knew Sierra was lying" she said.
" Little witch" Sierra muttered.
" I'm sorry, I'm back now and I'm not leaving you guys anymore, I promise" he said.
"I love you so much daddy" she said and finally hugged him back.
" I love you more" he replied and hugged Mina too.
"Where's Tanisha?" They both asked at a time.
"She's inside" he replied and they both made to go in but he stopped them.
"You both can't see her right now" he said.
"Why?, Is she in a bad condition?" Sana asked.
" Something like that" he replied.

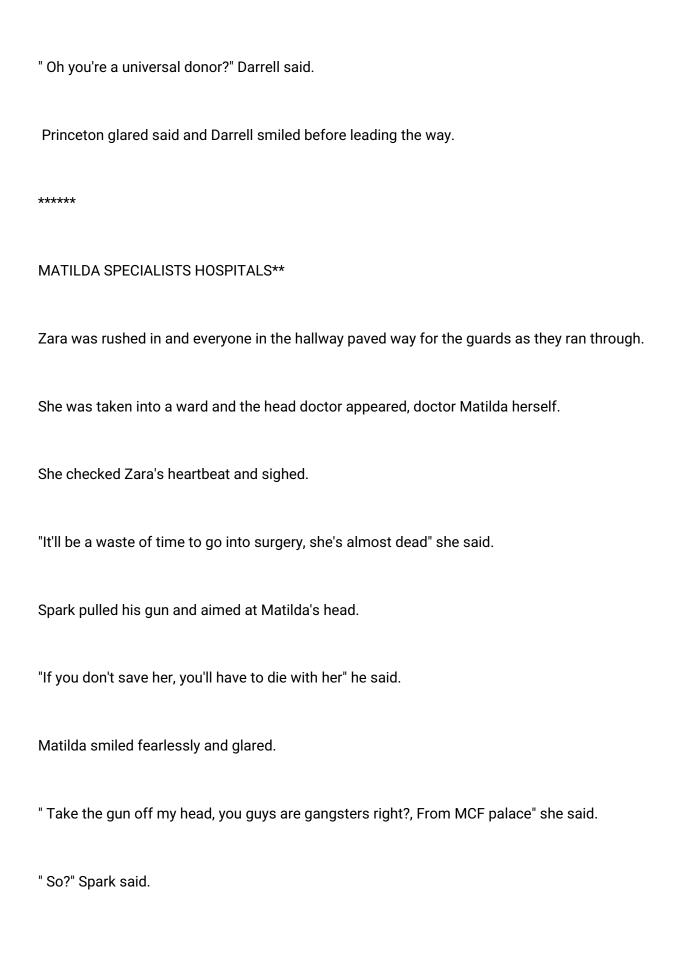

" A week or at most A week and some days" Sierra said.
" The wounds will heal fast, heard the antidote is f*cking potent" Shay replied.
"Princeton went in and Vignette sighed.
"godmother ordered all the slaves to go back into the slave house when you were in the hospital, heard they won't be allowed to move around again like before, I was expecting you to join them when you returned" Shay said and Vignette smirked.
" I'm not going back to that f*cking slave house, some guards made an attempt to get me back into the house yesterday" She said.
" What did you do?" Brent asked.
" I drew some fine patterns on their bodies" she replied and Sierra giggled.
" Badass, I love you" she said.
Princeton got back to the room and met Tanisha's eyes open already.
He knelt beside the bed and smiled, she returned it faintly.
"You really came back" she said with a tiny faint voice.
"Yeah, for you and my kids" he replied.

Tanisha closed her eyes as he pulled it out of her body.
Blood accompanied it but he cleaned it with a piece of white clothe.
He continued like that and surprisingly, she shed no tears till he was done but she lost a lot of blood.
Her white eyeballs shows how much she needs blood.
"I'll go get the doctor from the clinic" he said, standing to go but she held his hand.
"You're coming back right?" She asked.
He replied by kissing her hand before leaving.

MCF CLINIC
Zara's guards rushed her there and she was quickly taken in on a stretcher.
She was about to be taken into a ward when doctor Darrel appeared with his nurses.
"What the hell happened to godmother!' he almost screamed, looking at the knife on her chest.

Her blood is draining.
"No time for questions just do your job!" Zara's chief guard (Spark) shouted.
" My job?, I'm not competent enough to do this!" Darrell yelled.
" What the f*ck do you mean!" Spark yelled back.
" I'm not an experienced doctor, I was kidnapped halfway through school remember?, If I try to get this knife out of her then I'll be risking her life!" Darrell replied, touching her neck.
" She's still breathing, you guys should get her to the nearest hospital as soon as possible, fast!" Darrell said.
" F*ck you Darrell!" Spark said and Zara was taken out of the clinic.
Princeton came in when Darrell was about to go back to his office.
"So the news is true, you're really back" he said.
" Follow me, you need to transfuse blood for someone" Princeton ordered.
" Unfortunately there's no blood in our blood bank" Darrell replied.
" Even if there's blood in your f*cking bank, I won't have allowed you to use that for her, I'm donating" Princeton said.

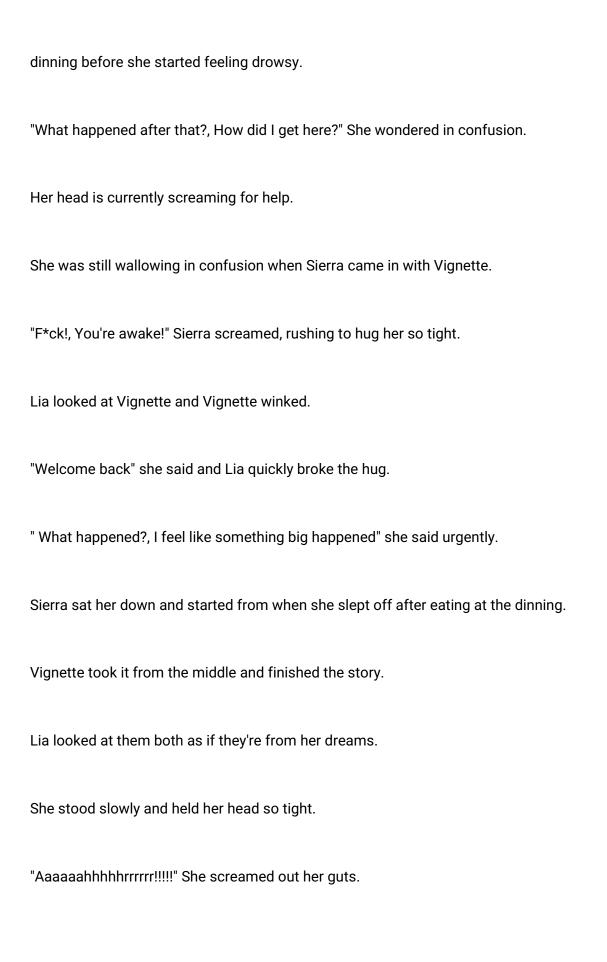

" And she's Zara, your godmother" she said.
" How dare you call her by her name" Spark said.
" Not like she can hear me, and her life is in my hands right now, I can decide not to save her" doctor Matilda said.
" Shut up and do what you need to!" Spark yelled and Matilda smiled.
"And I'm telling you to take your gun off my head if you wanna save your darned godmother!" She snapped seriously.
Spark brought down the gun and Matilda faced the interns behind her.
"Shift her to the theater and prepare for surgery, contact doctor Daniel and doctor Hilda, they'll be my assistant" she ordered and the interns shifted Zara's stretcher away.
Matilda faced Spark.
"Learn how to ask for things respectfully" she said before walking out of the ward.

He had to do direct transfusion since indirect will take time so Princeton is laying beside Tanisha, his blood running through the rubber tube into her body.
"When can we stop the transfusion?" Shay asked.
"I don't mind giving her all my blood though" Princeton said and they all looked at him.
" Don't you think he needs a mental health check?" Brent whispered to Sierra.
" Probably" Sierra giggled.
" Thirty minutes time" Darrell replied.
"Oh thanks" Vignette replied and the doctor left.
" Get well soon Tanisha" Mina said pathetically beside her.
"I promise" she smiled.
"I believe you, you really need to get well soon so I can hug you" Sana said and Tanisha smiled.
Princeton covered Tanisha very well with the duvet.

7PM, LANDON'S SUITE
Princeton knocked and Landon opened the door but Immediately he saw Princeton, he frowned.
"Why aren't you dead yet?" He asked and Princeton smiled .
" You're good at pretence, but not everyone will buy it, jerk" he said.
" Go away, perfect son" Landon said and made to shut the door but Princeton held it and went in.
"It's been long since I came in here , it's still the same, the messiest suite I've ever seen" he said, looking around.
Landon fell on one of the couches and Princeton looked at him.
"You don't have to smile at me, I'm ok with your frown" he said and entered Landon's room
" I never said you could" Landon said, following him.
Princeton got the kit from his nightstand and grabbed Landon's hand, pulling him out of the room.
They got back to the living room and he pushed him to the couch.

"They're hungry, they deserve good food after so long" she said.
" I'll be with Tanisha in the room, Lia you should cook something for everyone in the kitchen" Princeton said and left.
" I'll help" Sierra said and entered the kitchen with Lia.
"Princeton says he won't allow you to go back to the slave house anymore" Shay said.
" I wasn't planning to go back either, I'll stay with Sierra" Vignette replied.
" At least godmother's witchy acts will die down for now" Brent said.
" But when she comes back, no one is safe" Shay said.
" I dunno why I'm not scared of her" Vignette said.
" Let's stop talking about her, everyone should just train more before her comeback" Brent said.
Some minutes later
They stopped talking when Sierra and Lia started setting the dishes on the dinning table.
They all moved there with the twins.
"This will be the best delicacy you've all ever tasted" Lia said.

CHAPTER 50&51

Lia and Sierra exchanged confused glances.
"I told you you to let's taste it first before serving them" Sierra said.
" You didn't taste?" Vignette said.
They both took spoons and ate from the food.
They looked at each other and Sierra spit it out immediately.
It lacks a specific taste, f*cking bland and tasteless.
"Maybe we're really wicked" Sierra said.

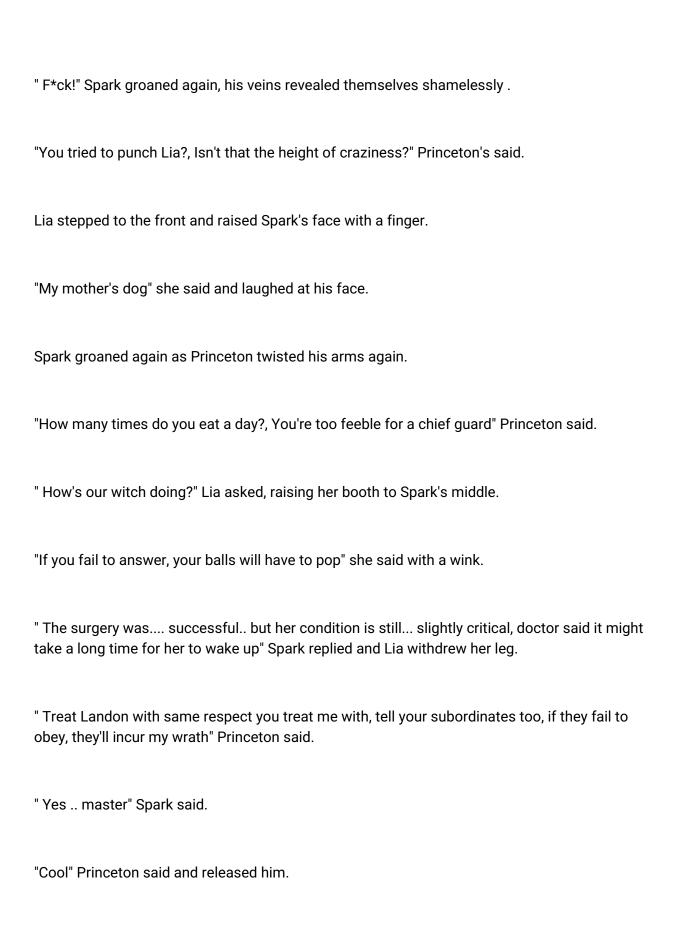

"They say two heads is better than one, you both popped your two big heads into the kitchen and came out with a good example of rubbish!" Vignette said and the others started coming back.
" Seriously everyone is hungry and no one trusts lady Macbeth anymore, who's gonna pacify our hunger" Shay said.
" I'll just cook" Vignette volunteered.
" Thanks baby" Brent said and Vignette's cheeks heated up as she entered the kitchen.

GENERAL KITCHEN
Landon came in and met lady Macbeth sitting quietly inside the kitchen.
A tray of cabbages is on her laps and she's with a knife which she's chopping them with but seems she forgot herself right there.
Landon took the knife from her and she looked up slowly.
"Landon" she said, standing up Immediately, forgetting she tray is on her laps.
It fell and Landon sighed.
"Why did you do it?" He asked.

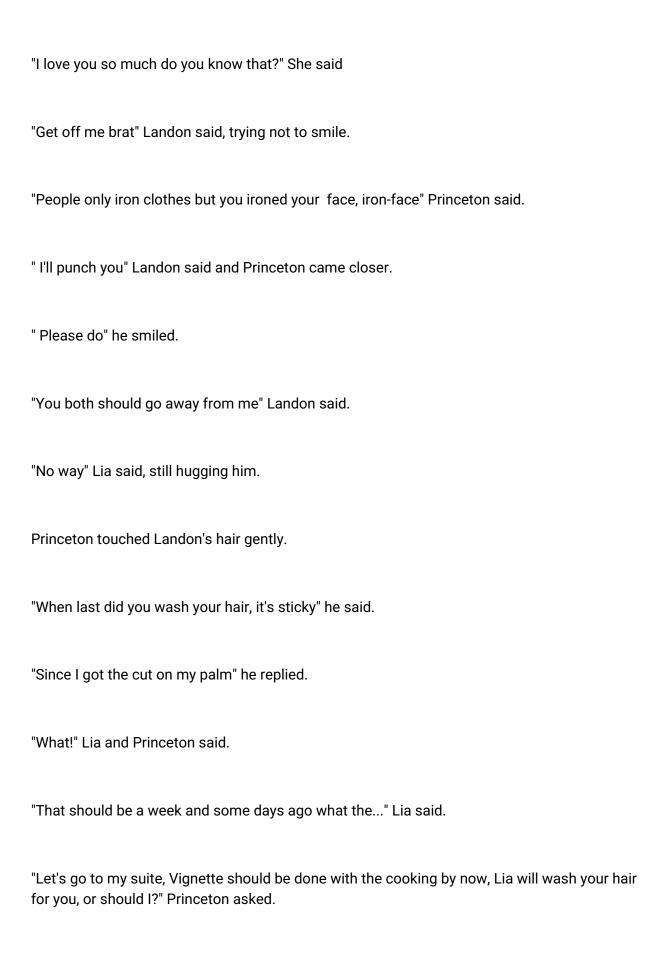

"Do you hate me now?" She asked.
" Answer the question first, why did you sedate my sis?" He asked .
" godmother told me to
"You should have told me or Lia herself!, Princeton is in here too you could have told him!, But you decided to do what pleases you lady Mac!" He yelled.
" I'm sorry I was just thoughtless and all that came to my mind was that I don't want to die, I really can't die yet I can't" she replied.
Landon stepped closer.
" Why?, Why can't you die yet?" He asked.
"I still have a lot of things to talk about, I can't just die yet" she said, looking straight into his eyes.
" What do you have to talk about?" Landon asked curiously.
"You Lia, Princeton, your father, godmother herself and suspicions about Tanisha" she replied and Landon's ears throbbed for more.
" Then speak! " Landon yelled, grabbing her shoulders while glaring coldly at her as if to pierce into her heart with his eyes.

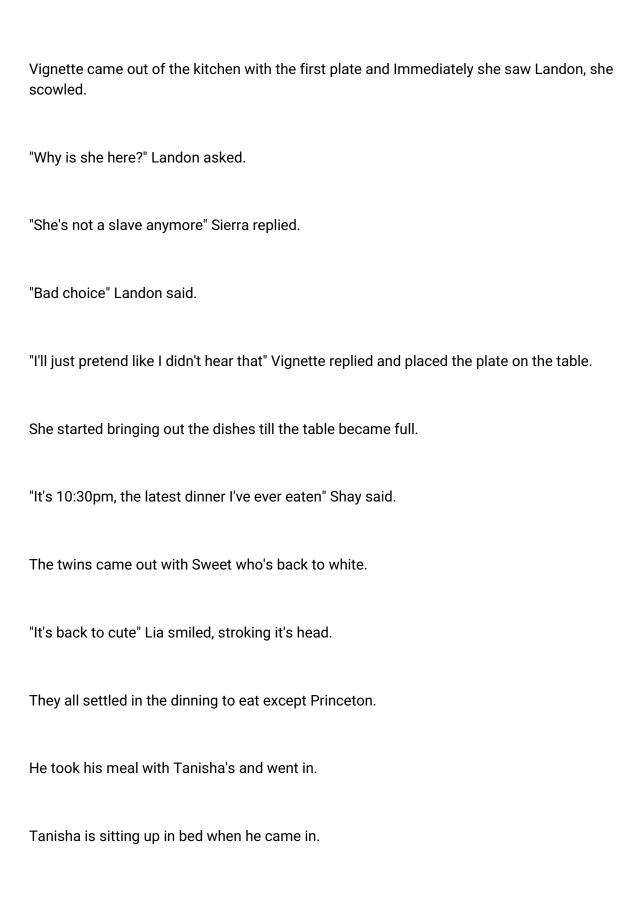

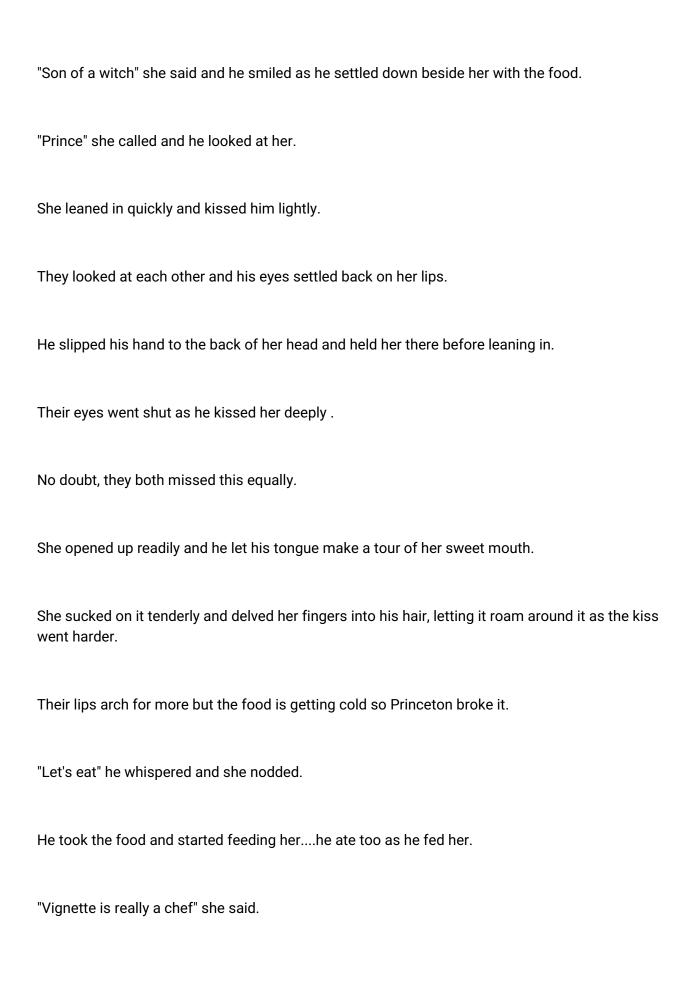

He made to go but Lia pulled him back.
"Who said you're free to leave?, Go on your knees in front of Don and say sorry" she glared.
Spark looked at Princeton and the dangerous glare on his face made him flinch and go on his knees.
"I'm sorry Don" he said and stood, he made to leave again but Lia pulled him back again.
"I think I deserve sorry too, you tried to punch me" she said.
"I'm sorry" Spark bowed and Lia touched his hair like her child.
"Ok son, don't do it again" she said and Spark left after that.
" Big brother" she said cutely.
Landon pretended not to hear.
" Hey Don I'm talking to you" she pouted, holding his hand.
Landon looked at him and she smiled, he quickly turned away.
Lia hugged him tightly.

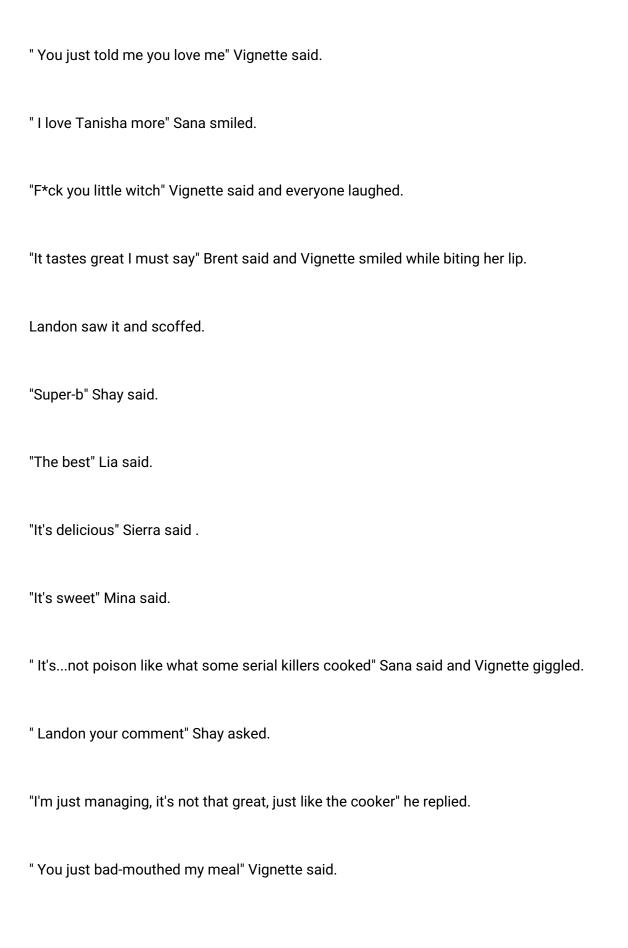

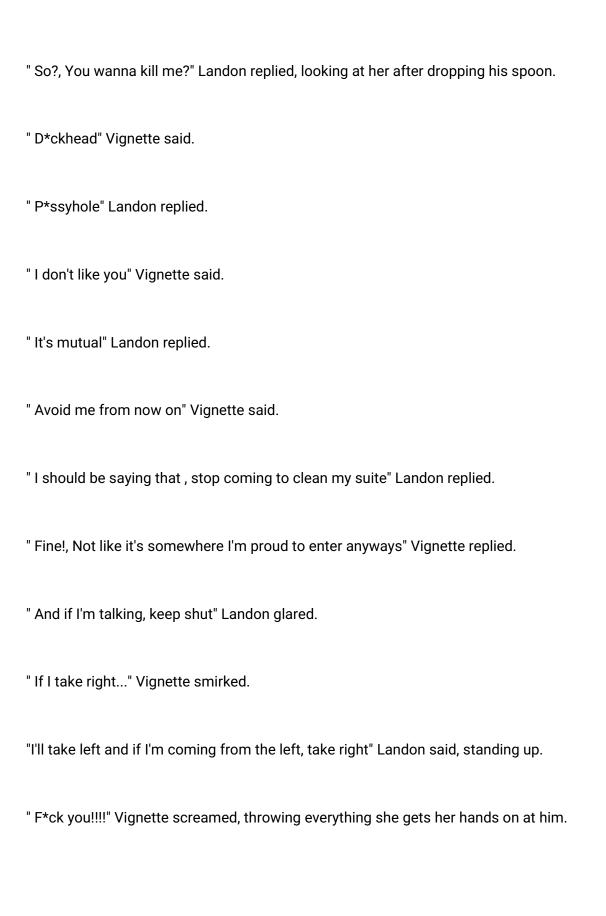

"She's the daughter of a soldier, how come?" Princeton said.
" I dunno either, maybe she watches lady Macbeth carefully in the kitchen" Tanisha replied.
" Not possible within how many days" Princeton said.
BACK IN THE DINNING ROOM
" My late dad taught me how to cook" Vignette said.
"How can a soldier know how to cook" Sierra said surprisingly.
" His mum taught him, but when I came alive, his mum died so he used his free time to teach me" Vignette replied.
" That's touching" Lia said.
" I love you" Sana said
" I love you too" Vignette smiled.
" Tanisha's food tastes better" Mina said.
"Somehow true" Sana said

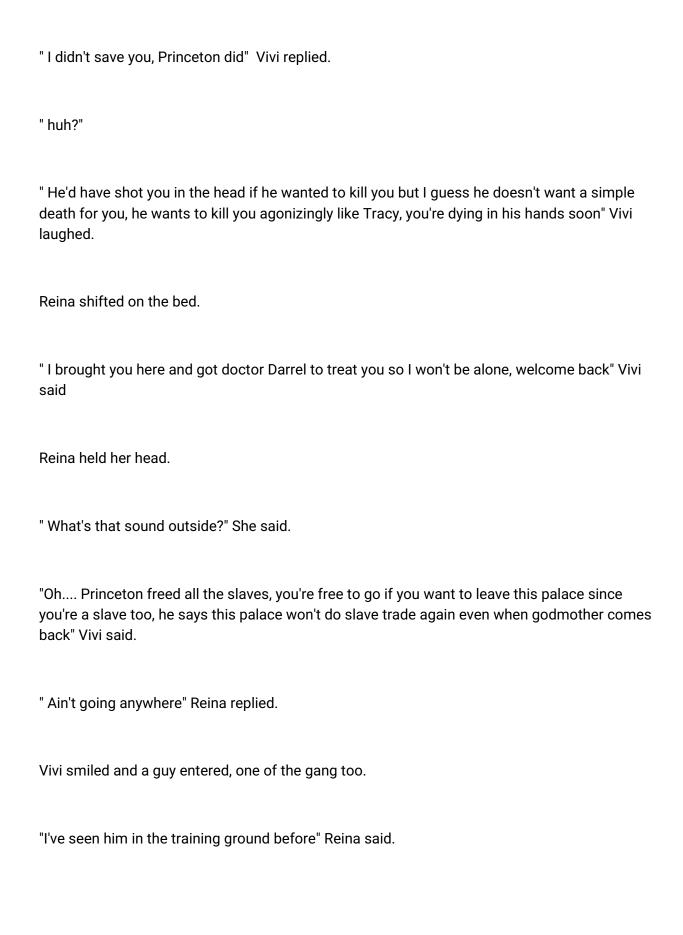

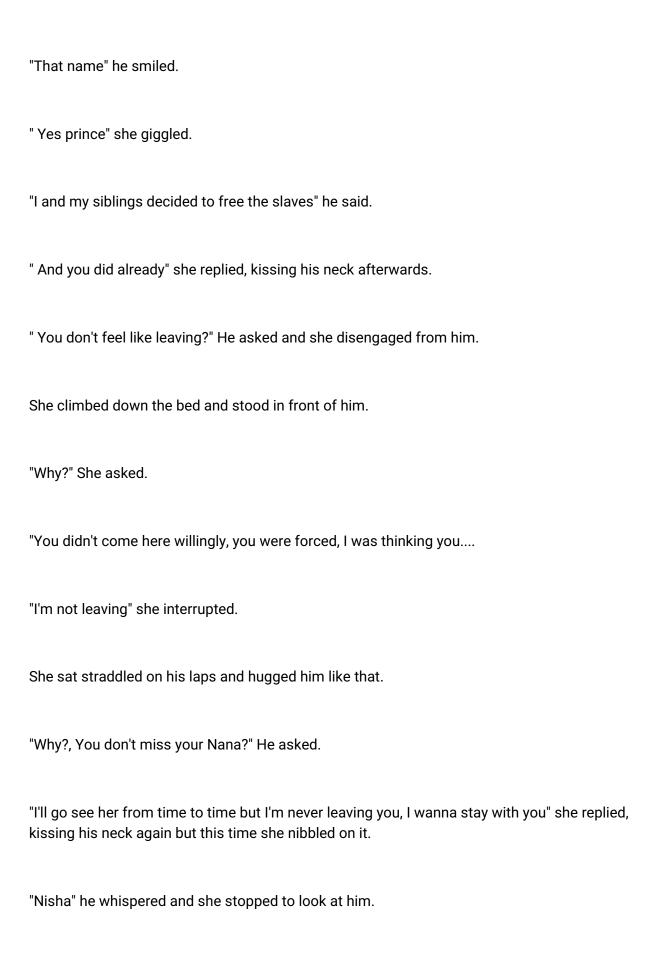

He left the dinning room and went to the living room.
Vignette stormed back into the kitchen.
Everyone stared at each other and before they knew it, they started laughing loudly.
"I recorded it" Lia said, replaying it.
They started rewatching and laughing hard.

TWO WEEKS LATER
The palace has been calm as expected as the witchy owner is not around.
Vignette joined the others in training already and she's catching up real fast, she was almost good enough before she started.
Tanisha healed up already, thanks to the antidote and Princeton's care.
Her body returned to spotless, thanks to the antidote too.
Her training starts tommorow.

VIVI'S APARTMENT
Reina was more than surprised when she woke up to see that she's alive.
She sat up but can still feel pains on her back and arm, the shot areas.
She whimpered shortly and Vivi came in.
"Vivi" she said surprisingly.
They were never close so how she ended up with her is shocking.
"I saved you" Vivi said.
"What about Tracy?" Reina asked.
"She's dead, didn't you see when she was pushed into the fire?" Vivi replied.
Reina exhaled.
"godmother is currently in the hospital, I visited her today, the doctor said she might still take long to wake up" Vivi said.
" Why did you save me?" Reina asked.

" And when did you become a badass?" Princeton asked.
" The day I started falling for you" she replied and pushed him to the bed but he tossed her and changed position, coming to the top.
"I won't stop even if you cry" he said seriously.
" Let's f*ck all night" she replied and Princeton smiled before going for her lips again.
She resumed unbolting his belt while he slipped his hand under her nightie, pulling down her panties.

CHAPTER 52&53

Erotic scene ahead

Tanisha pulled his belt roughly out of the loop and threw it across the room before going for his trousers.

By now, Princeton's fingers is on her cl*t, rubbing it in circles, her breathing quickened every minute.

She let go of his trousers for a while and closed her eyes as he drove her more nuts with his fingers.

He continued rubbing circles on her cl*t, making her body shiver with only that.

The pleasure coming from that is immeasurable, it landed her in the pool of sweetness and she had to hold the sheets tight as Princeton rubbed more fast.

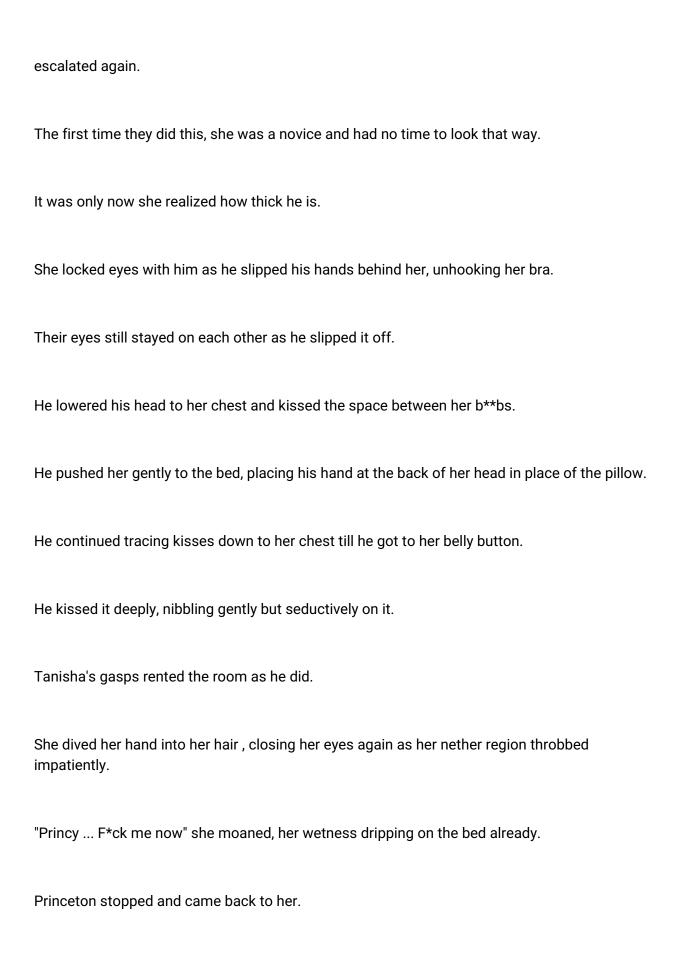

"Gosh.... Prince..." She moaned softly.

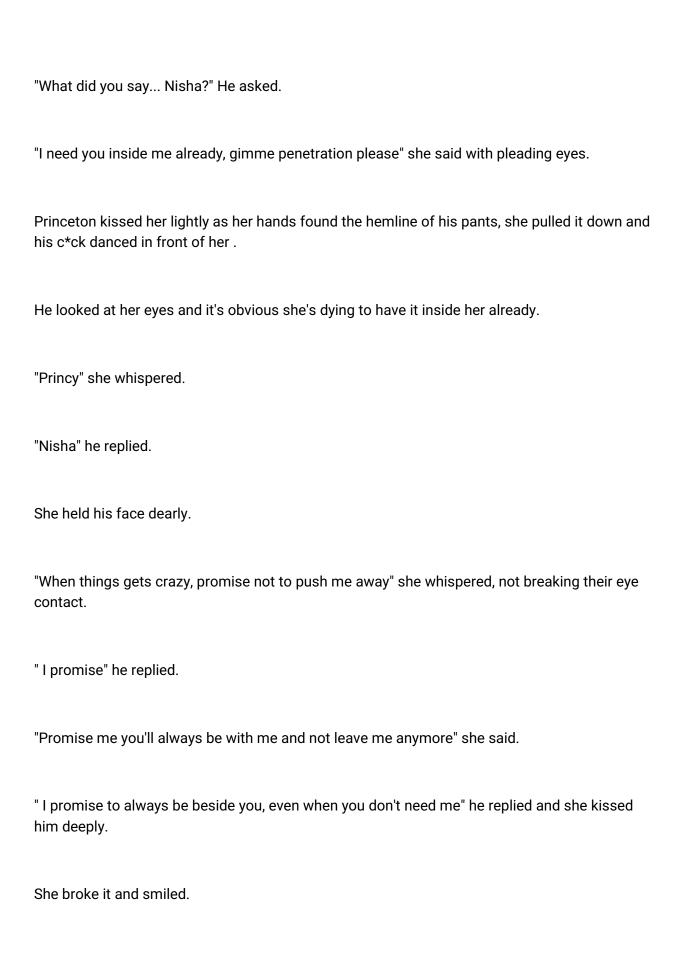

"I don't like soft moans Nisha" Princeton whispered into her ears and rubbed her even more fast.

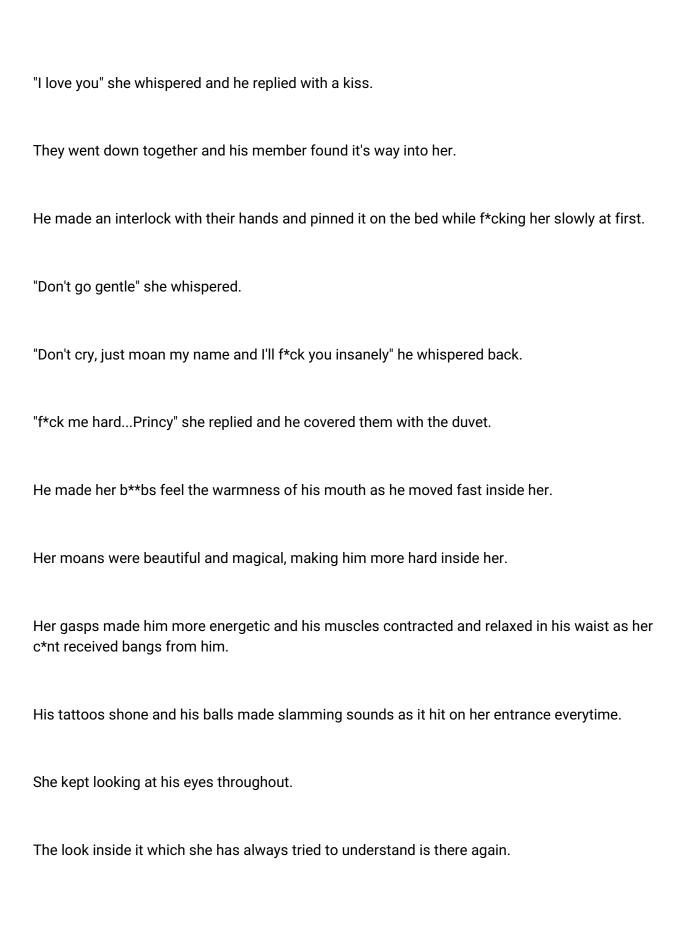

She released a loud moan and Princeton took in her lips, kissing her hard.

She resumed taking off his trousers and she was able to take it off completely this time.

He broke the kiss and she looked down at his bulging long, thick member while her breathing

But it's warm and makes her feel safe, she loves it so much.
Her moans went louder every minute and she pulled him even closer to herself, his rod driving her insane.
Her insides churned up and her g-spot tingled.
"I love you" she whispered and widened her legs more.
"Harder PrincyI love your c*ck"
Princeton hardened the bangs and she kept smiling as she moaned for him.

NEXT MORNING, 8PM
Mina and Sana just finished eating breakfast and they're about to go to school.
Princeton came out to them and squatted in front of them.
He stroked their hair and hugged them both before pecking them.
"Do well as usual" he said and they both nodded.
"And like I've always told you both, don't eat anything from school, don't take anything from your

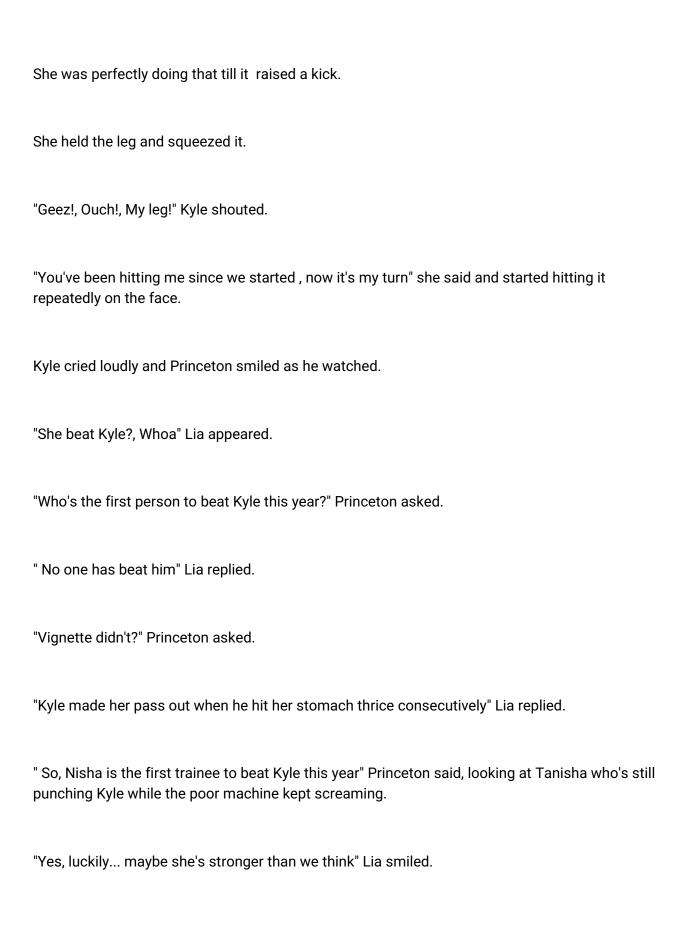

Princeton snatched the gun from her and shot the three.
"Concentrate, don't look at me or anyone, let your ears become deaf to any other sound, not even your heartbeats" he said and threw the gun at her again.
She caught it and went for the shoot again.
She took position and closed her eyes for a while, trying to make her ears deaf to other noises.
She could barely hear her heartbeat when she opened her eyes and shot thrice at once.
She got the three.
"Again" Princeton said.
She shot again and hit the three .
She continued shooting the three till she exhausted all the bullets in the gun.
She faced Princeton and he led her to another spot.
"Try hitting me while I duck" he said.
She folded her fist and went for him but for complete thirty minutes, she wasn't able to get him. Not once.

Vignette finished her training session for the day and went to Brent who's wiping the sweat from his face already.
"Thanks for always having time for me" she said shyly, touching her hair slightly.
" It's fine, the fact that you're catching on so quick is making my interest stronger" Brent replied and she smiled.
" I can touch you right?" She asked.
"Why?" He asked.
" I just want to" she replied and went closer, she placed her hand on his cheek and stayed still, looking at him.
Landon scoffed from where he's sitting, he stood and walked out of the place.
He got to his suite and was about to crash on the bed when he saw her hair band on his bedstand.
He has actually decided not to throw it away for a reason he doesn't know but right now he's feeling like throwing it off.
He took it and walked out of the room.
He went to the bathroom and made to throw it into the tub but suddenly stopped.

" I find it hard to believe too" he replied and Nana smiled.
" Please take care of our Tanisha, you should have found out that she gets scared any night it rains and there's thunder or lightening, please always stay with her" she said.
" I will" he replied.
" I trust you, andyou see about her mum actually she's in this Singapore, she has always wanted to meet her mum and know who she is but her dad never wanted that" Nana said.
" Why?" Princeton asked.
"They separated cos of her stubbornness, he was against her profession cos it always took all her time and she never had time for their kid when she gave birth, that caused a lot of arguments and she suggested marriage annulment, they decided to do that and the court agreed to let her go with the child since she was still breastfeeding him" Nana said.
" Him?" Princeton said confusedly.
" The story is confusing but if only you could find the mother, she's a doctor, doctor Matilda" Nana said.

MATILDA SPECIALISTS HOSPITAL
Doctor Matilda opened the door to Zara's ward and went in regally.

She got to her bed and checked her vitals.
"She's recuperating" she said and smiled before looking at Zara dangerously.
She looked at the guards surrounding the ward and sighed.
"Vacate this ward" she ordered.
"How could you give such order?, We need to protect godmother by staying with her, we ain't leaving" Spark said.
" You can protect her but you couldn't save her, it's somehow funny" Matilda smiled.
Spark drew his gun but immediately he pointed it at her, Matilda raised her heels to it, swiftly kicking the gun from him.
The gun flew in the air till it got to her.
She caught it and aimed for Spark.
The other guards aimed for her too.
"You know better than to try shit, you'll be wasted" Spark said.
Matilda held the oxygen mask on Zara's nose.

" Should I make her stop breathing then?" She said, looking at them with a tricky smile.
Spark felt like it's useless trading words with her so he ordered all the guards to go out.
They left and Matilda threw the gun back to Spark.
"I've been preparing for the coming moment for long, no gun can freak me" she said.
" I just need to say something to her privately" she continued and Spark left the ward reluctantly.
She faced Zara and smiled, holding her unconscious face.
"You've always been a good actress, right from the white bus that year When you stole what's mine" she said and let go of her face.
" You have to wake and handover what's mineelse I'll kill you" she whispered and laughed mockingly.

CHAPTER 54&55

and Sana.... they're more than what you know, Zara has a lot in her hands to use against you when the time comes, in her suite too" she said, sniffing as more tears came out of her eyes. "Stop confusing me woman!, What the hell are you saying about Nisha and my girls!" He yelled with red curious eyes. Lady Macbeth sat dejectedly. "Zara is not human, she was drawn out from the pit of hell, just protect all you have to protect, everything will start becoming clear when she comes back, but at the same time it'll be tough, she'll always have her way, she'll try to pull you and Landon apart again, please don't allow her, stay with Landon and protect him, saying he's weak isn't wrong, he's the weakest in this palace, don't allow Zara to have the last laugh, be strong and fight till the end" she said. "Stop talking in parables" Princeton said. "And about Ava....she's not as bad as you think" lady Macbeth said. Princeton angrily pushed her away from the stool and she fell on the ground. "Since you're not ready to say all what you know, stop talking in parables it's annoying!" He yelled, breathing heavily while holding his head frustratingly. He stormed out of the kitchen in fury and lady Macbeth continued crying.

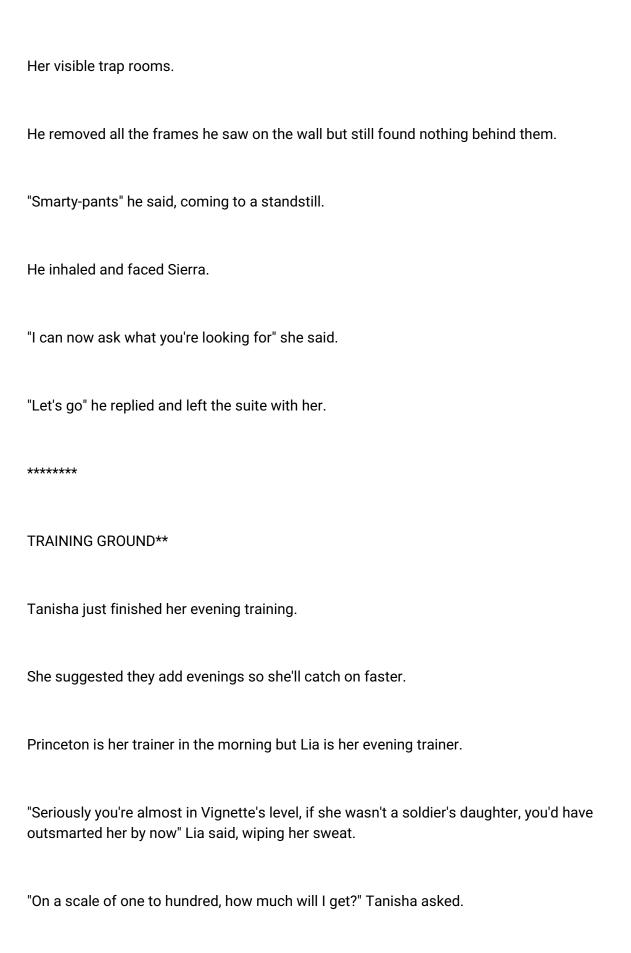

She brought out Farris's picture from her pocket and hugged it to her chest.

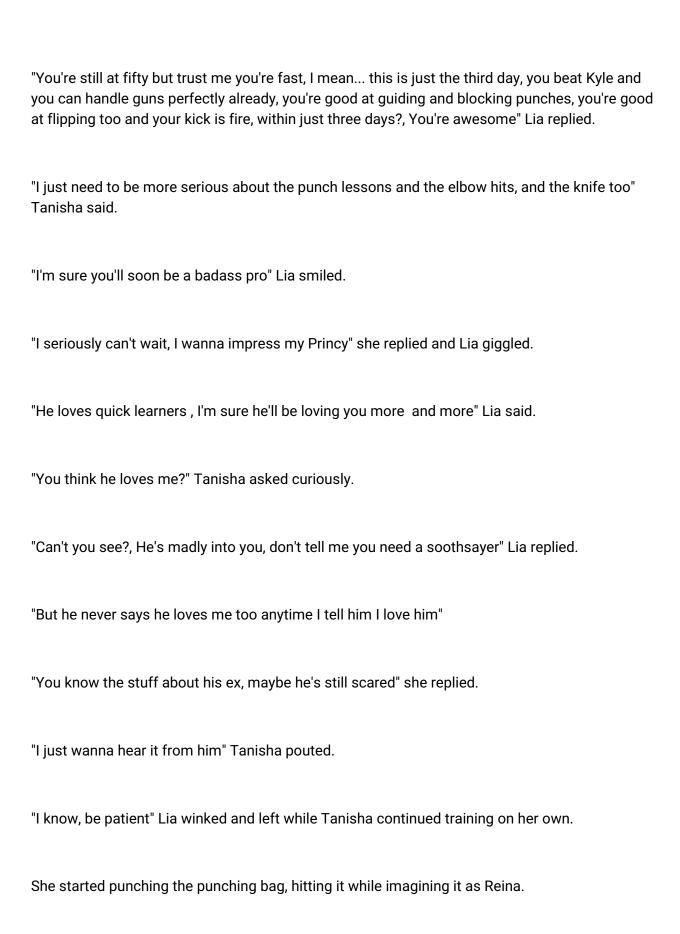

"Why did you have to die!!" She cried.

Princeton called Sierra on his way to Zara's suite and she met him there.
"Hack the door" he said.
Without hesitating, Sierra connected her device from her phone.
She pressed and tap fast and within two minutes, the door beeped green.
They went in together and even if the devil herself isn't in, the place scents like hell.
Hell won't stop being hell just because the devil left.
He walked around, looking at everything carefully in the large red living room.
For almost an hour, he's still looking around.
He entered her room afterwards and the smell of champagne filled his nose.

He searched for any suspicious thing but still found none.

Then her restrooms, bathroom, her closets....

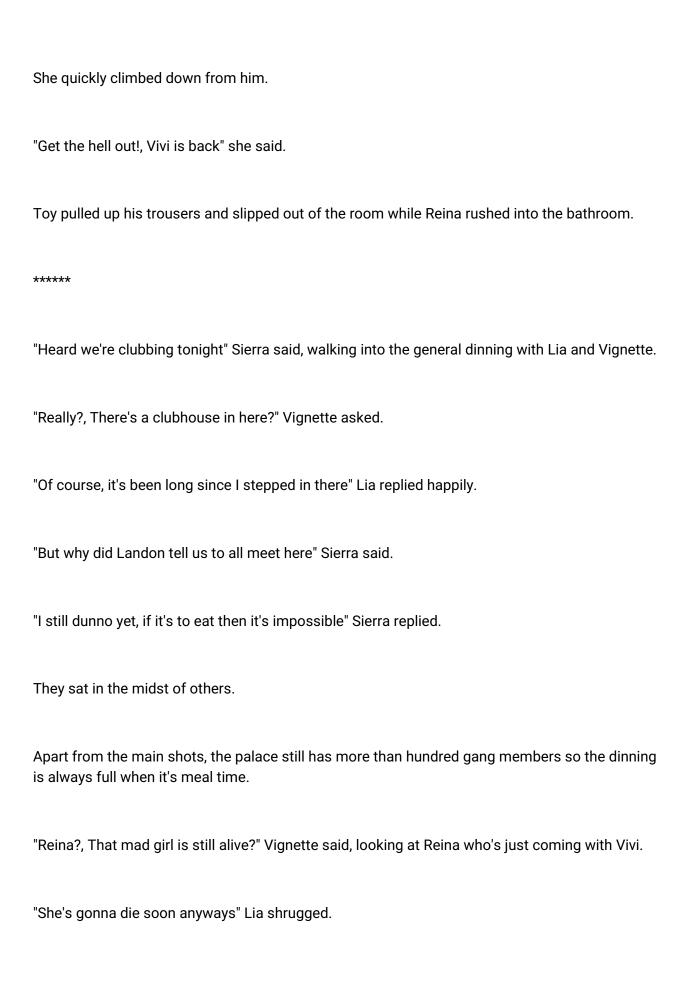

Tanisha faced her and smiled, the kind of smile that'll want to make anyone send her somewhere far from earth. "We f*ck every night, he's always so sweet, he handles me just the way I want and whenever we do it, he always makes me want more, have you ever felt like a gueen while f*cking before?, The answer is no but me...I always feel like the queen of paradise whenever he's inside me, his lips is...gosh!, My intoxication...his finger on my cl*t is bang!, His warm mouth on my n*pples is always.... Reina started walking away. "No come back babe!, You need to hear everything I've not told you how his d*ck drives me crazy!, Pussycat come back!, Shitty girl!" Tanisha laughed as Reina walked faster. Tanisha continued laughing so hard that she had to hold the punching bag so she won't fall. "F*ck her, to hell with her!, I wish I could just strangle her!, Damn your crappy ass Tanisha!" Reina cussed as she entered her apartment. Surprisingly, she met Toy waiting. Vivi isn't around. "Someone f*cked the rod you were supposed to f*ck?" Toy said. "None of your business" Reina snapped and entered her room.

She smoked angrily as she sat on the bed.

" I wish I could just snuff her in my nose" she said and threw the cigarette away.
She stood and took off her top, throwing it across the room.
The way Tanisha described everything did a good job in making her feel jealous and right now she feels like getting f*cked.
She peeled off her trousers and started pacing around the room that way.
She lightened another smoke again and continued smoking.
"godmother should come back already, I can't wait for her comeback so all these will end" she said.
Someone suddenly spanked her ass and she swiftly looked back to see Toy.
"When did you get in?, What the hell are you doing in here and who said you could spank my ass" she glared.
Without answering, Tog grabbed her and kissed her roughly.
She couldn't resist, not when her b*tchy self is horny.
She reciprocated and before she knew it, he slid off her undies and her bbs ended up in the middle of his palms.

He stopped the rough kiss and squeezed her bbs, fondling with her nipples while smiling naughtily at her.
She opened her mouth, releasing heavy breaths as he continued his business.
"Sowhat do we do?" Toy asked, squeezing her more roughly.
That only increased her excitement.
"Shut the f*ck up and finish what you started" she replied and kissed him as hard as he did to her .
In the next minute, his trousers slipped down his legs and she pushed him to the bed.
She climbed him and held his long member, rubbing her palm on it.
Toy smiled like a bad boy he is when she finally inserted his member inside herself.
She sat on him and started riding while moaning so loud.
"You're so f*cking good" Toy groaned under him.
Reina's bbs bounced around her chest as she rode like an horseman.
The sudden opening of the front door made her stop.

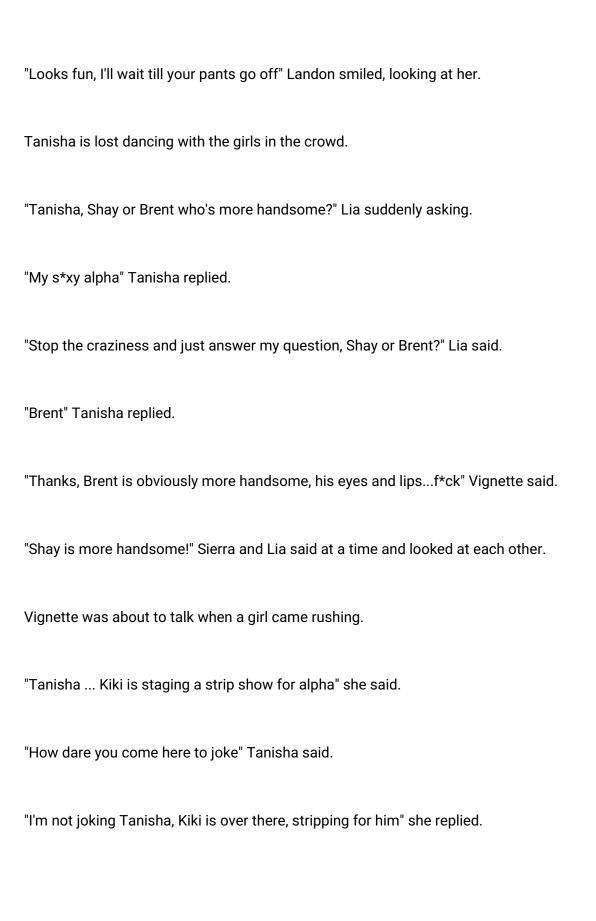

"He's coming with Don" Tanisha replied.
"Princeton searched godmother's suite the other time I dunno why" Sierra said.
"Must be because of the hidden secrets lady Macbeth kept talking in parables about, it's f*cking annoying, I meanshe knows a lot but she won't talk" Lia replied.
Princeton and Landon entered at a time and almost every girl in the hall commented about their handsomeness especially Princeton.
I wish I could just get f*cked by the alpha
I wish Landon was still a f*ckboy, I'd have seduced him.
Princeton if f*cking s*xy, I'm imagining myself in bed with him.
"Just look at Tanisha" Lia said and everyone turned their attention to her.
She's glaring at every girl in the hall and her palms are folded into fists already.
"Enough!!" She shouted, hitting the fists on the table.
Everywhere went silent.
"Alpha's baby is talking" Vignette said and everyone on their table laughed.

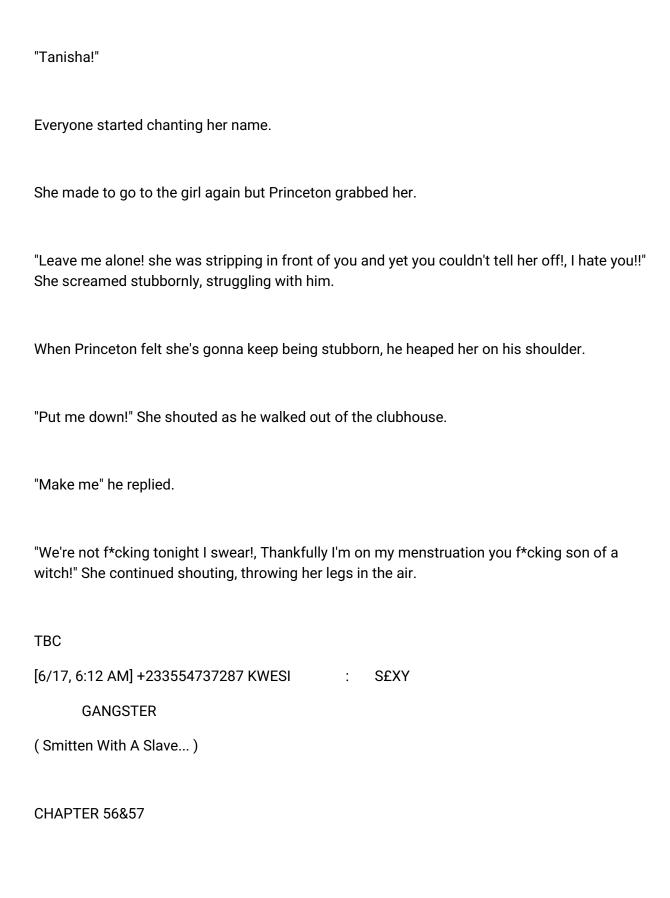

Vignette suddenly saw Landon looking at her but immediately their eyes met, he looked away.
"Why is that d*ckhead staring at me" she muttered.
Lady Mac came in and walked straight to the front.
Everyone waited for what she has to say.
"I'm sorry Lia" she said and went on her knees.
"She's here to apologise to Lia in the presence of everyone?" Sierra said.
"I was threatened, I shouldn't have done it butI'm sorry" lady Macbeth cried.
Lia stood and went to her.
She pulled her up and wiped her tears.
"I'll only forgive you anytime you agree to tell us the secrets you're hiding" she said.
"Huh?".

8PM, MCF CLUBHOUSE

The loud songs indicated the liveliness of the clubhouse tonight.
Only red lights are on and the house is filled to the brim with gang members.
Princeton is sitting with Landon beside the counter, they're both watching everyone.
"This won't last, the devil will wake up soon" Princeton said.
"At least, they should enjoy this moment before that time comes" Landon said, having his gaze fixed on Vignette who's currently dancing with the girls.
"Why are you staring at that soldier's daughter?" Princeton asked.
"Ion like her" Landon replied.
"Nobody is saying you like her, the fact that you said you don't like her when I didn't even ask is more suspicious" Princeton said.
"Nobody is saying you like her, the fact that you said you don't like her when I didn't even ask is
"Nobody is saying you like her, the fact that you said you don't like her when I didn't even ask is more suspicious" Princeton said.
"Nobody is saying you like her, the fact that you said you don't like her when I didn't even ask is more suspicious" Princeton said. "Shut your trap" Landon glared and drank from his cup.

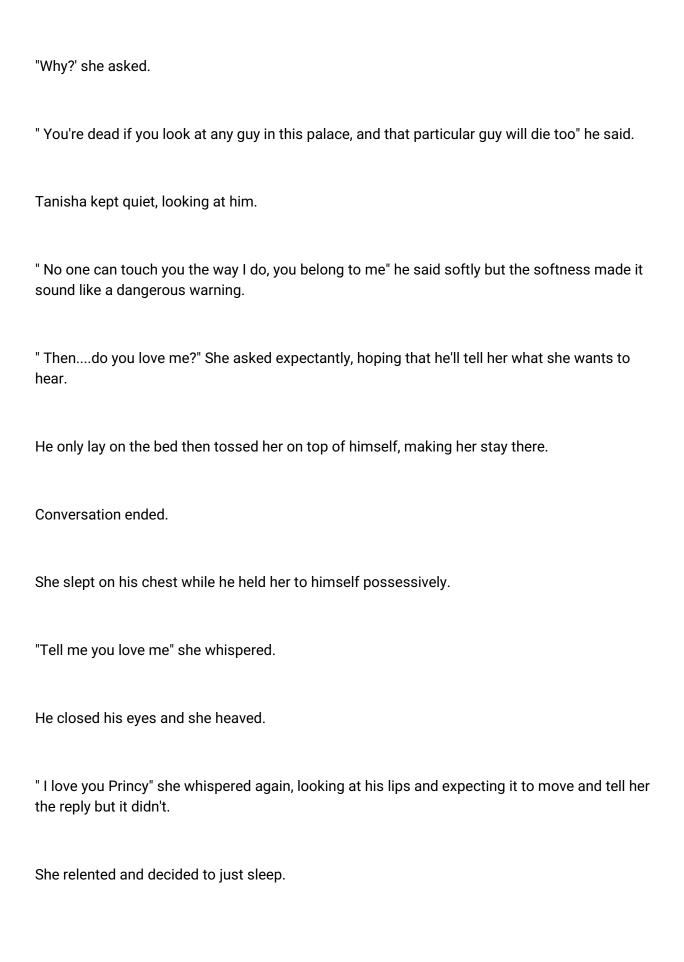

Tanisha drank all the beer left in her cup and gave the cup to Vignette before leaving with the girl.
She got there and truly there's a skinny girl stripping.
Her clothes are off already and she's about to take off her pants next, right in front of Princeton though he's not watching but the fact that it's in front of himshe blew up.
She rushed to the scene and tapped the Kiki girl
Kiki faced her and Tanisha smiled shortly before raising her leg at the speed of light to Kiki's face.
She kicked her face and Kiki flew back, landing on the counter.
The crashing sound made everyone turned to them.
Tanisha went for her again and grabbed her hair, pulling her up.
"Go strip for satan in hell, b*tch!" She yelled at her face and punched her face.
She bled massively and Tanisha kicked her tummy.
She flew to the back of the counter.
"Tanisha!"

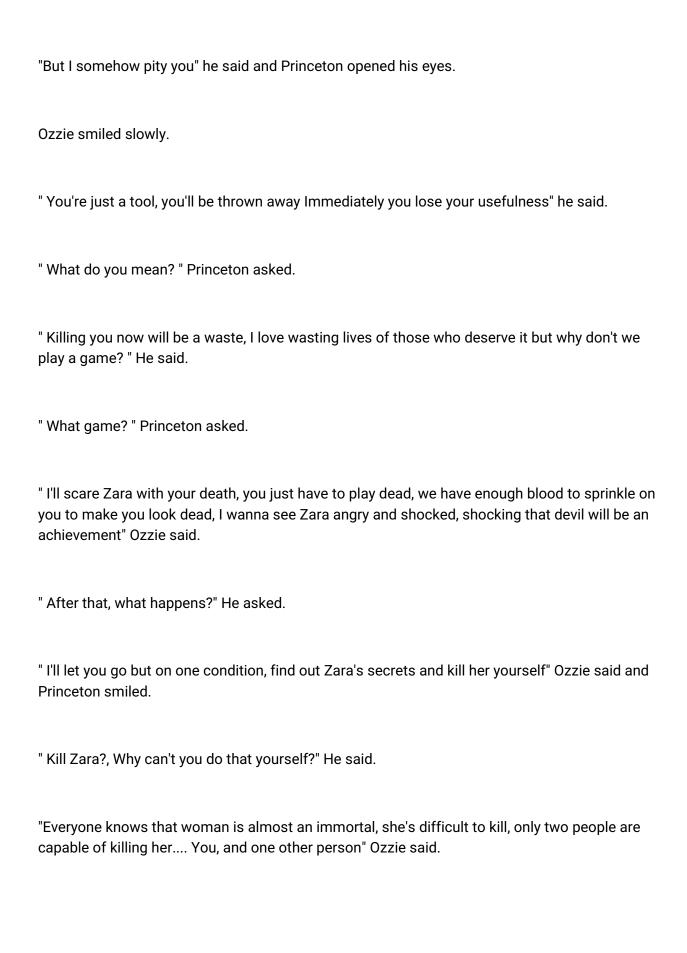

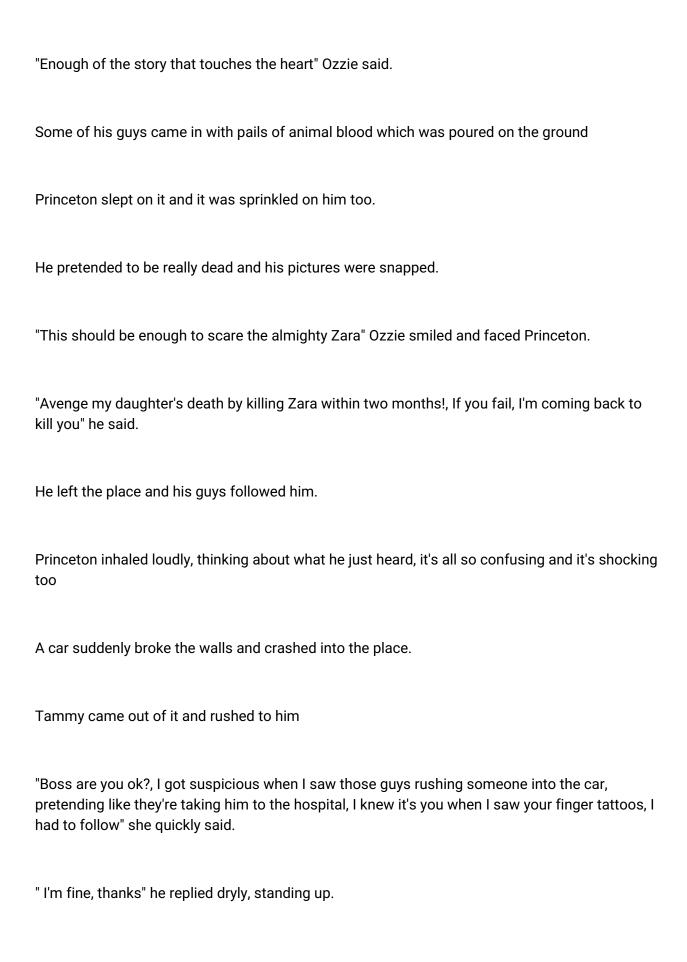

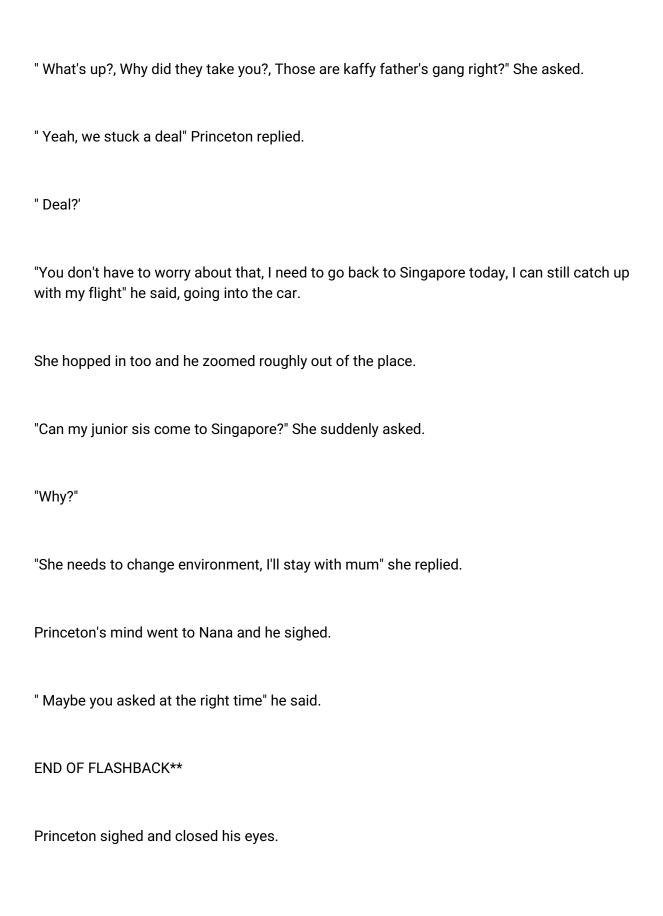

She closed her eyes and slept off faster than she expected.
Princeton opened his eyes and placed her back on the bed gently.
He pulled off her shoes and sat beside her, taking the piece of hair that's on her face away.
"If I tell you that, are you sure you won't leave me like Ava did?, I told her I love her countless times but still, she leftI can't make same mistake twice, I don't want you to leave me Nisha' he said, laying beside her.
She immediately turned sleepily to him and hugged him before sleeping off again.
He kissed her eyes and closed his eyes too, thinking about what godmother might be keeping.
His mind went back to his encounter with Ozzie.
FLASHBACK
"Goodbye" Ozzie said, pointing the gun directly at Princeton's forehead.
Princeton closed his eyes, counting the remaining seconds.
He has actually untied the rope his hands were tied back with.
He was about to stand and just end Ozzie's life when Ozzie suddenly dropped his gun.

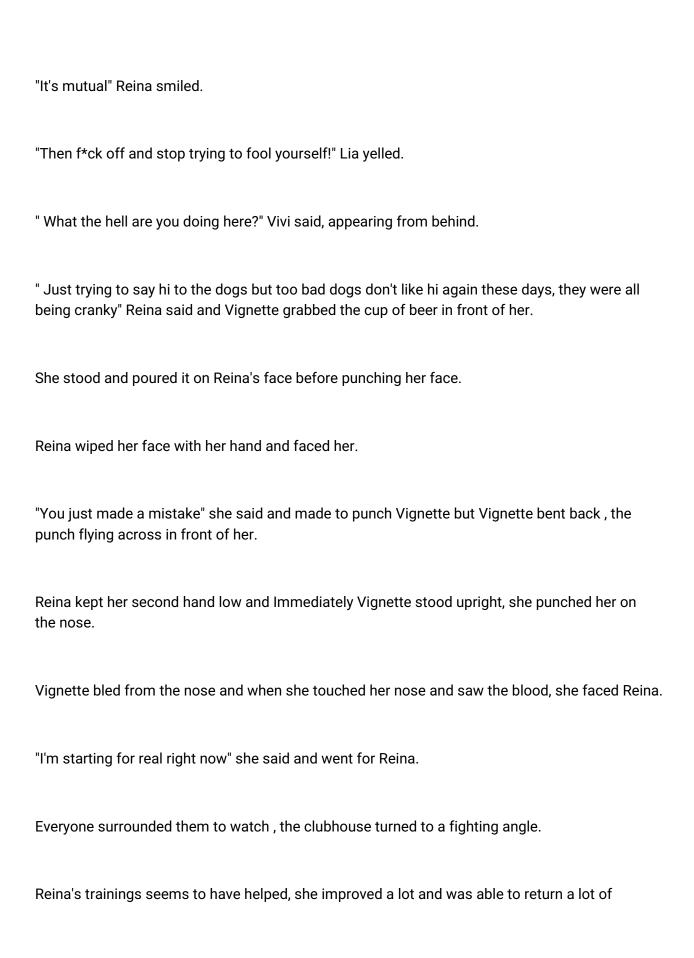

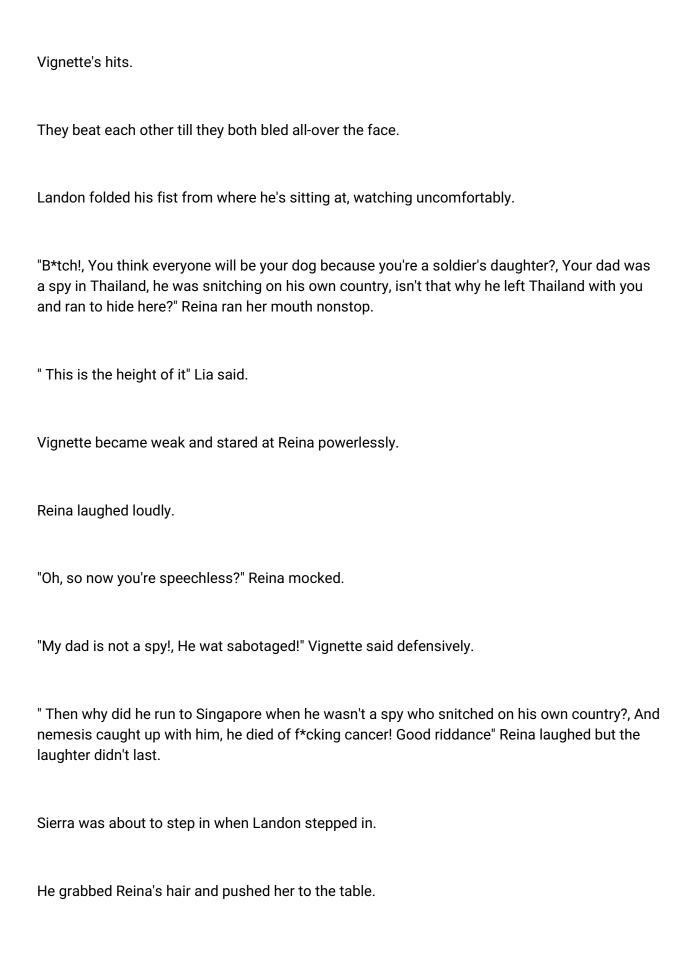

" Who's that one other person? " Princeton asked.
" Lia's twin sis" Ozzie replied.
" What nonsense are you talking about?, Lia came to the world alone" Princeton glared.
" And that's why I said you know nothing about her!, You know nothing about yourself too!, You know nothing about that palace!, You're just living there like an alpha who knows nothing about his pack, I already said you're a tool who'll be thrown away when you lose your usefulness!, You don't believe me? " Ozzie said.
Princeton stared speechlessly.
" Meet lady Macbeth, but she won't talk easily, Zara has something she's holding her with" Ozzie said.
" You even know lady Macbeth? " Princeton said.
" I know more than you think about that palace, I guess Zara told you guys that G-Dragon's dad killed godfather Farris" Ozzie said.
Princeton swallowed hard.
" G-Dragon's dad, Venom is dead, he died same day your Farris died that year" Ozzie said
Princeton's eyes widened.

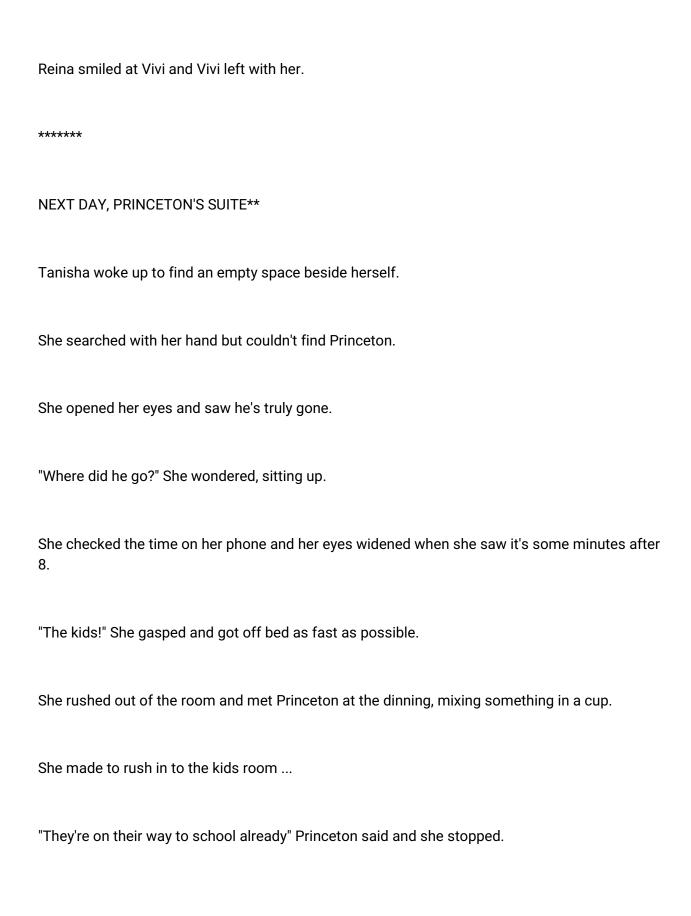

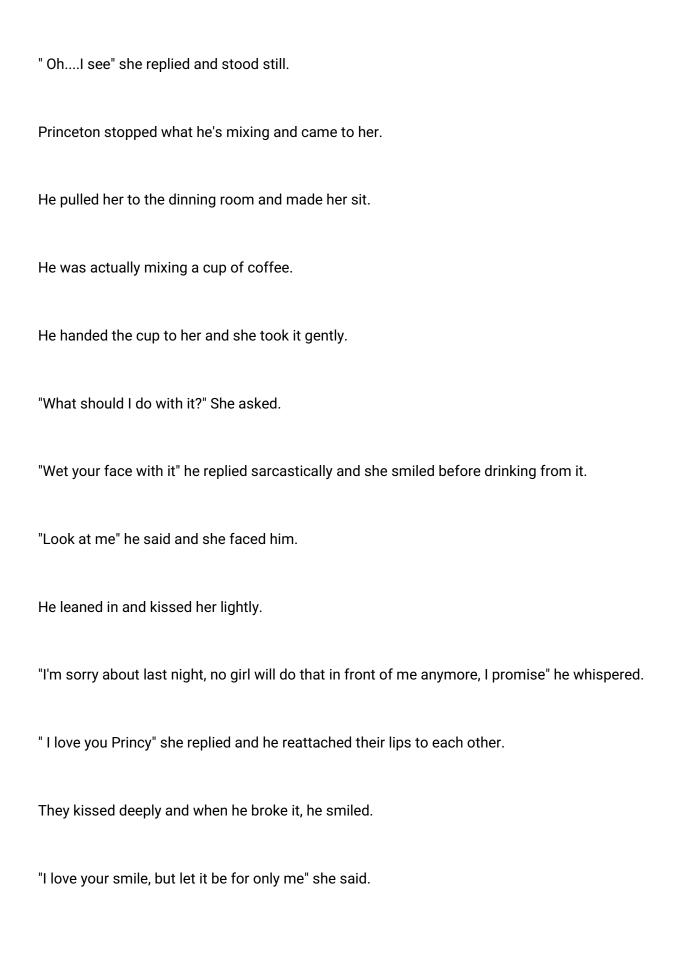

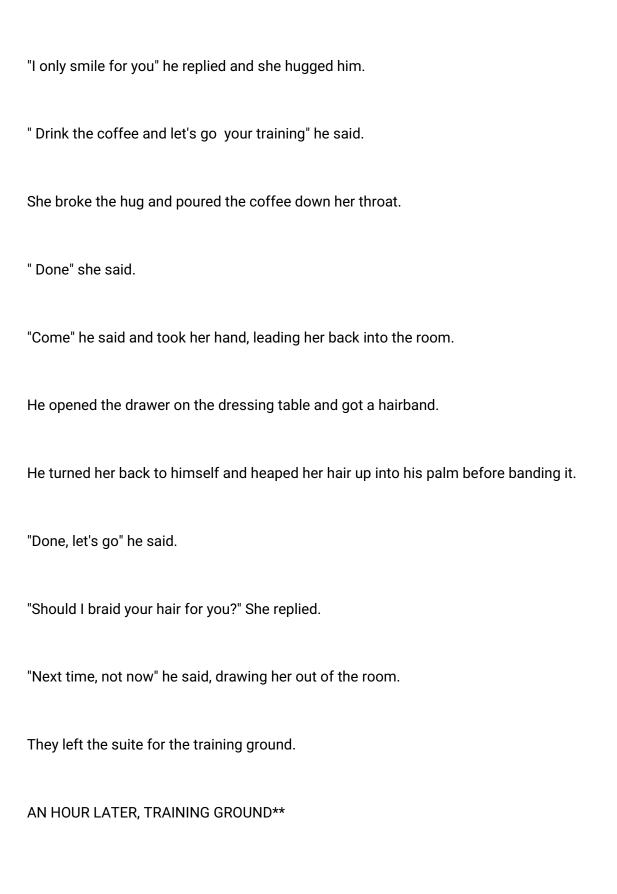

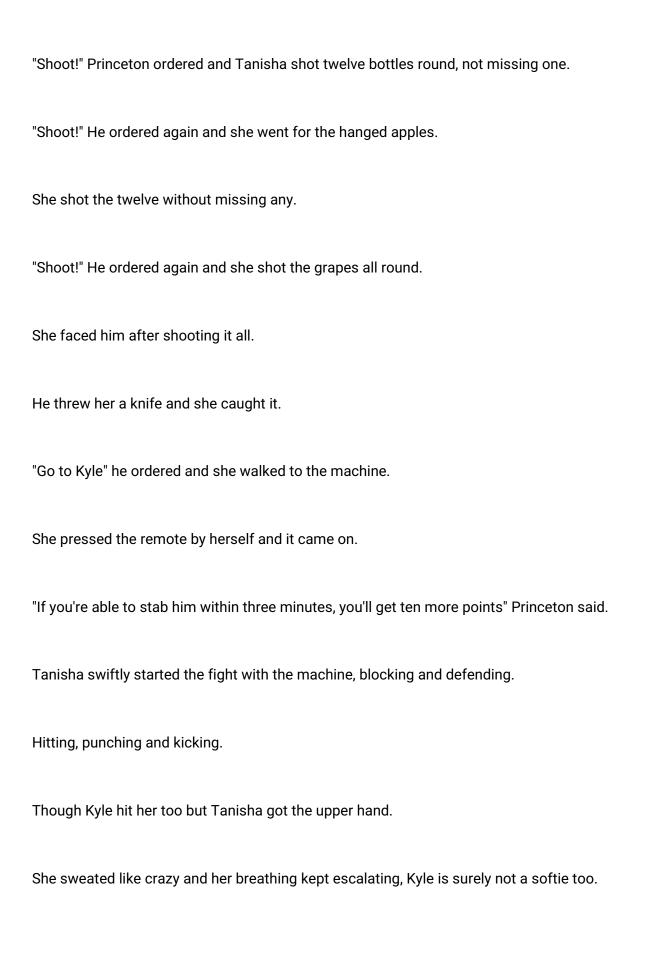

She crashed on one of the chairs and Landon punched her face heavily.
She spit blood immediately and was unable to fight back, not when Princeton warned everyone to treat Landon with respect too.
"How dare you say what you know nothing about in that manner" he demanded.
Reina looked at him without speaking.
Vignette rushed out of the place while Sierra and Lia rushed after her.
"Anytime you're caught saying such, you'll be deaddead" Landon said.
" I'm sorry master" Reina said slowly.
Landon let her go and left the clubhouse too.
"I know that feeling, she'll be so hurt" Brent said.
" Reina is a b*tch, a big one" Shay replied.
They left the house too and Vivi pulled Reina up from the chair.
"I told you the training will go well, you're close to beating Vignette, and now you have to find a way to provoke Tanisha too, I wanna see who's the boss between you two" she said.

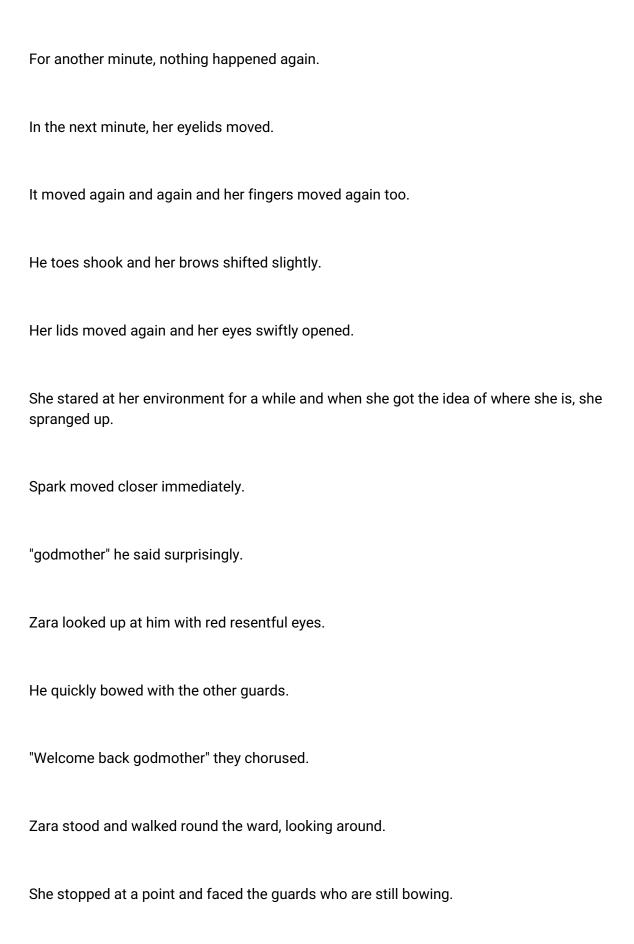

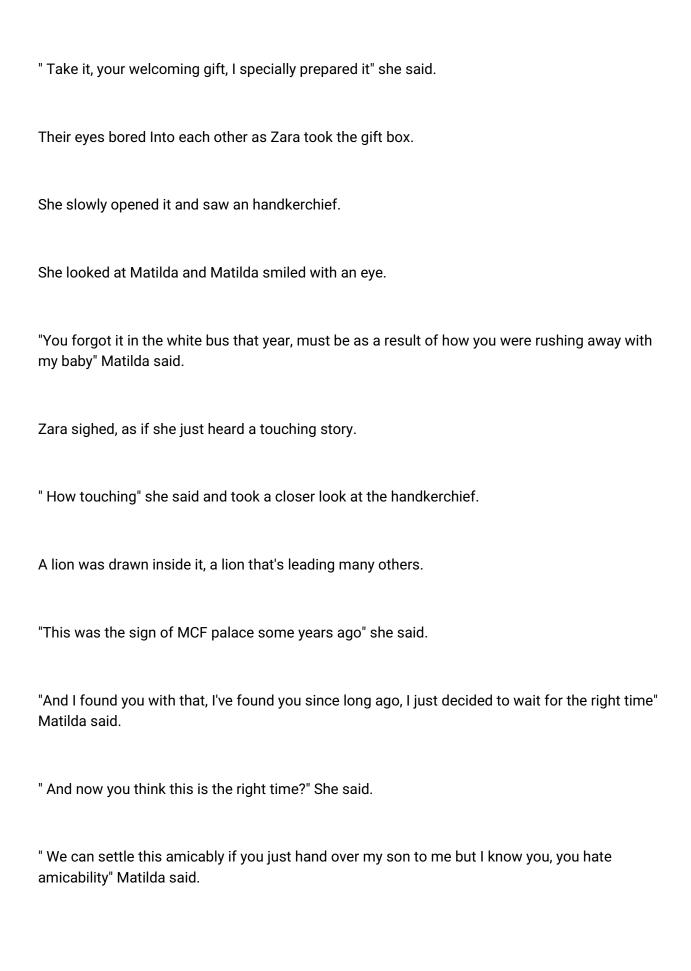

Landon walked out of the place slowly.
Sierra rushed after her and Lia made to rush after Landon too
She stumped on a stone and almost fell but an hand guided her back to her feet.
"Careful" Brent said, letting her go.
"Thanks" Lia smiled and went to Landon.
She blocked him.
"Don't take her words to heart, she's still agitated" she said.
Landon took the other way and left quietly.

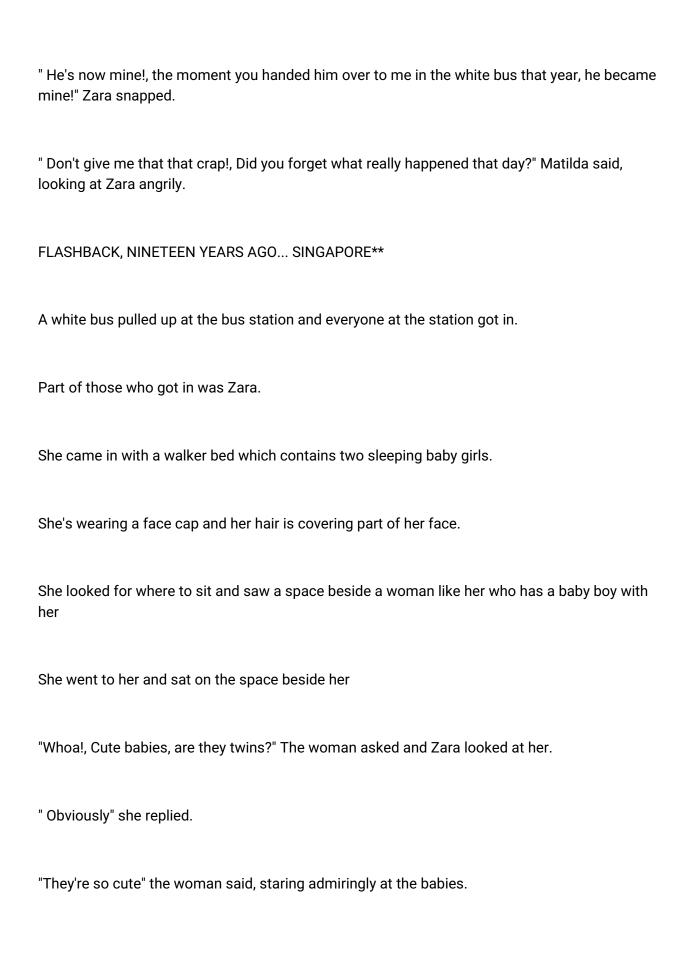

THREE DAYS LATER (THREE WEEKS SINCE ZARA WENT INTO COMA)
MATILDA SPECIALISTS HOSPITAL
Zara's fingers moved first.

"Yeah, I'm back" she smiled, rolling her eyes.

CHAPTER 58&59

"Yeah, I'm back" Zara rolled her red eyes.
"And that's why I brought your welcoming gift" Matilda's voice said from the door and Zara faced the door quickly.
Matilda is holding a gift box in her right hand, she's holding a smile on her face too.
"You?" Zara said.
"Yes it's me, don't be too surprised Zara" Matilda replied, pointing the gift box at her.

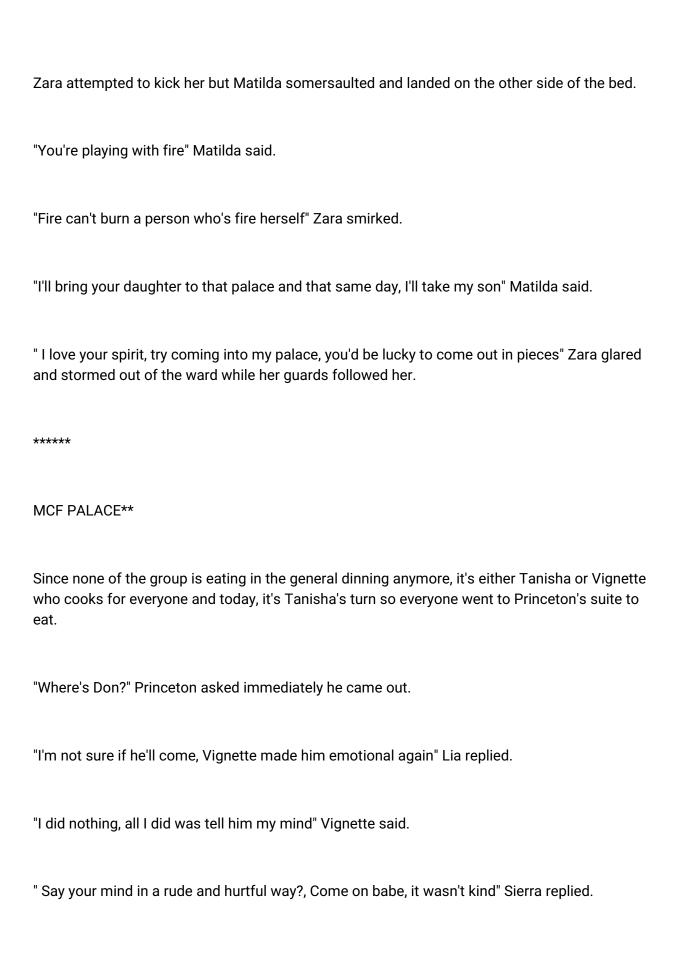

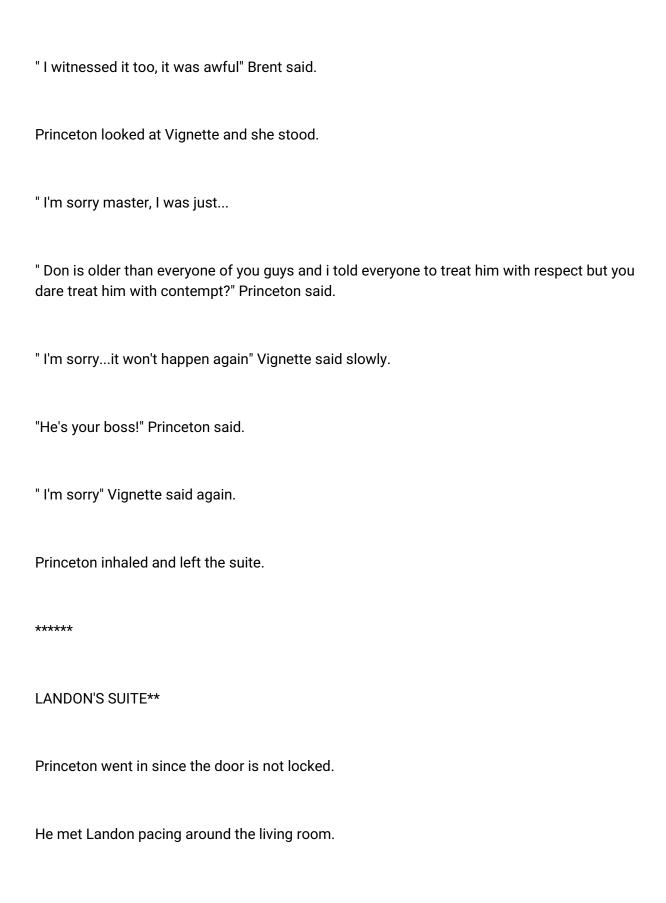

Zara looked at the baby boy beside the woman and her eyes twitched.
The boy looked her way and Zara smiled at him but he never smiled back, he remained blank.
Just what I'm looking for Zara thought.
"By the way I'm Matilda" the woman said.
"Oh, cool" Zara replied.
"And this is my son" Matilda said, stroking the hair of the cute boy.
" I like him" Zara said flatly.
"Thanks, he's so cute right?, He took after his dad but too bad we separated three years ago since I gave birth to him, I'm a doctor and he complains a lot about how busy I always get" Matilda said.
" Oh I see" Zara said, still looking at the boy.
Matilda suddenly got pressed and Zara noticed.
"Are you ok?" She asked.
"I need to ease myself" Matilda replied.

" Heard buses carry mobile toilets these days, check it out at the back" Zara replied.
" I need to really do that before I burst, please help me look after my cute boy" Matilda said, standing up.
" Sure" Zara replied.
" Mum is coming back alright?" Matilda kissed the boy's cheek before leaving.
Before she came out, the bus stopped at a station.
She came out some minutes later and almost went crazy when she couldn't find her son anymore.
She walker bed is still there but there's only one baby girl inside it.
"Madam, did you see a boy here?" She asked a woman.
"I entered the bus just now so I dunno" the madam replied.
" Oh no my baby!, My boy is missing!" Matilda screamed.
Everyone in the bus turned their attention to her and she ran up and down the bus madly.
"My baby!!" She screamed again and her mind remembered the woman.

"I should have known, she was acting strange and I was being a chatterbox, she took my baby and left one of her babies, someone help!, My baby!!" She shouted.
Tears trickled down her face immediately.
She saw an handkerchief on the woman's seat.
She took it and her tears dropped on it.
"My baby boy!!!!" She shouted tearfully again.
END OF FLASHBACK
"You took my boy away from me and left one of your twin babies, you've always been a devil Zara" Matilda said and Zara laughed.
" I searched for you like crazy, I couldn't find you, I found out last year that you're the godmother of a darned gangster group" Matilda said.
" The son is now mine anyways, he doesn't even know you and I'll make sure he never does" Zara laughed.
"You're joking Zara" Matilda spat.
" I'd rather kill than joke Matilda" Zara smiled and Matilda rushed to her.
She planned to hit Zara on the stomach but Zara left her spot and Matilda collided with the bed.

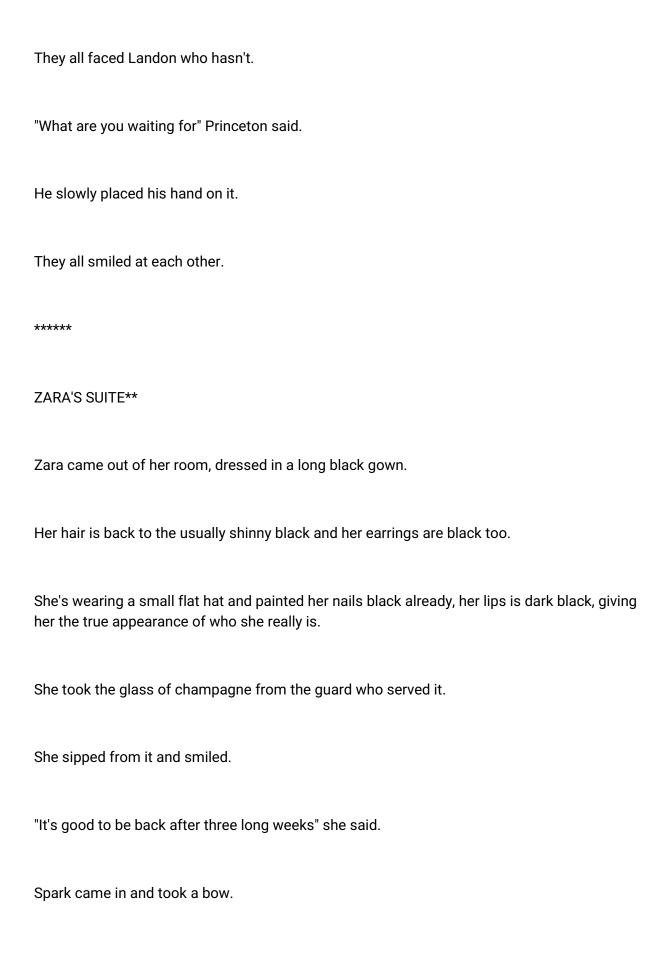

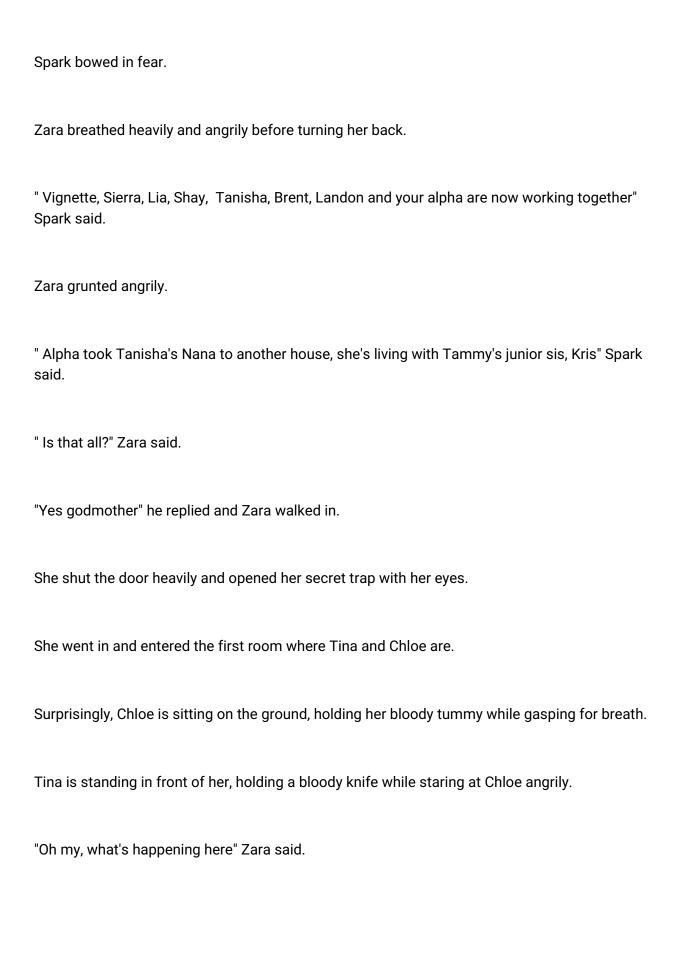

" So You spent all your childhood inside father's suite alone?" Princeton asked.
" The only one who always came to visit me is lady Macbeth, she has always been my guardian and that's why I can even give my life to make sure she's fine" Landon replied.
"We'll do this but you have to eat first then you can escort me to Matilda hospitals" Princeton said.
" To see Zara?, F*ck it I'm not coming" Landon replied.
"Zara was admitted in that hospital?" Princeton said surprisingly.
" Yeah, are you really going there to see her?" Landon asked.
" No, I got something on Nisha and I need to check it out" Princeton replied.
The loud uproar from outside stopped Landon from asking the next question.
They exchanged glances before leaving the suite.
They got out and saw what the numerous members are actually shouting about.
The witch is back.
She's just coming down from her car and despite the fact that she's just coming from the hospital, she still looks as dangerous and merciless as ever, she hasn't changed a bit.

She walked regally into her suite and everyone kept shouting her name, bowing down till she went in completely.
Landon and Princeton looked at each other before heading for Princeton's suite together.
"Don you came late" Brent said.
"Zara is back" Princeton said and everyone choked.
They started coughing except Vignette and Tanisha.
"Why is everyone shocked?, She's not the almighty anyways" Tanisha said and Vignette smiled.
" That's the spirit babe" she said.
" True, she's not the omnipotent, nothing to be scared about since everyone is straight already" Landon said.
" Whoa, Landon is talking different" Lia winked.
"But the fact that we decided not to fear the devil doesn't mean she won't wreck havoc so be prepared everyone, don't lax and don't lose guard, let's always help each other and work as a team" Princeton said, pointing an hand forward.
Tanisha placed hers on it next and everyone did the same.

" Feed me in about everything that happened during my absence" Zara ordered.
" Alpha and Tanisha got closer, he showed affection for her publicly some hours ago" he said.
" That'll end soon, just like Ava" Zara said.
"Alpha and Landon got close, like real brothers" .
"Really?, How interesting, they'll split so far I'm back" Zara said.
" Tanisha and Vignette started training and they're quiet good".
" A slave will always be a slave, I might decide to recruit Vignette but Tanisha will either die or leave" Zara said.
" Alpha released all the slaves" .
The glass of champagne fell from Zara and she faced Spark.
"He did what?"
"Freed all the slaves" he replied and Zara slapped him soundly.
"And you allowed him?, I thought you're useful?, Over forty slaves!" She yelled.

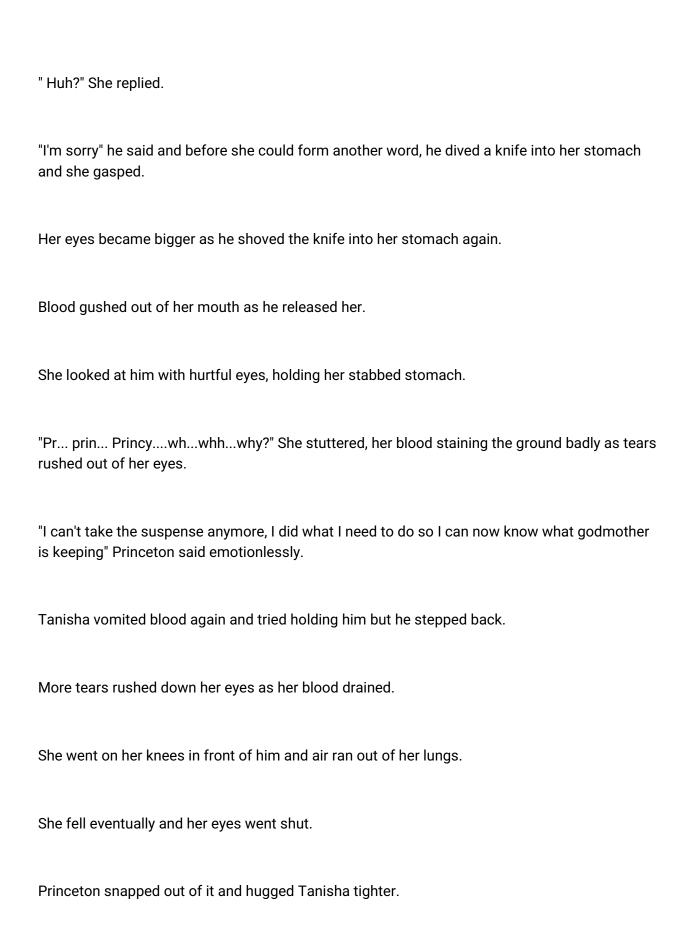

Tina faced her and Zara smiled.
Somehow, the merciless look on her face excites her.
"I told her I wanna watch one more combat but she refused, I stabbed her when I got angry" Tina said, throwing down the knife.
Zara laughed so loud that it echoed.
"Chloe some accolades for you, just the way I want it" she said, stroking little Tina's hair fondly.
Chloe continued groaning in pains.
"I'll do the favor of treating the wound, you can't die yet, you still have to train her more" Zara said.
Some minutes later, she came out of the room and entered the second room.
Her arms went behind her as she went in, looking at the man on the bed, she touched his face.
" If only you agreed with me, if only you didn't belittle me, you wouldn't be in this condition right now" she said and took her hand off his face.
" You'll be waking up from coma soon, I might just have to kill you completely by then" she said, looking up from him.

"You aren't dead? You have a strong life" Zara sat.
" You both should start working in here tommorow, as my female guards" she said and Princeton came in with Landon and Lia.
Vivi and Reina left.
"How dare you free the slaves just because I was absent!" Zara spat.
" Cos I wanted to" Princeton replied.
" I wanted you to die but at the same time I wanted you to live so you could tell us what you're keeping" Lia said.
" Is Lia really a twin?, If that's the case where's her twin?, What are you keeping about Princeton and me!, Why did you lie to us that it was Venom who killed our dad whereas you were the one who killed Venom?, Where did you bury father at?" Landon asked all at once.
Zara smiled.
" My kids grew up, you found out a lot" she said, touching Princeton's shoulder.
Princeton grabbed her and turned her back to himself, trapping her.
He pointed his gun to her head.
"We just asked questions" he said.

"Do you expect me to talk this way? Will you kill me and stand a chance of not getting answers forever?" Zara said.
Princeton pushed her away and she echoed a laughter.
" Secrets about Farris, about you three, about Mina and Sanaare all in my head, if you really want me to speak, then Princeton will have to kill Tanisha first" Zara said and walked in swiftly.

PRINCETON'S SUITE
Princeton walked in slowly, thinking about what the witch just said.
The fact that Zara acted that way is an evidence and she's really keeping something big from them.
Tanisha came out of the kids room .
"You're back, what did the witch say?" She asked, coming to him.
Immediately she got to him, he engulfed her in his arms, hugging her tightly.
"Princy what's wrong?" She asked, hugging him back slowly.
" Nisha" he whispered.

It was actually an imagination.
"Hey you're hugging me so tight I'm suffocating" she said.
He broke the hug slowly and held her face.
"I'd rather kill myself than let a scratch appear on your body again Nisha" he said, looking at her.
Tanisha continued staring at him as he continued caressing her face.
He leaned in and her eyes went shut when he claimed her lips in the softest kiss they've ever shared.

CHAPTER 60&61

Tanisha didn't understand why he suddenly kissed her that way but all the same, she responded
Princeton carried her in his arms while still feasting gently on her lips.
Her legs travelled to his waist and she sent her fingers into his hair.
The softness and gentleness got so much that she started craving for more.
She hardened it herself and Princeton took over immediately, both forgetting that they're actually still in the living room.
Tanisha started moaning sharply as his palms rubbed possessively on her ass.
Her moans made him hard and he made to pull off her top but her hand stopped him, she broke the kiss.
"We're in the living room" she whispered.
Princeton started taking her in but the kids appeared.
"Dad mum, we found this" Sana said, showing them a picture of three cute babies.
"They look so much alike, I think they're triplets, do you know them?" Mina asked and Princeton quickly dropped Tanisha, he snatched the picture from Sana.

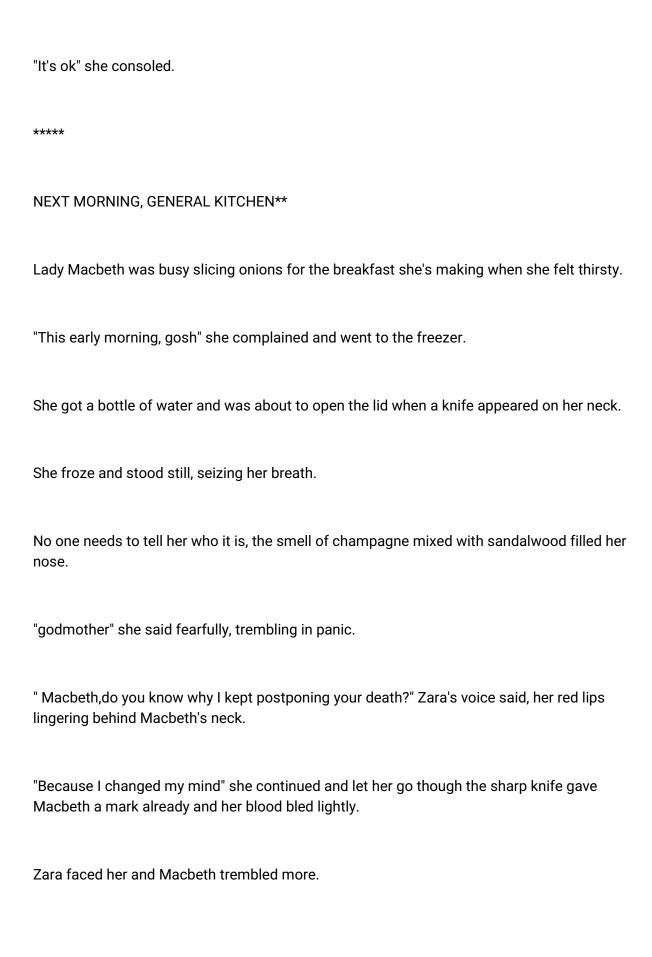

Princeton held her althrough and when they got to the door of the ward meant for her, he had to let her go.
"Prince don't leave don't leave me" she gasped, looking at him.
"Ava he can't follow you in, you have to do this alone ok?" doctor Darrel assured.
"Just try your best for me and our baby, I love you Ava, very much" Princeton said and kissed her forehead .
" Prince Prince" She kept calling till she was taken in completely.
Princeton paced the hallway alone, almost ten times per sec.
He dabbed his face with his palm worriedly from time to time.
He kept looking at the door of the ward and he kept his ears at alert for the cry of a baby.
An hour went by and his patience shrunk.
He kept waiting with the little bit of patience in him.
An hour and thirty minutes went by and he lost it completely.
He was about to barge into the ward when Darrell himself came out.

"How's it?, How's Ava doing?" He asked hastily.
" Princeton seriously it's critical, she's losing a lot of blood and she hasn't delivered, she just kept bleeding" Darrell replied.
" What should I do?, Nothing must happen to Ava and our baby, nothing Darrell please do something!" Princeton said desperately.
" Right now we're in need of blood, you know her blood type so you should go source for it" Darrell said.
" You know I'm a universal donor, I can donate for her" he replied quickly.
" Princeton are you crazy?, You've not recovered from your illness, fully, you don't even have enough blood in your body and you wanna donate?, You need blood yourself so donating for her will mean death for you" Darrel replied.
" I don't care!, So far she lives and our baby lives, Darrell
"You don't have enough blood to donate listen to me!, We need much blood, blood!, One of my nurses will follow you, you have to get it here within thirty minutes else the unimaginable might happen" Darrel said and Princeton dashed out of the hospital without waiting for the nurse.
He started going round hospitals and most of them declined.
Not until he got to the fifth one Matilda hospitals.

The head doctor Matilda was kind enough to sell enough blood for her.
He rushed back to the palace clinic with it but surprisingly, Ava gave birth already.
On the bed are three baby girls.
"Congratulations Princeton, she gave birth to triplets miraculously after you left" Darrel smiled.
"Where's my Ava?" He asked hastily.
"The nurses are taking care of her, we'll start the transfusion once she has been cleaned up" Darrell replied and Princeton walked to the three cute babies.
"I'm a father, a father at eighteen" he said, admiring his three babies.
" Yeah, a father of fourI mean three cute babies, a great achievement" Darrel said awkwardly.
" My camera" Princeton said and quickly got it.
He snapped their pictures happily and won't stop talking about how lucky he is.
"I'll go check on the nurses taking care of Ava" Darrell said and left the ward.
"You girls look so identical and I don't even know who's who butok your hair is more curly than the others, you're Mina, your face is more round, you're Sana, and you have the longest lashes, you're Yuna" he said and kissed them all after he finished naming them.

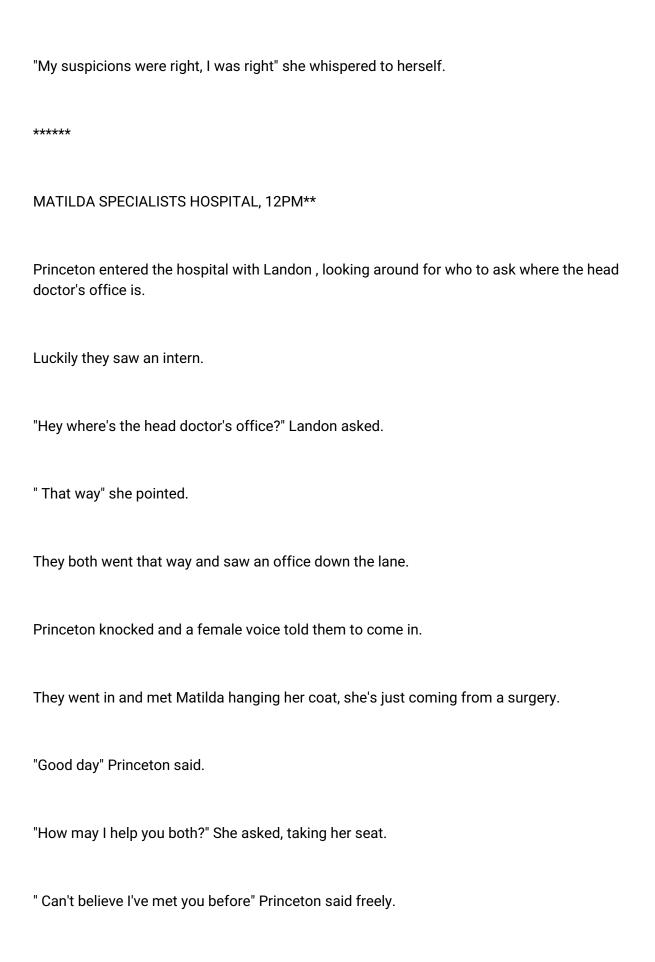

"I changed my mind, killing you won't be fun, but making your son do that will be more fun" she smiled.
" Nono godmother" Macbeth shivered.
"No?, You should have turned Farris down when he gave you the offer of giving him a baby" Zara glared.
" I was raped, godfather raped me and you knew" Macbeth said and Zara slapped her.
"Then after that you got pregnant with his child, you carried his bastard which you could have just aborted but Farris assured you that you'll be fine,he fell head over heels for you and you fell for him too to my annoyance!, But where's Farris today?, He's at the tip of my fingerting ting!" Zara smiled wickedly.
" You never wanted to give birth, you refused to give Farris a child and that's why he raped me and made me carry his child" Macbeth said.
" Shut your crappy trap!" Zara yelled, kicking her face.
Macbeth bled from her mouth.
"You know everything about this palace, but any day you open your mouth and tell anyone, your son will die" Zara said and rolled her eyes as usual before leaving.
" Zara what have I ever done to you!!!" Macbeth cried loudly.
Tanisha rushed in.

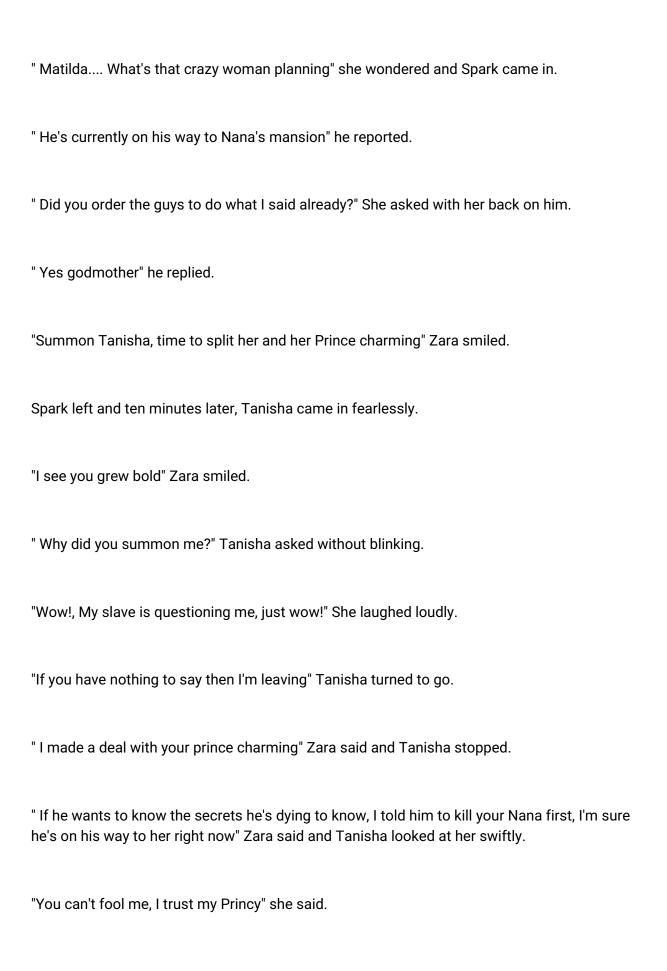

"When was that?" She asked.
" Five years ago, the young guy who was desperate for blood for his girlfriend" he replied and Matilda looks surprised.
" MG, can't believe it's you, the world is indeed small, are you here for blood again?" Matilda asked.
" Why did you abandon your daughter for her grandmother?" Landon asked straight.
Matilda stood.
" How did you
"How could you be so heartless, don't tell me your profession is more important than your daughter" Princeton said.
Matilda started walking slowly to them, not taking her eyes off them.
"Do you know her?, Do you know Nana?, Who are you guys?" She asked.
" We're from MCF palace, and your daughter is with us in the palace" Princeton said.
" Her dad wasn't able to pay his debt to godmother before his death so godmother took her in as a slave" Landon said.

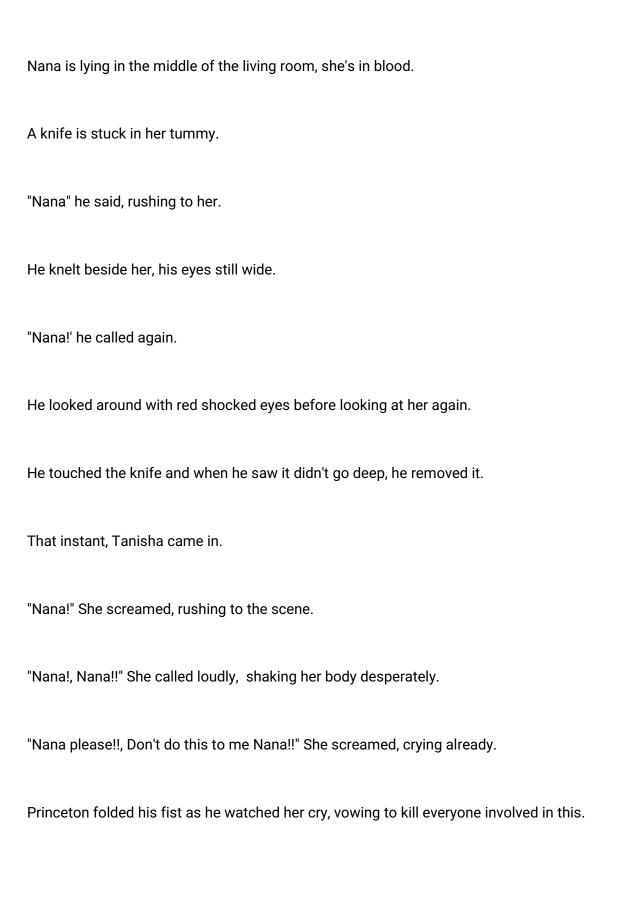

Matilda sat on the ground and cried more.
"My baby boy grew so much without me, he doesn't even know me I missed you Kingston I missed you" she cried.
" Are you gonna hurt Tanisha? " Landon asked as he got in the car with Princeton.
"I'd rather die, and don't tell me you dunno that even if I kill Nisha, Zara will still remain obstinate" Princeton replied.
" She's giving me headache" Landon sighed.
" I'm going to Nana's place, will you follow me?" Princeton asked.
Landon glared at him and he smiled.
"Ok I'll just drop you at the main road, I'll go alone" Princeton said and drove.

MCF PALACE, ZARA'S SUITE
After staring at the anklet with her for a while, she threw it in the burner and it burned up.
"Even if the other baby still has the anklet, so far Lia's own is gone, no means of identification anymore, they're not identical anyways" she smiled .

"How rich, you just sounded like another version of Juliet from Williams Shakespeare" Zara laughed and turned serious.
" In the next ten minutes, she'll be dead" Zara said, mimicking Princeton
She walked in, laughing loudly.
Though Tanisha didn't want to believe but the chilly air which blew immediately gave her an intuition.
She started sprinting, thinking about what she should really believe
A minute later, she started running till she got to the park.
She started her driving lessons just yesterday thankfully.
She got into one of Princeton's cars and drove out of the palace roughly.

NANA'S MANSION
When Princeton got there and felt weird, he knew something is not right immediately.
He rushed in and beads of sweat covered his brows at what he's seeing.

The guy is bleeding and unconscious.

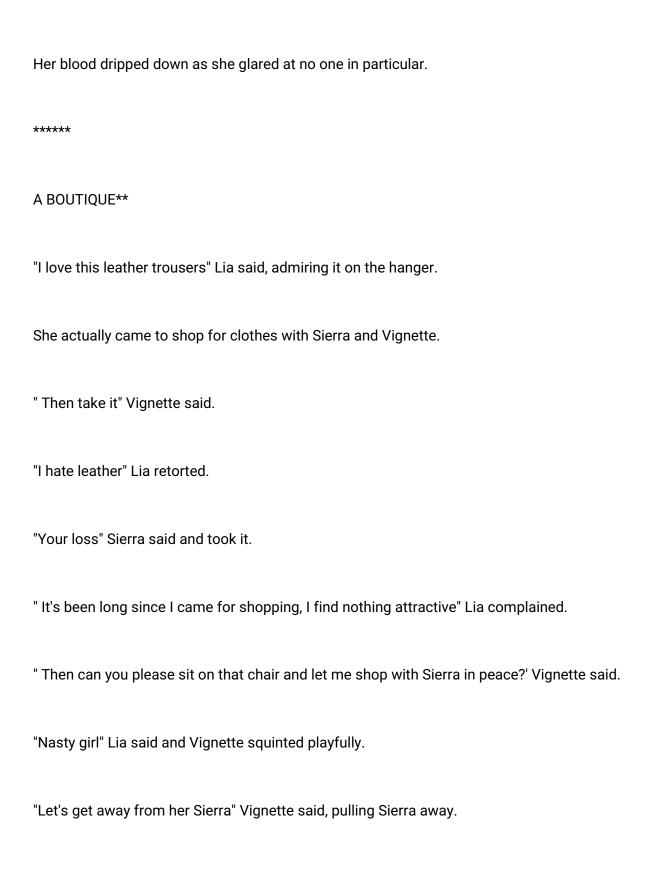

"What exactly happened?" Princeton asked.
"They suddenly broke in when I was in my room, I heard their sounds from there and I had to peep from the rails, I saw that they've stabbed Nana and I got really scared, one of them sighted me and I ran back to my room, I locked the door and he kept banging on it, telling me to come out, I got the flower vase on my bedstand and opened the door carefully, I was able to crash it on his head before he realized" she explained and rushed to Nana.
" Nana" she lamented fearfully.
"She'll be fine And this guy" Princeton said, looking at the dead guy.
"She's one of Zara's hitmen" he said.
"She dare hurt my Nana? " Tanisha said.
" Let's get Nana to the hospital first, and you might get to see your mother" Princeton said and Tanisha faced him.
" My My mother? '
" Yes, I managed to find her somehow" he replied and she swallowed nothing.
Princeton carried Nana out of the house and they drove her to the hospital.
She was quickly taken in and attended to.

" Congratulations, she seems to trust you more than I think" Zara smiled.
" Yeah I do, so stop your dirty tricks, it'll only make me love him more and for hurting my Nana, you'll get your payback I promise" Tanisha said boldly.
" What will you possibly do to me" Zara said.
"I'll kill you, I promise I'll kill you!!" Tanisha shouted.
" Many others shouted same thing but you know what?, They all ended up dieing in my hands" Zara smiled.
" I'm not many others, I'm Tanisha LeBron, and I'm saying for hurting my grandma, I'll kill you and if you touch my Princy, if you try to hurt him I'll hurt you twice as much!" Tanisha replied boldly, taking Zara aback.
Zara started walking towards them
"How dare you threaten me! You're my slave!" She glared dangerously.
Tanisha made to reply but Princeton stepped in.
"She's not your slave, she's mine!, My girl" he said and Zara grinned.
"Wait till she leaves you like Ava did, you'll know there's nothing like feelings" she said.
" I'll prove you wrong " Princeton said and faced Tanisha.

He grabbed her waist and kissed her lips right there.
Zara froze on her spot, looking at them angrily while all the veins on her neck stood out, her eyes turned red in minutes as they kissed in front of her.
"Princeton!!!!" She yelled.
Princeton hardened the kiss and started caressing Tanisha.
Tanisha released badass moans and Zara's eyes became redder, she folded her hands as her whole body shook in anger.
Princeton broke the kiss and faced her.
"You can die with the secrets, I'll find out myself" he said.
"We'll find out" Tanisha smiled and they both left her suite.
Zara took the bottle of champagne on the tray and threw it on the wall.
It smashed on it and broke , splashing it's content around.
She went for the shattered pieces and took one of it.
She folded her palms on it tightly, wounding herself knowingly.

"Middle finger for you both!" Lia shouted after them.
"I'll just shop alone" she smiled and started picking bum shorts, thinking of Shay.
"I should wear bum shorts frequently these days" she said, picking more of it.
" Hey little Lia" a familiar voice said behind her and she looked back to see G-Dragon's girlfriend.
"Sephora?" She said.

Erotic scene ahead
EVENING, VIVI'S APARTMENT
"F*ck!, Toy I love your d*ck, give it to me harder,harder choke me!" Reina screamed as Toy's rod cruised her p*ssy.
"I'll make sure your p*ssy gets addicted to my d*ck b*tch!, Scream my name louder!, Scream it!" Toy said, spanking her ass harshly.
She's actually on all fours and he's f*cking her from the back.
"Oh jeez!

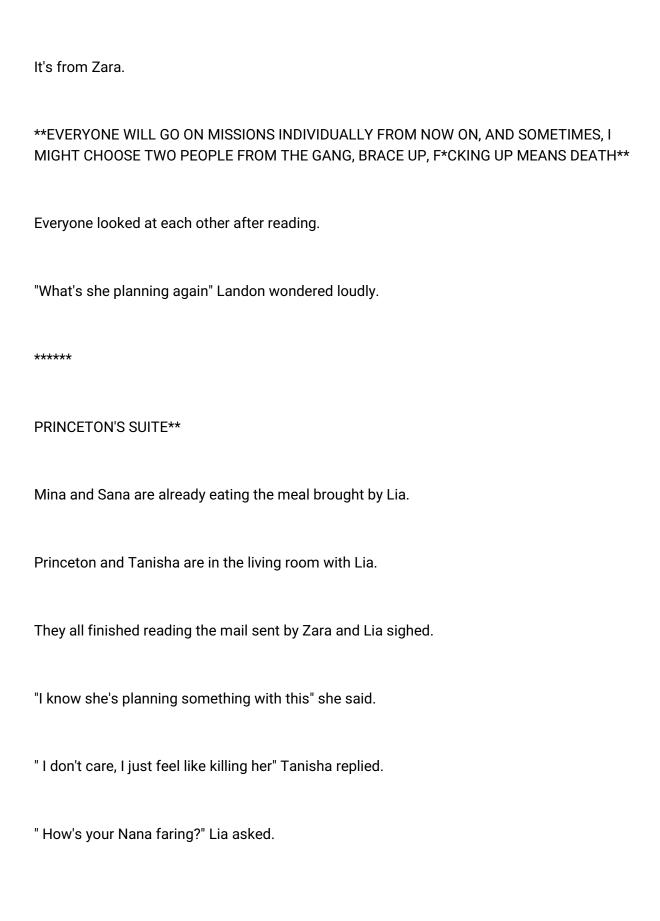

"Toy!, More pleaseI want more, deeper! Just make me insane!" Reina screamed again.
Toy held her ass cheeks tightly, ramming more roughly into her.
She held the sheets with her teeth as he hit her on the right spot, no doubt his name fits him, he's indeed a s*x toy.
Toy pulled out of her and she faced him, kneeling in front of him after they got down from the bed, taking his bleeding monster in her hands.
She rubbed the tip expertly and he released massively, she took him into her mouth and almost got choked as she licked him, sucking fast.
"Damn" Toy groaned, holding her by her head and pushing it more closely to his member.
"I want you to choke on it b*tch, choke!" He ordered and she sucked faster, bumping her head up and down.
She really choked and Toy laughed.
"I love it when this happens" he said.
Reina looked up at him as he released her head.
She stood and sat on the bed, widening her legs.
"Lick me clean" she said.

Toy smirked proudly and came to her, he sucked her bbs shortly and smiled.
"Shouldn't we shift this till some other time?, Vivi will soon be back" he said.
Reina kissed him hard.
" Let's meet at the containers spot tommorow, 7pm" she whispered.
" Sure" he smiled naughtily and stood.
He dressed up and Reina finger f*cked herself as he did.
He looked at her and smiled.
He removed her fingers from her nether region and licked it.
"Sweet" he smiled and stood upright.
"See you tommorow" he said and left.
Reina looked at herself.
"I need more f*ck, damnit!"

VIGNETTE'S APARTMENT
It's her turn to cook today so the gang are all in her house already.
Everyone except Tanisha and Princeton.
"Someone should take Mina and Sana's food to them" Vignette said after she finished setting the food on the table.
"I'll do that" Lia said and took the warmer containing the food.
She stood and Brent's eyes widened, staring at her.
She's wearing one of the bum shorts and despite the fact that her b*tt is not well endowed, her fresh thighs is too seductive.
Normally she wears bum shorts but not without net body socks, but now she's wearing it ordinarily for the first time.
"Damn" he muttered.
"What?" Shay asked beside him.

"Nothing" he replied as Lia walked out of the apartment.

Landon came in and Vignette sighed as he sat.
"Don you came to this apartment despite knowing that Vignette is here?" Brent asked.
" Not like she build it" Landon replied and Vignette sneered.
She served and they started eating.
"Tastes better" Landon said.
"Whoa, Landon complemented" Sierra smiled.
"Has Lia told you guys that she might be a twin? Landon asked.
"Twin?" Brent said.
"How's that possible?" Vignette said.
"I dunno too, it hasn't been confirmed though" Landon replied.
" Another frustrating secret" Brent said.
" When are we going on another mission?" Brent asked.
They all got mails immediately and everyone checked their phones.

" Kris said she's better, I'll go see her tommorow morning" Tanisha replied.
" We need to locate father's suite in this palace, it's hidden somewhere and even Landon can't locate it anymore" Princeton said.
"Is there something we need to know in his suite?" Lia asked.
"Probably" Lia replied and Princeton looked at her.
" You look hot without the body socks" he said and Tanisha curved her lip.
" Princeton just complemented me whoa!" Lia gushed and made to hug him but Tanisha sat on Princeton laps before she could do that.
"Your jealousy is reaching the heavens" Lia smirked.
"Thanks" Tanisha said, hugging her face to his chest.
"Cuties I'm leaving!" Lia waved to the twins and left.
She got out and her mind went to her encounter with Sephora earlier.
"I did the right thing, I just want this palace to crumble, I want it to end" she muttered and walked away
Tanisha looked up at Princeton and he sighed.

"You look sad, why?" She asked.
"There's a lot to be sad for, your Nana is unconscious in the hospital, Zara and lady Macbeth won't talk, and your mum
"You don't need to talk about my mum again, I think I don't wanna meet her anymore" Tanisha interrupted.
" Why?" Princeton asked surprisingly.
"I changed my mind" she said.
"You wanted to really meet her" he said.
"Not anymore, I don't think she deserves to see me after abandoning me" she replied, scooting closer to Princeton on the couch.
Princeton sighed and held her tight.
"I think it'll rain tonight" he said, feeling the chilly air.
" I'm not scared anymore, even if heavy thunderstorms happens, so far you're with me I'm safe" she said and he smiled shortly before kissing her hair, rubbing it with his palms afterwards.
"I love you Princy" she whispered, kissing his chest.

MATILDA SPECIALISTS HOSPITAL

"The first patient was involved in an accident, doctor Daniel is in surgery with him already, assisted by doctor Paisley" an intern reported to Matilda as she walked through the hallway.
She has been crying at home since but she suddenly decided that maybe tears won't solve anything so she came after ignoring many calls from the other doctors.
"The second one?" She asked.
"The cancer patient who refused to get surgery, he suddenly agreed when his life was about to slip off, he has a fifty fifty chance of survival" the intern reported.
" Prepare the second theater for surgery and inform the surgeon Bim, he's assisting me" Matilda said
" Yes doctor" the intern replied and left.
Matilda entered her office and hung her coat, she changed into the theater uniform before coming out.
She entered the theater and she was dressed up.
"Scalpel" she said and it was handed to her.
She started surgery immediately.

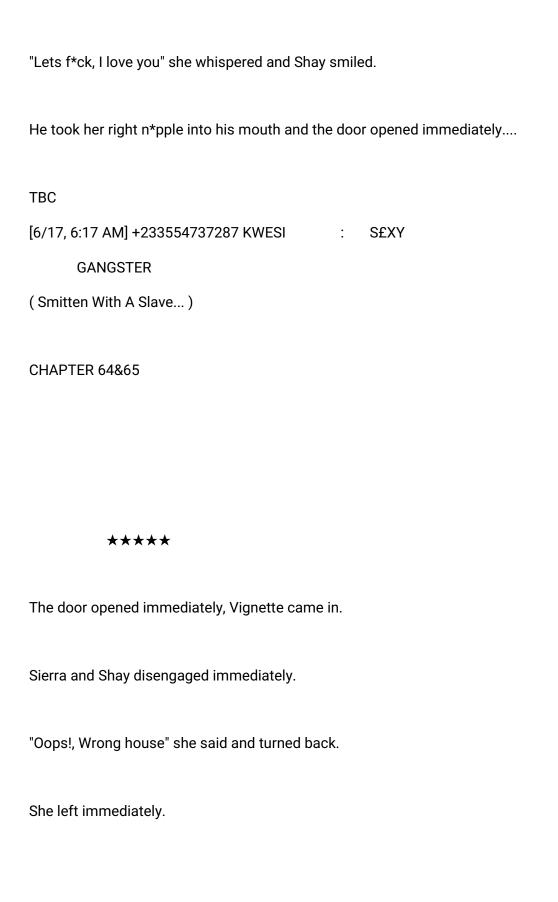

It took just an hour and what looked impossible was done by her.
She finished surgery and left the theater.
"How many new patients during my absence?" She asked after cleaning up.
" Twelve, one was brought by a gangster though" the intern replied and she stopped.
" Which ward?" She asked, thinking it's Zara again.
" Fifteen, VIP" the intern replied and Matilda went to the ward.
She opened the door roughly but was surprised to see Nana on the bed.
Kris is beside her.
"Head doctor?" Kris stood.
"Nana!" Matilda said, rushing to her.
Nana opened her eyes slowly.
"Nana you're awake" Kris said , going closer.

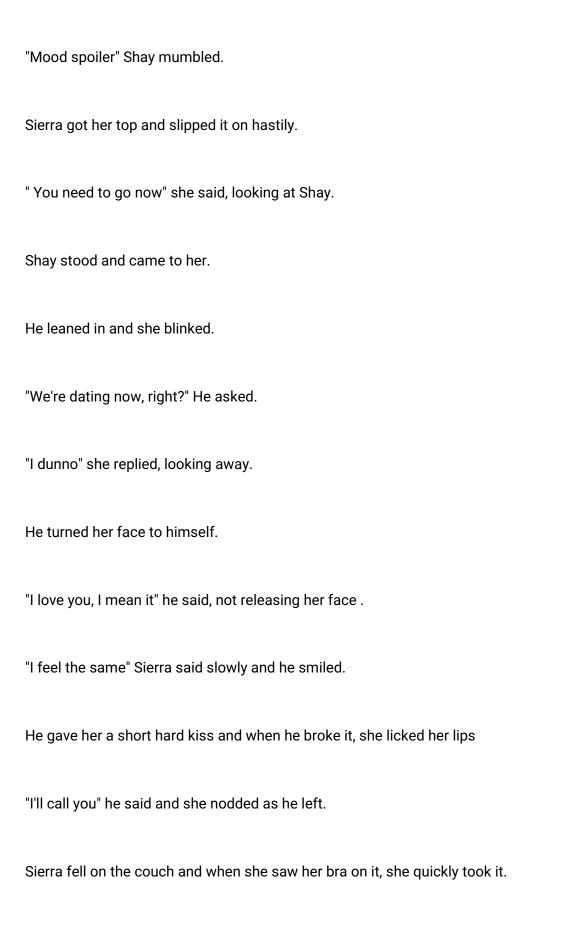

"Tilda" Nana said weakly.
"Yeah it's me, where have you been and how did you land here" Matilda asked.
Kris stared at them in confusion.
" I should be asking that, where have you been?, How could you be so cruel Tilda?" Nana said disappointedly.
" Nana it wasn't my fault" Matilda went on her knees.
"Then is it mine?, You gave birth to a baby boy and after annulling your marriage with my son, you left with the baby according to the court's decision but four years later you left a baby girl at our doorstep with a note that we should take her as our son and take care of her, where did you keep my son Matilda, where's my grandson" Nana said and coughed.
Matilda started crying profusely.
"Nana i promise to get your baby back, I
" I took care of the baby girl you dropped like my own, Eros your late husband treasured her a lot but still, he laments about his baby boy everyday, I miss Kingston, bring him back Matilda" Nana said and turned her back on her.
" Nana
"Anytime you bring him back, then I'll be ready to talk to you You can hi Kwesi on+233554737287 to be added to story readers room for more stories .heartless woman" Nana interrupted and Matilda sat on the ground, hiccuping and sniffing in her tears.

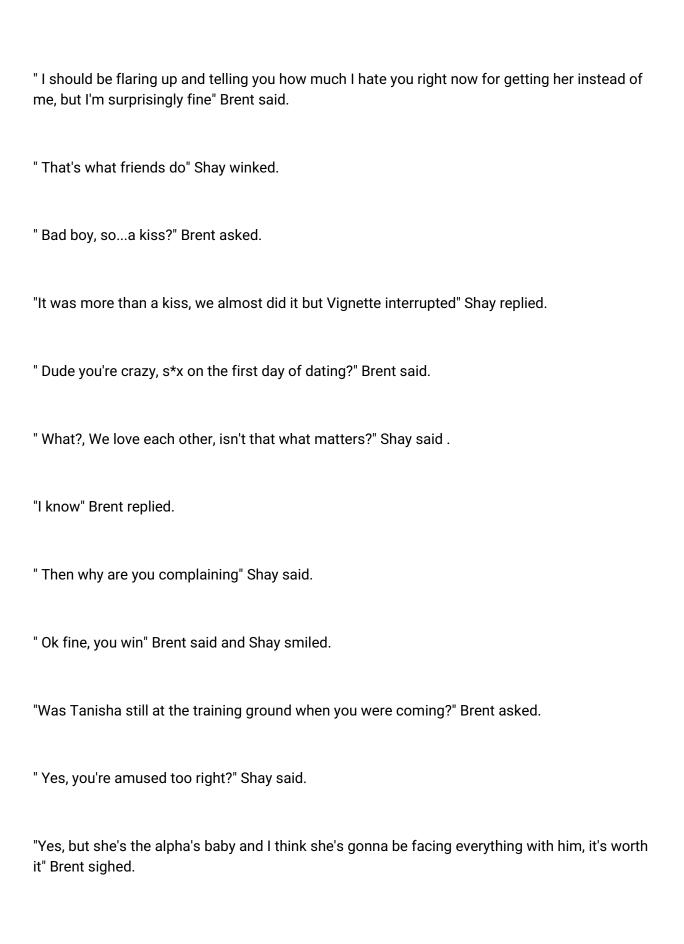

Sierra tried not to look at his lips again but it was the hardest thing she has ever tried.
She looked at his lips again and went for it immediately.
Their lips met and Shay smiled Into the kiss.
Sierra tangled herself to him and his hands went straight under her top without interruption.
He grabbed her two full grown apples in his palms and caressed them in the most seductive way ever.
Sierra moaned loudly into his mouth and he squeezed her even more as they both proceeded to the couch.
She flipped his shirt off his head and he did same
Their lips got reattached again and while Sierra drove him crazy by caressing his tattooed body, he slid off her bra strap and got access to her full br*asts.
He fondled with her pink n*pples and wetness started forming between her legs.
"Shay" She whispered into the kiss.
He broke it, breathing impatiently.
"Babe" He whispered, still squeezing her br*ast gently.

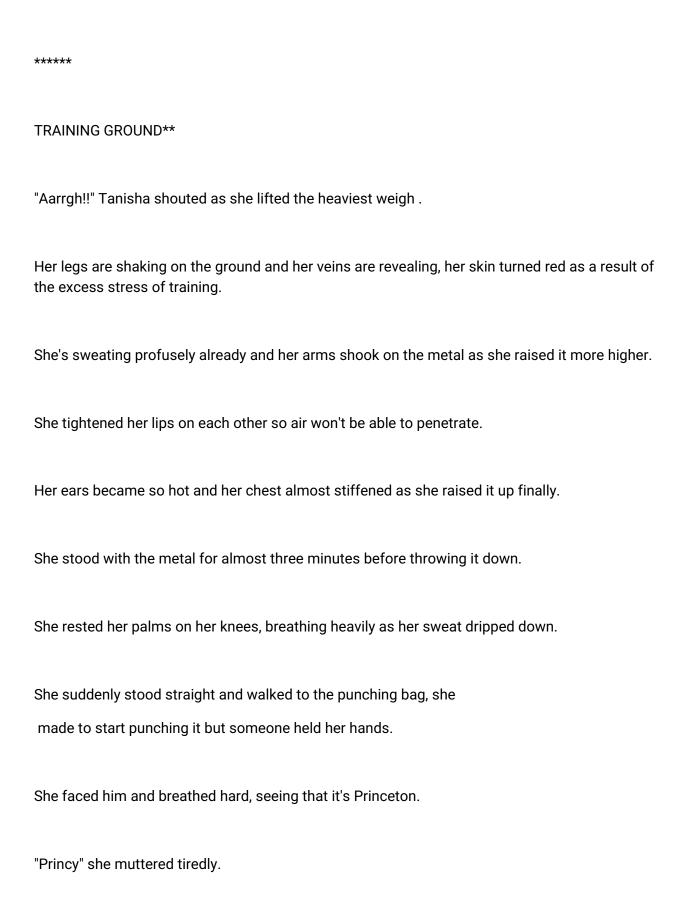

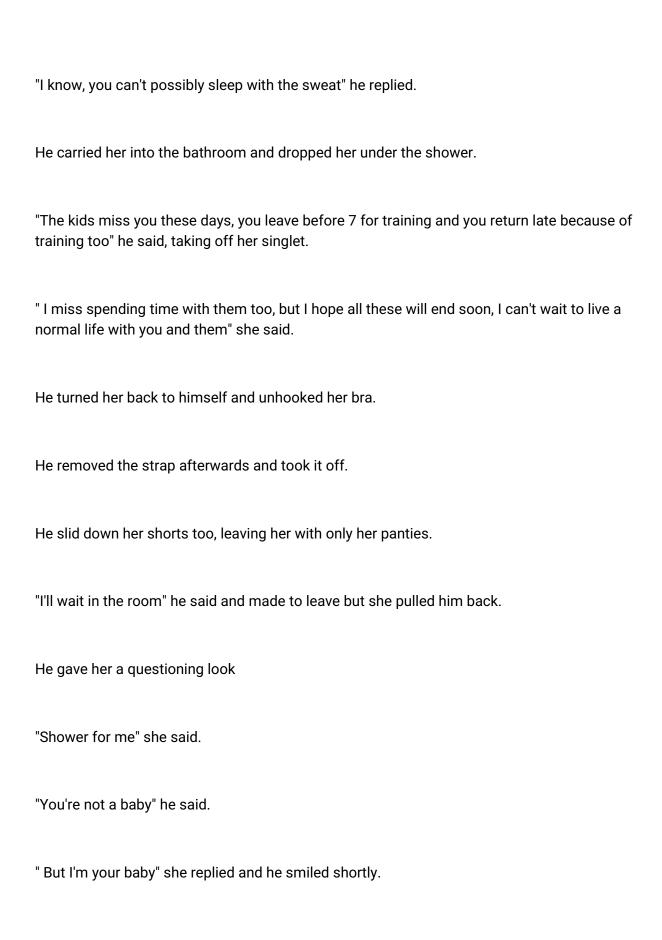

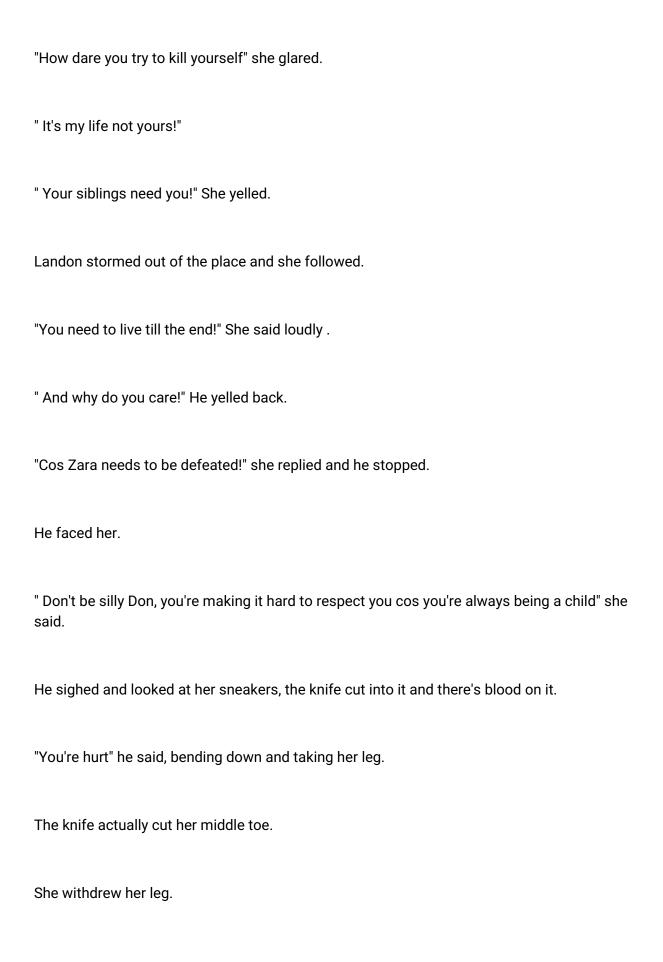

"When the time comes and I really get the opportunity to kill Zara, will you stop me?" She asked.
" I'd supply more bullets if you need it" he replied and she smiled.
" What are your dreams?" He asked.
" I've always dreamed of living in a big penthouse with my future husband, I dream of having the fanciest proposal ever and doing a night wedding on a cruise ship where fireworks will be on display every minute, where the moon and stars will be the witness of our vows" she said.
Princeton brushed her hair with his fingers fondly.
"Let's see what the future holds first" he said.
"Let's see about that" she smiled, looking up to give him a light kiss.

NEXT DAY, KITCHEN
"Landon" lady Macbeth said happily when he came in.
She made to touch him but he stepped back.
"Don't touch me" he said.

"Don
" Why won't you talk?, Why are you afraid of talking?, What's Zara holding you down with?" He asked sternly.
" You" Macbeth replied flatly.
" Me?, Crazy things again huh? What have I got to do with this" he replied.
" You'reyou're godfather Farris's first and only son and
" First and only son?, I don't get?, What about Princeton?, He's my brother" he replied.
" I never said you're the only son" she said.
"You said that just now Macbeth!" He yelled.
Lady Macbeth looked at him hurtfully.
" Landon, if possible Run away from here, run pleaserun" she said.
"Run?, I see no lion chasing me" he replied.
" It's a serpent, a devil" she said fearfully.

" And what the hell are you saying!, All these while you've been keeping us in suspense!, Refusing to tell us anything!, You're keeping quiet and Zara is quiet too!, It's f*cking crazy so much that I'm at the verge of going insane!, Why are you doing this to us why!" He yelled.
" I'm sorry Landon, but I'm doing this for your in safety, I can't lose you, you're the only one I have in here" she said, about to start crying.
" You'll lose me I swear" Landon said and grabbed a knife from the table.
He placed it on his neck.
"Landon please!" Macbeth shouted.
"If you don't tell me what you're hiding, then I'm gonna slit my throat right here and now!" He said seriously.
" Take that knife off your neck please, take the knife off your neck just please!" She yelled.
" You still won't talk?, Then I'll say bye" he said and made to really do it but Vignette appeared and quickly did an handstand on the counter, raising her legs to the knife.
She hit it off his hand and it fell.
Vignette landed back on the ground, breathing heavily.
"How dare you" Landon said.

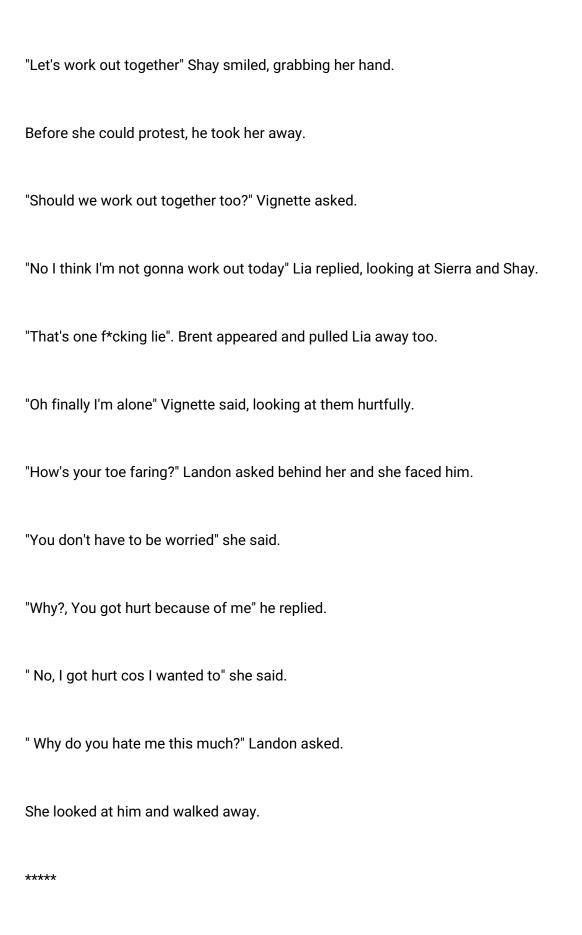

" What?" He asked
" I got a mission to eliminate someone at a private restaurant, SENS" she said.
" From godmother?" He asked.
" Yeah" she replied.
"Don't go" he replied.
" I will, I need to check what it looks like, to go on a mission alone" she replied.
" Don't go" he said again.
" I wanna go" she replied stubbornly.
"Nisha
" It's not a big deal, I'll be back in a jiffy, I need to leave by 10 and please trust me, I can take care of myself" she said.
He held her face and kissed her lips lightly.
" Be careful" he said.
" Sure" she smiled.

" I'll go visit Nana too during your absence" he said.
" She's awake already and she's recuperating well"
" I'll see for myself" he said.

TRAINING GROUND
" Where were you last night?" Sierra asked immediately Lia showed up.
" Somewhere personal" Lia replied
"Since when did you start going to personal places" Sierra said.
" Don't worry you're safe" Lia smiled.
"Sounds suspicious" Vignette muttered.
Shay appeared and without asking, he pecked Sierra on her lips corner.
"Hey" Sierra said.

MATILDA SPECIALISTS HOSPITAL "She's really really doing well" Kris said after feeding Nana her breakfast. " I see" Princeton said. "Thanks for taking care of me and my granddaughter" Nana said. " Just rest like the doctor said" Princeton said. "The doctor is the mother I talked about, doctor Matilda" Nana said. " I found out too" Princeton replied. " But she's not her real.... A intern came in. " She's not supposed to be talking like this, she should rest" she interrupted. " Sorry" Princeton said as she checked the vitals "By the way where's the head doctor?" He asked.

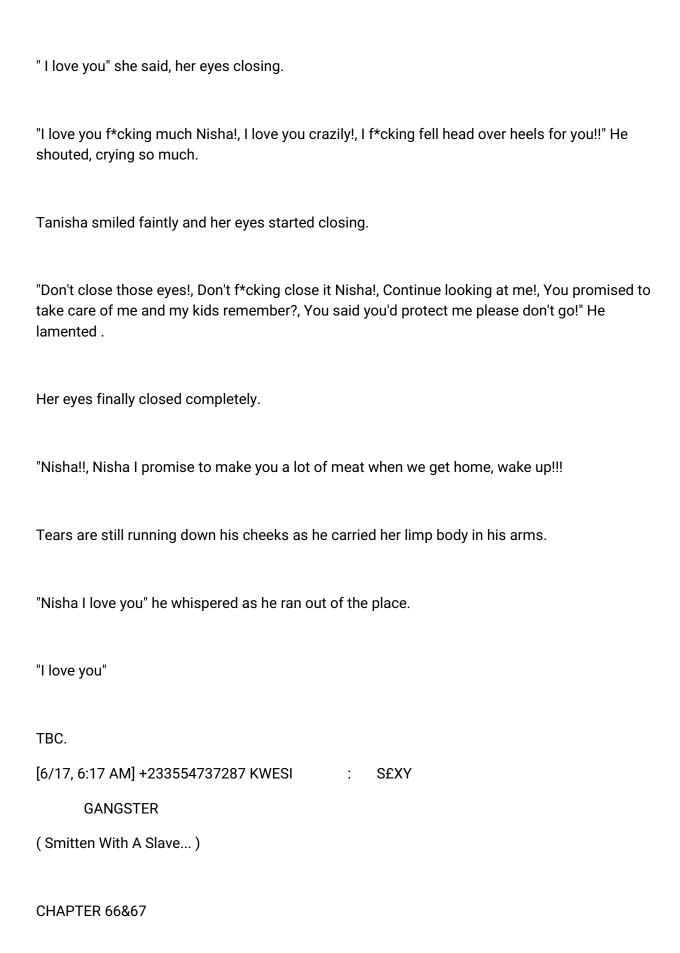

"She went out to meet someone at a private restaurant" the intern replied.
" Oh" Princeton said and stood.
" Kris, I'll come back later, don't leave her for a sec" he said.
" Sure" Kris smiled.
He looked at Nana again and left the ward.
He got to the hallway and stopped when he remembered what Tanisha said about eliminating someone in a private restaurant.
Then the intern just said Matilda went to a private restaurant.
Somehow the two sounds suspiciously same but what bussiness could Zara possible have with Matilda.
He made to walk again but he stopped, his eyes widened.
"Matilda is Tanisha's mother, what if Zara found out and is trying to hurt her by making her kill her own mother?"
Princeton ran madly out of the hallway.

MCF PALACE, ZARA'S SUITE
Zara smoked happily and drank champagne to wash her throat every minute.
She smiled and sighed before standing.
"The cruelest elimination, killing the real mother of her prince charminghow interesting" she said and drank again.
" Let's see what happens after she kills Matilda"

SENS RESTAURANT
Matilda checked the time again, it's some minutes before ten, Zara will soon be here.
Zara actually invited her to talk here.
She brought out her gun and checked it out.
She brought it along cos Zara isn't to be trusted, at all.
She kept the gun again and continued waiting.
Tanisha walked into the restaurant, dressed like a rich lady to avoid suspicions.

Matilda wasted no time in pulling the trigger, the bullet hit Tanisha on the tummy and she bled from the mouth immediately, going on her knees.
She kept looking at Matilda, her mother just shot her.
Her gun fell from her and she fell down.
Princeton came in and almost lost consciousness when he saw her lying on the floor.
"Kingston" Matilda muttered as he ran to Tanisha.
Princeton held Tanisha's face fearfully, his whole body is shaking as he saw her shut tummy.
"Nisha!, Nisha!!" He called, shaking her.
She opened her eyes slightly.
"Pricy" she whispered, vomiting blood again.
"Stop doing this please!!, Stop vomiting your blood!!" He said, his eyes are glassy already.
" Tell Mina and Sana that I love them ok?" She said.
"Stop already!, Just stop the f*cking crap!" He cried without realizing, his tears rolling down his cheeks.

Princeton drove to Matilda hospitals and when the stretcher was brought out Immediately, he refused to place her on it.
He ran in with her and he was directed to a ward immediately.
He entered and placed her on the bed.
"Save her, bring her back to live, do everything it takes!, Just do it!" He yelled at the nurses.
" Where's the head doctor?, We need to prepare for surgery" one of the doctors said after checking Tanisha's vitals.
" Can't you carry out the surgery without the head doctor?, Start already!, If I lose her I'm killing everyone in here!, I'll kill everyone" Princeton said, drawing his gun.
Everyone froze immediately.
"Intern Debby, call doctor Daniel and let's do it" doctor Bim said fearfully.

The intern left the ward immediately and two minutes later, she came back with the doctor.
"Shift her to the theater, fast!" He ordered and Princeton carried Tanisha, he placed her on the stretcher and pushed it out by himself, the nurses directed him till they got to the theater.
She was taken from him.
He pulled one of the doctors.
"She mustn't stop breathing" he muttered seriously.
" We'll try our best" he replied and went in.
The theater door closed.
Princeton sat on the bare ground, staring into space while hoping that she'd be ok.
He touched his face, there are still traces of tears there.
He wiped them and sniffed lightly.
Her blood stained his shirt and palms baldy.
The sound of heels on the ground made him look up to see Matilda .

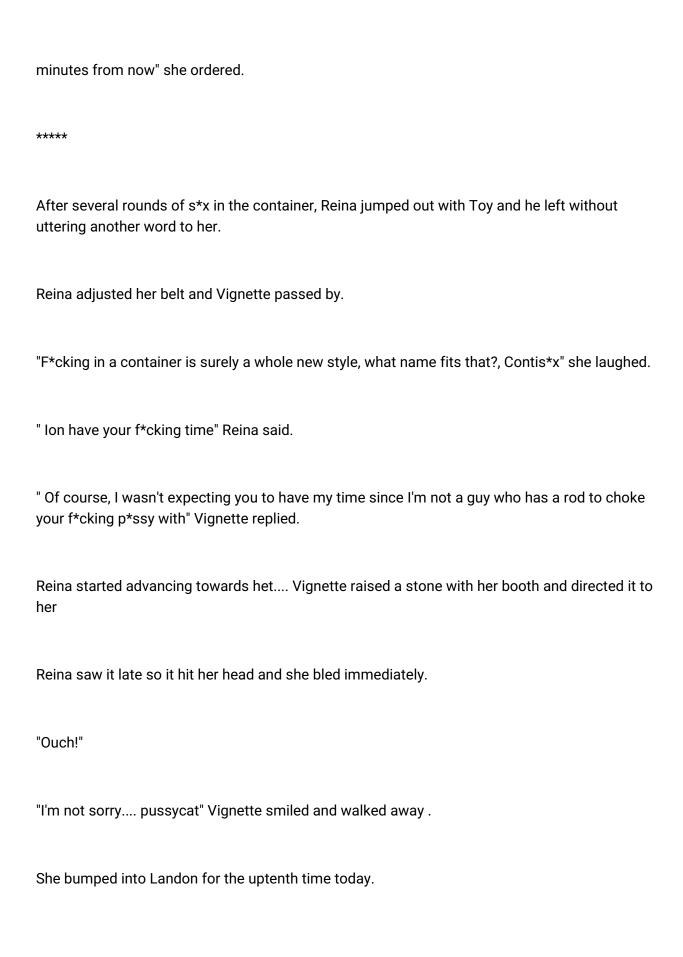

They've been bumping into each other frequently.
"Don't try to talk to me this time" she said, walking past him.
" Will you help me with something?, I know you hate me but can we do something together?" He suddenly said and she faced him.
" What something?" She asked.
" Will you help?" He asked.
"Tell me what this is all about first" she replied.
" Tonight, I wanna search for father's suite" he said
" You should ask for the help of your siblingsyou have Lia and the alpha" she replied.
" I'm the one who was locked in the suite till I was six, I know the suite if I see it but I have no idea of where it is located again" he replied.
" You were locked in till you turned six?, What the"Vignette said shockingly.
" That's not important right now, I feel like there's a clue I need to find in the suite, tonight please" he said softly
Vignette sighed and faced him.

LIA'S SUITE Lia dropped the call and ran crazily out of her suite, bumping into Sierra. "Hey babe what's up?, Why the race?, Should I run too?" Sierra said. " Tanisha....she got shot in the mission" she replied. " What The...f*ck!" Sierra said. "I need to go, to the hospital" Lia said. " Did I just hear about Tanisha getting shot?" Vignette appeared. Lia and Sierra rushed off and she tagged along. They drove to the hospital and luckily located the ward easily. Princeton is sitting beside Tanisha, holding her hand and whispering I love you every minute. "Princeton!" Lia rushed in with the others. "On the tummy?, Is she ok?, Will she be ok?" Lia quickly asked, touching Tanisha allover.

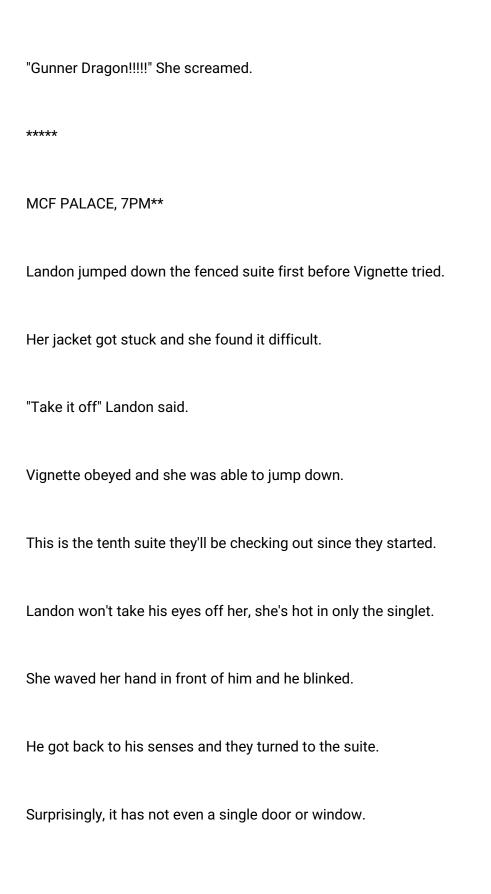

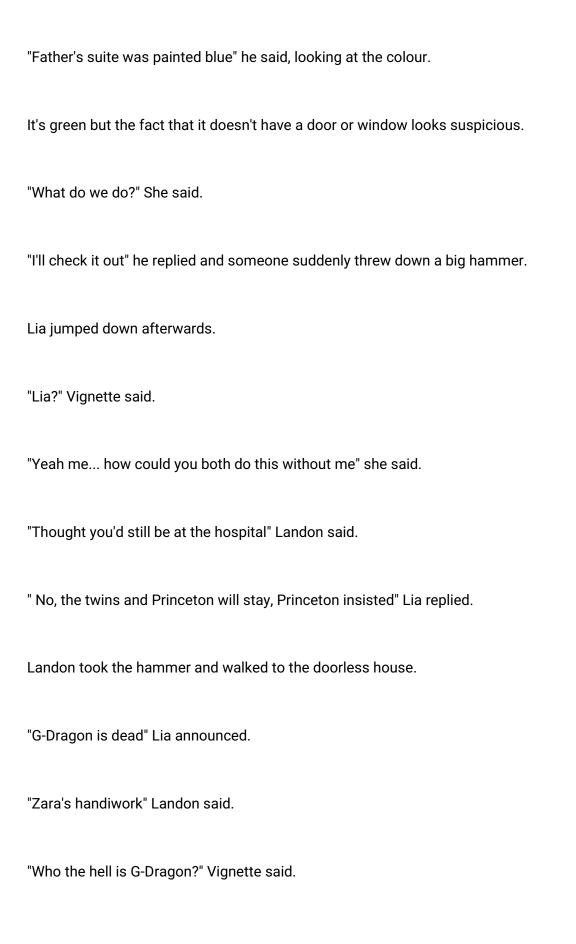

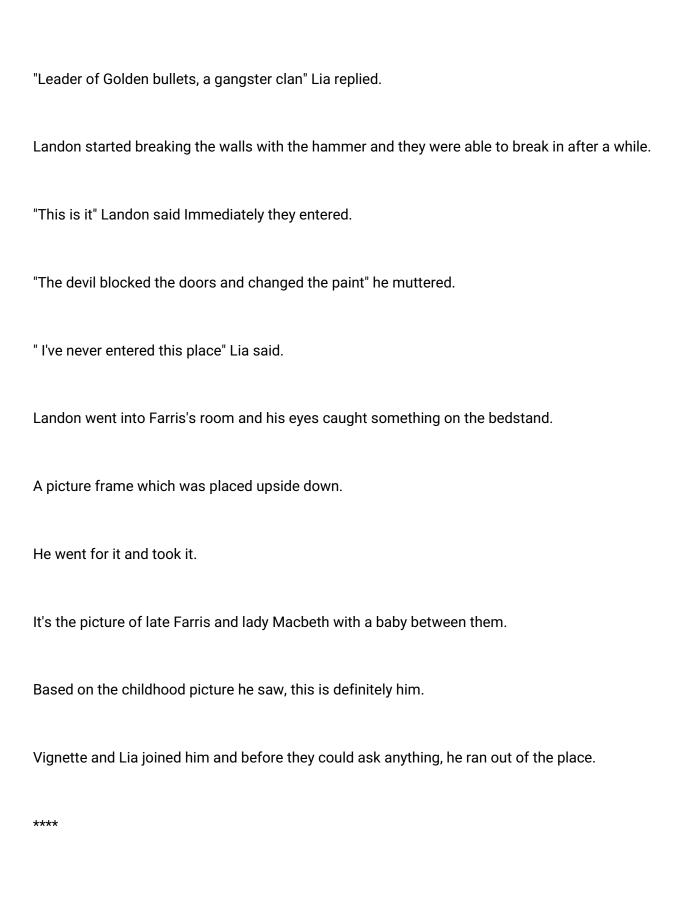

MCF palace drug bussiness crashed when she spent three weeks in coma and she's planning to revive it through Don Jake.
It's not easy to meet him and she did a lot before she was able to arrange this meeting.
The smile on her face cleared off when a car crossed her car.
"What the hell!, This journey was supposed to be secret" Vivi said, stopping the car too
G-Dragon and Sephora came out of the other car with members from their clan.
"Who snitched on me" Zara seethed.
Vivi led out all the guys and a hot combat took place between the golden bullets clan and MCF palace
Sephora and Vivi fought viciously.
G-Dragon brought down many of the MCF gang but he lost members of his gang too.
Within a twinkle, dead bodies and their blood dominated the road.
G-Dragon jumped on his car and jumped down in front of Zara's. He started shooting the window but thankfully it's bulletproof
He started shooting the window but thankfully, it's bulletproof.

"Immediately you die, whoever is snitching on my palace for you will follow you" Zara said.
G-Dragon kept trying to free himself but wherever this devil got her powers from must be somewhere in hell
She's strong!
Sephora saw the scene and pushed Vivi away from herself.
"Gunner!!!" She screamed, bringing out her gun.
She targeted Zara as she ran but when she shot, Zara covered herself with G-Dragon and the bullet hit his heart straight.
"Urrhh!!" He groaned.
Sephora stopped on her tracks shockingly.
Vivi shot again and it hit G-Dragon's forehead.
Zara let him go and he fell.
Zara got in the car and drove off with his remaining crew.
Sephora ran to G-Dragon and held him , his blood draining already.

ZARA'S SUITE "Someone is definitely snitching on me in this palace, the journey was unknown to even Princeton or Landon or Lia!, Who could that be" Zara wondered, racking her brain for answers. "Summon Reina" she suddenly said and a guard left to do that. Spark came in. "godmother, Landon found the hidden suite" " What!"  GENERAL KITCHEN* Landon rushed in with the frame, meeting Macbeth by the door. He raised up the frame.

"Will you explain this?" He said.

She smiled sadly.

"Landon...

" Explain now!" He yelled.
" It's just like you've suspected, I'm your mother" she said and the frame fell from Landon, shattering on the ground.
"Huh?"
Macbeth grabbed a knife from the counter and before he could stop her, she stabbed herself in the stomach.
"Macbeth!!" He shouted, rushing to hold her as she fell.
Tears rushed out of her eyes as she looked at him.
"Why did youwhy did you stab yourself" Landon hiccuped,his hands shaking.
" I'm sorry for keeping it from you all these while, the devil said she'd kill me if I did that" she gasped, bleeding from the mouth too.
" I've been a maid for this palace for years, Zara never wanted to give birth to a child but Farris wanted it, he raped me though it was painful but after he showed affection, I fell for him, Zara tried to make me abort you but Farris protected me till I put to bed, Farris took you into his suite and I do for there to take care of you everyday, I knowingly didn't introduce myself as your mother cos Farris told me not to, you were locked in because of Zara's wickedness, then Farris suddenly died and when you finally came out of the suite, Zara introduced herself as your mum and I could do nothing the jealousy that I gave birth to a boy for Farris made her agree to give birth too when Farris was still alive, she got pregnant with Farris's babies, she gave birth to two girls... twins. . and...and....

She started gasping for breath and smiled .
"The fact that you got to know me as your mother before I'll die is worth it, I love you a lot Landon mother loves you" she smiled and raised her hand to his face.
Landon's tears fell on her face and her hands slipped down from his face.
Her eyes went shut
"Mother!!!!* Landon screamed tearfully.
TBC.

CHAPTER 68&69

SAME NIGHT, 10 MINUTES LATER

Vignette and Lia rushed into the general kitchen but couldn't find anyone.

Not Landon or lady Macbeth herself.
The kitchen is as silent as a graveyard.
"What's happening?, I'm sure he came here with the frame cos it was lady Macbeth and father in that picture" Lia said worriedly.
Vignette suddenly sighted the broken picture frame.
"Hey look" she said, walking to the pieces.
Lia rushed past her and went there.
The pieces are lying around and there are traces of blood too.
"What f*cking happened!, Whose blood is this?, It's not Landon's right?" Lia said.
"We can't know till we find both of them" Vignette replied and they both rushed out of the kitchen.

MATILDA SPECIALISTS HOSPITAL
Princeton entered Matilda's office without knocking.

"Can we meet at the bridge down the road tommorow night then?, 8pm" Matilda quickly said.
Princeton looked at her cursorily before leaving.
Matilda sat back on her chair, sighing heavily.
"I hope I don't die while doing this, the wall of boldness I built around myself crashed already, I'm scared" she muttered .

MCF PALACE, ZARA'S SUITE
" Lady Macbeth is dead, Landon left the suite with her dead body thirty minutes ago" Spark reported.
" Sothe daft son finally got to know his real mother, but too bad it didn't last, how pathetic" Zara smiled.
She faced Spark.
" Find the spy in this palace within a few days, I'll make sure I cut off the head of whoever it is" she sneered.
Spark bowed.

"And?"
" Matilda and alpha are meeting at the bridge tommorow, 8pm"
Zara smiled.

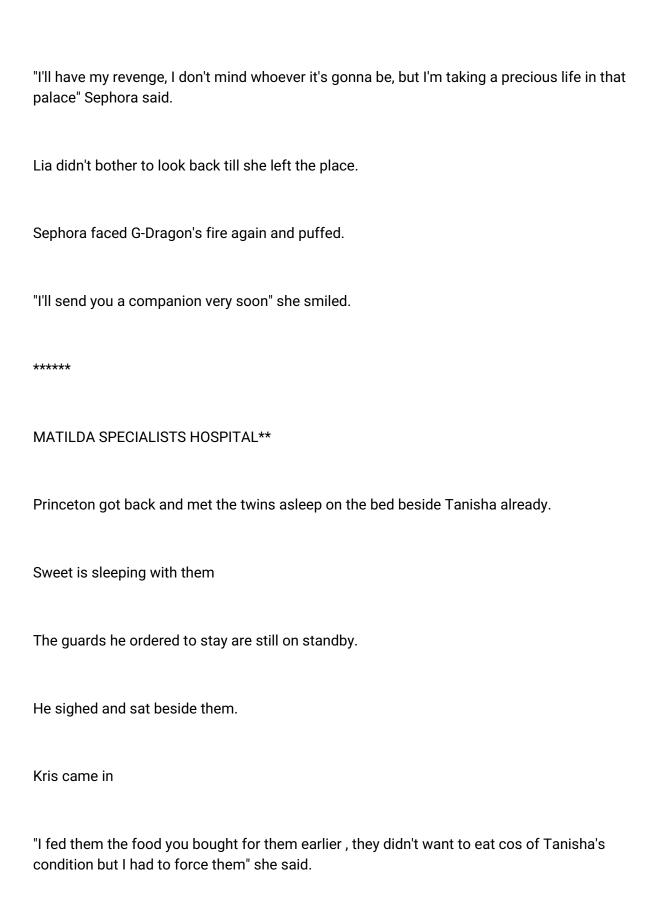

Princeton drove into the palace roughly and Immediately he came down from the car, Landon's car drove in.
Landon came out of it and he rushed to him.
"Don where have you been?, Where's lady Macbeth?" He asked quickly.
Landon looked at him with cold but hurtful eyes.
" She's my mother" he said slowly.
"Mother?" Princeton said, holding his shoulders.
" Yes, I'm a product of rape, she was a maid and father raped her cos Zara refused to give birth, the rape led to me" Landon said.
" What the

but he couldn't find her.
Wherever she's talking from must be hidden.
"I killed Venom, and I killed his son G-Dragon, I'm worth some accolades" Zara laughed.
" One of your secrets is out already, how many days do you think it'll take to know the others?" Princeton said.
" One?, Two?, Four?, Six?" Zara laughed mockingly again.
" In the end, your end is waiting" he said.
"My end is waiting in the end?, When is that end coming?, I'll kill the end cos there's no end to Zara Masterson!" She said with authority and Princeton laughed.
" Let's see who gets the last laugh, we've only just began" he said and walked out.
"Bring it onyour fierceness is what I like about you, let's get started Princeton!" Zara yelled after him.

GOLDEN BULLETS ARENA
G-Dragon's body has just been set on fire, it's burning viciously and Sephora is standing beside the fire, staring angrily at it.

Half of the clan members were killed by MCF gang during the fight earlier and now she's left with a minor number.
She's not planning to give up anyways, not after Zara killed her boyfriend.
She suddenly heard movements behind and swiftly drew her knife.
She threw it so it'll hit whoever it is but Lia caught it.
"What are you doing here?" Sephora asked.
"You and your darned G-Dragon aren't even that strong, Zara killed him!' Lia yelled.
"What's your point?" Sephora said, lightening a smoke.
"I connived with you cos you and your boyfriend told me you both will bring Zara down, I gave you the information about Zara's journey so you could attack her and bring her down but she killed G-Dragon instead, she killed him so easily, how is that making sense!" Lia said.
Sephora puffed on her smoke and sighed.
" So now what do you want?" She said.
"You guys only proved that you both are f*cking weak, I'm out of this game, I'll just take care of Zara by myselflosers" Lia smirked and covered her head with the hood before starting to walk out of the place.

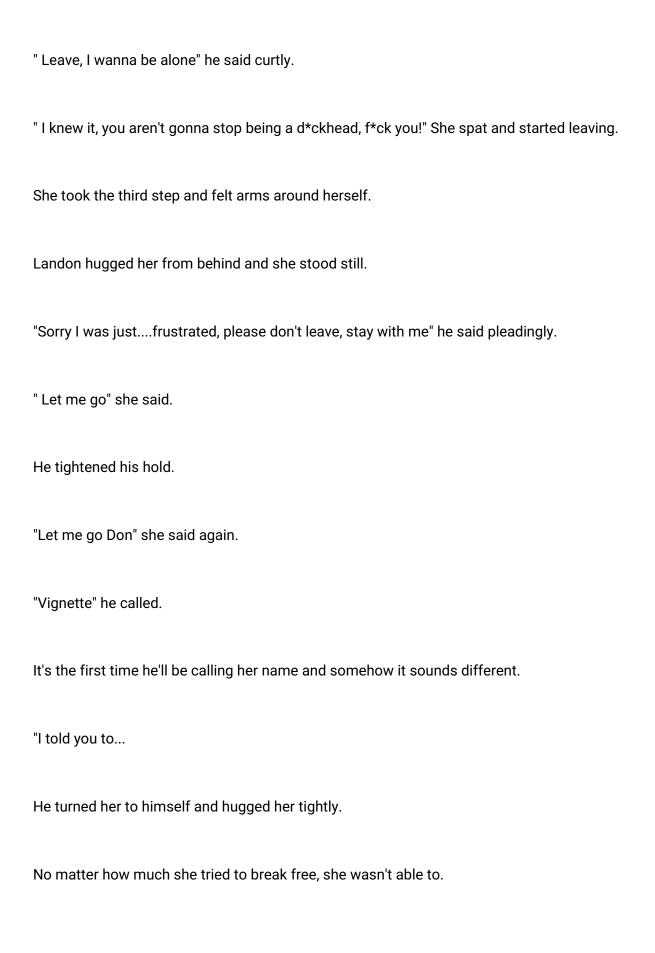

" It's fine, so far they ate something, how's Nana doing?" He asked.
"She's fine, doctor Matilda said she'll get better when she wakes" Kris replied.
" Where's Matilda herself?".
" She left a while ago" Kris replied and her eyes widened.
" Tanisha" she whispered and Princeton quickly looked at her.
Her eyes are slightly opened.
He stood and felt her temperature, it's normal.
He held her hand and felt his cheek with it.
"You're back" he smiled.
"Did I ever say I was leaving?" She said with a faint smile
"You scared me and you lost a lot of blood, you can see you're still getting transfused with blood" he said, looking up at the blood bag.
" I feel like nothing happened" she said and tried sitting up.

"Ou!" She winced.
" Don't hurt yourself, it's the first time you got shot so it'll surely hurt like hell, I'm glad you woke up early, your babies missed you and Mina cried a lot when you wouldn't open your eyes" he said and she smiled.
" I never planned to die now, it'll be a big f*ck if I doI still have to kill Zara cos I promised to kill her for you, I still have to take care of you and my babies cos I promised to do that too, I still have to continue hearing the three words from you" she said.
He stroked her hair and she kissed his hand.
" I promise to listen to you from now on, this wouldn't have happened if I had" she said.
" I told you but you were being stubborn" he smiled.
"I'm sorry" she said slowly.
"It's ok, just get well soon ok?, We have a lot of craps to discardlady Macbeth died this night" he said and she gasped.
" Holy shit, what the heck
" She killed herself after it was found out that Landon is her child" he replied.
" Hellhow could

MCF PALACE, NEXT MORNING
Vignette knocked Landon's door twice but got no answer.
"Don Jargons!" She called out , knocking again.
"Don Jargons!, Open up are you planning to die in there?, Open this door and show your stinky face!!" She shouted, still pounding on it.
" You still won't open?, I can call Sierra to hack it if that's what you want" she said and turned to start leaving but Landon opened the door and pulled her in, he shut the door.
Breathing heavily, she pushed him away.
"I was worried and I got angry with myself for getting worried about someone like you, where were you since last night" she said.
" I had to bury mother" he replied,not looking at her.
" All by yourself?"
"I wanted that cos she's my mother" he replied.

"She's dear to us too" she replied.

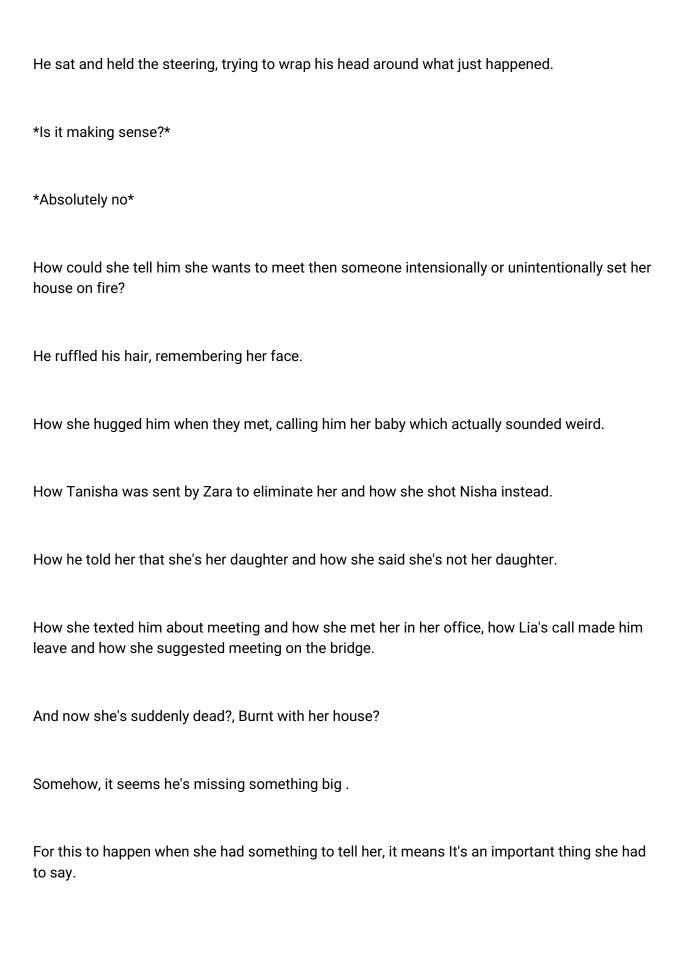

Zara opened the box and smiled mockingly.
"The childhood memories of my alpha?, It's so sad that he's not gonna be seeing them forever and you" she said.
" What have I ever done to you Zara, why are you so wicked!!" Matilda cried and Zara laughed.
" What happened to the strong determined Matilda?, Where did all your boldness fly to?, Huh?" She mocked.
"Why are you doing this to me!!!"
" Cos you came at the wrong time Matilda, if you came at the time I've finished using him, then I'll gladly release him but you came when my need for him is at it's peak, and that's why I'll have to eliminate you" Zara replied.
" Huh?" Matilda looked up with teary eyes.
Her leg is still bleeding.
Zara stood and faced Spark.
"Did you sprinkle the fuel around already?" She asked.
" Yes godmother" he replied.

Princeton's eyes widened and almost immediately, cops car drove down the road.
With the believe that they're going to the house, he drove behind their car till they got to the burning house.
The firefighters has succeeded in putting out the fire though it's still burning slowly.
The cops rushed into the house and Princeton stood with the crowd in front of the house, waiting for any news.
After several minutes of searching the burnt house, the cops found no body.
The crowd started murmuring possibilities.
She must have been burnt to ashes.
The fire was much, it must have consumed her completely.
The beautiful doctor
Heard she's kind-hearted
Who could have set the fire.
Princeton walked back to his car slowly.

He remembered her meeting with Tanisha. "Why did she come to the restaurant?, She definitely came to the restaurant to meet someone cos she was the only one there besides Tanisha on the day she shot her, she definitely came to meet someone....who?" He asked himself. And finally he got what he's missing.... Zara. She's the reason behind this. You can read more of these story from, unlimited story platform, fresh stories kingdom, house of story room, sweet and nice story room through Kwesi on+233554737287. But did she do this cos Matilda is Tanisha's mother?. What does Matilda mean by saying she's not Tanisha's mum? What was she trying to tell him? All the thoughts flying through his head almost resulted in headache. He closed his eyes and when he opened it again, he pressed the ignition and drove off. * MATILDA SPECIALISTS HOSPITAL. The hospital is in sorrow when Princeton got there.

All the interns he met were in tears.
Her doctors has traces of tears in their eyes as he passed by everyone in the hallway.
He entered Tanisha's ward and met Nana there already, her bed is just beside Tanisha's.
"I moved her here so I could watch them together" Kris explained.
" Princy is the news really true?, She's She's dead?" Tanisha said Impatiently. She's sitting up already.
"Matilda is really dead?" Nana asked.
"Yes, I left the burning house some minutes ago" he replied slowly.
" No it can't be true, Matilda can't just die when she hasn't shown me my real son!, She can't die just yet I need to see Kingston first Matilda!!!" Nana cried.
" Kingston?" Princeton wondered suspiciously.
" Realson?" Tanisha said, facing Nana.
" Tanisha I'm so sorry II had to keep it from you cos I I didn't want you to get hurt" she said.
Tanisha listened impatiently.

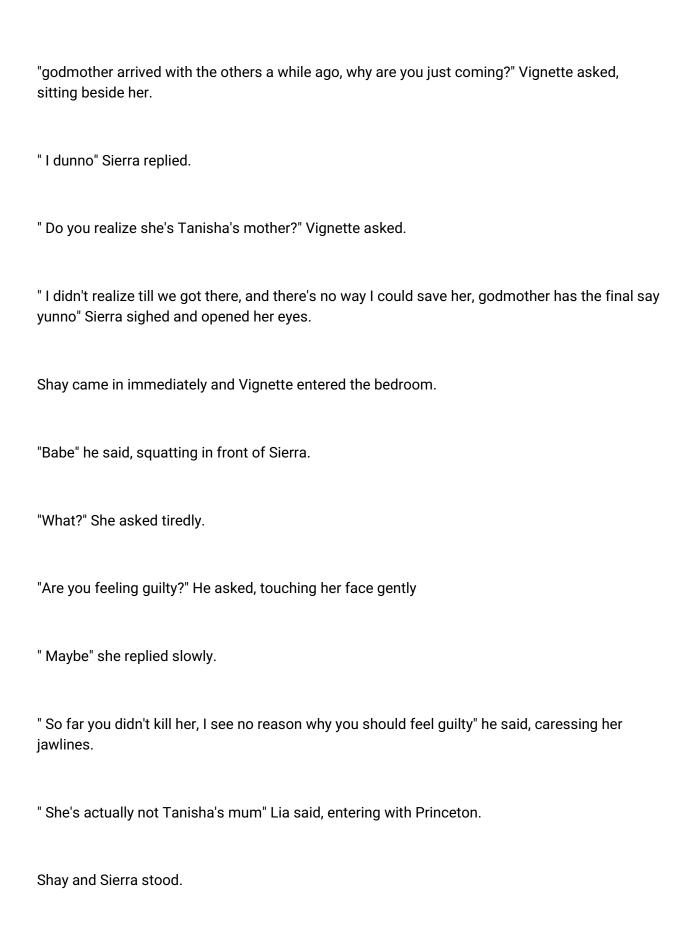

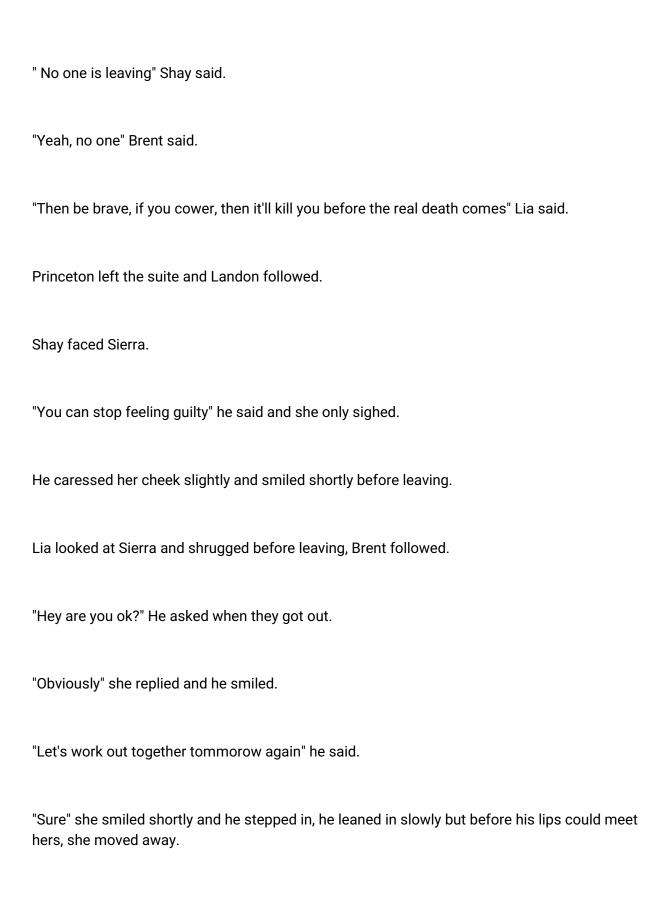

" Yes, she summoned Sierra for a mission and Sierra tagged along, I never knew she was gonna kill Tanisha's mum" she replied.
" She's not her mum" he replied.
" Huh?"
" It turned out that way, Matilda actually gave birth to a boy, Nana confirmed it"
" Another shock, and why does it feel like Tanisha's case is part of the palace" she replied.
" I feel same too, but it's so hard to figure out and if we wait for the secrets to keep getting out by themselves, things will go from bad to worse, Zara is not ready to stop and no one knows who's dying next" he said.
Lia sighed.
" You said Sierra followed her?" He asked.
"Yeah" she replied.

MCF PALACE
Sierra fell on the couch in her apartment heavily, closing her eyes.

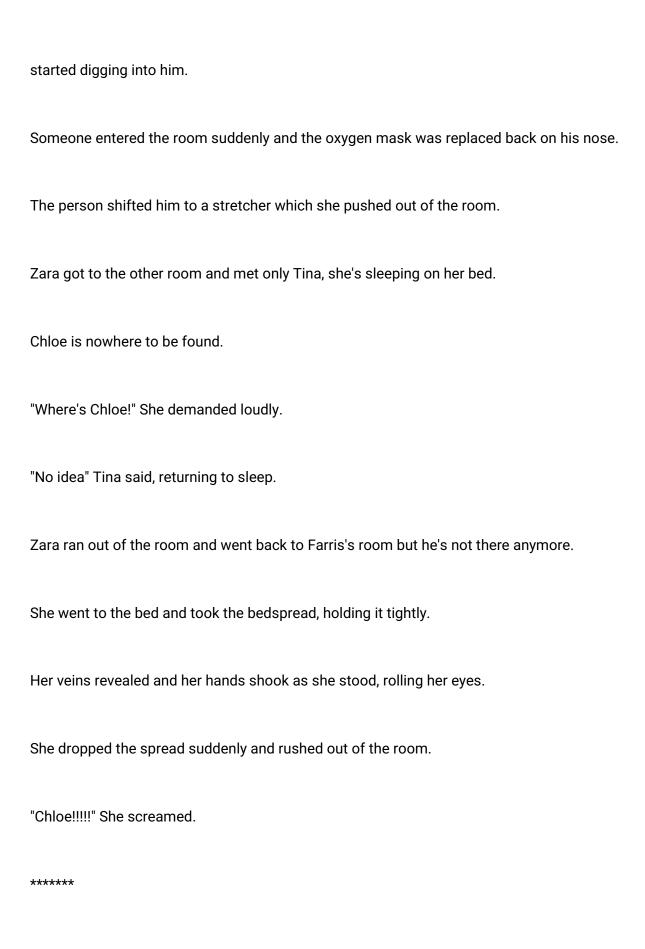

"I'll see you tomorrow morning" she said and left.
"What are you hiding?" Vignette asked immediately Sierra came into the bedroom.
" Nothing" she replied.
"Don't tryna fool me Sierra, I know you pretty well" Vignette replied.
" What do you mean?" Sierra asked.
Vignette stepped in and held Sierra's shoulders.
" Don't lie to me, what really happened in Matilda's place?, Is she really dead?" She demanded.
Sierra shook her hands off from her shoulders.
"Stop sprouting nonsense" she said and left the room.
Vignette dipped her fingers into her hair frustratedly.
Something is just telling her that she's hiding something, same thing is giving her the intuition that Lia is hiding something too.
"What could that be?"

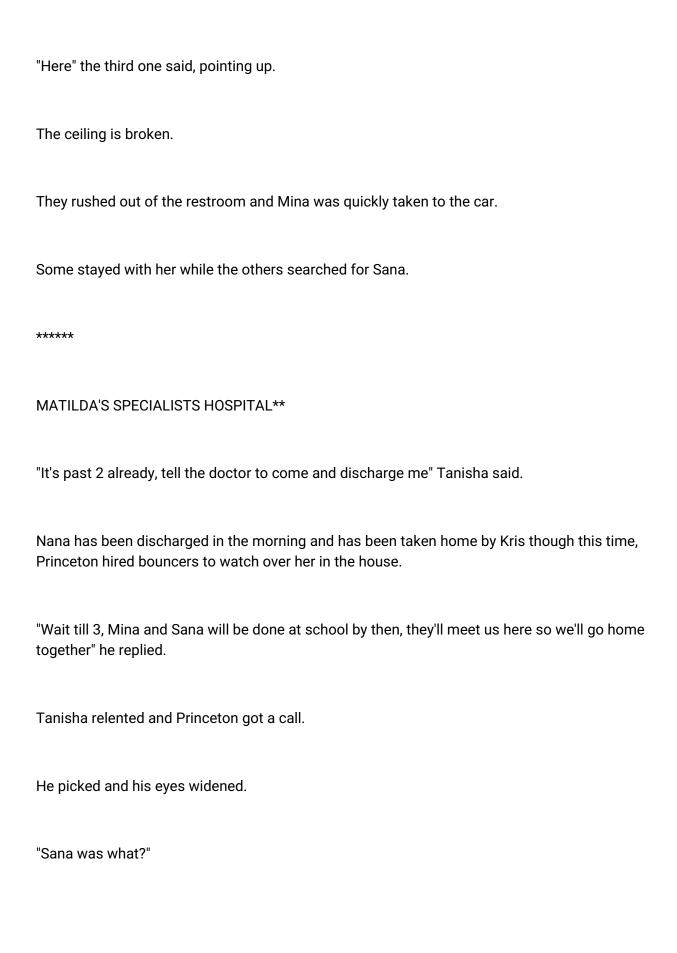

Princeton caught up with Landon in front of his suite and they both sat in front of it.
Landon is smoking slowly while Princeton stared into space.
"How's she doing?" Landon asked.
"She's recovering, she'll be discharged tommorow" he replied.
" So Matilda's child was a son?, Who's it?" Landon replied, looking at Princeton intently.
" Honestly Matilda called me Kingston twice, heard that's the name of her baby boy, I dunno why" Princeton said
Landon stopped smoking for a while and looked at Princeton.
"Your eyes and Matilda's" he said, looking at his eyeballs.
" What's wrong with them?" Princeton said.
Landon resumed smoking without answering.

ZARA'S SUITE

Entering her secret trap, Zara smiled when she saw Farris's monitor beeping more normally.
She walked closer to his bed and just like she suspected, he's awake.
His eyes are slightly opened though he looks weak and tired.
"Oh my, you're awake" she said, smiling devilishly.
Farris wants to talk but the oxygen mask is preventing him from doing that.
His hands started shaking.
"How pitiful, the palace you wanted to end badly is now mine, the Macbeth you cherish so much is now dead, I killed another pest who tried to ruin my plans and now that you woke up, isn't it time to kiss bye to the world too?, I really wanna close this room, it's troublesome to come here everyday" she said, looking at the monitor.
Farris's hands shook more as she started bringing her hand to the oxygen mask.
His eyes widened when she finally touched it.
She took it off and Farris started gasping for breath, his chest contracting and relaxing as the monitor made irregular sounds
Zara smiled and left the room.
Farris kept gasping, his hands still shaking and his eyes wide as the agonizing fangs of death

NEXT DAY, BERTRAND KIDDIES SCHOOL "I need to pee" Sana said after the second class. " Are you done with the drawing?" Mina asked, trying to take a look at it but Sana hid it. "I'm done but mum will be the one to see it first" she said and Mina pouted. "I wanna pee" Sana said to one of the six guards surrounding them. "Will you follow me?" She asked Mina. "No, you refused to show me the drawing" Mina said. " Silly girl" Sana smiled as three guards followed her out of the class. She was led to the restroom and the guards stood outside while she went in to pee. After five minutes of waiting, the guards started getting suspicious. "She said pee, not poo, so what's taking her so long" one of them said. The second one opened the door but to their shock, she's not there.

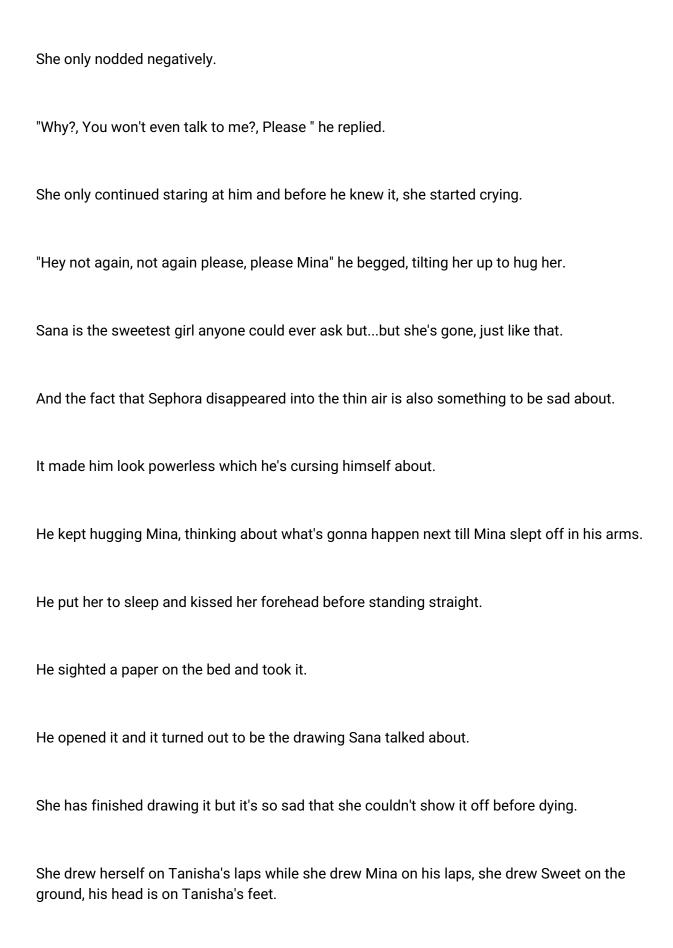

Princeton walked slowly to it and touched it.
ALPHA'S TEARS was really branded on it and the sound of that is even scary.
He removed the tape that was used to hold the cover together and Tanisha held her breath.
Princeton opened the package and his eyes turned red within a second.
Tanisha stepped closer and went on her knees immediately.
Sana's body is in the package and she looks lifeless.
Blood is on her lips and chin, down to her chest.
"Sana!!!!" Tanisha screamed.
Princeton stepped back from the body as Tanisha carried it out of the package.
Sana is really lifeless already, no breath in her anymore, her body changed color completely already and she's already cold like a corpse.
Tanisha sat on the ground, hugging her limp body to herself.

" What do you mean?"
" Sierra is keeping something big, my hunches are always right so we just have to pull it out of her mouth, likewise Landon, he's keeping the fact that lady Macbeth is alive" Vignette replied.
" Lady Macbeth?"
" If she really died that day, I'm sure Landon will still be sulking like a kid, I know him very well so believe me when I say she's still alive but he's keeping her somewhere, she knows the secrets of this place and unless we hear it, we won't know where to start from trust me" Vignette said.
" Sowhat's Sierra keeping?" Lia sniffed.
" Maybe the fact that doctor Matilda is still alive" Vignette smirked with the corner of her lips.
" Huh?"
"Yeah, news had it that she got completely burnt with the house but Isn't that so unbelievable?, Ok I believe the fire was very huge that it could destroy the globe but come to think of it,her body wasn't made of wood, she has bones in there and even if the fire completely destroyed her, her bones should still be found and Sierra came back late that day too, another clue, now put it all together and connect the dots." Vignette explained.
Lia hiccuped.
" I know you feel guilty, and you should really feel guilty cos you acted stupid, alpha is the strongest in here but yet he couldn't destroy or defeat godmother, but you dumbly connived with G-Dragon and Sephora?, Those two together with the members of their gang will get killed by Princeton within a minutegosh I can't believe you" Vignette sneered.

" He and Tanisha wiped all the souls in their arena already" Lia said.
" Now look what I'm talking aboutyou acted dumb" Vignette sighed.
" I know" Lia said sadly.
"We have to help Princeton, let's drag words out of Sierra and Landon's mouth" Vignette said.

NEXT DAY
Sana's burial is just ending, Mina has been sick since her death and no matter how much the treatment, her body temperature refused to come back to normal.
She won't eat nor talk to anyone, she just lay on her bed, in her room, holding Sana's teddy to herself.
Sephora is nowhere to be found, no matter how much they search, it's like she missed with the dust already or maybe disappeared with the air.
Princeton entered the room and sat beside Sana on the bed.
"I'll feed you, you need to eat" he said, stroking her hair.

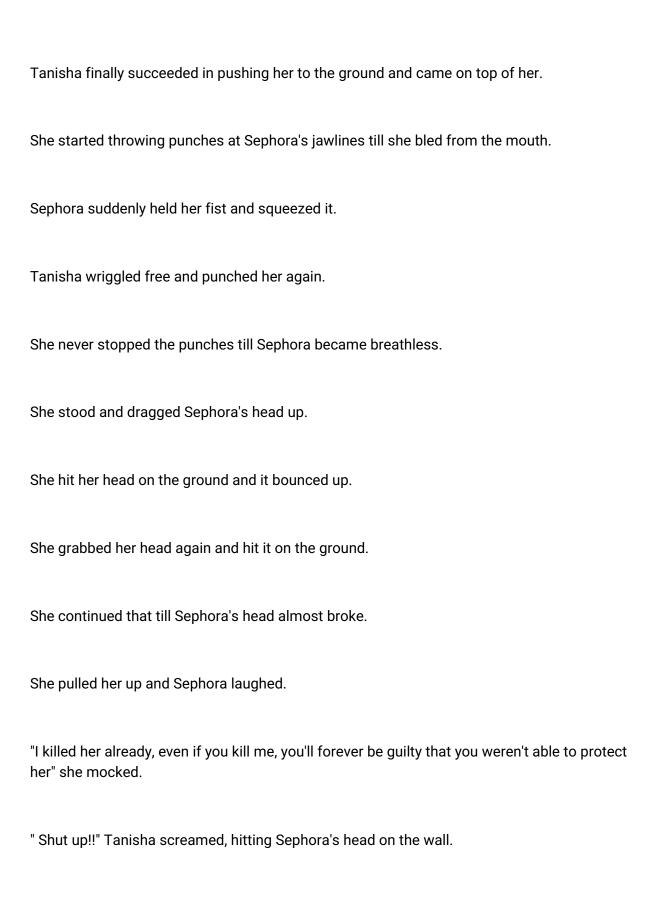

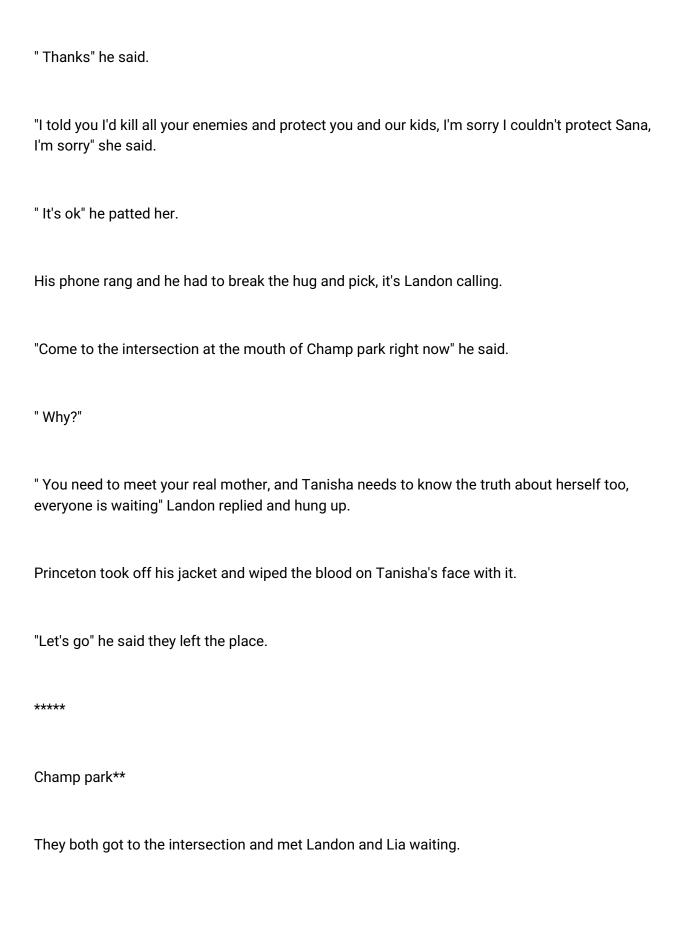

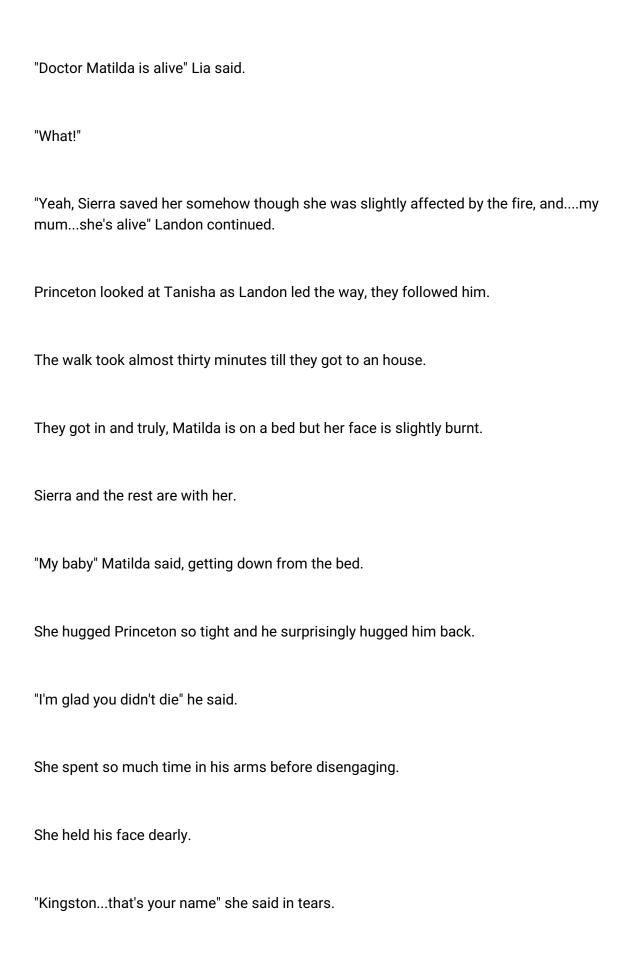

She kept finding rooms in rooms till she got to maybe the tenth one
She stood and felt strange, she held her sword tighter and stood on a spot.
A sharp air brushed past the back of her neck and her skin felt uncomfortable.
She swallowed hard and the sharp sound that came from a knife made her bend down swiftly.
She rolled down the place before standing.
Sephora grinned loudly.
"You're smarter than I thought" she said in mockery.
Without saying a word, Tanisha removed her sword from the sheath and wield it swiftly.
She looked at Sephora dangerously and Sephora started stepping back.
Tanisha ran towards her at once and tried cutting her but she escaped and they switched positions.
"Try more" Sephora laughed.
Tanisha dropped the sword and went closer, they locked hands and took turns to slam each other's backs on the wall.

More blood covered her already bloody face as Tanisha continued hitting her head on the wall.
Sephora suddenly punched Tanisha and she held her stomach.
She actually punched the wounded area cos her gunshot wound is not fully healed yet.
When Sephora detected that she felt pains from the punch, she punched her again and the spot bled.
Sephora grabbed her hair and started trying to hit her head on the wall too but Tanisha resisted.
She climbed the wall and backflipped.
She kicked Sephora's face and it hit the wall.
Sephora's nose bled and Tanisha punched her eyes repeatedly in anger, imagining Sana's face as she punched.
Sephora's eyes almost popped out as a result of the punches.
She kept screaming in agony.
Tanisha finished up with the first eye and moved to the second one, she started punching that too.
Sephora's blood splashed on her face as it gushed out.

Her screams filled up the whole place as Tanisha dealt with her shit.
When Sephora's eyes are already in blood, Tanisha let her go and she fell on the ground almost lifelessly.
Tanisha went for the sword and got it.
She came back to Sephora and smiled emotionlessly.
"For Sana" she said and raised up the sword.
She brought it down on Sephora's neck and decapitated her.
She cut her head off her body and more of her blood splashed on her face.
Princeton jumped in and when he saw the scene, he looks shocked.
She walked to him and he kept staring at her bloody face.
"Nisha" he whispered.
"I'm sorry I didn't tell you, I was just too furious, I stuck a deal with Flakes to get her location, I'll have to kill Zara within three days" she said.
Princeton pulled her to an hug immediately.

"My suspicions are right?" He said.
" You're my son Kingston, Zara stole you from me in a bus nineteen years ago and replaced you with one of her twin babies, it was the twin baby I dropped for Nana and Eros, I didn't abandon you, you were stolen from me" she cried.
" Waitsothe twin sister" Tanisha said shockingly.
" You're my twin sister Tanisha" Lia said.
" Huh?'
"Yeah, turns out he's not the son of a witch, we're the real daughters of the witch of the west" Lia said, smiling sadly.
Tanisha's tears rushed out uncontrollably.
"Your bracelet" lady Macbeth said, coming in.
"It's same with Lia's, she has the same bracelet but the witch took it from her maybe to keep the truth" she said.
Tanisha squatted and blocked her ears with her palms.
"No!!!!!" She screamed tearfully.

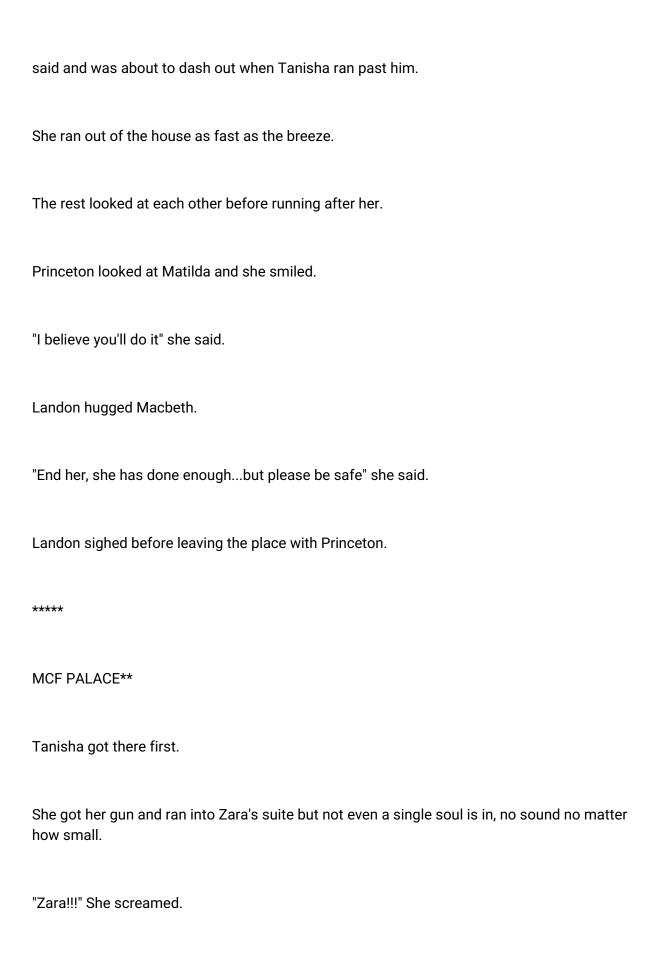

(Smitten With A Slave)
CHAPTER 74&75

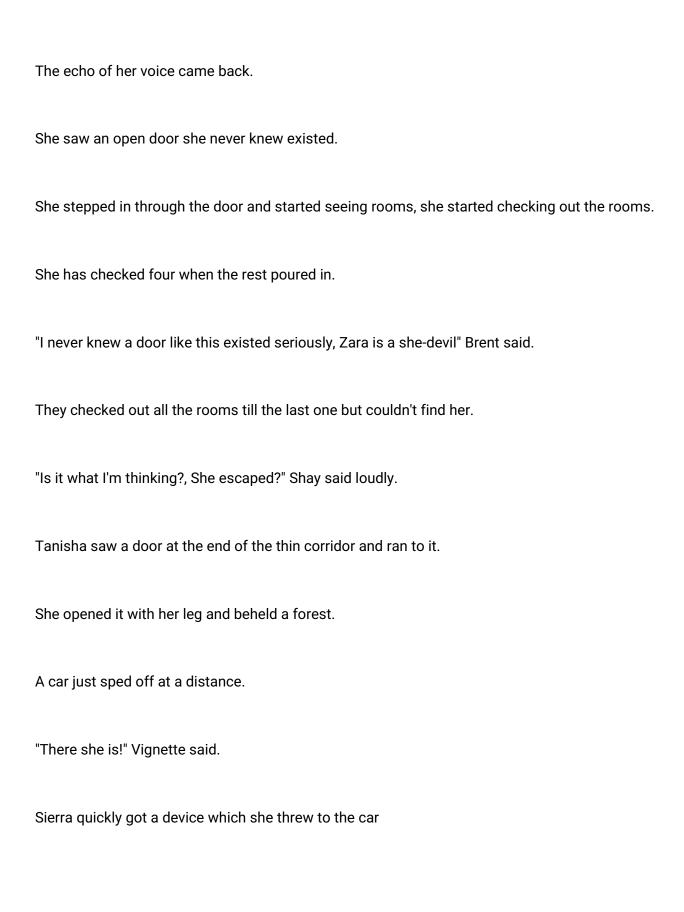

Princeton's ears behaved like they aren't his own.
His eyes exudes shock and his heart slammed hard on his chest.
A cold chilly air brushed past him and he shivered slightly at what he just heard.
His ears are still working right, he's so sure about that.
"I'm sorry Princeton, but I was threatened too, Zara threatened me with my only sis, I just couldn't disobey, when you went to get the blood which was actually a plan to make you leave for a while. Zara came and when she found out Ava gave high to guadruplets, she took one and for a while, Zara came and when she found out Ava gave birth to quadruplets, she took one and also left with Ava, I'm sure she threatened Ava to say those things to you on phone, and your stolen things, it was godmother who stole them to make look like it was Ava, I'm sorry Princeton, I know no amount of sorry will atone for my sins but....

"Ahhh!!!!!" Princeton screamed, holding the bed rails as tears fell from his red eyes.

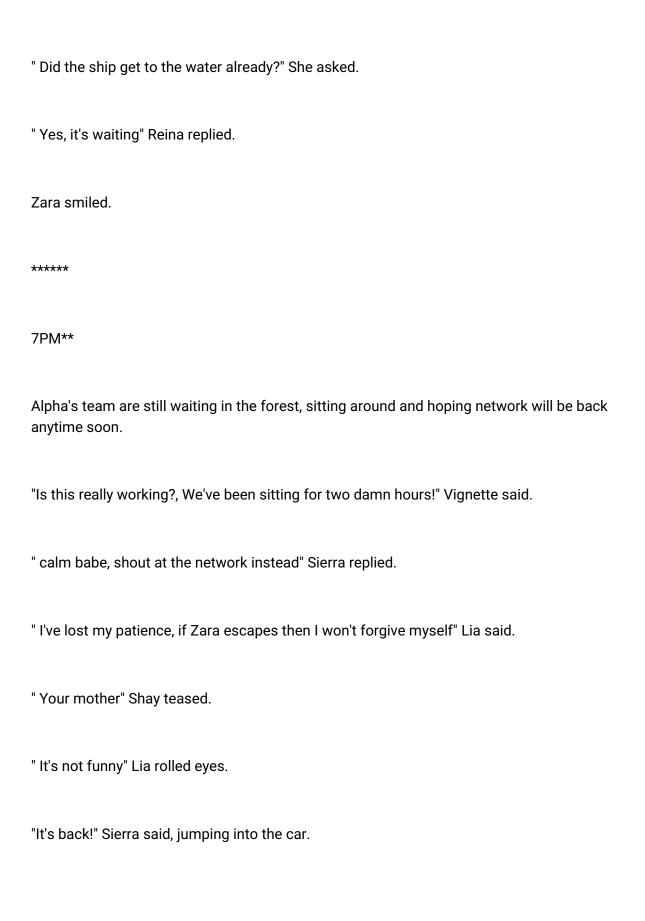

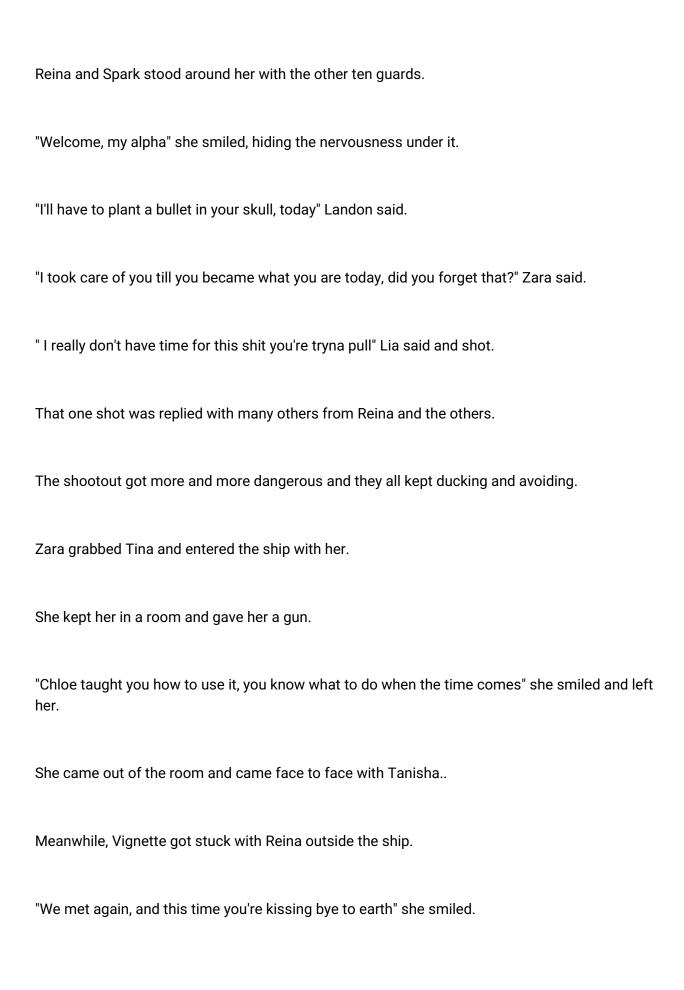

"The sea?, What the hell that's like two or three hours journey from here" Brent said.
" There's a shortcut" Princeton said, starting the drive.
Vignette drove the second car and they started their journey again, going through the rough shortcut.

THE SEA
Zara jumped down from the car with her gang. Reina carried Tina and the sailor arrived.
"We have a little bit of problem with the ship right now so
"So we'll have to wait?" Zara interrupted.
"Yes"
Zara punched the old man and he fell.
" I told you about this since two hours ago and now you're complaining about a damn problem!, What the hell are you talking about! "

" It was working very well till ten minutes ago, one of the engines got strangely damaged"
" Then remove the car engine and use it! " Zara barked.
" She's so dumb, who uses car engine for a ship" Tina muttered.
" That's not possible, we can't fix car engine in a ship" the sailor replied.
" Then what the heck are you gonna do" Zara said.
" Just some minutes and I'll be done" he said and rushed back to the big ship.
" Big shit, I don't want Princeton or any of his team to meet us here, I didn't sign for war today, not today!!!!!" She screamed crazily.
Over thirty minutes, the repair is still ongoing to her annoyance.
"Aren't you done yet?" She asked with the remaining calmness in her.
" Just a little bit ma'am" he replied and Zara roared angrily.
She got her gun and was about to shoot at him when two cars zoomed dangerously into the shore.
The team she has been dreading came out of it.

"Today is the saddest day of my life, the day I got to know that the devil I must kill is actually my own mother" she said and Zara stopped.
Her eyes widened on her spot.
" The child you exchanged Princeton with nineteen years ago, it's me, Lia's twin" she said, pointing at the anklet on her ankle.
" It's Impossible!" Zara yelled.
"I wasn't hoping you'd believe, cos I don't want to believe it too, you're dying right now anyways, turns out all my trainings were meant to kill you" Tanisha replied.
Zara smiled and stepped closer.
" Don't you wanna go with me to somewhere far?, We'll live fine as mother and daughter and you'll receive motherly love from me everyday?, You don't want that?, Grow up daughter, I'm your mother and I know the best for you" she said, touching her cheek.
Tanisha smiled, her red eyes becoming merciless.
"You really think I'm a fool?, The months I spent in the palace taught me that people like you don't deserve to live!" She yelled and tried shoving a knife Into Zara's heart but Zara obstructed with her palm
The knife penetrated and came out on the other side.

Zara grinned heavily and started pushing her.
Tanisha tried standing her ground but the b*tch pushing her was so strong.
She got pushed till they got to the ship wall.
Her back hit harshly on it and Zara started trying to push her into the sea.
"Die already!!, Die!!!!" Zara screamed.
"Not even in your dreams" Tanisha smiled.
Zara removed the knife from her palm and started bringing it down to Tanisha's chest and at the same time, she's pushing her
Tanisha gathered strength and grabbed Zara's second hand at the base, she held it tightly, pressing her veins.
Zara groaned and her second hand let go of the knife.
Tanisha caught it and without thinking twice, she shoved it into Zara's eye.
Zara's agonizing scream filled up the ship as she let go of her.
The knife is still in her eyes and blood is rushing out of it.

Tanisha left the ship wall and came for her.
She kicked her jaw and she fell heavily.
Zara removed the knife from her eye and her eyeball accompanied the knife out, leaving a big hole in the eye socket.
She looked at her eyeball on the knife with her second eye and thundered a laughter.
Tanisha stood on her spot.
"I'll make sure you scream of my evilness one more time" Zara said and threw down the knife.
She brought out a gun and smiled as she looked at it with her one eye.
"Nail gun, but this poison is different from the one you were shot with the other time, this has no antidote, once I get you, you're gone" she smiled and shot.
Tanisha ducked and started hiding as she shot.
Zara laughed loudly, chasing after her.
Tanisha hid and she lost track of her.
Zara stood, looking around for any sign of her.

Tanisha targeted her from where she's hiding and just when Zara was about to face her, she jumped out and snatched the gun before rolling down the slippery ground.
She shot thrice immediately.
The first bullet hit Zara's right leg, the second one hit her heart and the third hit her stomach.
Zara fell on her butt, her back landing on the ship wall as she bled massively from the mouth.
Tanisha brought down the gun and breathed, walking to her.
Zara continued vomiting blood from all the shot areas and her bleeding eye socket.
Tanisha stood in front of her and tears escaped her eyes.
"I regret having you as my mother" she said, pointing the gun at her.
Zara started gasping for breath.
"Die!!!!, I'm tired of seeing you alive!!!, Leave!!!" Tanisha shouted.
Zara opened her mouth to talk but Tanisha shot at it.
The bullet flew into Zara's mouth and came out at the back of her head.
The gun fell from Tanisha and the nauseousness came again Immediately.

She started losing consciousness and she was about to fall when Princeton rushed in.
Seeing blood everywhere scared him at first but when she saw Tanisha, he ran to catch her before she could fall.
She fell unconsciously in his arms.
"Tanisha!!" He shouted fearfully, thinking she got shot but when he detected no gunshot wound on her body, he calmed down.
She actually made him promise not to step into the fight and that's why he didn't come in during the fight
He looked at Zara and inhaled a deep breath.
Lia rushed in next and when she saw Zara's body, she smiled victoriously.
She walked to Princeton who's still holding Tanisha.
"Is she ok?" She asked.
"I guess so, she's not wounded" he replied.
"She seemed sick earlier, her eyeballs changed colour too" she said.
They heard footsteps behind them and they looked back to see another Mina's replica, her

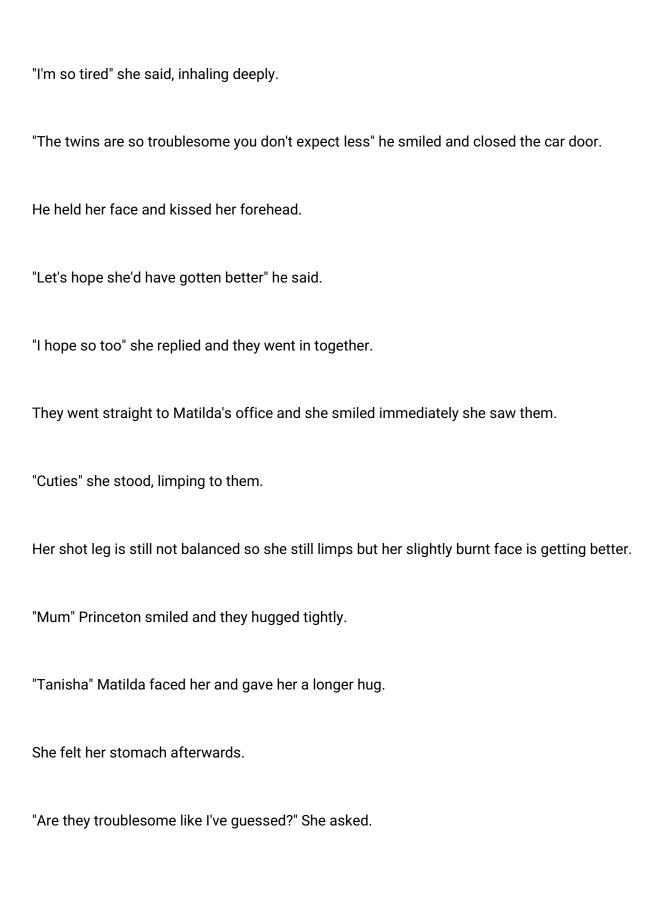

Princeton's hands shook on her body as he held her.
Landon came into the ship immediately and his eyes widened at the scene.
"Lia!!!!" He screamed, running to the scene.

CHAPTER 76&77

ONE MONTH LATER, MATILDA SPECIALISTS HOSPITAL★★

Princeton's car stopped in front of the hospital and he stepped out, looking different.

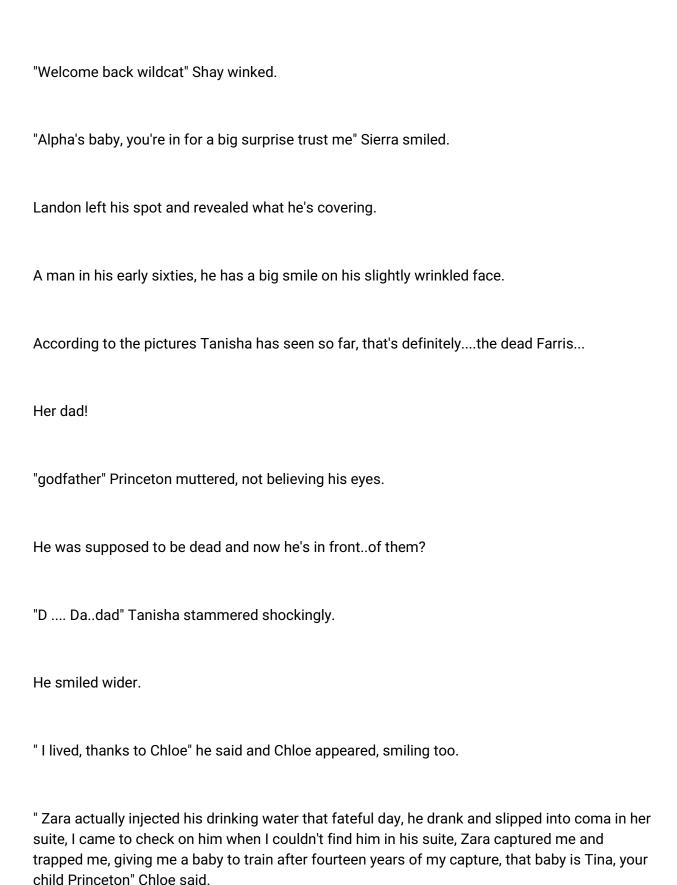

He opened the second door and Tanisha stepped out.

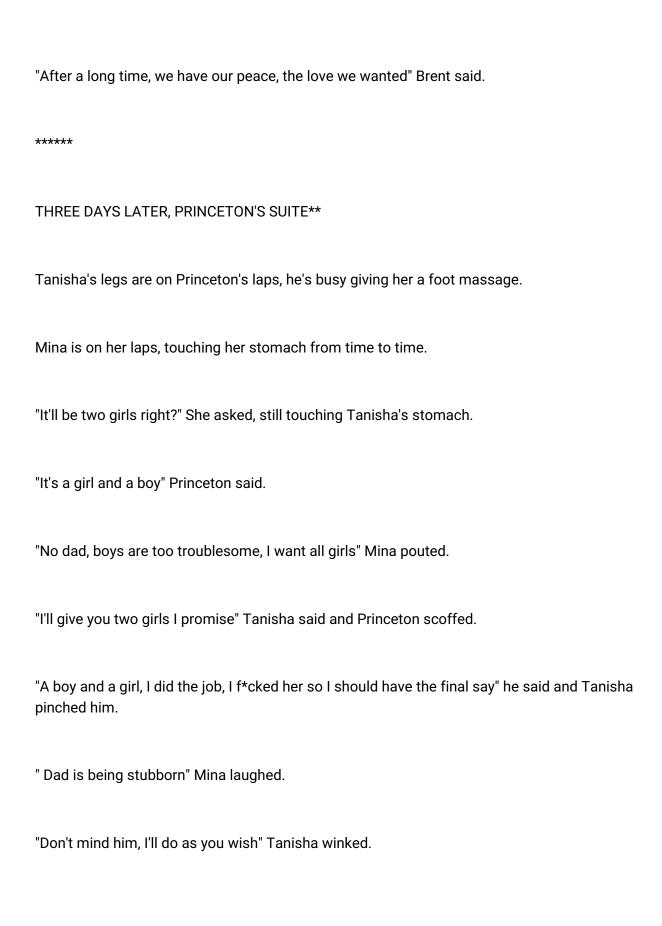

Her face is all wounded, obviously as a result of how she hit it on the wall repeatedly last night.
She was tied to a chair and she's looking at them angrily, that usual merciless devilish look, just like Zara.
"What's gonna happen to her, Mina needs her, she can't continue like this" Tanisha said tearfully.
Princeton held her dearly.
"I'm afraid it'll take more than some years to bring her close to normal, she was raised to be cruel and it'll be difficult to bring her back to lane except"
" Except what?" Princeton asked.
" Except if we wipe her memories, completely" Matilda said.
Tanisha's phone rang immediately, it's Landon.
"Big bro" she said, wiping her tears.
"You're crying definitely" he said.
"Tina Tina kept getting worse" she sniffed.
"I knew it, she grew up with the devil so I wasn't expecting less" he replied .

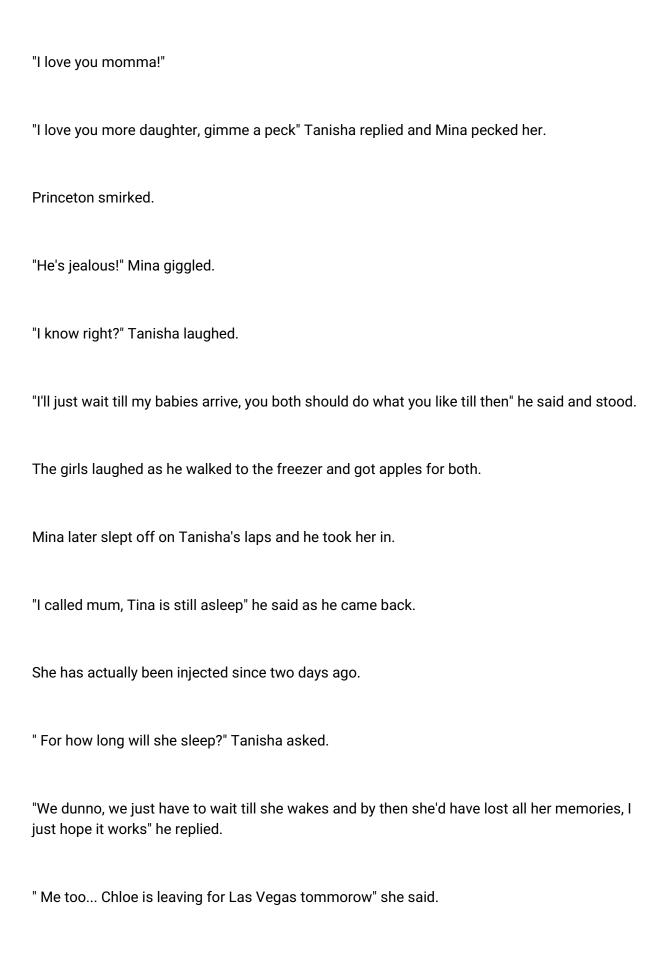

" Heard you'll have to erase her memories, I hope it works cos, I was forced to turn her into a living devil, I'm so sorry" she continued.
"I luckily escaped after I was able to get Zara's finger prints from the metals she touched, i just couldn't take it anymore, I was locked up for nineteen years, she wasted nineteen years of my life and I I feel so much pity for myself and my brother here" she said, facing Farris.
" I wanted to end this palace back then when I got tired of being a gangster, but she was against it, she became obsessed with powers and authority, when she couldn't use Landon for her wishes, that's why she agreed to give me a child and luckily she gave birth to twins, I haven't even named them when she left the palace with them secretly, she came back with a boy and one of the twins instead, guess she figured out she needs a boy to succeed her, I challenged her , telling her to tell me what she did with the other baby butshe told me to drink some water and calm down so she'd explain, I was just too tensed, I senselessly drank and that's all I remember" Farris said.
Everywhere went silent after that.
Tanisha started walking slowly to him and when she got to him, she hugged him tightly.
She started crying on his shoulder and she stroked her hair fondly.
"My girl grew up so well" Farris said, crying slowly too.
He gestured for Landon to come and he hugged both of them together.
Vignette suddenly ran into the circle.

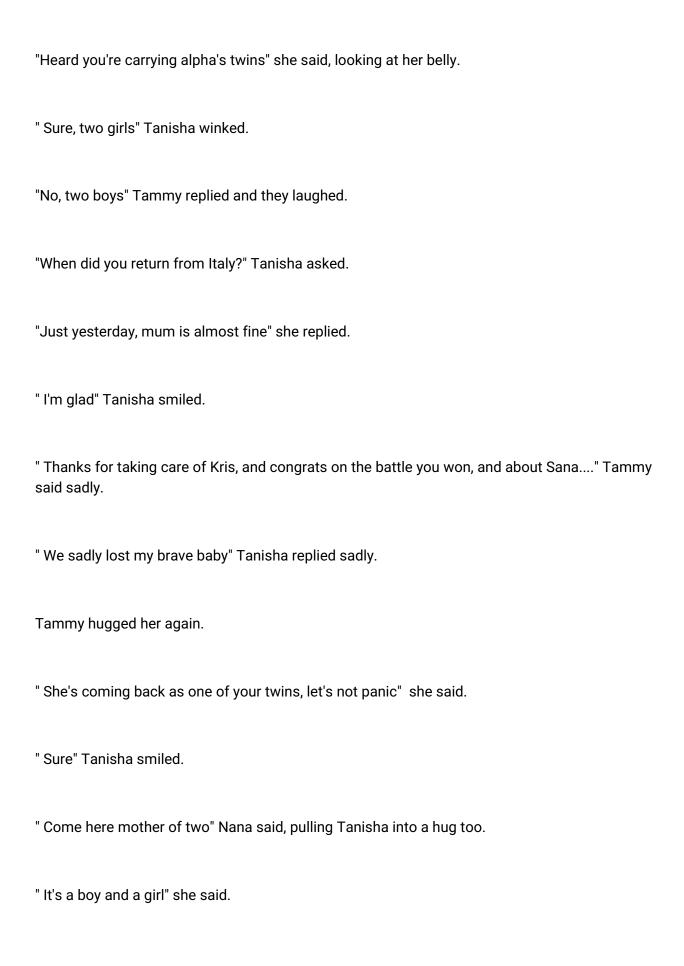

Lia appeared behind her and when she saw Farris, she obviously couldn't contain her joy.
"Dad! ' she shouted, rushing to hug him.
" My second girl?" He said.
" Yes dad, your Lia"
"Happy reunion is it?" Brent smiled.
"Of course" Shay smiled.
When they finally broke the long hug, Macbeth appeared.
"It's true" she gasped, covering her mouth with her palm.
"Macbeth" Farris smiled.
"I just had the hunch, I had the hunch, I knew it!" She said, running to him.
They hugged each other so tight and Landon smiled.
"Should we arrange a wedding for this old couple that just reunited?" Vignette smiled.
" We can, we should, I can't wait" Sierra replied.

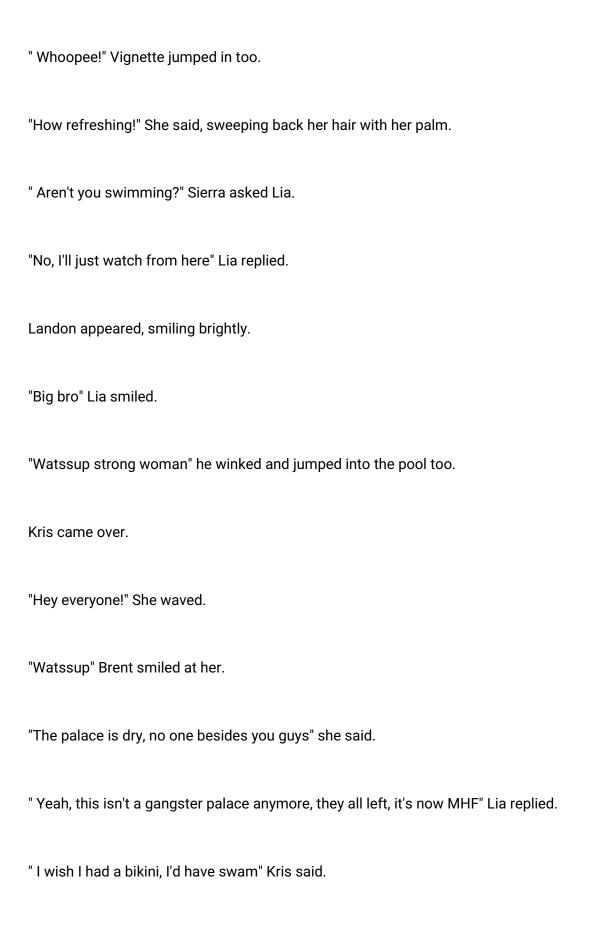

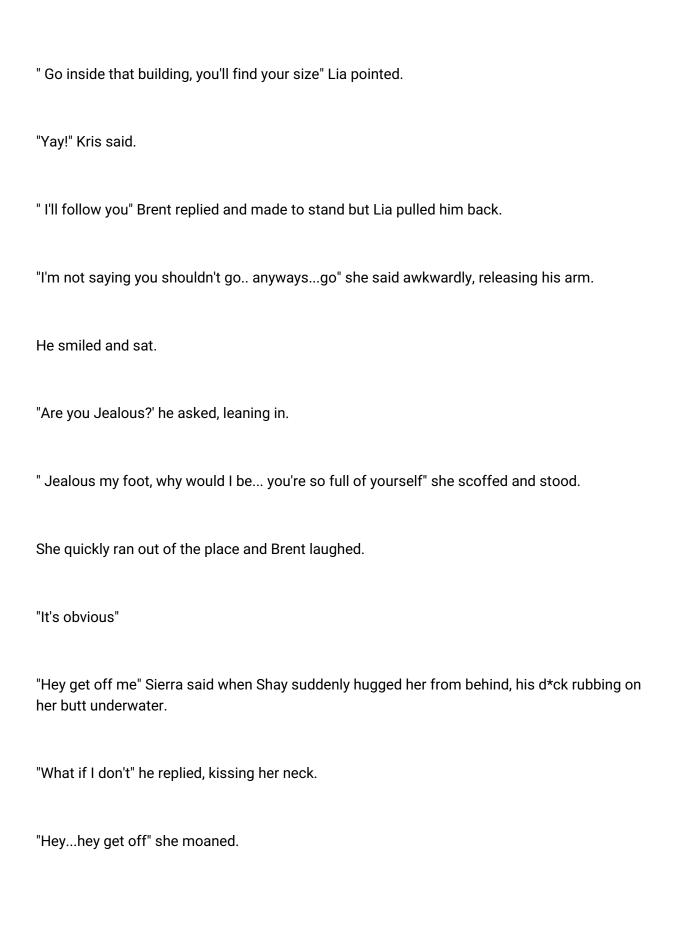

He knelt in front of her.
" She needs to change environment, she needs it" he replied and raised her top before kissing her belly button.
"When will it start protruding?" He asked.
"Next month" she replied to he kissed her tummy again.
She chuckled and he raised his head from her tummy.
He faced her.
"Kingston" she said
"What?"
"Seriously I do feel guilty" she said.
"Over what?"
"I know she deserves death but the fact that I killed my own mother" she replied.
" Nisha"

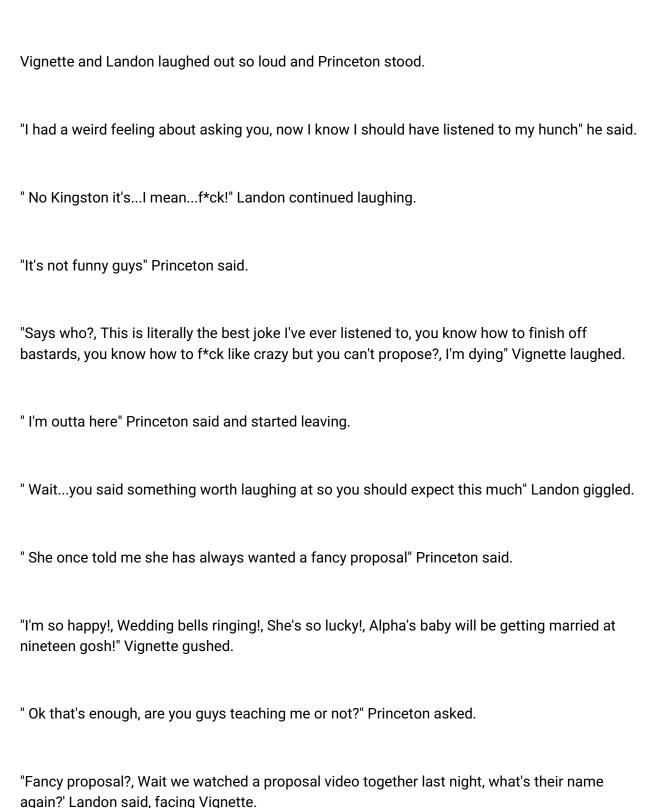

"Sorry, cos I'm still gonna do it" he replied and started stepping closer.
She stepped back in the pool till her back is on the pool wall.
He got to her and grabbed her waist.
"Sorry but I think I'm stuck with you" he whispered and leaned in slowly.
She shifted her gaze from his eyes to his lips as he made their lips meet.
Surprisingly, she didn't fight it, her eyes went shut and she started kissing him back.
"It's not funny seriously" Brent said and stood.
He rushed out of the place.

A MONTH LATER
Princeton entered Landon's suite and met him over Vignette, they're cuddling on the couch.
"Hey miss preggy's man" Landon said and Vignette laughed, stroking his hair.

"I meanf*cking Important"
"I'm listening dude" Landon said seriously.
" Ok okI
" Just talk already " Landon said.
" How do I propose to a lady?" He asked shyly.
Vignette exchanged glances with Landon and they both laughed out loud.

CHAPTER 78&79

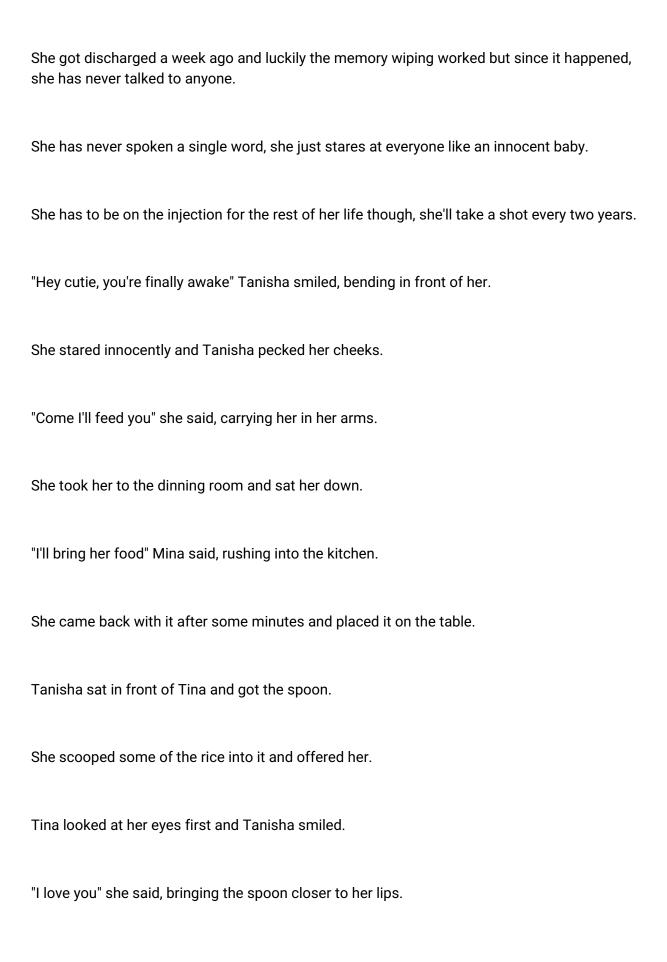

"Riss and Quan" Vignette replied, picking her phone.
" Thankfully I saved it" she said, playing the video.
She gave the phone to Princeton who watched with interest.
"Not bad, but I want something more fancy, more more fancy, I want to give her the shock of her life" he replied
" More fancy?, When are you planning to propose?" Landon asked.
" Tommorow" Princeton replied.
"Why don't we start planning right away?" Vignette smiled.

LATER SAME DAY, FARRIS'S SUITE
"Here darling" Macbeth smiled, settling his meal on the table in front of him.
He smiled brightly as he picked his fork.
"You're still the best chef I've ever come across" he said.

" Everyone in the palace knows except Tanisha herself, I just can't wait to see Kingston's proposal, heard he grows shy when things like this are involved" Macbeth giggled.
" Of course he should, all his life he has been a gangster, a fighter, the alpha, so it'll be new" he replied.
" Eat up eat up and let's go check on Tina" Macbeth said.
" Hope you won't say another thing to distract me this time" he said.
" No, enjoy" she gave him a peck again before rushing out.
Farris smiled.
"I'm happy"

PRINCETON'S SUITE
"Dad has been busy since daybreak, I dunno what he's doing" Mina complained.
" Everyone in the palace seems busy except me, why?, Because I'm pregnant?" Tanisha said and Mina laughed, looking at her baby bump.
Even for the fact that she's pregnant, her tummy is not that big, at all, it's a fitting pregnancy.

"Are you jealous right now?" Mina teased.
"I just want him around every time so I'll get to stare at him every minute but he's with the others, are they doing something without me?, What could it be?" Tanisha wondered.
Mina got her pills and gave it to her, she got water and she swallowed them.
"I actually know what they're all planning" Mina said.
Tanisha faced her .
" Really?, What?"
" I'm not allowed to say it but it's one hell of a surprise trust me" she winked.
" I thought we're buddies Mina, tell me already" Tanisha replied.
" No mum, not now" she winked again and smiled when she saw Tina.
She's just coming out of her room.
"Tina!" She exclaimed, rushing to meet her.
She pulled her to the living room and made her sit.

She faced Tina.
"Wanna play with it?" She asked.
She went to her and placed Sweet on her arms but it slipped off when she didn't make any effort to hold it.
Mina carried it again and placed it on her arms, she took her hand and coiled it around the dog.
"You have to hold things so they won't fall, life works that way ok?" Mina smiled, looking at her.
" With Mina around, she'll be fine" Macbeth smiled.

PALACE GARDEN
" It belongs to dad" Landon said, touching the chrysanthemum flowers.
" I never knew this garden existed, there are a whole lot of things I dunno about I guess" Princeton replied.
The flowers in there grew wild already since no one is taking care of it but with the touch of some work, it'll come back to shape.
Vignette and the others just finished brushing off the useless branches and right now they're packing out the cut off parts.

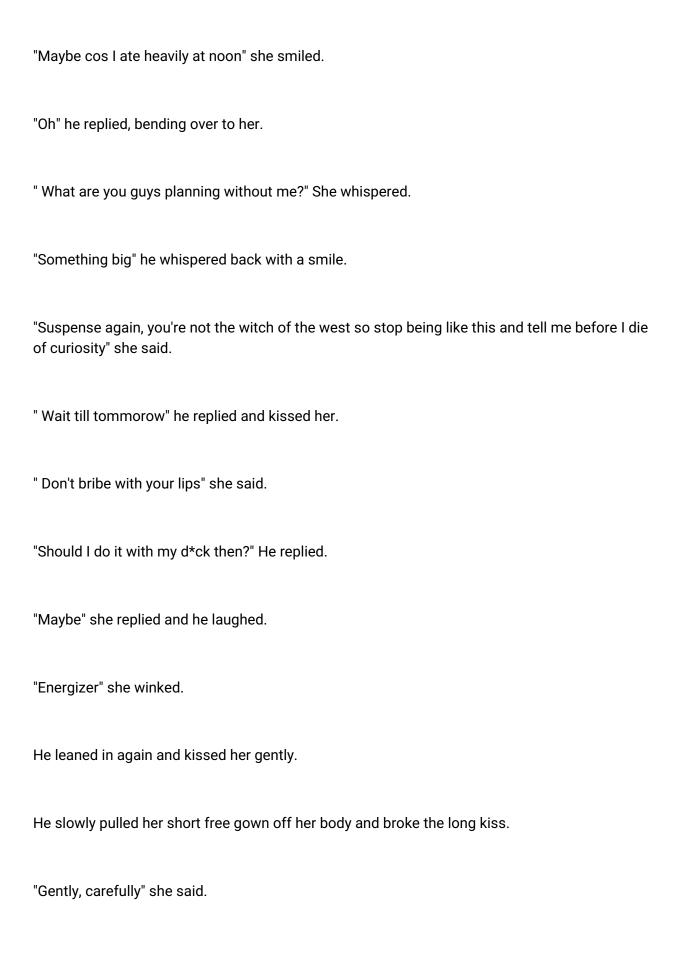

"So after they might have finished, what next?" Princeton asked.
"Don't worry King, leave it all to me, you're proposing to my baby sis so I should do a lot, in fact go away from here, come back in the evening and you'll be shocked, I and Lia will take care of it" Landon said
" I should leave?" Princeton asked.
" Leave already, you need to go master the lines for your proposal, here I wrote out some catchy lines" Landon said, handing him a paper in which the lines were written.

A SHOP
"Are you sure we can shop for decorating materials here?" Brent asked, coming out of the car with Lia.
" Trust me it's specially for decorating equipments" Lia replied.
They hopped into the shop and Brent sighed.
"We came to the right place after all" he smiled.
They started picking out the things they need for the garden decoration.

Lia started snapping selfies as she picked everything.
"If you keep that up then we'll probably be sleeping here tonight" Brent said.
" It's not bad to spend a night with you" she replied, showing her a picture of him.
She snapped him unawares.
"Delete that, I don't look hot enough" he said, trying to take the phone from her but she hid it.
"Trust me nothing amazes me in this picture than your lips, your pink devilish lips" she winked.
" Are you seducing me now?" He asked with a smile.
"Is it working?" She replied.
He chuckled.
"I'm posting the pictures on Instagram" she said.
"You opened an Instagram account already?, How fast" he said.
" I wanna start being social from now on, I'm thinking of going into TikTok too" she replied .
" Good for you, ion like social media, I'm allergic" he said, picking a pin box.

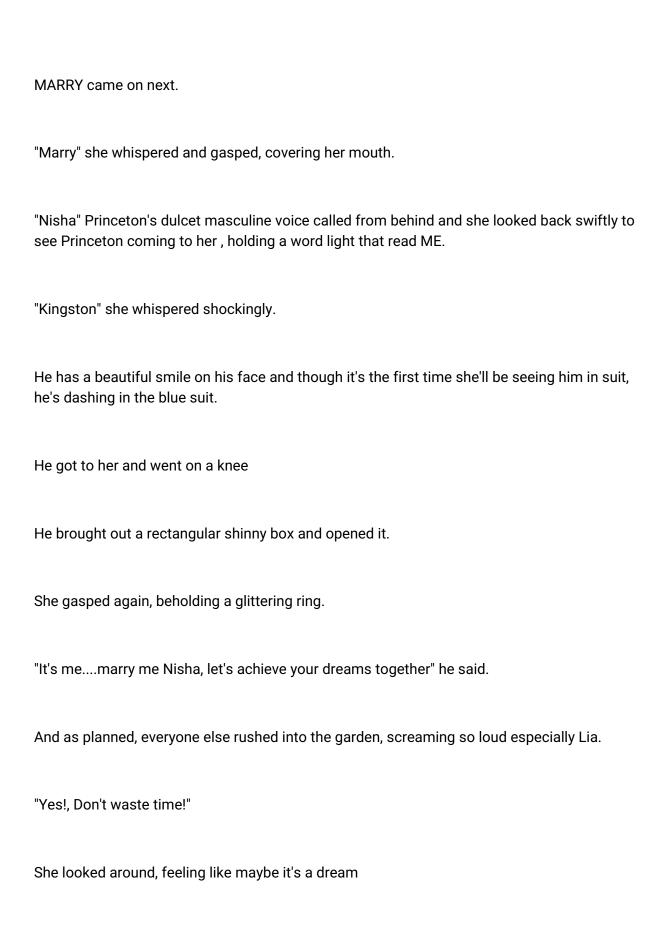

"Of course, but scream my name" he replied, pulling her up.
She knelt on the bed and he held her @ss before penetrating into her through the back.
"Handle me with care" she whispered.
He started moving slowly in and out of her, holding her @ss in place.
"I'll get gentle till you put to bed, I'll endure" he replied and she smiled.
"So after I give birth?" She asked, her nipples hardening.
" I'll do the F word sometimes S very hard, you'll forget your name trust me" he replied.
" I can't wait" she replied, releasing a cute soft moan.
"You have no idea what your moans do to me" he whispered.
" Makes your d*ck harder?" She replied.
" Makes me wanna shift your womb" he said and she giggled.
He made one hard thrust and she gasped, holding the sheets.

She suddenly realized that she's walking on a red carpet and gasped.
The garden is glimmering with bright white lights and the flowers were decorated with coloured lights.
She almost thought it's Christmas.
She never knew this kind of place existed in here and today that she found out, she's dwelling in confusion.
Well, maybe this will be clear soon.
She kept walking in till she got to the middle where the lights got brighter.
She started looking around, wondering what'll happen next.
Suddenly, another light came on but it was actually a word light, used to write something.
WILL.
"Will?" She said, her eyes growing wide.
She waited for another minute before another word light came on, writing YOU.
"You" she muttered.

This is her dream proposal, the kind of proposal she has always wished for And now
And now
And now it came true Jesus!
She faced Princeton who's still on his knees.
"Nisha when I first met you, I didn't know you were gonna be this important to me, not until you started finding parts of me I never knew existed" he said.
Tanisha smiled shyly, blushing like f*k
" I was once as cold as ice butI melted when I
Princeton stopped.
"He forgot the lines I think, Jeez!, Not now please" Landon said.
" I melted when Iwhen I saw your bellybutton" Princeton said and everyone laughed.
" What the hell" Landon giggled.
" He's so dramatic" Matilda laughed.

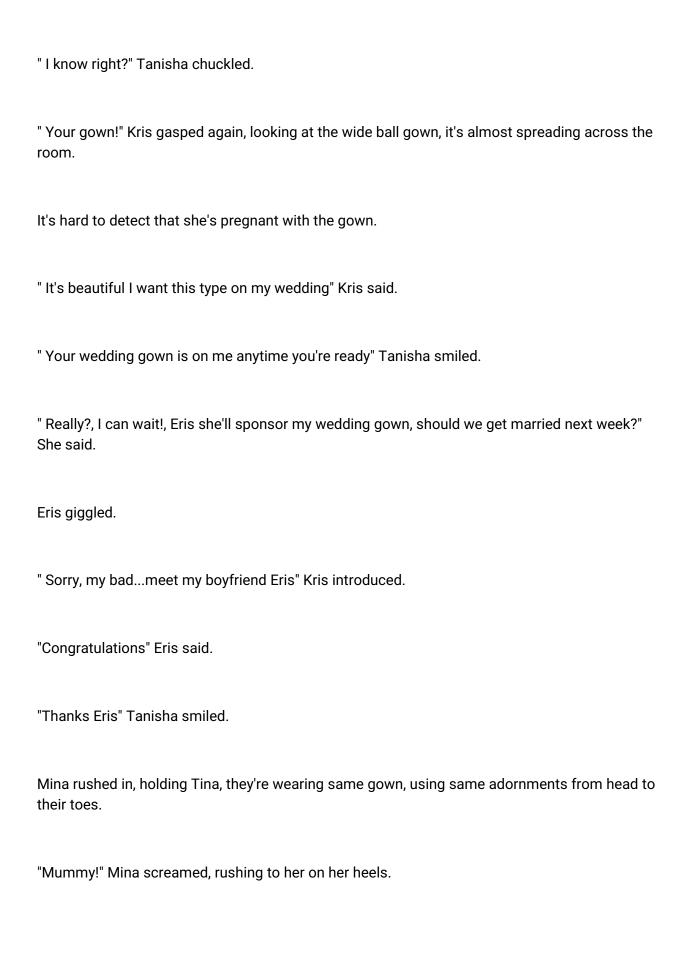

CHAPTER 80
(FINALE & EPILOGUE)

A WEEK LATER
RIVER OAK
A big cruise ship is sitting magnificently on the river, colour white.
Expensive cars of different brands kept stopping beside the river and rich personalities kept stepping out of them.
It's the wedding of Tanisha Masterson and Kingston LeBron.
The ship is full of people already, everyone is holding glasses of drinks, cheering to the happy atmosphere.

Tammy came out of the bride's dressing room and bumped into Kris who came with a guy.

"Big sis" she smiled.

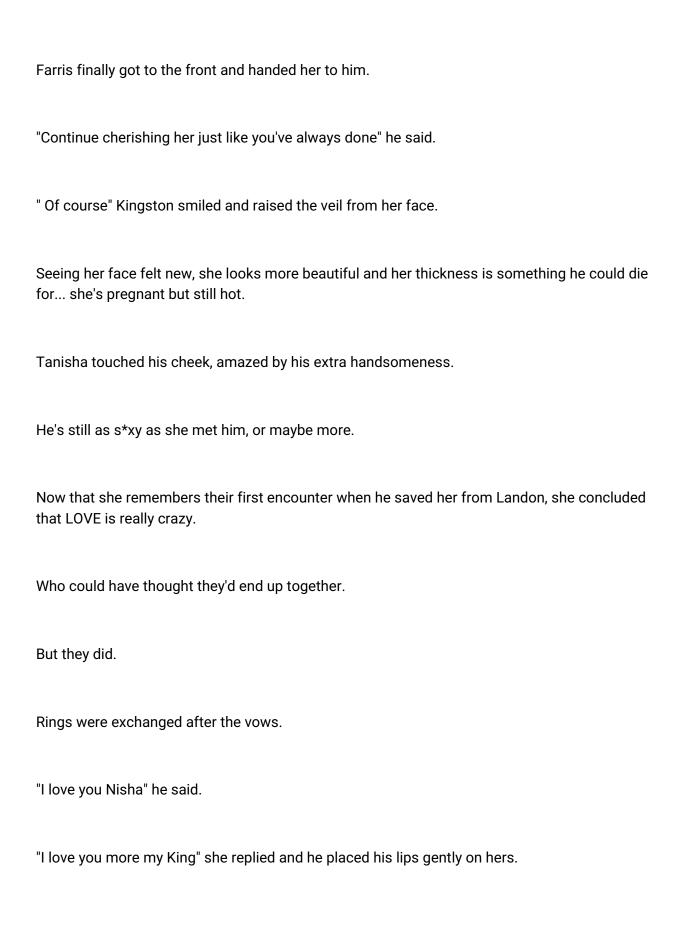

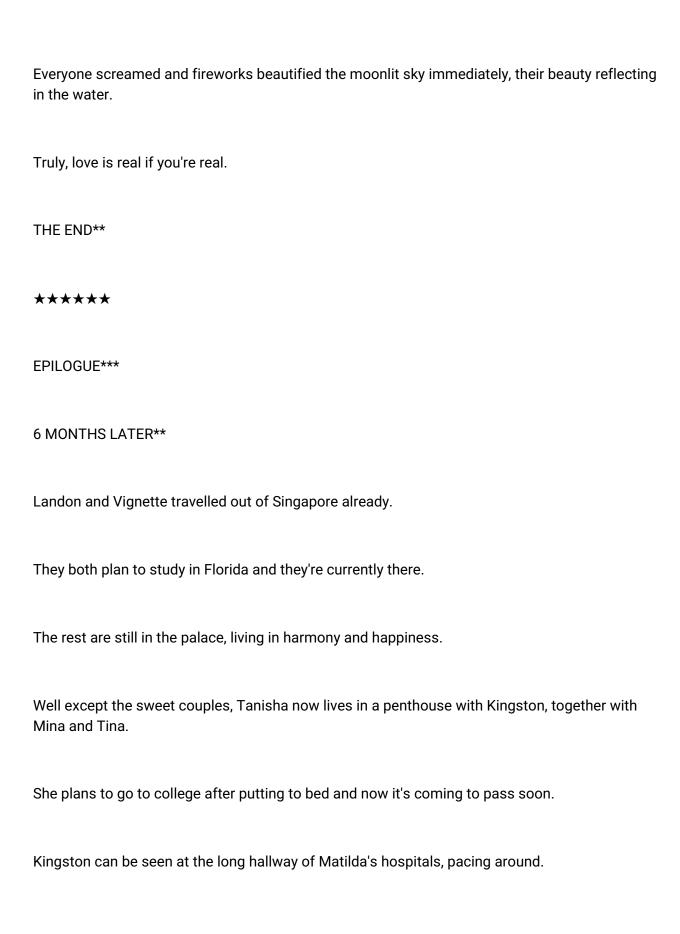

"I almost f*cked up at the proposal, but here there are more people, hope I won't f*ck up again" he said, pacing around.
" We practiced last night, don't tell me you're still feeling scared" Landon said, coming in.
" I'm not, I'm just
"You can do it, if you f*ck up then you're dead" Landon interrupted.
Everyone rushed in at once and Kingston had to hug and hug, receive pecks and laugh at jokes till it was time for the wedding proper.
THIRTY MINUTES LATER
The path has already been decorated with flowers.
Guests are on their feet, clapping as Farris came in with Tanisha, hand in hand.
Kingston is already waiting at the end of the lane, impatiently wishing that she's on his side already.
Though the start was rough and terrible, it was a trial of hardship, a bed of thornsfull of pains.
The devil always tried her best to part them, temptations did it's worse, trials made them look powerless, and pains almost shook them off the strong branch, they didn't cower or fear.
They went through everything together and today, they're starting their life together forever.

Tanisha has been in labor since thirty minutes ago and that thirty minutes seems like two hours.
Mina and Sana are with him, including Farris, Macbeth and Nana.
"She'll be fine, I told you to trust me" Nana said.
"I trust you" he replied.
" It doesn't seem like it, you're restless" Farris said.
"It's normal, she's in there, doing it all alone I'm scared, should I just go in?" He replied and Farris held him.
" Chill dude" he said.
"I'm chilling" Kingston breathed.
" I greatly believe mum is ok, she's giving me two girls,no qualms" Mina said.
" I don't mind, she should just be fine with the babies" he replied.
Matilda came out after ten more minutes, smiling widely.
"What's up!" He asked quickly.

"Two beauties" she replied.
"I knew it!, I knew it two girls!" Mina shouted for joy.
" What of my wife?" He asked.
" She's fine, she delivered without problem, the fastest twins delivery I've ever seen, thanks to you though, her cervix was half ready when she got here" Matilda smiled.
" Yeah, I do f*ck her at least twice a week" he replied and everyone laughed.
" Thanks to that, she'll be ready in the nextsay one hour" Matilda said.
AN HOUR LATER
" Baby" Tanisha smiled when Kingston came in with the others.
She's laying tiredly on the bed with the babies cot beside her.
" I love you Nisha, thanks for doing it safely" Kingston replied, kissing her forehead.
" Thanks to you too, the f*cking helped" she replied and he kissed her lips lightly.
"I won" she said.
"Yes, you winI surrender" he replied and went to the twins who are already getting comments from everyone.

"They're too cute" Macbeth said.
"Family of all girls, you'll be lonely as the only guy" Farris said and Kingston smiled.
" Our Yuna and Sana came back" he said
"I know right?" Tanisha said.
" They're so adorable!, This should be Sana, she has a round face like her" Mina said, pointing at one of the babies.
" This will be Yuna" Tina suddenly said, pointing at the second one.
Everyone faced her shockingly.
"Did you just talk?" Macbeth said.
Kingston quickly knelt in front of her.
" Tina" he called.
" Dad" she replied, her voice is like a baby's
"Damn" he said and hugged her so tight.

THE END
